FAQ's

Is the Lexington warehouse your only facility?

No. We have a warehouse in Prestonsburg, Ky. (God’s Pantry–East) that serves our 11 eastern–most counties.

Is God’s Pantry Food Bank a 501©(3) organization?

God’s Pantry Food Bank is a private, non–profit 501©(3) organization named by its founder, Mim Hunt, years ago. We do not operate as a religious organization nor do we work in conjunction with the government. We receive funding from private institutions and foundations, as well as from individuals, churches and community groups.

2012-03-03 – Severe Storms Pound Kentucky

The community of West Liberty was devistated by tornadoes on Friday, March 2. Click here to see photos of the damage.

The American Red Cross is on the scene providing shelter to those who have been effected. We are also providing care and comfort to our first responders. Over the next days we will be conducting damage assessments, distributing clean-up supplies, and conducting mobile feeding.

You can help people affected by disasters like this tornado, as well as countless crises at home and around the world, by making a donation to support American Red Cross Disaster Relief. Your gifts enables the Red Cross to prepare for and provide shelter, food, emotional support and other assistance in response to disasters. Visit redcross.org or call 1-800-REDCROSS. You may also drop off a contribution at any Central Bank or Fifth Third Bank in Central Kentucky.

Services offered: Demographic Served: Survivors, Natural Disaster Impacted Communities; Distribution, Cleaning/Clean Up Supplies (Post Disaster); Food Distribution, Emergency/Disaster, Mobile; Services, Disaster, Post Disaster Needs Assessment; Support for "All" Disasters
Campaigns: 2012 Spring – Tornadoes; American Red Cross; VOAD – Voluntary Organizations Active In Disaster (this Org is a State Level Member)
