7/17/11 Lpar. The following is posted on the Limestone baptist assoc. site:
The Community Disaster Warehouse for Limestone County is now receiving donations. It is located in the RJW building south of the Co Op on Hwy 31 (1968 Hwy 31 South). Many of our member churches have already transferred donations to the warehouse. It will open to those directly affected by the disaster on June 1st. Hours of operation 9 – 5 Monday thru Saturday. To volunteer or for more information on receiving or donating items call the United Way at 256 233–2323.

Our community disaster relief warehouse is in need of immediate help this Friday, June 17 and Saturday June 18. We are open on Friday from 8:30–5 and Saturday 8:30–1. We need at least 6 volunteers on Friday and 6 volunteers on Saturday. If you can help by volunteering a few hours to the entire day, your help would be much appreciated.

Information for working in the warehouse.
1. Close toe shoes
2. Responsible for your lunch (Warehouse closes 12–12:30 on Thursday and Fridays for lunch)
3. Snacks and water are provided.
4. No children allowed to volunteer in the warehouse or assist adults in the warehouse under the age of the 7th grade. It is a warehouse environment and is simply not safe for children.
5. Warehouse not air conditioned, but nicely ventilated and lots of fans.

Please forward to your church email chains and also to any friends or corporations that you think might be willing to assist us in the next two days and also in the coming days. The warehouse will be open Thursday–Saturday for the foreseeable future.

Please respond to this email via email or by calling the number listed below.

Blessings on you!

Donations and Volunteers needed in Limestone County –
May 31, 2011
http://www.waff.com/story/14772839/donations–and–volunteers–needed–in–limestone–county

ATHENS, AL (WAFF) –

So many people are working to rebuild the valley one step at a time. There is still a need for those people and several supplies.

The Limestone Recovery Committee is opening a recovery warehouse to storm victims Wednesday. It's located at 1968 U.S. Hwy 31 South in Athens.

2,500 families in Limestone County applied for some type of assistance after April's storms, 800 of those families were directly hit by a tornado.

Starting in June the doors to the disaster recovery warehouse will open to those in need, but there is still a great need for help.

Volunteer Coordinator Angela McLin shared some of the items they need.

"Some of the items that are really needed are new bedding, new bath towels because there is not enough of those items being donated," said McLin.

There is a lot of space to fill with items in the warehouse. Right now there are plenty of clothes.

"We have an overabundance of used clothing right now," said McLin.

Some extra help is also a high priority.

"The biggest thing is having volunteers available."

McLin says they can sit at the front desk or be personal shoppers for families.

Donated items are drop off only, there is no pick–up.

To volunteer or sign up for assistance, contact the United Way of Limestone County at (256) 233–2323.

Deadly tornados hit the South!

Month Long Food Drive
May 1st – 31st

Six of the Alabama Food Bank Association's eight member food banks are now actively involved in direct support to communities across the state according to David Reaney, the Association president. Fortunately, none of the food bank facilities suffered damage from the storms although the North Alabama Food Bank in Huntsville is currently operating without power. In a planning call with Feeding America disaster services staff on Friday, short term food and water needs were coordinated for the food banks in Tuscaloosa, Montgomery, Birmingham and Huntsville. The first truckloads of water and MRE's from Feeding America's disaster supplies at the Baton Rouge food bank are already enroute to Alabama. The Alabama food banks support over 1,000 church pantries, shelters and community soup kitchens day to day and distributed over 36 million pounds of food in 2010 with a fleet of 15 refrigerated trucks. In the coming weeks the food banks will be working with Feeding America to ensure additional trucks, staff and food is provided to assist communities across Alabama.

A list of food banks in Alabama can be found at alfoodbanks.org or at the Feeding America link found to the left.

Food donors play a key role in the success of the Food Bank. Each donation, no matter how large or small, plays a significant part in helping us do so much for those who are in need.

To DONATE PRODUCTS, contact Donna at 334–821–9006 or ddemous@foodbankofeastalabama.com
To ARRANGE FOR PICK–UP, contact Donna or Earl at 334–821–9006 or ddemous@foodbankofeastalabama.com
To DROP OFF PRODUCT, click here for directions.

The Food Bank is the central collection facility in East Central Alabama. This means that when you donate to the Food Bank, you will be helping MANY food assistance organizations. You can feel good knowing that your food donations will be handled safely and fairly. We have the storage capability to store:

400 dry pallets
15 refrigerated pallets
124 frozen pallets
a sorting room to check product for dates, quality and damage we have the staff to handle donated product including a forklift and driver to unload 4 receiving docks
we have access to vehicles to safely transport food donations
All of the organizations that receive food from us are carefully monitored to ensure that they are properly handling, storing and distributing the food to eligible recipients.

FOOD DRIVES

You can make a huge impact anytime by conducting a food drive. It is simple and easy. Food drives can be held in your neighborhood, office, school, or organization. For information on how to collect or donate food from your drive, contact Donna at 334–821–9006 or by e–mail at ddemous@foodbankofeastalabama.com The Food Bank will provide barrels for your food drive and pick them up at your request.

Ideas to enhance your food drive:

Establish a goal for your drive
Assign and oversee support functions (distribution of materials, publicity, handling the food)
Provide each donor with a bag to fill and return with food items
Publicize the suggested food list (or attach it to the collection bag)

Update people on the progress of the drive.
Visually display the food that has been collected
Put posters up in visible locations by a coffee machine or next to the time clock
Decorate collections boxes/barrels
Designate a special day on which to bring food
Use slogans that relate to your company/school
Give prizes for innovation or amount of food collected
Get the company to match the donated food in some way, such as donating a turkey for every 100 pounds of food collected by the employees
Hold an event, meeting or party where admission is cans of food
Let the media know that you are conducting a food drive
Invite a staff member from the Food Bank to address your group

Most needed food drive items:

Peanut butter
Canned meats (tuna, salmon, chicken, etc.)
Canned stews and soups
Canned fruits and vegetables
Baked beans
100% fruit juices
Baking mix, muffin mix
Cereals
Rice/pasta/spaghetti

Tornado Disaster Response Update from Rev. Matt Lacey
Rev. Matt Lacey

I have been overwhelmed with the hundreds of phone calls and emails I have received asking how folks can help during the recovery process. God truly moves through and with us during these times. Today we have begun to distribute relief through the various districts, and we are making some great progress in evaluating everything. We are currently establishing a network of "home base" churches in affected areas to assist in storing supplies, staging volunteers, and housing those affected. If your church may be interested in this, please let me know by emailing me at mlacey @ northalabamaumc.org.

I encourage you to follow the conference website, or find North Alabama missions on Facebook at www.facebook.com/ missionsnal

Please understand that I am, quite literally, fielding hundreds of phone calls, and the best way to reach me is through email at this point with that specific information.

We expect to begin organizing and dispatching UMCOR Emergency Response Trained [ERT} individuals at the beginning of next week. If you have been ERT trained, here are the criteria which we are asking you to follow:

Team leaders MUST have a valid UMCOR ERT badge in the last 3 years. Team members must have a valid conference or UMCOR ERT badge in the last 5 years. To volunteer, please visit this site to register. We are taking these criteria very seriously due to the nature of the damage of these massive storms.

If you are not UMCOR ERT trained and wish to be trained, there will be two trainings offered this Saturday.

– Saturday, April 30 at Alabaster First UMC from 8:30am to 5:30pm. There will be a small cost for background checks ($11 which you pay directly) and may be some small cost for materials. There is a limit of 60 people for this training. To register, contact Rev. Mike Edmondson at mtedmondson @ aol.com , ASAP.

–Saturday, April 30 at Cottondale UMC from 8am to 5pm. The cost is $35. To register please contact Rev. John Hassell at cumc@dbtech.net . There is a limit of 40 people for this training.

Please remember that we are a connectional system, and are going through the proper channels to insure everyone's safety and well–being. If you have questions to direct to myself, or anyone on the disaster response team, please be patient as we are trying our best to establish a system through which folks can work.

If your church wants to give an offering, please give through UMCOR's website by clicking here, or making a check out to the North Alabama Conference labeled with the Advance number 3021326.

At this time, we are getting a handle on what supplies are needed. I do know that various churches are collecting supplies. Right now, different supplies are needed in different areas. While we may not guarantee they will get to an United Methodist church, we can guarantee that they will be given out somewhere to someone in need. At this time I am hesitant to post a list of "needed supplies" because we have not yet developed a network to store and distribute those items. Local UMCs may continue to collect items, if they are able to store them, and we will make use of what we have.

This is a trying time for many, and we are called to, with God at our side, help to heal a hurting world. We will release any further information as we receive it. God Bless.

– Matt

You Can Be A Volunteer
Our UMCOR kits are often one of the most important services we provide to those in need after a disaster. Learn how you, your church or volunteer group can help. Give us a call 256–341–9961 or email us for more information. https://umdisasterwarehouse.com/volunteering/

If you would like to volunteer for the U.M. Disaster Warehouse please review the calendar below then fill out and submit the form below it.
We have tasks for everyone and anyone. We do have some tasks for folks with limited mobility. Our volunteers range from youth to retirees. The warehouse itself is not climate controlled, however we do have some tasks in a climate controlled area. Also, bring a camera. You will have fun! If it is a group coming in the winter, a pound cake would be graciously shared with all. We can provide the coffee, plates and utensils. We always have cold bottled water available. Just about any type of food for lunch is available nearby the warehouse. Campers and RV's are welcome at Point Mallard Camp Ground, just three–and–a–half miles away. (Nice full hook ups.) Thanks, U.M. Disaster Warehouse Staff 256–341–9961 U.M. Disaster Warehouse is located at 3220 Hwy 31 South, Building "F", Decatur, AL 35603.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR DONATIONS! Give us a call at 256–341–9961

Wiregrass Organizations Gear Up to Help Those in Need after Gustav

Donations are needed to help meet local disaster needs
Posted: 5:23 PM Aug 28, 2008
Last Updated: 5:23 PM Aug 28, 2008

As Tropical Storm Gustav continues to make its way toward the Gulf Coast, local organizations are gearing up for the possible aftermath.

These groups are depending on you to help them make a difference.

Hurricane season is here and that means it's time to make sure you and your family are prepared for when a storm hits.

Susan Holmes with the American Red Cross said, "Prepare yourself ahead of time in case you get trapped in your house by a tree or the power is out. Be sure you have what you and your family need to sustain you for a day or two."

Families in need often times look to non–profit organizations for food and supplies after a storm hits. Those organizations count of the public to donate those items so they can distribute them after a disaster.

David Hanks with the Wiregrass Area Food Bank said, "Mainly we handle food products, but during a disaster we need anything; tarps, bedding, blankets and sheets because people who have been affected don't have anything."

Even if the affects of Gustav aren't felt here at home, resources from the Wiregrass will go to help those in need.

"We'd be a resource if there's a storm that hits in that area," Hanks said. "We were a resource during Katrina to Biloxi and Louisiana."

Blood is always an immediate need during a disaster. Both Lifesouth and the Red Cross are hoping to increase their supplies before Gustav makes landfall.

Here is the information you need to know to help those in need. If you'd like to donate non–perishable food items or disaster supplies you can visit the food bank on Twitchell Road in Dothan.

For information on how you can better prepare for disasters, visit redcross.org.

And, if you'd like to volunteer or need help after a disaster, you can call 211 to get in contact with numerous agencies.

E–mail: wauwfb@aol.com

The Wiregrass Area United Way Food Bank is a non–profit hunger relief charity that solicits and collects surplus food. The Food Bank stores and distributes this food to agencies primarily feeding the needy in a five–county service area that includes Houston, Henry, Dale, Geneva and Coffee counties, as well as parts of northwest Florida and southwest Georgia.

We are an independent non–profit, with paid staff, volunteers, and a board of directors. Operating from an 18,000 square food warehouse with refrigerated storage, and networked through America?s Second Harvest (the nations food bank network), the Food Bank can access food and other assorted grocery products, and operate at a minimal cost. As a result, member non–profit agencies that utilize the Food Bank are able to conduct their food programs in a cost effective manner. No donated food is ever sold by the Food Bank or by any member agency. Food recipients incur no cost for food assistance.

A shared maintenance fee (SMF) assessed to affiliate agencies helps to support the Wiregrass Area United Way Food Bank. Additional financial support is generously donated from churches, civic clubs, businesses and concerned citizens.

Who we serve:

Food is distributed free by affiliate agencies to the hungry, the elderly and children either through on–site meals or by emergency food boxes.

The ultimate beneficiaries of the Food Bank are the people who receive the food we distribute, though much could be said of the benefits received by volunteers, donors and supporters.

Some programs which benefit are:

Churches
Food Pantries
Soup Kitchens
Group Homes
Assisted–living Homes
Half–way Houses
Day Care Centers
Senior Citizen Programs
Developmental Centers
Emergency Shelters
Neighborhood Centers
Nutrition Centers
Health Care Centers and Programs

How can I help?

By the People, For the People!

Many needs exist throughout our area. Daily the physical needs of the citizens change. As we make progress toward recovery, the needs of Hackleburg will change as well. However certain basic needs will be with us for a long time.
Supplies

We will need supplies ranging from food, clothes, household essentials, storage totes, etc. for possibly a long time. The location of delivery and the methods of distribution is getting better each day. To make the process work the best we have two different locations. In Hamilton (800 Bexar Avenue East, Hamilton, AL 35570) we have our Storehouse Warehouse for supplies of every kind (non–clothing). This warehouse allows us to receive supplies and organize them to be distributed. In Hackleburg (at an old manufacturing plant) we have a distribution location. This is also where other services are set up like showers, washing of cloths and other needs. This location is for the survivors of the tornadoes and not for those dropping things off. We need to keep this location strictly for those needing to receive a service or supplies. This system is working and continuing to improve.

Keep a check on our facebook and our “Updates and Information” Page to get the latest info possible. You can also subscribe on the right side of this page to have updates emailed to you as soon as they are posted.

Volunteers

Possibly the greatest need is hands. Helping Hands. The specific task will change as we move forward.

However we will need:

* general labor
* skilled craftsmen
* equipment and equipment operators
* and anything else

These volunteers will need to go to the VOAD (Volunteer Organizations Active Disaster) check in location at the corner of Hwy. 172 and Culpepper Road to register as a volunteer and be assigned a location to work. There are several signs leading you to this location, no matter if you are coming from the north or the south.

Another type of volunteer we are in need of is those working the Storehouse Distribution Warehouse in Hamilton. This is where we receive items. We are working volunteers in shifts to allow the most work to be complete. The morning shirt begins at 9 AM and ends at 1 PM. The evening shift begins at 12 PM and ends at 6 PM (or earlier if we are complete). The first few minutes of arriving you will assigned a location to help serve those in need from unloading, to sorting, to preparing care boxes. We could use your help to distribute the great amount of supplies to those in need.

As already stated please stay in contact with us online to learn the changing needs and ways to help both.

Donate Money

While many are able to help, others cannot or would like to do more. There has been great financial loss and we hope to help as many as possible. Donate to this charity to help the citizens of this community.

Volunteers Needed!

Ok folks, Here is the latest in our volunteer needs that will help us the greatest. We have our ‘The Storehouse’– Warehouse that holds all of our supplies from food to cleaning supplies. This is the location in Hamilton (800 Bexar Avenue East Hamilton, AL 35570). We moved here from Hackleburg to have a larger space and better distribute since the town of Hackleburg was left with few buildings the days following the tornado. We have been distributing items and unloading incoming supplies, however we could use two types of volunteers.

1– Warehouse and Distribution Workers. We are going to try to run two shifts (or you can work both if you want). 9 AM to 1 PM and 12 PM (noon) to 6 PM. If you can work either of these any day(s) it would be a great help. Once you arrive at the Hamilton location the volunteer group will be distributed to the different areas (unloading, sorting, packing care boxes, and specific need location) to work the shirt. If it is possible to arrive at the beginning of one of the two shifts it will greatly help us in getting everyone working for the greater cause the fastest. Again 9 AM to 1 PM and 12 PM to 6 PM.

2– Warehouse Mass unloading and organizing. On Thursday night May 12th at 4 PM and Saturday afternoon we are asking for 30 to 40 people to show up at the Warehouse to help us unload the trailers that have been stored at another location while we got this warehouse up and running. Please help us spread the word. We want to make sure we are distributing all the supplies and not just the most recent received. People are beginning to share and report their needs more and we need everything easily assessable.

Thank you.

Supplies and Volunteers
May 11, 2011

Monday I had the privlege of walking through all the delivery points of our system and really getting a feel of how it is going beyond phone calls. It took time but it showed me what we are doing great at and what we can do better.. and we are working hard on making it all better.

SUPPLIES

We are ask daily “What is the top needs in supplies?” The top needs are as follows directly from our warehouse and distribution location.

1– Cleaning Supplies – this includes equipment (tools, rakes, etc.), gloves, cleaning chemicals, brooms, etc. If you use it cleaning inside or out it is needed.

2– Non– Perishable Food– we do not need bread, or things that can spoil. We are starting to get more food request and we know this could go on for 6 plus months.

3– Baby Items– we have some baby items but they are starting to go faster. We want to make sure babies are taken care of everyday.

Volunteers

To the many who are asking “Do you still need volunteers?” YES is the loudest I can reply. We need you today, tomorrow, and sadly months from now. As always we tell you to come into town and follow the signs to staging. It is on the corner of Hwy .172 and Culpepper Road. However, if you are not bringing equipment or a large crew we now have another option for you. In our Supplies Warehouse in Hamilton (800 Bexar Ave. East) there is a constant need in organizing supplies and preparing it to go out to those in need. Please comment or message me your information and I will connect you with the key contact.

Montgomery Area Food Bank and its' Partner Distribution Organizations respond

The Montgomery Area Food Bank's Disaster Relief efforts extend to our new service area in Tuscaloosa. Loads of food and health/comfort items out of our Food Bank's Disaster Relief reserves have been sent to our Partner Distribution Organization, West Alabama Food Bank and are being used locally in Elmore and Tallapoosa counties. Truckloads of goods are also being sent from our corporate offices of Feeding America.

The need in our service area is widespread with the greatest needs occuring in Tuscaloosa, Elmore, and Tallapoosa counties.

How You Can Help

Anyone or group that wishes to help can do so in a number of ways, like donating food or funds to our Food Bank. The items that these folks need are mostly ready–to–eat foods (pop–top canned foods are great!), juices, and other food not requiring refrigeration. Diapers would be great to have also.

One important lesson we learned in the aftermath of Katrina is NOT to send any items to any disaster area unless you know the agency you are heading for and they have volunteers to manage the distribution.

Do YOU Need Disaster Relief Food Assistance?

MAFB Disaster Response Emergency Food Assistance continues to be available today, Saturday, in Eclectic, located in the warehouse on Main Street, across from the old police station. Gretchen Kindrick is the MAFB contact at the location.

This food assistance is specifically for all VICTIMS of the recent disaster. If you or someone you know, needs food assistance but are not a disaster victim, please call 334–263–3784 for a referral in your area.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

For every $25 donation to the Montgomery Area Food Bank, we can distribute up to 160 pounds of food. This would feed a family of three for two weeks or an elderly couple for a month. You can MAKE A DONATION by credit card online by using the link: https://interland3.donorperfect.net/weblink/weblink.aspx?name=mafb&id=1

Even though fully half of the households that visit food pantries and soup kitchens have at least one member who is working, their wages are too low to meet all expenses. Quite often what gets left out is food.

Your donations of food make a difference in enabling our Food Bank to get more food to the needy more frequently. Your school, business, church or family could sponsor a Food Drive. You can volunteer at the Food Bank by contacting Vicky Manley at VickyManley@earthlink.net to find out about volunteer opportunities.

Your monetary contributions can be designated to support a specific Food Bank program. Our Senior Supplement Program, targets the needs of the elderly by providing food supplement boxes monthly, and our Mobile Pantry Program involves the delivery of a Food Bank truckload of products to a specified site where food is distributed directly to qualified clients.

SPONSOR A FOOD DRIVE!

Our Warehouse
Our Food Bank operates from a 46,200 square foot warehouse with an additional 7,500 square foot of auxilliary storage. We are capable of storing dry, frozen and refrigerated products.

Our Vehicles
Our Transportation Division includes a 24' Freightliner FL–80 with a 54,000 lb load capacity, a 26' Freightliner FL–70 with a 26,000 lb load capacity, an additional 24' refrigerated truck with a 25,000 lb load capacity, a 15' Dodge Van with a 4,174 lb load capacity, and a 10' refrigerated truck used for local refrigerated pick–ups and deliveries.

The Mobile Pantry Program is a direct distribution program. The concept is simple. Agencies of the Food Bank choose a site and a date for the event. They advertise it to their clients, and on the appointed day, the Food Bank truck arrives with a large assortment (at least 10,000–12,000 pounds – 10 pallets) of nutritious foods, including fresh produce. The clients receive foods they need at no cost to them. For more information on how your organization can conduct a Mobile Pantry, contact Jolene Kearns at 263–3784 or email her at jolenekearns@earthlink.net. .

The Senior Supplement Program is an enrollment program for persons aged 60 and above, who are not able to obtain sufficient food for a healthy diet with their own resources. The clients receive the boxes of non–perishable food, weighing 25–35 pounds, during the third week of the month. Additional foods, including a ham or turkey, are provided in November and December.

The Bay Area Food Bank has prepared its warehouse by stocking enough food for relief and preparing for the possible not–so–calm after the storm. But due to reports from the National Hurricane Center that make the Food Bank community in the middle of Gustav's path, the Bay Area Food Bank is working with America's Second Harvest and Food Bank's across the Gulf Coast to prepare for the worst–case scenario.

The Food Bank is a member of America's Second Harvest, the Nation's Food Bank Network. And, because the Food Bank serves 24 counties across over 300 miles of the Mississippi, Alabama, and Florida coast, this hurricane has the potential to have an impact on its service area.

The 205 Food Banks in the America's Second Harvest network have already worked together following the Midwest flooding and Hurricane Dolly and stand ready to assist on the Gulf Coast if needed.

DEADLY TORNADOES AND STORMS HIT ALABAMA

Devastation is severe with many fatalities

Six of the Alabama Food Bank Association's eight member food banks are now actively involved in direct support to communities across the state according to David Reaney, the Association president. Fortunately none of the food bank facilities suffered damage from the storms although the North Alabama Food Bank in Huntsville is currently operating without power. In coordination with Feeding America disaster services staff, short term food and water needs are being coordinated for the food banks in Tuscaloosa, Montgomery, Birmingham and Huntsville. Bottled water, MREs, snacks and staples are being distributed. The Alabama food banks support over 1,000 church pantries, shelters and community soup kitchens every day and distributed over 36 million pounds of food in 2010.

In the coming weeks the food banks will be working with Feeding America to ensure additional trucks, staff and food is provided to assist communities across Alabama.

In a press release, the Rice Depot says they have flood buckets available and emergency meal kits for those affected. Disaster workers are also on the scene to help in any way they can.

They are also asking for volunteers to assemble disaster kits and other emergency supplies. An array of suggested emergency kit contents is listed here:

Disaster Relief Kits

Arkansas Rice Depot distributes Disaster Relief kits to disaster victims to help them get through a very tough time. Kits are also given to children in need whose parents don't provide their basic needs. The kits provide comfort and a boost in self–confidence during what can be a very dark time. Your group can help us by assembling kits. We provide disaster victims with two types of kits: health kits and meal kits. Health kits provide soap, toothpaste and other personal hygiene supplies that may be lost in a storm. Food kits provide shelf–stable food so that a family can eat when they're stuck in a motel with only a microwave, or working long hours at their property with no time for a meal break.

Our mission is to distribute as much food to our distributor/clients as we can, with the amount of labor and warehouse space that our income can support. Every single day, we are trying to increase our income, to pay for the extra labor, ever increasing fuel costs and equipment maintenance. We are in the pipeline to supply as much food to the children, elderly and homeless that can be accomplished under our financial structure. FIND is a non–profit, community–based organization. It is committed to providing food to people who struggle to feed themselves and their families. It is also committed to maximizing public awareness of hunger while working towards long–term solutions to hunger and poverty.

Supporting Beliefs:

We believe every single person in every Coachella Valley neighborhood offers strengths, capacities, abilities and gifts. Hunger and poverty diminish a person's capacity to be effective in their family, neighborhood and society. Governments also have the legal and moral responsibility to ensure all Coachella Valley residents have adequate food necessities;

We must help the needy, before it becomes a real need.

Collecting and using surplus food is in itself a worthwhile activity.

People from every walk of life are necessary to fulfill our mission.

This should include nutritionally adequate and culturally appropriate food.

Solutions to poverty will only be found once people are invited to the table.

We should work with the community to seek solutions to the causes of hunger.

We have a responsibility to be leaders in combating hunger and poverty.

The Food Bank was founded in 1975 by people who saw the need for a central clearinghouse for food donations. The Food Bank was incorporated as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization (Federal Tax ID# 94–2418054) at that time. Back then, the Food Bank had two employees, one truck, and a trailer for storing food. The driver would pick up day old bread from Safeway and return it to the trailer, where people from area churches would pick it up and distribute it from their food pantries at church.

We were certified by the America?s Second Harvest Food Bank Network in 1981. In 1995, the Solano Food Bank merged with the Contra Costa Food Bank, so we became the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano.

Since then, we have grown as the problem of hunger in our counties has grown. We presently serve over 82,000 people every month, and distribute about 8 million pounds a year, enough food for 6.4 million meals! The Food Bank employs 36 staff members in Contra Costa and Solano counties. But the work could not get done without the help of the hundreds of volunteers that donate their time to coordinate food drives, sort and pack the food, and help distribute it to their hungry neighbors.

To learn more about the Food Bank and the work we do or to find out how you can help, please explore this website, email info@foodbankccs.org, or give us a call at (925) 676–7543.

NEWS RELEASE: Operation USA to Aid Domestic Relief Efforts in Wake of Hurricane Sandy

OPERATION USA TO AID HURRICANE SANDY RELIEF EFFORTS IN US

LOS ANGELES, CA (October 30, 2012)—Los Angeles–based International relief agency Operation USA announced today that it will provide emergency aid where needed across the Eastern Seaboard in the wake of Hurricane Sandy.

The storm, which has left millions of people without power and caused flooding through a wide swath of the nation's most populous region, has been described as the worst "superstorm" in 100 years, colliding with cold weather fronts from the west and north. Threatening roughly 50 million people in the eastern third of the country. President Obama has signed the state of emergency declaration in the District of Columbia, Massachusetts, New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Rhode Island and New Jersey.

Operation USA is ready to send essential aid where needed—from emergency, shelter and cleaning supplies, to assisting community health clinics restore services to best serve their communities.

The agency has previously announced that it is working to aid relief efforts in storm impacted Haiti and Cuba—focusing its efforts on providing access to safe water, support for long–time hospital and clinic partners. Operation USA staff in Haiti are assessing shelter, safe water, food and other needs.

HOW TO HELP:
Donate online at www.opusa.org, by phone at 1.800.678.7255 or, by check made out to Operation USA, 7421 Beverly Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90036. Text AID to 50555 and donate $10 to Operation USA's disaster relief efforts.

Corporate donations of bulk quantities of disaster–appropriate supplies are also being requested. United and Continental air miles can also be donated to Operation USA through United Airlines Charity Miles program at www.united.com.

NEWS RELEASE: Tsunami Hits Japan After Massive Earthquake–OpUSA Prepares Aid

OPERATION USA TO SEND EMERGENCY AID TO JAPAN FOLLOWING 8.9 MAGNITUDE EARTHQUAKE

LOS ANGELES, CA (March 11, 2011)—Los Angeles–based International relief agency Operation USA announced today that it will prepare to aid Japan as necessary as part of the relief efforts following the earthquake that hit last night.

The 8.9 quake, the most powerful recorded in Japan's history, struck 250 miles north–east of Tokyo, trigerring a massive Tsunami. The earthquake hit at 1446 local time at a depth of about 24km, causing great human loss and extensive damage to infrastructure.

Although the death toll is unclear, the first police reports indicate that approximately 300 bodies have been found. Many people are still missing.

Tsunami warnings have been issued across the Pacific to North and South America.
Operation USA appeals for donations of funds from the public. The organization also calls for bulk corporate donations of health care materials, which it will ship to the region from its base in the Port of Los Angeles.

HOW TO HELP:

NEWS RELEASE: Earthquake Strikes Chile–OpUSA Prepares Aid

OPERATION USA TO SEND EMERGENCY AID TO CHILE FOLLOWING 8.8 MAGNITUDE EARTHQUAKE

LOS ANGELES, CA (February 27, 2010)—Los Angeles–based International relief agency Operation USA announced today that it will send medical aid to Chile as necessary as part of the relief efforts following the earthquake that hit last night.

The 8.8 quake hit off the coast of central Chile, about 200 miles southwest of Santiago, the capital. First reports count over 100 people dead, with numerous collapsed buildings and roads, phones and power grids—as well as tsunami warnings triggered as far away as Hawaii and Japan.

Operation USA appeals for donations of funds from the public. The organization also calls for bulk corporate donations of health care materials, which it will ship to the region from its base in the Port of Los Angeles.

HOW TO HELP:

HAITI-NEWS FROM THE FIELD: 30 days later… A letter from Fr. Rick Frechette
On the one month anniversary of the January 12 earthquake, we wanted to share this letter from one of our local partners in Haiti–doctor and community organizer Father Rick Frechette. He and his small team have built an orphanage, medical clinics, street schools, and a pediatric hospital (St. Damien's Pediatric Hospital/St. Luke's Schools) that Operation USA is proud to support.

In Kind/Product Donations
One of the most compelling images of a relief operation is an air drop into a remote region of a poor country, or an area ravaged by natural or man–made disaster. That sturdy iconic crate carries far more than urgently needed supplies. It brings hope for the recipients—made possible by the generous corporations providing materials and support to make the delivery possible.

Operation USA's logo of a DC–3 airplane plays to that symbolism, but behind the symbol is the day–to–day running of a materials–based relief program and the importance of what goes inside the box. Our material aid program is dependent on listening to the needs of the communities we work with; reliable partners at home and abroad; and sending aid in the most expeditious and economical way. Over the past 30 years, we have matched materials with real–time needs around the world—delivering $350 million in relief and development aid to 99 countries.

Operation USA maintains a 24,000 sq. ft California Board of Pharmacy–licensed warehouse at the Port of Los Angeles and a 5,000 sq. ft warehouse in the Port of San Francisco where donated items are received, staged and stored. Our shipments typically include a range of donated materials, such as medical supplies and equipment, medicines and vitamins, education and shelter materials.

The Food Bank of El Dorado County is a local, non–profit food assistance agency working to eliminate hunger through food distribution, education and advocacy in cooperation with the community.

Vision Statement:
All individuals of El Dorado County who face hunger will have the opportunity to secure nutritionally adequate food at all times.

History:

The Food Bank of El Dorado County was established in 2000 by founder Mike Sproull and a handful of compassionate community activists. El Dorado County was one of a few counties in California that did not contain a full service food bank. From a grassroots humble beginning, teamed with the community, the Food Bank is now the largest collaborative charity in El Dorado County. The Food Bank provides food assistance on a daily basis in partnership with over 50 local emergency food response agency sites including abused and abandoned children's homes, battered women's shelters, senior centers, local food pantries, soup kitchens, maternity homes and more.

In 2006 alone our volunteers, financial supporters, product donors, and charity network made it possible for us to distribute over $2.5 million of food for the hungry of El Dorado County.

The San Diego Furniture Bank is now open to the public. Where anyone can be a member.

Please visit our member page for more information and an application. Any individual, family, agency, church, or group can apply for membership status. The San Diego Furniture Bank will be opening its doors on December 11 for donations. Please check back often as we will be posting our inventory on this web site in the future. We hope to start placing donations with families affected by the fires once our inventory is in place.

Temporary Warehouse Hours: Wednesday–Friday 12 – 5 PM. Closed Sunday–Tuesday until volunteer staffing is in place. Office hours: TBA

Immediate Need: Delivery & pick–up van. If you have one to donate please call Stacy at 760.535.9133 ASAP

OPERATIONAL PLAN
Under the direction of our Director of Operations, Derek Paulo, SDFB will sort, stock and warehouse all new and used donated furniture, appliances and electronics. SDFB will need to pay for the shipping and handling costs to receive the furniture from its donor base and therefore in order to cover all of the expenses incurred to operate the furniture bank the SDFB will attach a proportional share of the “shipping & handling” costs to each piece of furniture. Victims of natural disasters are exempt from these “shipping” costs and will participate in our grant program. SDFB Members only pay the “shipping & handling fees” attached to each piece of donated furniture.

FURNISHING HOPE GRANT
Individuals and families who qualify for the "Furnishing HOPE Grant" (fire victims) will not be charged the “shipping & handling” fees and will receive free delivery to their new home.

Individuals not referred to SDFB by a partnering agency and who do not qualify for the “Furnishing HOPE Grant” will be offered the opportunity to join SDFB for one year for a suggested donation of $20. The “Furnishing HOPE Grant Fund” will be used to reimburse SDFB and its partners for their shipping & handling fees associated with products that have been donated to qualifying clients.

SDFB will have a complete web based shopping cart online to display pictures of our products for agencies and families wishing to hold specific items prior to entering the SDFB warehouse.

SDFB Membership
SDFB is open to the public, anyone can be a member. “First Priority Memberships” are given to those affected by all natural disasters. Individuals and families in need of low cost furniture are always welcome. No one is ever turned away for the lack of finances.

Members are given the privilege of belonging to and supporting a non–profit organization dedicated to assisting those in need in their time of need. Members may obtain as many donated items as needed throughout their membership contract. Members are encouraged to share in the “shipping & handling” expenses on a per item basis, thereby ensuring that the SDFB is there when the community needs it the most.

Donation Requirements
SDFB will not accept drop–off donations of any kind.

SDFB will gratefully accept any and all furniture, appliances and electronics in excellent condition.

In order to ensure that our clients receive quality furniture we will send a SDFB volunteer who has been trained to inspect, select and pick–up “grade A” items only.

SDFB will ask for a suggested donation of $20 to cover gas.

Services offered: Donations, Drop–Off, Collection Site Location; Donations, Pickup, Pick Up Service, Large Item Donation Pickup; Furniture, Furniture Bank

Food For People, Inc. is designated as the official food bank for Humboldt County. Our mission is:

To provide emergency and supplementary food to those in need.
To improve food access through expanded participation in gleaning and gardening projects.

To conduct advocacy and outreach for local, state and federal food assistance programs and other activities.
To involve low–income households in self–sufficiency programs.
To encourage self–sufficiency in the community as a whole.

At Food for People, we're working hard to feed hungry children through the school year and summer. The "No More Hungry Kids" campaign supports Children's Summer Lunch, Backpacks for Kids and Afterschool Snack programs.

History of Food for People:

Food for People first opened its doors in 1979 as a small food closet. Food distribution grew steadily from those humble beginnings, and over the next 17 years, operations were conducted out of a small local residence, utilizing rented warehouse space a few blocks away. Food was provided for several pantries located throughout the county, in addition to the direct distribution we hosted for those who could make it to the food bank. Access to refrigeration and freezer space was extremely limited. By 1996, we were bursting at the seams and ill–prepared to accommodate the steadily increasing requests for emergency food assistance.

In 1998, thanks to support received through a Community Development Block Grant, a grant from The California Endowment, our Harvest Home capital campaign and the generosity of local citizens, churches, businesses and civic organizations, we were able to purchase and retrofit the 9,000 square foot warehouse in Eureka that now houses our food bank. This space includes a large walk–in cooler and two walk–in freezers.

Community Food Bank (CFB) serves as the center of a vast network of agencies located throughout Fresno, Madera, and Kings counties. These agencies are food pantries, residential shelters, community kitchens, adult and child day care centers, and so much more! Community Food Bank is involved in the solicitation, acquisition, warehousing and distribution of the food that these agencies acquire and serve to those in need. Currently, CFB has 150 member agencies. For information about becoming a member agency and qualifications click here.

Community Food Bank began in May of 1992, with the name Food Opportunities Organization and Distribution, Inc. (or, FOOD, Inc.). It was formed from through the efforts of a steering committee of the United Way. In 1994, FOOD Inc. became the local management agency for the USDA Emergency Assistance Food Program (EFAP). CFB currently manages 50 EFAP sites for Fresno County. In 1995 it merged with Fresh Food Link, and acquired a larger facility. In 1997 FOOD, Inc. became Community Food Bank, and we have continued to grow ever since.

In November of 2005 CFB kicked–off the Mobile Pantry Program. This program directly distributes fresh produce and healthy foods to children, families, families with infants, and the elderly. Eating a healthy diet is very important for the community, this is why our Mobile Pantry Program includes nutrition education in the food distribution.

FROM THE WEBSITE:

For over 40 years the Community Action Partnership of Orange County has worked towards enhancing the quality of life in Orange County by eliminating and preventing the causes and effects of poverty.

We have remained true to our mission “to enhance the quality of life within Orange County by eliminating and preventing the causes and effects of poverty by mobilizing and directing resources to programs that assist, educate, and promote self sufficiency.” The men and women of Community Action Partnership of Orange County are committed to serving the communities where they work and live. They come from all walks of life rallying to support those in need, ending poverty and building stronger communities. Our agency is celebrating 40 years of caring, upholding the values of human dignity and the integrity of compassion.

The Partnership brings together both private and public resources to solve community problems and improve communities by bringing hope and services to the poor. The Partnership provides a variety of emergency services and capacity building programs that enable the poor to meet basic needs and develop the knowledge and skills to move out of poverty. The Partnership believes that poverty in all its forms and manifestations is degrading to the individual and represents a clear threat to the continued health and prosperity of our nation.

Today, we are proud of our staff of over 100 employees and a budget of over $18,000,000 that helps people and changes lives. Each year we serve over 950,000 persons at or below the federal poverty level.

Through controlled and steady growth over the last 31 years, The Foodbank of Southern California is an established organization which successfully melds efficiency of service with a compassion for human caring. The Foodbank of Southern California continues to improve over time, by becoming more efficient and increasing the number of hungry children and families that are served by our organization.

The Foodbank of Southern California works daily to alleviate the damage persistent hunger inflicts on children, seniors, and families by serving as many charitable distribution agencies and securing as many food donations as possible. We continue to be the largest distributor of food in the economically depressed areas of Watts, South Central Los Angeles, Compton and North Long Beach.

The Foodbank's food distribution programs are accomplished by soliciting wholesome donations of nutritious food from the food industry and channeling these products to charitable community organizations supporting the needy. The Foodbank directs its efforts towards obtaining, storing and transferring large donations that the service agencies would independently be unable to handle due to logistics of transportation, space and refrigeration. The facility includes a 24,000 square foot warehouse with freezer and refrigeration space. It can hold 4.5 million pounds of food at any given time. There are over 200 corporate food donors, from producers and wholesalers to national corporations, who donate their nutritious food to The Foodbank.

* The Foodbank leads the way as the most cost effective distributor of food in the entire nation. In its 31st year, The Foodbank is operating at peak efficiency providing $49 worth of food for every $1 donated. Nationwide, this figure is unprecedented and remains unmatched in foodbanking today. The national average is $22.

* Steadily increasing services and food distribution every year, this past year The Foodbank increased its total distribution of highly nutritious food from 32.7 million to 33.5 million pounds of food, thus increasing from 1.44 million to 1.57 million meals served to the needy each week.

* The Foodbank continues to be the largest distributor of fresh produce of any foodbank in the state. The solicitation of fresh produce from Ventura, Salinas and Imperial Valleys has resulted in a 40% increase (over the prior year) in the receipt and distribution of fresh produce.

* The Foodbank raised $430,000 for its warehouse expansion project in 2005-2006. The building addition will consist of approximately 10,000 square feet and will adjoin the existing facility. The expansion project will maximize our resources to feed the poor by building the capacity of The Foodbank's food distribution program. The Expansion project will help meet the needs of an expanding service population that includes low-income working-poor families.

The Foodbank of Southern California serves hundreds of certified charitable community agencies daily throughout Southern California. Food is distributed to abused children and women shelters, crisis centers, childcare centers, homes for troubled youth, homeless shelters, substance abuse centers, senior centers, emergency box programs, soup kitchens, and food pantries.

Los Angeles Regional Foodbank is a nonprofit charitable organization that has been serving the disadvantaged of our community for 35 years. We are at the heart of a charitable food distribution network that includes nearly 900 charitable agency sites in Los Angeles County. A voluntary board of directors provides guidance and oversight for Foodbank activities.

The Los Angeles Regional Foodbank is a partner with Feeding America (formerly America's Second Harvest) Feeding America is the nation's largest non–governmental, domestic hunger relief organization. As a partner, we follow the guidelines put forth by the network and are subject to monitoring. Los Angeles Regional Foodbank upholds the highest standards of charitable food distribution. We are also connected to and cooperate with food banks throughout the country.

Los Angeles Regional Foodbank is the only Feeding America affliated food bank in Los Angeles County.

From Warehouse to Table
Food is donated to Los Angeles Regional Foodbank from local and national food manufacturers, wholesalers, supermarkets, restaurant suppliers, packers, processors and brokers. Once a shipment of food is received at our warehouse, it is sorted, inspected, and if necessary, repacked for distribution to participating charities in Los Angeles County.

We sort, inspect, repackage and distribute thousands of pounds of food each day with the help of dedicated volunteers. Last year, 13,000 volunteers contributed over 60,000 hours of service.

Charities order and pick up the products they need from the Foodbank on a weekly basis. They then serve the food to needy families, children and individuals free of charge. Through these charities, over 674,000 people receive healthy meals each year.

Volunteer:

Without volunteers, the Foodbank would not be able to provide food for thousands of hungry people every week. Get together with a social, church or work group and spend a day with us.

To learn more about becoming a Foodbank volunteer, contact our volunteer coordinator at (323) 234–3030, extension 144 or amartinez@lafoodbank.org.

The goal of the Napa Valley Food Bank is to assist people in becoming and/or remaining self–sufficient and lessening the stress of meeting the basic need for food. We do this through a variety of different programs and locations. For information, contact the Napa Valley Food Bank at 707–253–6128.

Emergency Food Pantry:
Low–income Napa County residents may receive an allotment of food from one of our 6 locations every thirty days. Eligibility is based on California Food Bank guidelines for low–income households. These allotments are based on household size and consist of meat, dairy, fresh produce, dry and canned food items, rice and dry beans.

The Senior Brown Bag Program:
A bi–monthly program that supplements the nutrition needs of low–income seniors, the Senior Brown Bag program is designed to allow seniors, over the age of 60, to remain independent as long as possible. Seniors receive a "Brown Bag" foodbank supplement with approximately 10–14 food items twice a month. Food items such as fresh fruit, canned vegetables, oatmeal, bottled water, pasta, and tuna are some of the items one may receive. This service is distributed from various sites throughout the Napa County for individuals to pick up or have delivered to infirm or disabled according to individual need.

USDA Surplus Food:
The United States Depart of Agriculture contracts with the Napa Valley Food Bank to administer 6–8 nonperishable food staples to low–income Napa County residents once a month from 9 locations. Items such as peanut butter, cereal, canned fruits and vegetables, dry milk, and canned meat are customary offerings.

Friday Free Market:
So as not to waste any resources and due to our fairly small warehouse space, every Friday any surplus food Napa Valley Food Bank has at the main warehouse site is offered to Napa County residents. There is no income eligibility and clients who utilize our other programs or those who do not qualify are encouraged to access this program to offset their ongoing need for food. Customarily there are 12–14 items. Often there are perishable items such as dairy or produce that won't last for distribution the following week.

The Natural Source Cooperative:
A Community Garden Culinary Project The Napa Valley Food Bank, in collaboration with COPIA and Vintage High School is currently working on this project, The Natural Source: a Community Garden Culinary Project. This garden allows the Napa Valley Food Bank to work with students to provide an ongoing supply of fresh produce to low–income Napa County residents. At the same time, students are learning about food systems, business, food preparation, and social issues. Because of the mild climate, this California Food Bank garden naturally provides a year–round nutritious food supply and concurrently builds responsible, community.

The Alameda County Community Food Bank is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that has been serving the community since 1985. As the county's clearinghouse for donated food, the Food Bank provides food assistance for 40,000 low–income Alameda County residents each week, which includes 14,000 children and 7,000 seniors. Most adults served are among the working poor.

What we do:
* Provide food to 300 community agencies that serve on–site meals and/or food bags for their clients
* Distribute bags of food to school children in need
* Distribute fresh fruits and vegetables several times a week to member agencies
* Operate a toll–free hunger helpline that makes over 1,000 referrals each month
* Conduct food stamp outreach clinics
* Educate the community and public officials about the causes of hunger and poverty

Food Helpline: (1–800–870–3663 (FOOD) in Alameda County) connects Alameda County residents with emergency food referrals.
Hours: Monday – Friday, 9 am to 12 pm and 1 pm to 4 pm

In addition to referrals to food pantries and soup kitchens, callers receive information about other programs, such as Women, Infants and Children (WIC) and Food Stamps. They also receive information about non–food programs, such as Earned Income Credit and Healthy Families.

Besides the Food Helpline, the Food Bank operates a Free Summer Lunch Hotline during the summer months for referrals to sites that serve a free summer lunch to children and teens ages 18 and under, and a Holiday Hotline in November and December for referrals to holiday food programs.

FROM THE WEBSITE:

MISSION
We are working to eliminate hunger in Orange County.

STRATEGY STATEMENT
We solicit and coordinate donations, grants, fundraising, food drives, food rescue, gleaning and volunteers to supply food, education and advocacy for the hungry through non–profit partners and direct feeding programs. We constantly seek innovative and cost–effective ways to reach more people.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
Under the guidance of the Council of Orange, Society of St. Vincent de Paul, the Food Bank began providing food for the hungry in October 1983. Since 1983, the Food Bank has provided more than 217 million pounds of donated and surplus food to local charities.

MEMBER AGENCIES
The Food Bank currently serves 390 member charities that reach the hungry, including church pantries, shelters, senior centers, rehabilitation centers, homes for abused women and children and many other emergency assistance organizations.

CLIENTS
In partnership with 390 member charities, the Food Bank helps feed an average of 200,000 individuals each month. Those served include the working poor, children, seniors on fixed incomes, single parents, the disabled, the homeless and individuals experiencing medical emergencies or recent job layoffs.

FOOD SOURCES
The primary work of the Food Bank is acquiring and distributing donated and surplus food. Food sources include local grocery stores and supermarket chains, food manufacturers and distributors, the government, restaurants, trade shows, gleaning efforts, food drives and private individuals. Need food? Email us at agency@FeedOC.org or call toll free 888–449–FOOD(3663). We will need your address in order to direct you to a nearby agency.

EFFICIENCY
Each dollar donated provides about $12 worth of food to the hungry in our community.*

Second Havest Food Bank is a 501[c]3 nonprofit organization. Our Board of Directors, Advisory Board and Event Committee members volunteer their time to serve the needs of Second Harvest and the hungry in Orange County without pay.

As Ventura County's only regional food bank, FOOD Share has collected and distributed food to people in need for over two decades.

We now feed 38,000 monthly through 240 certified charitable agencies...children, families in crisis, low–income seniors, homeless, handicapped, disabled and many others.

We are also the major food lifeline in times of natural disasters –– earthquakes, floods and fires.

FOOD SHARE'S MISSION STATEMENT:

FOOD Share is dedicated to ending hunger in Ventura County.

FOOD SHARE'S VISION STATEMENT:

FOOD Share innovatively and efficiently gathers and distributes food, serving those in need through a network of charitable agencies. Our dedicated volunteers and staff fight hunger with compassion and commitment to ensure that people have ready access to nutritious food. FOOD Share responds to community emergencies quickly and effectively.

FOOD Share embraces the diversity of Ventura County and builds partnerships by involving the entire community to fight hunger and its causes. Education and public awareness are keys to finding solutions.

FOOD Share is a proud member of America's Second Harvest, the Nation's Food Bank Network.

Food Bank Coalition
Oceano, CA 93445

Since being founded in 1988, the Food Bank has become the only source of large–quantity donated or low–cost food to thousands of very low–income residents of San Luis Obispo County.

Throughout the years, Food Bank services have grown to the current state of providing 3 million pounds of food each year to 24,000 very low–income residents through three programs.

Distribution to Pantry Program ? provides nearly three million pounds of donated food to nearly 20,000 individuals through 100 member agencies throughout the region. These include soup kitchens, emergency food box programs, homeless and women?s shelters, foster care, and supplemental feeding programs. Most of these organizations provide other services as well, and rely on the Food Bank for significant portions of their food.

USDA–EFAP ? (United States Department of Agriculture?s Emergency Food Assistance Program) provides 459,000 pounds of quality nutritious food to thousands of qualified very low–income individuals through 16 household distribution sites and to sites where prepared meals are served.

Brown Bag Program ? provides weekly grocery bags of food directly to 750 low and very low–income seniors through 14 neighborhood distribution sites. By providing a reliable source of food items, the Food Bank is able to help our most fragile seniors maintain independence and good health with improved nutrition, and help mitigate the rising costs of medical care and other living costs.

Food Stamp Outreach:
Our Food Stamp Outreach Program assists eligible people to receive Food Stamps, accomplishing our mission to alleviate hunger in our county while bringing dollars into our economy. The Food Stamp Program (now known as Food Assistance Benefit Program), administered by the Dept. of Social Services, helps low income persons provide nutritious food for their families. At a time when wages have remained static and rents have soared, the number of Food Stamp recipients has declined in recent years. Paradoxically, while the need is acute, the participation rate for Food Stamps in our county is among the worst in California. The FBC works with the public and Dept. of Social Services to raise awareness and increase participation in this vital food program.

Call our Food Stamp Coordinator at 227–6624 for help with applications

BackPack Program
A new program of the Food Bank Coalition is the BackPack Program. When children eat well, they learn better, are healthier, and are more likely to grow into happy, productive adults. The public schools are becoming partners with the Food Bank to send nutritious food home with low–income children so that they will have healthy meals while not in school. The food is attractively packaged for children, requires no assistance from adults to eat, and is balanced in all of the food groups. The pilot program is at Georgia Brown School and Bauer/Speck School in Paso Robles, but is planned to be expanded to schools throughout the county as soon as funding is secure. It takes $500 dollars per school year to fund one child, and 1/2 the cost comes from foundation grants which must be matched by local donors. If you'd like sponsor a child or have your company sponsor more than one child, please call the Food Bank for information.

SFBFS is dedicated to assisting those in need by:

* Alleviating their immediate pain and problems
* Moving them toward self sufficiency and financial independence.

SFBFS accomplishes the above goals through the following services:

* Educating the illiterate
* Providing moms with guidance and their infants with food and diapers
* Strengthening families through a program of ethics and self–esteem
* Providing early childhood education and youth services
* Feeding the hungry
* Clothing the poor
* Housing homeless families with children
* Furnishing seniors with a social club and volunteer opportunities
* Providing high–tech knowledge for youth

SFBFS has a well–planned strategy guiding all of its programs. This strategy involves a large cadre of volunteers who offer integrity in 'mentoring', 'bridge–building', and walking 'hand–in–hand' with others.

The Food Bank for Monterey County, a certified America's Second Harvest food bank, is the largest supplier of emergency food in Monterey County. We distribute 5 million pounds of food annually.

We are a non–profit private organization whose mission is "to lead community efforts in the awareness and elimination of hunger in Monterey County." To accomplish this mission, we solicit, collect, store, and then distribute food throughout the County by several means: (1) Agency Clearinghouse, a network of approximately 65 non–profit food assistance agencies; (2) direct giving programs such as Emergency Food Assistance and the Family Market.

The Food Bank for Monterey County is situated on California's central coast in the city of Salinas in an area known as the "Salad Bowl of the World." Agriculture and the hospitality industry dominate the economy of the Central Coast and the national image of our area is one of wealth and beauty. However, hunger, poverty, high unemployment, and food insecurity exist.

There is hunger in Monterey County. The challenge is great and we strive to meet it on a daily basis.

Feeding America San Diego is the newest Feeding America member food bank and the only non–profit in San Diego County that has access to Feeding America nationally donated food by national manufacturers such as Kraft, Del Monte, and Kellogg's.

The donated food is free to Feeding America San Diego. We only have to pay for the transportation costs. Consequently, we can access food for only 10 cents per pound.

This makes us one of the most effective and efficient hunger–relief non–profits in San Diego County

Feeding America San Diego is one of Feeding America's newest member food banks with our very first distribution occurring on October 9th, 2007.

Shortly after our first distribution, fire storms struck San Diego County and we responded by bringing in 27 truckloads of food and other emergency supplies to assist with the relief efforts all within the first seven days. Since then we have continued to help those most in need – young children, working families, the elderly, and the homeless.

We are proud to say that within our first year of operations we will have provided nearly three million pounds of emergency food to hungry families in San Diego County with most of our food being distributed without a warehouse, forklift, or pallet jack. We project that next fiscal year we will distribute over 10 million pounds of food to those most in need.

We are currently rolling out several initiatives: The Healthy Food Initiative, the Children's Nutrition Initiative, and the Senior Nutrition Initiative. Other programs include the BackPack Program, Fresh Rescue, Food Stamp Outreach, Mobile Food Pantry, and our Reclamation Project.

But we can't do it alone. We need your help. More than 35.5 million Americans –12% of the population and 17% of our children don't have enough food. Locally, we have over 309,000 people experiencing poverty in San Diego County with over 600,000 people living in San Diego County living in Food Insecure households – please help us help them.

Thank you for your assistance.

ABOUT THE SAN DIEGO FOOD BANK
Established in 1977, the San Diego Food Bank is a critical component to the welfare of San Diego County, providing food to people in need, advocating for the hungry and educating the public about hunger–related issues. Through a combination of government programs and partnerships with more than 260 San Diego County non–profit charities, SDFB acts as a central repository and distribution point for government and donated food. Funded by foundations, grants, USDA, corporations, sponsors and individual donors, SDFB distributes more than 10 million pounds of food annually to individuals, families and a network of non–profit organizations that work to alleviate hunger throughout the county.

The San Francisco Food Bank is the hub of nonprofit food collection and distribution in the City, supplying the bulk of the food that many local agencies need to serve those living in poverty. We partner with community and non–profit organizations to provide food to programs in underserved neighborhoods through senior centers, daycare centers, public schools, soup kitchens and other venues.

The Pantry Network is our flagship initiative, bringing food directly into the neighborhoods where it is most needed through a farmers? market–style distribution to low–income families and individuals. We have approximately 170 pantries throughout San Francisco, serving more than 17,000 households yearly through various programs!

Volunteers are essential to our mission, with more than 12,000 people contributing 66,000 hours to ending hunger in San Francisco. This support enabled us to distribute 27 million pounds of food this year, enough for more than 58,000 nutritious meals a day.

Programs Overview
The San Francisco Food Bank is the hub of nonprofit food collection and distribution in the City, supplying the bulk of the food that many local agencies need to serve those living in poverty. We partner with community and non–profit organizations to provide food to programs in underserved neighborhoods through senior centers, daycare centers, public schools, soup kitchens and other venues.

Pantry Network
Grocery pantries provide fresh produce, bread, meat and packaged goods to low–income clients in underserved neighborhoods throughout the City. Pantries give clients the opportunity to prepare food in their own homes, promoting family stability, good health and dignity.

For more information about our pantry programs click here.

Shopping Network
The Shopping Program enables nonprofit agencies to select from the Food Bank's supply of packaged groceries and fresh produce, allowing them to provide nutritious food for their meal, snack and pantry programs.

Holiday Food Program
The Holiday Food Program distributes food for holiday meals ?farmers market–style? at our neighborhood pantries. Approximately 42,000 people ? seniors, children, parents and individuals ? enjoy holiday meals thanks to this program.

Supplemental Food Program
The Supplemental Food Box Program provides a monthly box of nutritious USDA food to low–income seniors, pregnant women, women up to one year postpartum, and children under the age of six.

To access the a calendar of food distribution sites, click here.

Emergency Food Box Program
The Emergency Food Box Program provides a three–day emergency food supply to families and individuals in crisis.

Disaster Relief Program
The Disaster Relief Program distributes emergency food supplies to low–income neighborhoods in the event of a citywide disaster.

We can help!

Second Harvest Food Bank is a non–profit agency that collects and distributes nutritious, high–quality food to help feed people who cannot afford to buy groceries. Low–income people of all ages are welcome, regardless of immigration status. Every food recipient is treated with dignity and respect.

Individuals and Families:
Call 1–800–984–3663. The call is free. The food is free.

Hunger hurts. Second Harvest Food Bank can help.

Following are programs which serve as vehicles for feeding people.

Partners in Need provides food assistance to low–income Food Bank volunteers. Call 1–800–984–FOOD (3663) for information about registration times and locations. Photo identification and proof of household income is requested to register.

Food Assistance Program provides a variety of grocery items to hundreds of non–profit agencies in Santa Clara and San Mateo county neighborhoods. These hot meal programs, emergency food pantries and shelters serve a culturally diverse clientele of individuals, families with children and seniors. Call 1–800–984–FOOD (3663) for a referral to food resources near you.

Operation Brown Bag is a self–help program that gives low–income seniors a weekly bag of groceries. Seniors must be 60 and older or 55 and disabled. For locations and how to register, call 1–800–984–FOOD (3663). (You may also volunteer for Operation Brown Bag.)

Family Harvest provides monthly groceries to low–income families with minor dependent children. For locations and how to register, call 1–800–984–FOOD (3663). (You may also volunteer for Family Harvest in Santa Clara County or San Mateo County.)

Second Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties is a private non–profit organization that collects and distributes more than 30 million pounds of food each year to low–income children, adults and seniors. The Food Bank currently serves an average of 162,000 individuals each month; nearly 60% are families with dependent children. Click here to see how we work.

Our Mission

Providing food for people in need in our community.

Brief History

The Food Bank, Inc. of Santa Clara County was formed in 1974 by Economic and Social Opportunities, and incorporated as a non–profit agency in 1979. In 1988, the San Mateo County Food Bank merged with The Food Bank, Inc. of Santa Clara County to become Second Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties.

Second Harvest Food Bank is a certified member of America's Second Harvest, a network of food banks and food distribution programs in the United States. This membership allows Second Harvest Food Bank to cooperate with other member food banks, to receive food from national corporate food donors, and to benefit from national publicity and mutual support.

In 1992, Second Harvest Food Bank moved into a new 65,000 square foot warehouse in San Jose which serves as its main food distribution center. In June of 1995, the Peninsula Distribution Center began serving San Mateo County in a newly renovated 22,000 square foot warehouse in San Carlos.

ABOUT US
The mission of the Foodbank is to feed hungry people by obtaining surplus food and distributing it to member agencies who serve a wide spectrum of individuals and families. During 2006, the Foodbank of Santa Barbara County distributed over 5.5 million pounds of food from two warehouse locations in Santa Barbara and Santa Maria.

Partners: In 2006, over 100,000 people in Santa Barbara County were served by Foodbank member agencies. The Foodbank distributes food to over 220 social service programs and agencies, churches and community groups from Carpinteria to Santa Maria.

Food Donors: The Foodbank depends upon community–minded individuals, businesses and corporations for support. The surplus and donated food comes from many sources; over 400 donors contributed food and other commodities during 2006, in addition to the thousands of pounds of food collected through local food drives.

Locally, food items such as bread, produce, dairy and deli items are donated daily by retail stores. Local growers and packers donate fresh fruit and vegetables. Individuals, businesses, and community groups, contribute through food drives.

Throughout the State, food banks share donations and trade for items they cannot obtain in their area. Surplus food and other items collected by store chains are transported to the Foodbank warehouses, sorted by volunteers, and distributed to member agencies.

FROM THE WEBSITE:

What does WSFB do?

Simply put, Westside Food Bank is a community supported 501(c)(3) non–profit organization which collects donated surplus and salvageable food locally, as well as food purchased at wholesale, salvage and co–op prices, then distributes this emergency food to hungry people through more than 65 social service agencies.

In doing so the food bank solicits, collects, inspects, sorts, stores, and distributes surplus food donations from all sectors of the food industry including supermarket warehouses and food manufacturers, processors, wholesalers, and brokers. The Food Bank also solicits financial contributions which are used to buy warehouse equipment and supplies and to support specialized food programs and wholesale food purchases.

Westside Food Bank is a non–profit organization founded in 1981 as a project of the Westside Ecumenical Council. The Westside Food Bank's mission is to distribute as much nutritious food as possible to local food assistance charities, and to reduce food waste on the Westside. Over the years we have grown to the point that we now distribute nearly 4 million pounds of food a year to more than 60 social service agencies, thereby sustaining 80,000 of our most vulnerable neighbors––approximately half of them children.

In order to supply our member agencies, we acquire food through a variety of sources, including food industry donations, community food drives and the purchase of food supplies in bulk at wholesale prices. In addition, Extra Helpings Westside, our innovative prepared and perishable food recovery program, collects more than 130,000 pounds of food per month from restaurants, markets, bakeries, caterers, and farmers' markets and delivers it to our member agencies.

We Serve

Our member agencies are located throughout the Santa Monica, West Los Angeles, Venice, Culver City, Inglewood, and West Hollywood areas of Los Angeles County. Though this is an affluent area, one out of every ten people who reside here––over 100,000 people––live in households with incomes of less than $15,000 a year. Our food reaches the entire spectrum of the needy:

Low–income families
Unemployed and underemployed
Seniors
Women and children living in domestic violence shelters
Homeless
Mentally ill
Disabled
People in rehabilitation facilities
Veterans who may face the challenges of readjustment, ill–health or poverty
Anyone else without access to enough food

Number of Sonoma County charitable organizations served: 128

Types of charities include emergency food pantries/closets, shelters and dining rooms, childcare centers/youth programs, group homes, and disaster relief agencies.

Programs: The Agency Shopping Program provides food to 128 member charities that serve people in need. REFB also operates its own programs throughout the county: A Child's Portion, Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) for children and seniors, Senior Brown Bag, Emergency Food Assistance Program (EFAP) for those in need of any age, Community Pantry Network, Backpack Program, and the Every Child, Every Day – Summer Hunger Initiative. The newest program of the REFB is The Megan Furth Harvest Pantry, that delivers nutritious food and education to hungry and anemic children.

Number of people served on a monthly basis: 50,000
No one is out of hunger's reach – seniors, children, and working families are all coming to food distributions seeking supplemental groceries to help them make it through the month.

Amount of food distributed in fiscal year 2006 – 2007: 8.9 million pounds
This is the equivalent of 6.88 million meals annually, or 18,850 meals every day.

Volunteers: Over 5,000 individuals volunteered 70,000 hours in 2005–2006 by packing and sorting food, doing clerical tasks, driving trucks to pick up and deliver food, participating in special projects such as food drives and special events, and sharing their technological expertise. These volunteers filled the equivalent of more than 33 full–time staff positions.

Sources of Donated Food: 15% from local food companies, farmers, retailers, food drives, and 85% through regional collaborations and America 's Second Harvest national network of food banks

Funding: A primary source of our funding comes from individuals (38%), as well as foundations (19%), business and community groups (7%), and community events and drives (8%). Government grants account for less than 16% of our budget. In addition, our member agencies contribute toward the cost of transporting and handling the food through shared maintenance fees for some of the food they select, which contribute nearly 11% of our budget.

Efficiency: We are able to distribute nearly $5.00 (wholesale value) worth of food for every $1 we spend, making the REFB a cost effective investment in the community.

The Emergency Food Bank, founded in 1968, is the largest direct provider of packaged emergency food in San Joaquin County. Over one thousand people a day are served healthy food from Emergency Food Bank services. Almost four million pounds of food is distributed each year from our main location and over 15 pantries in Stockton and San Joaquin County. That equates to almost 200 fully loaded 54' semi–trailer loads, feeding almost one hundred thousand men, women, and children nutritious food each year, without charge.

The Food Bank provides food service to 12 satellite pantries throughout the County, over thirty non–profit agencies, treatment centers and to scores of public events related to healthy living and nutrition. We emphasize health, nutrition, food economics and education. All food bags are packaged with an eye to balanced nutrition. The Food Bank provides classes in healthy, economical meal planning and food preparation. Special bags are made for people with specific health problems; those suffering from diabetes, AIDs, high blood pressure, heart trouble, hepatitis and other ailments receive specialized assistance.

The Food Bank also provides a service to grocery stores, food processors, farmers and reclamation distribution centers by taking excess or usable foods that would otherwise be thrown away. Additionally, the Food Bank teaches basic job skills and provides training in data entry, clerical office skills, warehouse operation and truck operation.

The Emergency Food Bank is continually seeking volunteers, contributions and other forms of community support. Thanks for looking into the Emergency Food Bank!

Mission Statement

FoodLink is committed to ending hunger by providing healthy food and nutrition education to those in need through community involvement.

Who We Are

FoodLink for Tulare County, a nonprofit organization, has been working to end hunger in Tulare County since 1978. FoodLink warehouses and distributes millions of pounds of food annually to a network of more than 80 local nonprofit agencies, which directly feed needy families. In 2005, food distributed through FoodLink's efficient network of food collection, preservation, and distribution reached more than 80,000 people, with more than half of those served being children.

But food distribution alone is not enough to end hunger in our area. FoodLink also works to combat hunger through hunger–relief advocacy, and to eliminate its long–term effects through proper nutrition and health education.

PRESS RELEASE

America’s Disaster Relief Contact: Jan France Director
Montrose , Colorado 81401 970.708.9498

September 10, 2010

America’s Disaster Relief is preparing a relief journey to Boulder , CO in response to the Fourmile Fire and evacuation of over 3,500 people.

America’s Disaster Relief also known on the Western Slope as Western Colorado Disaster Relief has been very busy over the years providing families that have had fires, floods, tornados, a hurricanes, with furniture, beds, clothing, pots, pans and other kitchen items, as well as sheet's, blankets, and household necessities. None of this would have been possible without the help of financial donations.

In order to make this journey possible America’s Disaster Relief is again calling on the Western Slope to step up and help others. Financial Donations can be dropped off at any USBANK (in Montrose next to Walgreen’s on S Townsend Ave) to the account of America’s Disaster Relief.
Cleaning Supplies and NON Perishable Food can be dropped of at the container located at Q & T FOODS 1803 S Townsend Ave in Montrose. Jan France asked, “Please no clothes, or other items only Cleaning Supplies & NON Perishable Food.”

America’s Disaster Relief Director – Jan France assisted with relocating several hundred people to the Western Slopes of Colorado in the aftermath and confusion of Hurricane's Katrina and Rita. America’s Disaster Relief sent an 18 wheeler of supplies to Cedar Rapids , IA following the Great Floods. America’s Disaster Relief has assisted Bayou LaBatre, Al – Florida three times from hurricanes– Greensburg , Ks –Holly Co – Logan & Clovis, NM after tornados, as well as Texas following Hurricanes Dolly, Ike & Alex.

The relief journey to the Boulder area will be providing the disaster victims with needed FOOD and cleaning supplies. Already in storage are Furniture and household items ready to go. What is really needed at this time is FUNDING and Cleaning Supplies.

Anyone who would like to donate items or make financial donations to assist the efforts of the America’s Disaster Relief may do so by making deposits at any USBANK to the account of America’s Disaster Relief (or call Tracy @ USBANK 970–252–4108) and / or putting supplies at the container located at Q & T FOODS 1803 S Townsend Ave in Montrose.

We are expecting to deliver items next week – so we MUST work fast.

Feeding Colorado is an association of the five Feeding America food banks in Colorado.

Feeding Colorado's purpose is to coordinate and enhance food resources among the state's food banks; provide administration and distribution of USDA commodities, including CSFP, TEFAP and the School Lunch Program for the state of Colorado; and to support the mission of Feeding America.

The 5 food banks distribute food to more than 1,500 nonprofit agencies state–wide, that provide meals and services to people in need. The diversity of agencies include food pantries, day–care centers, battered women's shelters, soup kitchens, residential treatment centers, senior and youth programs; serving all ages and segments of our community. The food provided to those living in poverty often means the difference between feeding their families or going hungry; having hope or living in despair.

The food banks are 501(c)(3) non–profit organizations. They receive broad community support from individuals, corporations, local governments, faith communities and corporations. Individual volunteerism is key to their success.

Each Colorado food bank collects surplus food from food processors, farms, distributors, restaurants and supermarkets. Many also conduct community food drives or glean from local gardens.

Our members are affiliates of Feeding America, the USA's largest domestic hunger–relief organization, which has a nationwide network of more than 200 food banks and food rescue programs. As such, they are monitored and operate in compliance with food industry standards for safe food handling, inventory control, record keeping, sanitation and pest control.

USDA Temporary Emergency Food Assistance Program

Feeding Colorado has a contract with the US Department of Agriculture to handle distribution for the majority of the USDA Temporary Emergency Food Assistance Program commodities in Colorado. Under this contract, Feeding Colorado is responsible for the distribution of over 6.5 million pounds of nutritious food annually. Feeding Colorado was chosen by the USDA because of the efficient network of food distribution sites that exists in all 64 counties.

Somebody Cares Tampa Bay is a network of independent, community based non–profit agencies providing outreach support to Tampa Bay Ministries who assist poverty–stricken families and the working poor. SCTB works in concert with local ministries to provide the basic necessities of life and to educate and develop healthy, self–sustaining communities, families and individuals.

Hunger Strike Force is a program designed to bring thousands of pounds of food into the Tampa Bay area to help feed the hungry. Our role at Somebody Cares Tampa Bay is to raise money from private and public sources to pay for the transportation costs of this donated food. We receive the truckloads of food, unload it at our distribution site, and then provide it to ministries - at no cost - who use the food to feed the hungry.

With each Hunger Strike Force delivery, approximately 30,000 pounds of food is distributed through our expansive network of partnering organizations. Somebody Cares Tampa Bay pledges $2000 towards the solvency of the Hunger Strike Force's nationwide transportation program each time they arrive in the Tampa Bay area. One truckload of food can provide 1900 families, or nearly7500 individuals, with meals. This equates to feeding a minimum of 25,000 people per month, or 270,000 annually.

With the new addition of the SCTB Marketplace, we will be able to feed even more families and save them even more money. If you would like to help us keep the food trucks rolling, call 727–536–2273

If you run food pantry and would like to learn how you can receive a portion of the food, call (727) 536–2273 for an application. You must be a 501(c)3 to participate

PRESS RELEASE:

Food For The Poor Rushes Aid to Haiti
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
01/16/10

COCONUT CREEK, Fla. (Jan. 16, 2010) – In an effort to get as many aid items into Haiti as quickly as possible, Food For The Poor is directing food, water and medical supplies into the Dominican Republic to be sent over the border and into the hands of the hurting Haitian people.

The charity also will be sending pallets of critically needed medical items by air directly into Port–au–Prince on Sunday.

Food For The Poor, the largest international charity in the United States, will send 189 tons of goods in this shipment. The charity already had sent 100 containers of rice, canned food and medical supplies to Haiti –– most of which is already in place in Port–au–Prince and ready to be distributed. With the port there damaged and the need growing, Food For The Poor executives are expediting shipment of aid to accelerate relief activities.

“It is critical that we get this relief as soon as possible into the hands of the Haitian people and to the people who are trying to help them,” said Robin Mahfood, President/CEO of Food For The Poor. “We are hearing today that orthopedic supplies are particularly needed for the trauma patients that medical staff and volunteers are treating. They are seeing terrible wounds.”

The medical supplies and equipment already housed in Food For The Poor’s Haiti warehouse were taken to a Petionville hospital on Friday night. On Saturday, trucks of food left the warehouse to be distributed to the feeding centers.

The goods are part of Food For The Poor’s initial goal to provide $5 million in relief to the struggling nation, as it recovers from one of the worst natural disasters in its history.

Food For The Poor, the largest international relief and development organization in the United States, does much more than feed millions of hungry poor in 17 countries of the Caribbean and Latin America. This interdenominational Christian agency provides emergency relief assistance, clean water, medicines, educational materials, homes, support for orphans and the aged, skills training and micro–enterprise development assistance, with more than 96 percent of all donations going directly to programs that help the poor. Cahill Ministries Food Bank Distribution Center provides food, toiletries and USDA commodities to over 270 participating organizations. These community based organizations, faith based organizations, social service agencies and other entities receive the products from the Food Bank and distribute them. We are an official USDA Food Distribution Center and are also a part of the Florida Food Recovery Program.

Participating organizations are free to utilize the services of the food bank from 7:00a.m. to 2:00p.m. Monday – Friday. We utilize an automated telephone system which notifies our member organizations of new products and special shipments within minutes of arrival. We strictly enforce our policy to equally distribute any limited commodities, to ensure fairness to all of our current members.

The Food Bank solicits donated food and grocery products from the food and grocery industry as well as contributions from other organizations. Growers, manufacturers, distributors and retailers all support the Cahill Ministries Food Bank through their generous donations. These donations consist primarily of surplus food that might otherwise go to waste were it not for the effective distribution channel provided by the Cahill Ministries Food Bank network of partnering agencies.

In addition to our focus on meeting the needs of the local Central Florida community, we engage in disaster relief efforts. We assist other organizations in supplying the needs of disaster victims. In support of this priority we have taken the following step:

One of our leaders has completed certificate Disaster Response training with Christian Disaster Response, A Member Organization of NOVAD, the National Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster.

2021 Earthquake
On August 12, 2021 a destructive 7.2 magnitude earthquake hit the southern coast of Haiti. More than 2,000 people were killed and upwards of 650,000 were left in need of assistance.

In partnership with local organizations, Project Medishare has provided over 200,000 lbs of medication, medical and essential supplies. We have also distributed more than 7,000 food and hygiene kits to affected families. We continue to deploy our medical staff to conduct a series of mobile clinics, offering our services in some of the hardest hit areas, as well as provide training for local midwives and community healthcare workers, ensuring they have knowledge and resources long into the future. Residents of these remote areas previously had limited health care services, and in the aftermath of the earthquake had no health clinics or hospitals at all. Over a period of 9-months our mobile clinics have seen a total of 1,100 patients.

2016 Hurricane Matthew
Hurricane Matthew struck Haiti on October 4, 2016 as a Category 4 hurricane. The intense effects of wind, coastal flooding and severe rain caused massive destruction in Southern Haiti.

Immediately, Project Medishare medical staff deployed to Jeremie, one of the hardest hit areas. In collaboration with Hospital Bernard Mevs we organized a coalition of community-based, Haitian-led organizations to provide much needed health care and emergency aid that continued through 2017.

Project Medishare provided 110 tons of essential supplies to affected families, including water purification tablets, mosquito nets, medications, and food and hygiene kits. Our staff and groups of medical volunteers delivered critical medical care to more than 4,000 patients.

Project Medishare for Haiti, Inc., a 501.3 non–profit registered in the State of Florida, was founded in 1994 by Drs. Barth Green and Arthur Fournier from the University of Miami School of Medicine.

It is an organization dedicated to sharing its human and technical resources with its Haitian partners in the quest to achieve quality healthcare and development services for all. This mission is accomplished through two distinct but complimentary programs which now frequently intersect, such as the Community Health Program and the Integrated Community Development Program.

Assisting other agencies (i.e. Red Cross, GEMA, FEMA, etc.) in meeting the needs of those affected by disaster.

In addition to providing our partner agencies with food and other grocery products, we operate a Manna Truck program and sponsor child hunger programs.

Manna Truck is a mobile pantry that we use to deliver food and drinks to low income areas throughout our service area. This program allows agencies or other sponsors the opportunity to distribute 5,000 lbs. of food and drinks to those in need of food assistance at a specified location all at one time.

To sponsor a Manna Truck, contact Cheryl Pittman at cheryl@foodbank–swga.org or (229)883–5959 x14.

SUMTER COUNTY/AMERICUS DISASTER RECOVERY UPDATE (3/14/07

The United Methodist churches in Sumter County and Americus have organized wonderfully to coordinate the outpouring of volunteer assistance to clean up following the tornados of March 1–2. Americus First UMC is hosting the South Georgia Annual Conference's UMCOR affiliate recovery operation.

Long–term Rebuilding Teams
Initial clean–up has moved quickly and the area is now ready to begin receiving its first volunteer long–term rebuilding teams. Team leaders may receive more information and register their availability by calling 229–924–9414.

Long–term rebuilding teams need one or more persons with a variety of construction skills who are capable of coaching and supervising the work of other team members. Some lodging is available (in church fellowship halls, etc.). Team members will need to have some demolition tools and basic hand tools. Your patience with the volunteer coordinator will be appreciated as we transition from clean–up to long–term rebuilding.

The long–term rebuild project, also, needs some major pieces of equipment (donated, loaned, or funding the lease): shingles lift, roofing nailer, disposal containers, dump trailer. Call 229–924–9414 if you can help with any of these items.

A meeting was held on Tuesday, March 13, to begin the formation of the Interfaith Long–Term Recovery Organization. A very impressive group of faith–based groups and other non–profits were present. Each is eager to share its assets with this community as they focus on assisting those with unmet needs (uninsured, underinsured, renters who are now homeless, etc.). The Conference Disaster Response Team offered the considerable resources of the United Methodist people of South Georgia to this effort.

The Methodist Church has become a center for Volunteer Coordination.

FOR WEEKEND OF MARCH 9–11, 2007 ONLY, ONLY, ONLY – Volunteers will be coordinated from the Americus Sumter HS North Campus on Bumphead Rd. Salvation ARmy and Red Cross will be feeding volunteers for the weekend and the Gym will be open for sleeping. Showers will be available.

LTRC will meet Monday, March 5, 2007 at 12:00 p.m. Location: First Methodist Church, Americus GA. The meeting will also discuss housing needs for volunteers.

This is the main location for Emergency Food Stamps.

For Immediate Release

Sweetwater Valley C.A.M.P. to Serve as Central Assistance Location for Flood Victims

Austell, Ga. (September 30, 2009.) On Wednesday, September 30, more than 60 members of the Cobb County community including nonprofit leaders, government and local schools, and churches assembled at South Cobb High School for the second meeting of agencies to address the needs of Cobb County flood victims. The meeting, also attended by Representative Alisha

Thomas–Morgan, District 39, was scheduled to discuss the plans to ensure the immediate and long–term needs of flood victims are met.

Sweetwater Valley C.A.M.P. located at 6289 Veterans Memorial Highway in Austell has been designated as a central location for flood assistance. Starting Monday, October 5, flood victims can be seen Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Case managers from Sweetwater Valley C.A.M.P. and local agencies including The Center for Family Resources, MUST Ministries, and The Salvation Army will be present to provide resources including financial assistance, temporary housing assistance, food, clothing, diapers, hygiene items, school supplies and water.

Contact Sweetwater Valley C.A.M.P at 770.819.0662 or www.svcamp.org.

“Case managers will work one–on–one with families to identify unmet needs, intermediate and long–term needs, said Darlene Duke, executive director of Sweetwater Valley C.A.M.P. We have to be there for the long haul. We are very grateful to all the agencies supporting us and rallying behind us to make this happen.”

Donations items are needed to support the relief effort including cash donations; basic food staples; gift cards to Walmart, Kmart, Target, etc; hygiene items, diapers and cleaning supplies. Donations of furniture should be given to the Atlanta Furniture Bank. They can be reached via the web at www.AtlantaFurnitureBank.org. You can also call David DiCaprio at 404.355.8530, ext. 222.

Cash donations clearly marked with ‘FLOOD’ can be made to community partners: Sweetwater Valley C.A.M.P., Cobb Disaster Recovery, The Center for Family Resources, MUST Ministries and the United Way of Cobb County.

“I am proud to see so many local community organizations, government and churches coming together to support our community, share resources and connect with one another, said Representative Alisha Thomas–Morgan, District 39. We appreciate the outpouring of support and want people to continue to make donations and realize the support is needed on a long–term basis.”

Current volunteer needs include sorting clothes and food, crowd control, administrative tasks, mudding and construction repair. Non–construction volunteers should contact Jenaila Hawkins at MUST Ministries at jhawkins@mustministries.org or (770) 790–3873. Skilled volunteers looking to provide construction, plumbing, or carpentry expertise should contact Gene DeWulf, Cobb Disaster Recovery at gdewulf@uwma.org or (404) 589–9438.

“CFR is proud to be a part of this effort and to support Sweetwater Valley C.A.M.P as this community comes together in support of one another, Jeri Barr, CFR CEO said. The cooperative and collaborative effort of these organizations and the generosity of this community will help to ensure as many residents as possible receive the assistance they need.”

Flood Relief – Food and Clothing Needed

With almost 1,700 people in need of supplies following the flooding in Cobb County, MUST Ministries is spearheading an emergency drive to collect food and new or like–new clothing.

Donations should be brought to the MUST Donation Center in Kennestone Corners on Highway 41, 1210B Kennestone Circle, Marietta, 30062. Turn into the industrial park, take the second right and go to the back on the left.

What is needed (non–perishables):
Peanut butter, Jelly, Cereal, Canned meats, Macaroni & Cheese, Canned vegetables, Dry pasta, New underwear and socks, New and like–new clothing for every age and size. (Note: many school–age children need clothing and adults with jobs need work clothes)

Hey, gang, the cholera epidemic has hit many parts of the north, and HELP IS NEEDED NOW.

Particularly the following supplies:
IV normal saline or lactated ringers, with tubing and catheters water purfication tabs or small systems sanitization supplies and materials antibiotics, especially doxycyline and cipro (and erythro for children)

Volunteer medical personnel(especially nurses) who can come help support Haitian medical personnel with administering oral and IV hydration to affected inpatients are urgently needed too.

Rick Sante of ALFA is receiving and arranging transport (air and by Royal Caribbean) from Miami. He tells me today that some boxes have come unlabeled or mislabeled, so please label your donated boxes clearly with a list of what is inside, and address either to a particular clinic/organization (that is expecting this and can help with transport) or to the Cap Haitien Health Network, c/o:

HAITIAN NGO RESPONDS TO SPREADING CHOLERA CRISIS

SAINT–MARC, HAITI—Today, International Action met with DINEPA water department officials and UN WASH Cluster partners to strategize a coordinated response to the spreading cholera epidemic. To combat this fatal waterborne disease, International Action plans to supply and install 50 chlorinators and 8 water tanks throughout Artibonite Department, the epicenter of the outbreak. Nine hundred chlorine tablets have also been released by the organization to the Haitian water agency and other NGOs addressing the public health crisis.

As of this morning, the casualty toll stands at 194 deaths and 2,364 Haitians hospitalized. If left untreated, cholera can kill within hours.

The Ministry of Health has confirmed that the outbreak has reached the Haitian capital, and leading health officials fear that up to 800,000 Haitians in Port–au–Prince will contract cholera over the next 6 months.

Chlorinators and chlorine tablets are readily available in Haiti to any organization operating in cholera–affected areas. Interested parties should email info @haitiwater.org or call +1 202.488.0735 in the US. International Action's Director Dalebrun Esther can be reached at +509 3712.6918.

International Action Intervenes in Haiti’s Cholera Outbreak

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 22, 2010
Wesley Laîné and Jeremy Mak
Public Information: 202–488–0735
info @haitiwater.org
www.HaitiWater.org

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A deadly cholera outbreak has erupted across Haiti's Artibonite Department, claiming at least 150 lives and sickening more than 1,500 others. The first registered cholera epidemic in Haiti in decades is the worst public health catastrophe since the January 12 earthquake.

Waterborne in nature, cholera is spreading primarily from ingesting water contaminated with the Vibrio cholerae bacterium, usually carried in human feces. Symptoms include severe dehydration, diarrhea, intense abdominal pains, and fever.

Limited pre–existing water and sanitation infrastructure, poor hygiene conditions, and overcrowding due to an influx of tens of thousands of Haitians displaced after the January quake has led to the cholera crisis, which now threatens to spread to other parts of the country. (Cholera cases have also been documented in La Gonâve, Arcahaie, and the Croix–des–Bouquet area of Port–au–Prince, albeit in lower numbers.)

In response to the outbreak, International Action has dispatched its team to Saint–Marc, a coastal town badly ravaged by a wave of cholera cases. The nonprofit has been focusing on eliminating waterborne diseases in Haiti since 2006. Approached by the Direction Nationale de l'Eau Potable et Assainissement—DINEPA, the Haitian water agency, to intervene in this crisis—International Action is installing innovative chlorinators on two of Saint–Marc's largest water reservoirs and public water stations.

These chlorinators will protect local Haitians previously exposed to waterborne illnesses like typhoid and chronic diarrhea. Pre–set levels of chlorine are slowly dissolved into the water, effectively eliminating all disease–causing bacteria, including those responsible for cholera. Chlorine residuals in the water continue killing germs up to 48 hours after it is dispensed to locals' water buckets.

International Action's lifesaving chlorination technology is safe and easy to maintain and requires no electricity. The chlorinators operate on the water's own gravity flow, so no additional equipment is necessary. Each chlorinator can easily disinfect water for more than 10,000 people and takes 1–2 hours to install on a pre–existing reservoir or water tank.

International Action is on high alert during this critical time. It is offering its chlorinators and chlorine tablets, readily available at its Port–au–Prince warehouse, to any entity that needs them at no cost. Currently, the organization is providing clean water to over 421,500 people at 46 public water stations, orphanages, hospitals, and schools throughout Haiti. It aims to reach 2.5 million Haitians with clean water by 2013.

International Action believes that clean water is a fundamental right. As such, it is committed to helping the impoverished gain access to this basic right. Please visit www.HaitiWater.Org or email Info@HaitiWater.Org for more information on International Action's Campaign for Clean Water in Haiti.

In the wake of the earthquake, International Action has partnered with many organizations to provide the Haitian people with the supplies they need, including medication, water test packets, and education supplies.

These chlorinators will protect local Haitians previously exposed to waterborne illnesses like typhoid and chronic diarrhea. Pre–set levels of chlorine are slowly dissolved into the water, effectively eliminating all disease–causing bacteria, including those responsible for cholera. Chlorine residuals in the water continue killing germs up to 48 hours after it is dispensed to locals' water buckets.

International Action's lifesaving chlorination technology is safe and easy to maintain and requires no electricity. The chlorinators operate on the water's own gravity flow, so no additional equipment is necessary. Each chlorinator can easily disinfect water for more than 10,000 people and takes 1–2 hours to install on a pre–existing reservoir or water tank.

International Action is on high alert during this critical time. It is offering its chlorinators and chlorine tablets, readily available at its Port–au–Prince warehouse, to any entity that needs them at no cost. Currently, the organization is providing clean water to over 421,500 people at 46 public water stations, orphanages, hospitals, and schools throughout Haiti. It aims to reach 2.5 million Haitians with clean water by 2013.

International Action believes that clean water is a fundamental right. As such, it is committed to helping the impoverished gain access to this basic right. Please visit www.HaitiWater.Org or email Info@ HaitiWater.Org for more information on International Action's Campaign for Clean Water in Haiti.

HAITI HEALTH CLUSTER BULLETIN #14 - PAGE 11 – 1/14/11

Since the start of the epidemic, PROMESS has distributed medical supplies to treat around 57,000 severe cases and 79,400 moderate cases of cholera. Around 60% of the distribution was sent to its final destination, and 40% was prepositioned to the departments. The shipment was made mostly to the MSPP, but also to security–site stocks.

Current inventories of IV fluids and ORS sachets are at a moderately low level. More supplies are scheduled to arrive, but deliveries are not expected until next week. Negotiations are underway for the purchase of more ORS sachets. The price of ORS sachets has significantly increased in the last months, but there are fewer sources.

The current stock combined with the stock in pipeline allow for the treatment of 98,000 new severe cases of cholera and 122,000 moderate cases.

PORT–AU–PRINCE, January 31, 2010 – To meet the enormous health challenges posed by the January 12 earthquake, Haitian authorities, United Nations agencies and donor countries have been providing tons of medicines to scores of health partners on a daily basis through a large–scale coordinated effort run out of the country's pharmaceuticals hub in the capital, Port–au–Prince.

From 16–21 January alone, 483,091 kg of pharmaceutical supplies and 4,990 kg of non–pharmaceutical health supplies, like rubber gloves and masks, arrived at Port–au–Prince airport.

Organizing these donations through Haiti's central pharmaceutical store, known as PROMESS (Program on Essential Medicine and Supplies), is one of the least visible but more vital tasks for humanitarian workers following the earthquake.

"Without PROMESS we would have had a second catastrophe," Dr. Alex Larsen, Haitian Minister of Health, said at the PROMESS warehouse.

Operations for the World Health Organization (WHO)/Pan American Health Organization (PAHO) country office were run out of PROMESS and in days following the quake. When roads were blocked with rubble, WHO/PAHO staff went on foot carrying drugs from PROMESS to deliver them to UN and nongovernmental organization partners working in health.

As the humanitarian operation intensified, more and more shipments of medical supplies started arriving at Port–au–Prince airport, located close to PROMESS. To meet the increased logistical challenges, WHO/PAHO is running a programme to coordinate all donations from many governments, including the United States, into a single system to ensure medicines are delivered as quickly as possible to where they are needed.

"Trying to both respond to the massive health needs in Haiti following the quake and organize the large volume of supplies entering the country has been a great challenge," according to WHO/PAHO representative in Haiti, Dr Henriette Chamouillet. "Many partners, including the United States government who we are with today, have been extremely generous in their response to the great humanitarian health needs of the Haitian people."

PROMESS has long been supplying medicines and related supplies to health facilities throughout Haiti. Following the quake, PROMESS was virtually the only source of drugs and medical supplies in the country, and there was a dramatic increase in demand from established health facilities and from temporary field hospitals that had mobilized to support the relief effort.

But as medical donations began streaming into Haiti, so did the need to streamline the truckloads of material arriving daily at PROMESS, and to distribute it to where it was needed most. The U.S. Government has provided professional support in the form of pharmacists and medical logisticians, working with WHO/PAHO in receiving goods, sorting them, checking expiry dates and getting them onto the shelves; security to ensure that fuel reaches hospitals to run electricity generators, and security of the compound so that PROMESS can continue to provide an essential function; engineering support such as clearing rubble and leveling land for incoming containers of medical supplies; and logistical support for getting drugs to hospitals that are difficult to reach.

"We are working in concert with Haitians, other donors, groups and the Pan American Health Organization to plan and support health system requirements, including health and medical supplies," said Judith Timyan, USAID Health Team Leader. "We are not only expediting the distribution of medicines and equipment for clinics and hospitals, but also building local Haitian capacity to effectively manage the supply chain for the health system in the future."

As PROMESS becomes more effectively organized to respond to these new challenges, the Haitian government, WHO/PAHO and USAID have been visiting organizations, hospitals and clinics throughout Haiti to assess medicine shortages and link the facilities to the PROMESS warehouse.

"We appreciate what everyone around the world is doing," said a worker in the PROMESS warehouse, LCDR Fortin Georges, a senior pharmacist with the U.S. Public Health Service, who was born in Haiti. "I want to thank the world. Haiti thanks you, thanks you very much."

Food Donations Critically Needed for Flood Relief
Posted 07/02/2008
Freedom from Hunger food asks for help due to the flood

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (July 3, 2008) – Freedom from Hunger organizers say the need is greater than ever to collect food this summer because of the increased demand caused by historic flooding in Eastern Iowa.

Under normal circumstances, nearly 3,000 Linn County households seek emergency food assistance each month, but that number is expected to soar due to the flood.

“Several of our major donors were severely impacted by the flood and we need employers who were not affected to help in any way they can,” said Barb Elsasser, director of the HACAP Food Reservoir and co–chair of the Freedom from Hunger planning committee. “The number of families needing food assistance has increased dramatically due to the fact that 25,000 people were displaced by the flood.”

Area businesses or other employers interested in participating can call Elsasser at (319) 393–7811.

During July and August, employers are encouraged to collect all non–perishable items, but there is a specific need for beef stew, tuna, macaroni and cheese, chili with meat, peanut butter and canned fruit. Donations of pasta, instant potatoes and canned soup are also especially encouraged. All items should be consumer–sized, as employees must remember these food items are going to families, and large items are impractical and unusable for them. Please do not donate glass, outdated or perishable items.

Last year, 48 area companies or organizations participated in or supported the drive, which raised a record 84,972 pounds of food.

BankIowa, the Linn County Supervisors Witwer Trust, the United Way of East Central Iowa, area Veterans, the Cedar Rapids Kernels, HACAP Food Reservoir, the Linn County Continuum of Care Planning and Policy Council and the Cedar Rapids Freedom Festival are again teaming up to sponsor this year’s Freedom from Hunger food challenge, which is in its sixth year.

The Food Reservoir Program:

The HACAP Food Reservoir is located at our corporate site (1515 Hawkeye Drive in Hiawatha, Iowa). It currently serves food pantries and related programs in Benton, Cedar, Iowa, Johnson, Jones, Linn and Washington Counties. You can contact us at info@hacap.org. If you live outside our service area, please call 2–1–1 and request information on food pantries in your community.

As a member of America's Second Harvest, the Nation's Food Bank Network, the HACAP Food Reservoir channels donated products to area soup kitchens, pantries, senior & child care centers, drug & alcohol centers and other non–profit food programs that feed the needy.

Distributes approximately 1.3 million pounds of food to local organizations;
Provides over 5,000 food boxes a year for families in need;

Serves as a clearinghouse and food distributor for Holiday Assistance Programs, which help over 2,800 families annual;
Operates the HACAP Adopt–a–Family Program that links over 300 families with individuals and organizations wishing to donate food and gifts to needy families; and Saves the 116 member agencies over $2,000,000 in food costs, based on wholesale costs, thereby allowing them to spend those funds on other program activities and services.

Midwest Food Bank helps Kansas tornado victims
05/10/2007 15:47:35

They built their reputation by helping evacuees after Hurricane Katrina –– and now the Midwest Food Bank in Bloomington has been called to help after another disaster. The group is preparing to deliver a second shipment of food and supplies to Greensburg, Kansas, where about 1,700 people remain displaced after a tornado. President Dave Keiser told WJBC's Beth Whisman, the Salvation Army knows they can call them when they need help.

Kieser says the food bank has enough food to send to Kansas and still keep local shelves stocked, but he says household supplies like blankets towels and cookware are in short supply.

If you can help, call the Midwest Food Bank at:

Mission:
It is our mission to gather large food donations from nationwide corporations and distribute them to social service organizations, free of charge, to help those in need. It is our goal to receive and distribute in-kind donations at no cost to those in need and to meet and maintain our own overhead.

Local:
The Midwest Food Bank serves over 350 nonprofit organizations locally. Being located in Central Illinois allows many nonprofit organizations and volunteers to take part in our monthly distributions and daily activities.

National:
With the recent disasters of Hurricane Katrina, Rita, and Wilma the Midwest Food Bank has felt the need to help out as much as possible. In response to Hurricane Katrina, the first semi-load of food was delivered to Hattiesburg, Mississippi, September 1. Since then loads have been delivered to Mississippi (Biloxi, D?Iberville, Pearlington, and Jackson), Louisiana (LaPlace, Alexandria, Lake Charles, New Orleans, Baton Rouge), Texas (Beaumont, Pasedena, Lufkin), and Florida (Clewiston).

In response to these natural disasters, Midwest Food Bank has partnered with the Salvation Army and has been identified as part of their ?1st Response Team.? Disaster relief efforts have also been conducted with the American Red Cross. We feel honored to serve those in need with these organizations.

International:
The Midwest Food Bank has also had the opportunity to serve internationally. With the help of a corporate sponsor assisting with freight costs, we recently sent shipments of dry food products to Christian Boarding Schools in Liberia, Africa. We will continue to be available and look for opportunities to serve internationally.

FoodMobile ~

A FoodMobile will go wherever there are people in need and communities willing to serve. Rural areas, churches, parks, housing authorities and migrant worker farms are some of the destinations of these wonderful FoodMobiles.

The total cost of a FoodMobile product delivery and distribution is $1,250, or roughly 1/10th of the value of the food product delivered to each community. Agencies support the FoodMobile by contributing $250 per delivery. Individual or organizational donations are accepted to sponsor the remaining $1,000 cost for each FoodMobile community delivery.

Self–serve Kerosene, while supplies last

Facebook page: https://www.facebook.com/CPCBG/

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (WBKO) – The CenterPointe Church in Bowling Green is coordinating efforts to restore the Bowling Green and surrounding areas after the deadly tornado Saturday morning.

Jacob and Kristen Holmes of CenterPointe Church have mobilized to help those near the U.S. 31 W Bypass and T.C. Cherry block to help those affected by the storms.

“We just want to let the community know that we’re here to help. Specifically, we have a number of people surrounding our county. So, we have people from Lexington, Ohio, people from Richmond, Kentucky who are bringing trucks to our church,” said Jacob Holmes.

Kristen Holmes says one of the main things they currently need is kerosene heaters to keep people warm during the cold nights.
Advertisement

“Kerosene heaters and kerosene are big commodities right now. So, we’re trying to get our hands on as many of those as possible. We may have a few left as of today,” Kristen Holmes said.

The church has non–perishable food items, water, diapers, wipes, and clothing.

“Our building is about 38,000 sq. ft., and we’ve got a lower level that is filling up really fast with a lot of supplies,” Kristen said.

The church served over 70 families Tuesday and bought over $11,000 worth of heaters and kerosene.

Jacob says a lot of people have heaters, but they’re running out of kerosene.

“So, I get a call from a church – Richmond House of Prayer in Richmond, Kentucky and they’re bringing a 500–gallon drum of kerosene to set up at our church so people could come and get free kerosene and we’re going to have this for quite sometime,” Jacob said.

Churches from not only Bowling Green, but surrounding cities and even states are coming together, regardless of differing religions, to help those in need.

“Churches are working together. I have pastors who will call me and say, ‘Hey, here’s what I need. Do you have it?’ and I’d say yeah we’ve got it. We’re all working hand–in–hand. Living Hope, Hillview, New Life Church, Near Church, Bowling Green Nazarene, First Christian Church, Bowling Green Christian,” Jacob said.

FAQ's

Is the Lexington warehouse your only facility?

No. We have a warehouse in Prestonsburg, Ky. (God’s Pantry–East) that serves our 11 eastern–most counties.

Is God’s Pantry Food Bank a 501©(3) organization?

God’s Pantry Food Bank is a private, non–profit 501©(3) organization named by its founder, Mim Hunt, years ago. NVOAD – Situation Report 6/16/10

Feeding America has been active in Louisiana, Alabama, and the Panhandle of Florida, opening their food banks and working with the State VOADs. They have formed a working group at their National Office, which will meet for the first time this Friday, to get a better handle on the situation along the Gulf Coast. This working group is assessing the situation and considering the future need for full involvement of their organization, and will provide support current with the coastal food banks.

FROM THE WEBSITE 9/5/08:

The Food Bank of Central Louisiana is responding to the effects of Hurricane Gustav. In addition to working with shelters and government agencies, the Food Bank continues the partnership with our network of agencies who will be among the first to respond with emergency hunger relief.

The public can help by supporting the Food Bank's disaster relief efforts, both with donations of food and funds. We had just begun to replenish our stock when we learned about Gustav. We will definitely rely on the community's help during this situation.

Another way the public can assist the food bank is by volunteering to help pack emergency food boxes. If anyone is interested in supporting the Food Bank of Central Louisiana, please call 318–445–2773.

When disaster strikes, the Food Bank of Central Louisiana is prepared to respond with food assistance and emergency supplies.

It is the goal of the Food Bank of Central Louisiana to act as a conduit for donated food and other essential grocery items for the purpose of disaster relief. This will be done with the support of America’s Second Harvest – the Nation’s Food Bank Network, and in coordination with other relief organizations. In times of national disaster, the Food Bank of Central Louisiana may be a collection point for local donations.

The Food Bank of Central Louisiana will be responsible for solicitation, handling, storage and distribution of products to an established network of more than 80 agencies in Central Louisiana. In addition, distribution will extend to state, city, military, American Red Cross, and other VOAD (Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster) sites, as necessary, during an emergency. The extent of service the Food Bank provides will vary in accordance with the scope of the disaster and availability fo resources.

Whether the emergencies are on an individual level such as the loss of a job, or for larger disasters as seen with Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, the Food Bank of Central Louisiana and their partner agencies provide direct food assistance to the most vulnerable.

A disaster is defined as an occurrence such as a terrorism attack, hurricane, tornado, storm, flood, high water, wind driven water, tidal wave, earthquake, drought, blizzard, pestilence, fire, famine or other natural situation that causes human suffering or creates human needs that the victims cannot alleviate without assistance.

Health Kit Assembly & Shipping Instructions

Health kits provide basic necessities to people who have been forced to leave their homes because of human conflict or natural disaster. Health kits are also used as learning tools in personal hygiene, literacy, nutrition and cooking classes.

Health Kit
Value: $12 per kit
KIT CONTENTS
Place these items inside a sealed one–gallon plastic bag.
1 hand towel (15” x 25” up to 17” x 27”, no kitchen towels)
1 washcloth
1 comb (large and sturdy, not pocket–sized)
1 nail file or fingernail clippers (no emery boards or toenail clippers)
1 bath–size bar of soap (3 oz. and up)
1 toothbrush (single brushes only in original wrapper, no child–size brushes)
6 adhesive plastic strip sterile bandages

(NOTE: UMCOR Sager Brown is now purchasing toothpaste in bulk to be added to health kits before shipping to ensure that the product does not expire before it is sent. Please include $1 for each kit you send toward the purchase of toothpaste.)

Important Kit Assembly Information

All items included in kits must be NEW items.

All emergency kits are carefully planned to make them usable in the greatest number of situations. Since strict rules often govern product entry into international countries, it is important that kits contain only the requested items—nothing more.

Do NOT include any personal notes, money or additional materials in the kits. These things must be painstakingly removed and will delay the shipment.

Shipping Kits

Complete 2 packing lists—one for your records and one to put on the shipping box. Paste the shipping label and packing list on the outside of each box you send to UMCOR Sager Brown. The packing list helps the depot to quickly process kits. Processing & Shipping Costs: Please enclose an envelope containing at least $1 for each kit you send. This donation enables kits to be sent without delay to areas in need.

UMCOR Responds to the Earthquake in Haiti

NEW YORK, Jan. 13 -

NEW YORK, Jan. 13 /PRNewswire-USNewswire/ -- A major earthquake hit Port-au-Prince, Haiti yesterday, causing widespread destruction. Millions of people are affected and thousands are feared dead. The United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), the humanitarian relief agency for The United Methodist Church, has close ties with the Methodist Church in Haiti and is responding to the devastating earthquake with funding, material resources and prayers.

UMCOR executive, Melissa Crutchfield says, "We are working with our partners on the ground to provide immediate relief to the people in Haiti. UMCOR has worked in Haiti for many years. We anticipate that there will be years of rebuilding needed and are prepared to work with the people to help them through that process."

Working with partners, Action by Churches Together, Church World Service, Global Medic and the Methodist Church, UMCOR is channeling its resources to respond effectively to the people most in need.

In a statement to Global Ministries' staff, the General Secretary said, "Events such as these can challenge both our faith and sense of security. As a church we know that the heart of our ministry is continuing and extending Jesus Christ's ministry of outreaching love."

How to Help

There will be a great need for volunteers to help rebuild once the initial crisis has settled. At this time, it is not safe or possible for volunteers to go to Haiti. In order to frame a response that is consistent with the churches' needs, people wishing to volunteer should contact their jurisdictional United Methodist Volunteers in Mission coordinator to determine when and how to appropriately respond.

Gifts to support UMCOR's Haiti relief efforts can be made online at Haiti Emergency, UMCOR Advance #418325. Checks can be placed in the offering plate at a local United Methodist church or mailed to UMCOR, PO Box 9068, New York, NY 10087 with "Advance #418325" in the memo line. 100% of gifts will go to help the people of Haiti.

UMCOR Sager Brown is coordinating a shipment of health kits to provide individuals with basic necessities. Instructions for assembling and shipping health kits are available at:

Who we are:
The Green Project is governed by a 13-member board. Each board member serves for two years and is elected by The Green Project membership at our annual membership meeting each June.

We hire only the best of the best. The Green Project employs over 15 full- and part-time staff. We are always looking for more. If you would like to work at The Green Project, stop by to fill out an application or send your resume to:

info@thegreenproject.org

What we do:
The Green Project operates a WAREHOUSE STORE that resells high-quality, salvaged building materials at low cost to the community. The store is dedicated to helping the environment by reducing the amount of usable materials placed in landfills or disposed of improperly.

The Green Project also SALVAGES AND DECONSTRUCTS damaged or collapsed buildings by hand, in a way that saves between 45 and 70 percent of the materials. This preserves New Orleans' unique architectural history and benefits New Orleans' residents by returning their ruined building materials to use elsewhere in the city.

The Green Project store also serves as a local RECYCLED PAINT resource by reclaiming, combining, and reselling surplus paint. This keeps paint out of the region's landfills and water system while providing affordable paint to the community.

The Green Project warehouse serves as a RECYCLING center. The Green Project will recycle your paper, newsprint, aluminum cans, soup cans, household electronics and corrugated cardboard. We currently recycle cardboard, newspaper, regular paper (plain and colored), aluminum cans and household e–waste (electronic equipment like computers, stereos, printers, monitors, cell phones, etc). We can NOT take plastic or glass because no one in the city can pick it up. We also can NOT accept scrap metal – please take it to a scrap metal yard.

Now that Spring is here, our GARDEN is blooming. Through our gardening workshops you can learn how to make the most of a small space, recycle your yard and kitchen waste into compost and improve your soil.

RECYCLE FOR THE ARTS merged with The Green Project in 2003. R4A provides art materials to individual artists, schools, art programs, galleries, and other non–profit groups at minimal cost, as well as offers monthly recycled art workshops.

THE GREEN ROOM is an interactive community space that promotes using garbage and salvage as artistic material. The space is used to display the work of local artists and is available for workshops and community events. Contact us at:
info@thegreenproject.org
if you'd like to rent The Green Room for your next event.

The Green Project is also involved in GREEN BUILDING & SPECIAL PROJECTS like our solar panels, biodiesel and community outreach.

Programs & Services: Job Training

Goodwill's job training programs provide training and support services developed around an individual's skill level, life situation and career aspirations. Job training programs are also designed to meet the needs of various industry sectors, including retail, hospitality and tourism and general business.

Job training program participants typically pursue one of three paths:

– Individuals with developmental and other disabilities who require structured supports to work typically are trained and work at Goodwill. Over time, many transition to work in the community.
– Individuals with limited or no work history, low educational attainment and/or language barriers typically complete a work–readiness program as the first step to entering the workforce.
– Individuals with some work experience often enroll in programs that provide them with the basic financial, literacy and computer skills needed for entry–level administrative jobs.

Once program graduates enter the workforce, Goodwill provides ongoing support to help them keep their jobs and advance in them. Job Training programs fall into four main categories:

– Rehabilitation and Vocational Services
– Workforce Development
– Skills Training
– Clothing Collaborative for Job Trainees

Programs & Services: Youth Services

Goodwill has a long tradition of working with Boston–area youth. The agency offers academic, recreational and career–oriented programs and activities throughout the year for local children with limited opportunities, but great potential.

The Goodwill Fresh Air Camp is located on 500 acres of woodlands, fields, and ponds in South Athol, Massachusetts. Founded in 1906, the Fresh Air Camp offers an overnight camp experience during the summer months for children from 8 to16 years of age. In addition to participating in traditional camping activities such as boating, swimming, and arts and crafts, young people participate in educational and technology programs and workshops on conflict resolution, violence prevention and peer leadership training. Led by a multicultural staff of caring counselors, the Fresh Air Camp experience fosters personal growth and a sense of community. Goodwill offers a sliding fee scale for payment.

Mellon Academy for Girls is an after–school academic enrichment program that is available to girls every Monday through Friday during the academic year. Mellon Academy serves girls ages 10 to17 who are from Boston neighborhoods. Funded by Mellon New England, this program receives volunteer support from various organizations in the Boston area. Mellon Academy focuses on career and leadership development and provides specific skills training in math, computers, sciences and the humanities. Through these programs, girls also participate in community service, sports, and cultural enrichment activities.

For more information about youth programs, please contact the Department of Youth Services at (617) 541–1408.

Instructions on the website for what to donate:

Clothing and Goods

Donations of clothing or household items are sold through the Goodwill Store, providing tremendous value to the community and helping Goodwill fulfill its mission of helping people with barriers to self–sufficiency achieve independence and dignity through work. Each year, Goodwill collects more than 20 million pounds of donations at its 32 donation centers, seven retail stores and at ZOOTS dry cleaners in eastern and central Massachusetts.

In addition:

Donations generate money through the Goodwill Stores in support of Goodwill's many job training, youth, and community programs, serving thousands of people in eastern and central Massachusetts.

Tax–deductible donations of clothing and household goods are handled, sorted, packaged, shipped and sold by hundreds of job trainees with disabilities and other barriers to self–sufficiency who earn a paycheck while being trained for other meaningful jobs.

Donations provide the Goodwill Stores with low–cost, quality clothing and merchandise that allows people in the community to stretch their dollars.

Donations of clothing, household goods, supplies, and books are distributed to dozens of community–based organizations, such as the Pine Street Inn, to help them achieve their missions.

To accomplish our mission, we work with basic furniture items that are in very good condition. We cannot deliver upholstered items that are ripped, torn, worn, stained, or dated. Electrical items must be in safe working condition. As a matter of policy, no donated items are sold.

My Brother's Keeper accepts donated furniture and household items during the months of January through mid–November. Pick–ups are typically scheduled within 1–2 weeks of the initial contact with us. We do not commit to accepting furniture "sight unseen" over the phone. At every pick–up, an experienced volunteer makes the final determination whether items are accepted or declined.

My Brother's Keeper normally accepts the following furniture items in good condition:

Standard couches and loveseats (no older than 10–12 years)
End tables & coffee tables
Twin mattresses and box springs
Full (double) mattresses and box springs
Queen mattresses and box springs
Dressers
Night stands
Kitchen tables and chairs
Refrigerators (no older than 10–12 years)
Lamps
Examples of items that we cannot effectively use are: desks, office furniture, hutches, buffets, pullout couches (sleeper sofas), futons, stoves, washing machines and dryers, exercise equipment, wheelchairs, walkers, console TVs, cribs, clothes, books, and Christmas decorations.

Community Supported Agriculture farms (CSAs) are supported by members who buy a share in the farm and receive fresh, organic produce throughout the season. The Food Bank Farm is one of the largest and most efficient CSAs in the country and the first with the primary mission of helping to feed those in need.

The Harvest Season

Each week, from June through October, shareholders bring home a bounty of freshly picked organic produce. From gourmet salad greens and heirloom tomatoes to our delicious carrots, squash and sweet red peppers, the farm raises more than 250 varieties of vegetables, flowers and herbs.

Uncompromised Quality
At the Food Bank Farm, we harvest your vegetables the same day you pick them up. We select all of our varieties for superior flavor, rather than how they look. Supermarket varieties are chosen for their uniformity and ability to be shipped long distance, using millions of gallons of gasoline. This is not only destructive to our environment, it also compromises the nutritional value and flavor of your food. Join the Food Bank Farm and eat tomatoes and melons grown solely for taste – you will notice the difference.

Beyond the Season
In both November and December you will receive a month's supply of storage crops. These will include carrots, beets, winter squash, cabbage, leeks, rutabagas, and more.

U–Pick Vegetables
There are some crops that you can U–Pick. These vary from year to year but will always include: Green beans, strawberries, sugar snap peas, more than 20 types of herbs (including 3 kinds of basil!), plum and cherry tomatoes. U–pick is generally unlimited; you take what you need. Some years, when a crop performs poorly, we impose limits on one or two crops.

U–pick Flowers
We also offer unlimited U–pick on our "Acre of Flowers". We raise a spectacular assortment of more than 50 different flower varieties. This is by far one of the most popular spots on the farm. One of the farmers' favorite things to do is watch members quietly cutting their bouquets against the backdrop of Holyoke Range; we know they will bring the farm's beauty back home.

The bounty will be picked, washed and ready for you to collect at your weekly pick up. There is no work requirement on your part. Of course, the farmers love it when members show up to lend a hand and you are invited to do so anytime.

Other Local Products
In addition to the produce included in your membership, the farm also makes available a wide assortment of fresh local products: organic sour dough bread baked in a brick oven, local and organic eggs, tofu, goat cheese, tempeh, miso, our own dressings, granola, tasty baked goods, organic and low spray fruit, naturally raised beef, lamb and chicken, fresh pasta, and biodegradable detergents. We even sell a soap which is made locally by bicycle powered equipment!

The Food Bank Farm is about building community. On your weekly pick–up you will see where your food comes from and meet the folks who grow it. You will experience the harmony of the seasons. The farm is a great place to bring kids, meet your neighbors, and celebrate a way of farming that nurtures the land that supports us all.

At the same time you enjoy your bounty, your membership helps the farm raise healthy organic produce for the Food Bank of Western Massachusetts. Over the last five years, the farm has produced more than 900,000 pounds of food for the Food Bank and its member agencies. Share the Harvest!

A Farm Share feeds a family of 3–5 and is $460 for the season. A Farm Share Plus feeds 5–7 and costs $615. According to an independent study, a share costs less than half of what you would pay for the same amount of organic produce in a supermarket.

Fresh Start, Furniture Bank [free sharing]

Service Temporary

Fresh Start is located at 16 Brent Drive in Hudson.

Fresh Start Furniture Bank is a volunteer based charity which provides free furniture and home goods to people in need. All of the items that we distribute have been donated.

In 2018 we expect to furnish ~660 households (1,770 people) with ~18,000 items at about $100/household!

Mission:
Fresh Start Furniture Bank helps restore hope, dignity, and stability in our community by recycling donated furniture and housewares, for free, to people in need. Our secondary goal is to keep these items out of the waste stream.

Who we serve:
The people served by Fresh Start have at least one thing in common — they need help during a difficult time.

Fresh Start's customers are individuals and families in transition who need help to rebuild their lives. They include:

Women and children escaping abusive domestic situations
People coming out of shelters or halfway houses
Individuals and families in recovery from physical and mental illness
Veterans
Victims of fires, floods or hurricanes
Refugees and recent immigrants to the U.S.
The working poor

What we do:

Fresh Start collects donations of furniture and home goods from the public and distributes them, for free, to people in need. In order to receive furniture people must obtain a referral from a social service agency. They then have 30 days to come in and select their items. We stock just about everything to furnish a household. They may place the items on hold for up to 1 week while they arrange transportation for the items.

Some Statistics:
Agencies Families Helped Items Distributed
2014 75 180 2,435
2015 140 257 4,115
2016 196 328 8,244
2017 265 439 15,184
2018 (est) 320 600 19,000
2019 (est)

Budget:

Our 2019 budget, our budget is quite simple: We have a $120K budget which basically consists of $80K for rent, $21K part time employee, $5K to run our truck and $14K for other expenses such as insurance, dumpster, Internet, utilities, etc. Due to this tight fiscal management, we can furnish an entire household for about $150. Think about that...

Obtaining a Referral

If you need furniture or household goods, you must go to one of the following agencies and have them submit an on–line referral.
https://www.freshstartfurniturebank.org/agency_map.php
You may only receive 1 referral over your life–time. This referral is valid for 30 days.
You will have a maximum of 3 visits to select your items.
We stock sofas, upholstered chairs, dressers, beds, night stands/end tables, kitchen tables & chairs, cabinets, shelves, pots, pans, dishes, linens, small appliances and many other items.
We do not stock mattresses, TVs or large appliances.
If we have an item in stock, you must select from our existing stock.
You should be at the store a minimum of 45 minutes before it closes.
If you do not speak English, please bring someone who can interpret for you.
We have volunteers in the store who will assist you in selecting items.
We do not provide a delivery service.
Plan to take items with you on the day that you visit.
You may place items on hold 1 time while you obtain transportation.
Items placed on hold must be picked up within 7 days.
If you bring children with you, you must supervise them at all times.
Our customer policies can be downloaded in either English, Portuguese or Spanish

Estimated Inventory, January 2019 [see updates at: https://www.freshstartfurniturebank.org/inventory.php

The following is an ESTIMATE of what we have in inventory. You may find more or less of what the following shows. This is updated twice a week and in between items may have gone out or come in. Do not base your decision to come to Fresh Start upon these numbers. Remember that your referral will close 30 days from when it submitted and you will not get another referral.

Drop Offs:
We accept drop–offs without an appointment during regular warehouse hours. The warehouse is located at Heritage Place, Building #2, 439 S. Union Street in Lawrence. Upon entering the parking lot, stay to the left of the building and proceed to a loading dock with 4 bays and a big dumpster. Pull up at the stairs marked "Shipping and Receiving" and call 978–270–9878 to have a volunteer assist you in unloading. Please note, this phone number is for the warehouse only.

Pick Ups:
For larger donations, please call our office at 978–470–1356, or email to schedule a pick–up. Our pick–up times vary as our trucks and drivers are generously donated by local businesses. We appreciate your patience in scheduling a pick up time that works for you and for us. If we are unable to get a truck in a timely fashion, we will work directly with the social worker associated with the client–in–need to facilitate pick up.

What We Accept:
We accept all gently used items that might be used to furnish an apartment. We do not accept clothing of any kind. All donations must be in good condition. We do not accept torn or stained upholstered furniture.

Appliances (MUST be in good working order)

Since 1986, the Coalition has been helping to furnish the future for thousands of formerly homeless and at risk households through its Furniture Bank. The Furniture Bank's mission is to ensure that recently housed, extremely low–income families and individuals have cost–free furniture and household items to help build their new homes and lives. Staff at the Furniture Bank work hard to provide beds, linens, chairs, tables, sofas, personal hygiene products and other household items, which help to begin and strengthen a stable living environment for those in need.

Basic necessities such as beds, sofas, kitchen tables and chairs, pots and pans, and linens are often overlooked as essential to rebuilding and stabilizing one’s life. Yet it is difficult for a family or individual to realize their dream of a safe, stable home when the objects we take for granted that make a house a home are so hard to obtain for extremely low–income households.

Q: Who is eligible for the Donations Assistance Program services?
A: All household’s must be referred by an organization and may be eligible if they are transitioning from shelter into an apartment, in a doubled up situation, have been referred by DSS, DTA, emergency shelter or are homeless due to a domestic violence situation. If the Coalition determines that an individual is not eligible for services, contact the Client Coordinator at (781) 595–7570x 11 for a list of alternative resources.

Q: What is the first step in the referral process?
A: All households requesting services must have an application sent to the client Coordinator. To access this form please click here or request the material by contacting the office at (781) 595–7570x 11. After the application has been submitted please call the Client Coordinator to confirm eligibility status and to schedule an appointment.

Q: Will applicants need to provide their own transportation?
A: Yes. The Coalition does not provide delivery services. The truck must be big enough to fit all items in one trip. Individuals must arrange to have a truck on the date and time of the scheduled appointment.

Q: Can individuals make specific requests for furniture donations?
A: We will do our best to meet the needs of each household requesting services. We cannot guarantee specific items will be available on the day of a scheduled appointment. The Furniture Bank does not maintain a stock of furniture. Since items are donated to the program on a daily basis, it is difficult to anticipate what product we will have available on any specific day.

Q: What is the policy regarding missed appointments?
A: The Coalition receives approximately 80 referrals a day and does not have the capacity to reschedule missed appointments. We ask that all applicants arrive to the appointment prepared and on time.

Q: If someone has received services through the furniture bank, can they re–apply and come again?
A: No. Unfortunately, we can only offer one appointment per family. The Program is designed to assist individuals/families with their initial transition. We have limited resources and our goal is to help as many households as possible.

Q: Is the furniture new?
A: All of the furniture is donated. We receive most of the furniture from individual families, colleges, and hotels. Although the furniture has been used, we do not offer items that we would not have in our own homes. The Coalition is specific about the condition of the furniture we accept and distribute.

Volunteers

The Worcester County Food Bank offers the following volunteer opportunities to individuals and small groups:

Sorting and inspecting donated food and grocery product

Food drives

Special events as needed

Most of our volunteers help sort donated food and grocery product. Our volunteers have a direct impact on people who are hungry in Worcester County. They sort approximately 2 million pounds of food per year, which is then distributed to emergency–feeding programs located throughout Worcester County.

We encourage volunteers to come in once a week for 2–3 hours.

The Food Bank is open for volunteering Monday through Friday, 8 AM to 4 PM.

Hours include: Special Saturday hours.

Please contact us at 508–842–3663 to learn about our Saturday hours.

Minimum age for volunteering is 13. Volunteers under 16 years of age must be supervised by an adult.

All volunteers are required to complete an application, participate in orientation, and schedule hours in advance.

Please contact the Food Bank at info@foodbank.org or 508–842–3663 for more information about volunteering.

If we are unable to accommodate your volunteer needs at the present time, you may want to refer to the Community Harvest Project's website: www.fftn.org

All of the produce grown by the Community Harvest Project is donated to the Worcester County Food Bank for distribution throughout Worcester County.

We Depend On Volunteers . . . We Depend On You!

The Worcester County Food Bank works in partnership with non–profit programs located in 60 communities (a network of 216 partner agencies) throughout Worcester County to provide emergency food assistance to individuals and families. To locate a program in your area, please call the Food Bank at 508–842–3663 or go to their website and click on the link "immediate help", upper right. Then choose "program listing". Or just go back and choose "advanced search" above and search this database for listings in your area.

GRAND RAPIDS, MI. JANUARY 14, 2010 Rays of Hope for Haiti has several programs promoting education, medical assistance, and children's orphanages and feeding programs in Haiti. Through the sea container project we have also developed a friendship with numerous nonprofits working in Haiti who share our vision of bringing direct aid and sustainable change to the people of Haiti.

In this time of crisis, Rays of Hope for Haiti needs your help. The disaster is overwhelming and any gift of material supplies and financial assistance is so greatly appreciated. All of our programs in the Port au Prince area have been devastated. In addition, we have confirmed reports of one of our orphanages collapsing with fatalities being among the young children. First we urgently ask you to pray with us for our families in Haiti. In addition we need to get immediate assistance to help our children and so many in the surrounding areas that have been impacted by this devastating earthquake.

Our financial needs include funds to facilitate shipping of relief supplies to Haiti in the immediate as this will be a long term effort to help rebuild after the immediate need is over. We also have need to help get medical attention to the children hurt by the collapse of their home and to find them alternative places to stay.

We are also looking for physical donations of the following items for immediate delivery to Haiti via air cargo or sea container:

Food Items (dry staples)

Rice
Beans
Powdered milk
Canned mean
Peanut butter
Canned milk

Medical Supplies

Any non expired over the counter medication

Adventist Community Services Disaster Response

NEWS RELEASE – May 23, 2011

Adventist Community Services Disaster Response (ACS DR) teams are rapidly responding to the devastating tornado that struck Joplin, Missouri yesterday. This morning, ACS DR coordinators Jody Dickhaut and Roy Weeden began surveying damage, assessing needs and identifying safe locations to begin operations. The Federal Emergency Management Agency and the state of Missouri have requested that ACS DR take the lead in collecting, sorting and warehousing donated goods that have already begun streaming into the area. Warehouse space has been identified and operations are anticipated to begin tomorrow. Goods processed by the warehouse will be delivered to disaster survivors through emergency distribution centers and by mobile distribute units.

These teams in Missouri join ACS DR teams currently responding in Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Arkansas, Virginia, and Alaska to provide aid to individuals affected by tornadoes, flooding and other disasters. Tons of donated goods are being processed and provide aid to thousands of individuals in need.

If you are interested in helping ACS DR and the many survivors attempting to put their lives back together, please pray for them and consider making a donation to Adventist Community Services Disaster Response.

To donate:

1) Go to www.communityservices.org,
2) Call 1–800–381–7171, or

FROM THE SITE:

Feeding America: Responding in Times of Crisis

Feeding America, through Ozarks Food Harvest and six network members serving Missouri, is responding to the emergency food assistance needs of people impacted by tornadoes that devastated Joplin, MO on May 22

The majority of residents have no power, and most areas, including the local hospital, has no running water. Many people are moving in with family and friends, but food is starting to spoil. We anticipate a dramatic increase in need for food for the weeks and months ahead as people try to pick up the pieces of their lives. Our food bank network has assembled supplies estimated at $650,000 in just the past two days. As shelters disband, many people will be looking for food assistance for the very first time.

Feeding America has been working to support relief efforts in the regions impacted by record flooding and tornado outbreaks since April. As the men, women, and children effected by these storms attempt to put their lives back together our network will continue to be in emergency mode to address the additional demand for food and grocery items for many months to come.

On the Ground

Effective response to disaster requires organizations and volunteers to be able to deliver a high volume of service to populations in need during a compressed time period and under difficult working conditions. See how Feeding America is there to help individuals and communities in times of crisis.

Our Relief Efforts

Feeding America is responding to the tornados, flooding and severe storms in 11 affected states.

Our Logistics Team has achieved some success arranging for donated or reduced rate transportation to move these supplies to the affected areas in the most cost–efficient manner, but the high price of fuel continues to be a significant factor in the cost of supporting Member food banks responding to crisis in communities throughout the region.

Feeding America is also working with its corporate and foundation partners, and individual donors, to deliver hope to victims of the recent deadly tornadoes in the South and the flooding that is devastating many areas of the Midwest.

Feeding America thanks our 2011 Disaster Relief Partners who have stepped up to help in our efforts.

The search for a new home for Twelve Baskets Food Bank, our affiliate in Gulfport, Mississippi, has come to an end. During Hurricane Katrina, the building housing Twelve Baskets sustained damage that hindered the response to recovery efforts on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

It is with great pleasure and pride that Jennifer Keegan, executive director, and the staff at Twelve Baskets Food Bank announce their new facility located at 16364 Highway 67, Biloxi, MS 39532. They have a new freezer and a new cooler measuring 24' x 24' and a significantly larger warehouse that will allow them to expand product line and service to the many organizations in the eight south Mississippi counties they serve. We, along with Twelve Baskets, invite you to give them a call at (228) 863–1759 to set up an appointment and see the facility for yourself.

Twelve Baskets is a subsidiary of the Bay Area Food Bank. The Twelve Baskets warehouse is located in Gulfport, Mississippi.

At the Bay Area Food Bank, we like to say we're not just a warehouse. We offer many hunger relief programs to help our communities. From child nutrition to community food assistance, we offer programs for every population, for every food and nutrition need. Please explore our different programs and learn why the Bay Area Food Bank is not just a warehouse.

There are many ways that people can become a part of the food bank family. You can donate money online or using one of our direct mail pieces if one is mailed to you. You or your company can donate food, or organize a food drive. You can raise money by organizing a fundraiser or helping us with one of ours. You can volunteer, either as a long term permanent volunteer who comes in a few days a week, or you can organize a group of people to come volunteer during the day, sorting food and doing other important work at the food bank. Please check the sections on volunteering, raising money, donating money, donating food, and organizing a food drive for more information.

One very important and easy way you can help the food bank is by using your voice. You can write to legislators about hunger–related issues, you can make phone calls or write emails. You can become a hunger advocate for your community by checking our Use Your Voice section and finding out what needs to be said, and who needs to hear it.

This POD acts as a true Point of Distribution. No retail, walk–up service, except for local medical emergencies. They call their volunteers when a truck is coming. The volunteers with their van/SUVs meet the truck, take the stuff to schools and other retail supply depots. The do NOT maintain an inventory or act as a walk–in resource.

Can get/rent pallet jack and/or forklift. Needs a couple days' notice.

Have a ton of volunteers. Seem VERY well coordinated. We have listed them as a warehouse because they do not do walk–in service. And because they focus on and do a brisk distribution business.

They've called each of the schools in Jackson, Harrison, Hancock and Stone counties. For schools that are working with them, they've got "approved" contacts from each school who pick up goods. They had some trouble with misc people pickuping up stuff and doing inappropriate things, like selling stuff. So they started a list of "approved" donations distributors. They've contacts all of the schools on the gulfcoast and serve mostly schools. They serve a few churches in their imediate area, as well.

This place seems VERY good. Also "Direct Relief" out of California.

The one thing that they consistently get for distribution is medical supplies. They are one of the few places that accepts Medicaid. They supply a list of clinics in the area.

Becky Baum from Jackson sends them trucks.

The Picayune center is strategically located just 54 miles from New Orleans, and 37 miles from Gulfport, Mississippi, in the heart of the Gulf?s most devastated area. The facility is a 40,000-square-foot warehouse at 1203 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.

The majority of the warehouse space is being used to store and distribute building materials. Clothing, personal care items, household goods, and school supplies also are being distributed from the new site to help families in the region. (distributed via Churches & Organizations assisting families)

The Picayune distribution center will serve Louisiana and Mississippi during the current 12-month revitalization phase, which is helping churches rebuild facilities and rejuvenate programs.

Afterward, the center will remain in Mississippi to nurture long-term community development in some of the most poverty-stricken communities in Mississippi through our innovative transformational initiatives and effective community partnerships.

The distribution center will provide the daily essentials local support networks need to help families in crisis, as well as the school supplies necessary to give students from struggling families a stronger footing in the classroom. Building materials will not only continue to be used to repair hurricane damage, but also to create or renovate affordable housing for families. These valuable tools will help make target communities stronger, better places in which to nurture healthy, successful children.

DONATIONS:

Job loss, medical emergencies, family breakdown, or other sudden trauma can strip parents and children of their income and the basics: shelter, regular meals, and most important, their dignity. Fortunately, many determined individuals in dire need of housing have found help to change their situation.

Due to generous donors, The Storehouse of World Vision offers building materials to community-based groups, churches, and organizations committed for building or renovating affordable housing for low-income families.

World Vision accepts only large volumes of gift-in-kind product from corporations and private donors. We do not accept clothing or household donations from individual donors.

Five Decades of Disaster Relief Work
World Vision is known worldwide for moving quickly and efficiently when disasters hit. We have five decades of disaster relief experience.

Ready at a moment's notice

A quick response saves lives. We have staff in nearly 100 countries who can start providing aid within hours of a disaster. We also have a Global Rapid Response Team ? international disaster experts poised to respond to disasters anywhere in the world within 24 to 72 hours. Such coordinated work means World Vision can make lifesaving decisions quickly.

Pre–positioning of relief supplies

Where possible, World Vision purchases relief supplies locally. During large–scale disasters, however, items may not be available. When this happens, World Vision relies on relief supplies that have already been positioned on three continents and can be quickly airlifted to the emergency.

Long track record of rebuilding lives

We are first in ... last out. Long after a disaster leaves the headlines, we stay on to help people rebuild their lives.

12/5: This facility is changing locations and mission. In January, it will be moving to a new location TBD. The warehouse has virtually nothing in it. The org is available to distribute donations, if donors want to send them stuff to distribute.

7/18: Many of the "available" items are not necessarily available at the moment. Call for details and register your organization to \ get on the list so that when donors call, HANDS can tell them what it would take to satisfy the region!

7/18: CAT VOLUNTEERS TAKE NOTE: this is a new approach, developed today. We're going to mark items "available" if that site "often gets that kind of thing", even if the items aren't currently available. This way, people can see what sites "usually get that kind of stuff". And they can call that site and register. In that way, those sites that specialize in a particular item can estimate the need for that region.

Can send trucks to New Orleans. Send to Holy Cross, and City Team Impact ministries.

More about Hands:

Mobile Clothing Distribution
HANDS is sending mobile clothing units to take donated clothing down to the coast. The clothing is all brand new, and of very high quality, and is available to hurricane victims free of charge. The clothing comes from stores such as The Rogue, The Limited, Abercrombie and Fitch, Victoria's Secret, LUCKY, Ann Taylor Loft, and many others. HANDS' goal is to provide a place for people to come and "shop" with dignity. We are working through schools first, to deliver two to three complete outfits to each child, teacher and faculty member, including underclothes, shoes, socks, shirts, pants, and jackets. We are also working through local businesses to meet the wardrobe needs of their employees and their families. We will continue to reach out to each community until all the needs are met.

Family Connection Program
Through the Family Connection Program, HANDS is uniting affected families with sponsor groups that can assist in supporting their physical and emotional needs. The goal of the Family Connection Program is to match these families with sponsor groups for a period of one year. During this year, the sponsor group?s responsibilities will be twofold. First, the group will provide support to assist the family with food, clothing, and other household needs, including helping refurnish damaged homes. Second, the groups will need to address the family?s emotional needs. This aspect will require regular phone conversations with the family, remembering holidays and birthdays, and possibly organizing trips to personally meet with the family in person. Until partnered with a sponsor, HANDS is assisting the applicant families with their clothing needs. If you are interested in adopting a family or would like to know more about becoming a sponsor, please contact Hands immediately.

Thanksgiving on the Coast
HANDS provided a sumptuous Thanksgiving meal for approximately 500 individuals and families along the Gulf Coast. The ?event? was held at St. Clair Catholic School, in Waveland, MS on Thanksgiving Day, November 24, 2005. The event was hosted by Congressman Chip Pickering and his extended family, numerous HANDS volunteers, and Joe Scarborough, of MSNBC?s Scarborough Country. All the food was prepared under the direction of Leisha Pickering, and included the traditional Thanksgiving menu, as well as specialty foods, appetizers, and desserts. There were organized children?s games, and televisions set up to watch the holiday bowl games. HANDS also gave away door prizes and other goods to many needy families. The goal of this event was to bring the community together for a time of fun and fellowship; to help restore normalcy, dignity, and hope.

The impending threat of Hurricane Irene to the eastern coast of North Carolina and the Eastern US Seaboard has caused Hearts With Hands™ to alert all volunteers to contact Hearts With Hands™ immediately at (855) 435–7494 in preparation for possible mobilization. Due to responses to tornadoes throughout the country, Hearts with Hands™ is critically low on food and relief supplies and is collecting these supplies to send to hurricane victims as well. Bill Bradley, Executive Director of Hearts With Hands stated, “We are requesting that all of our volunteers call the office and let us know of their availability for the next couple of weeks or so. We are also activating all of our teams throughout North Carolina, South Carolina, and Florida for possible deployment. We have also extended our hours of operation at the warehouse on Sand Hill Road to accommodate those who may want to drop off supplies after work to 7:00 pm, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. We will make a determination later as to weekend hours.

MERCI is a Warehouse for Disaster Response and Building Materials and Supplies as well as a Volunteer TRAINING CENTER.

Directions to MERCI: From North: I–95 South to Hwy 70 East (Exit #97)– Hwy 70 East to Hwy 581 South. Turn right onto Hwy 581 South. After .9 mile, turn right onto Community Drive. After .7 mile, warehouse is on left.

Today at MERCI:

It seems that each year gets more and more challenging while offering more and more opportunities to be in ministry. This year started on a smooth note with only Hurricane Isabel to complete and a few new homes. And then Hurricane Katrina hit and the world changed.

All the new homes were completed but we still have a few disaster–homes to finish; all of them are in Hyde County and all are Hurricane Isabel related. When we talk with folks in the Gulf Coast area is easy to understand the concept long term recovery [4,569 volunteers worked 85,567 hours to complete 39 homes this year]

We have some clients waiting for volunteers in order to start their repairs. If you can't get to the Gulf Coast, there?s plenty of work right here in eastern North Carolina.

Katrina brought to light the need for being ready. One of the challenges we accept for this coming year is to have supplies on hand and ready to ship when and where needed. One of our priorities for 2007 will be stocking the warehouse with all the emergency supplies and having them on palettes and ready to go.

Volunteer Teams Needed:

In preparation for the upcoming hurricane season, volunteer teams are needed at the MERCI Warehouse in Goldsboro, NC. Teams will collect, sort and pack response kits, organize inventory to prepare for immediate response, become trained to better respond to emergency situations (see Training at MERCI) and commitment to join a team to serve in the most awesome ministry of caring! To schedule a team of one or more, call Ann Huffman at:

Food Bank Helps Tornado Victims in Eastern NC
POSTED: 8:42 pm EDT April 25, 2011

(ABC Channel 12)

The tornadoes on Saturday, April 16 have put the Food Bank of Central and Eastern North Carolina in the dual role of continuing its day to day hunger relief operations to 34 counties and assisting agencies affected by the natural disaster. The Food Bank is sending additional resources to the agencies affected by the powerful tornadoes; have extended hours for these organizations to access their warehouses for additional items and is making special deliveries directly to agencies affected. The list of disaster relief support continued this weekend as the Food Bank dispatched a truck from its Raleigh warehouse directly to one of their partner agencies, Good News Outreach, 3208 Oaks Road in New Bern. Good News Outreach reported a significant increase in service since the disaster, particularly in the Catfish Lake area. The Food Bank truck is loaded with four pallets of water, four pallets of snacks and two pallets of disaster relief boxes, totaling 13,000 pounds of food and relief items to the agency. In the past few days, great community support and donations from other areas of the country have allowed the Food Bank to provide the following for hard–hit agencies in Craven, Wake, Johnston, Lee, Harnett, Greene and Onslow counties: · 32 pallets of snacks, water, produce and frozen meat to Wake County agencies and American Red Cross facility in Johnston County– totaling more than 26,500 pounds · 20 pallets of produce, orange juice, water and canned goods to Lee County agencies – totaling 16,519 pounds · 10 pallets of produce, orange juice, water, dairy and bread from Greenville Branch to Greene County agencies – totaling 9,962 pounds · 10 pallets of produce, water and snacks to an agency in Harnett County – totaling 11,000 pounds · 10 pallets of water, snacks and relief boxes to an agency in New Bern County – totaling 13,000 lbs · Two deliveries from Greenville Branch to agencies in Onslow County – totaling 9,240 pounds · The American Red Cross in Greenville is storing 22 pallets of product in the Food Bank's Greenville warehouse.

FROM THE SITE 4/11:

FOOD BANK ASSESSES NEED, RESPONDS TO TORNADO

Tornado Relief 2011Every day, The Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina responds to a crisis in its service area – hunger. The Food Bank serves as a conduit for accepting, sorting, packaging, storing, and distributing food and non–food essentials to more than 500,000 people at risk of hunger daily in its 34–county service area. As a first responder during times of a natural disaster, the Food Bank also reacts immediately to serve victims of tornadoes, hurricanes and floods throughout the southeast without disrupting regular food distribution in North Carolina.

Following the tornadoes hitting North Carolina on April 16, the Food Bank assessed its partner agencies (food pantries, rescue missions, soup kitchens, senior and child nutrition programs) in counties affected by the storm to determine how their distribution capabilities fared. The Food Bank has been in communication with the American Red Cross and North Carolina Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (NCVOAD). The organization has reached out to assist sister food banks in Elizabeth City, which serves Bertie County and in Fayetteville, which serves a portion of the Sandhills along with the Food Bank branch there. As a result of the initial assessment, Food Bank agencies in Wake, Lee, and Greene counties were hardest hit. The organization is sending additional resources to the agencies affected by the powerful tornadoes on Saturday, April 16; have extended hours for these organizations to shop for additional items and is making special deliveries directly to agencies affected.

Wake County saw unprecedented devastation due to Saturday's storm and many Wake County agencies served out of the Food Bank's main warehouse on Tarheel Drive in Raleigh have a high anticipation of increased need and are already supporting large numbers of individuals and families who are without power. Some of the agencies themselves are without power but still operating and still distributing to those who need assistance, even taking to the streets, supporting a trailer park community by distributing flyers to families with information of additional hours of distribution today.

Lee County, one of the hardest hit areas in North Carolina by Saturday's powerful storm, is served out of the Food Bank's Sandhills Branch. With one of the agencies serving as a designated day shelter for kids as a result of the storm, additional food donations will help meet the increased demands on their services.

In the Food Bank's Greenville Branch service area, one Greene County agency hit by the tornado also has an increased need for emergency food and non–food items.

During the week following the disaster, the Food Bank distributed more than 86,000 pounds of food to the relief effort. Great community support and donations from other areas of the country have allowed the Food Bank to provide the following for hard–hit agencies in Wake, Johnston, Lee, Harnett, Greene and Onslow counties:

* 39 pallets of snacks, water, produce and frozen meat to Wake County agencies and American Red Cross facility in Johnston County totaling more than 26,500 pounds
* 20 pallets of produce, orange juice, water and canned goods to Lee County agencies totaling 16,519 pounds
* 10 pallets of produce, orange juice, water, dairy and bread from Greenville Branch to Greene County agencies totaling 9,962 pounds
* 10 pallets of produce, water and snacks to an agency in Harnett County totaling 11,000 pounds
* 10 pallets of water, snacks and relief boxes to an agency in New Bern County totaling 13,000 lbs
* Two deliveries from Greenville Branch to agencies in Onslow County totaling 9,240 pounds
* The American Red Cross in Greenville is storing 22 pallets of product in the Food Bank's Greenville warehouse.

HOW YOU CAN HELP: FOOD DRIVES

Hosting a food drive at your business, school, neighborhood or faith–based organization will help us in our efforts to provide disaster relief to those most in need. Click on the links below to find out what you need to know about managing a food drive.

For more information, contact our Food Drive Coordinator.

FOOD DONATIONS:

Individual donations of food and non–food essentials are extremely helpful and critical to the overall relief effort. All donated items should be delivered to the Food Bank location nearest you.

The Food Bank cannot accept prepared meals for evacuees relocated to shelters in North Carolina. If you are interested in providing hot meals for these individuals contact Wake County Human Services at 919.212.9595.

Please keep the following suggestions in mind as you collect needed items to donate:

. Only use boxes that hold up to 50 lbs. in which to collect your items to be donated so that they may be easily lifted.
. Barrels do not make good collection containers, as they can weigh up to 800 pounds. . Relief organizations have found that it is often most practical to focus on one or two items that an organization says is needed rather than collect a variety of items and have boxes filled with mixed goods – please consider donating items in bulk.
. If possible, please consider donating cases of a particular food or non–food item. Cases are usually easier to sort, pack, and distribute than individual units. (For example: a case of peanut butter is easier to handle than individual jars of peanut butter). Pooling resources and focusing on single item donations are good ways to manage the higher costs of purchasing items by the case.

. Encourage food drives and food collections that focus on a specific type of item: Peanut Butter Drive, Cleaning Supplies Drive, Nutritional Snack Food Drive, etc.
. If holding a Baby Items Drive: please collect diapers, infant cereal, and formula. Please donate these items by the case, as loose glass or plastic jars of baby food will have to be discarded due to health regulations.
. Pre–sort foods into categories prior to delivery to Food Bank.
. Please DO NOT put cleaning supplies in the same box as food items.
. The Food Bank cannot accept clothing. Used clothing is rarely a useful item to collect for disaster relief as it is hard to clean, sort, pack, transport, store and distribute, and mounds of clothing take up valuable warehouse space. Donated used clothing frequently ends up being discarded.

To find a Food Bank drop–off location in your area, please click HERE.

For more information, contact our Food Drive Coordinator at: FoodDrive @foodbankcenc.org

CURRENT VOLUNTEER NEEDS:

The best way to volunteer for the Food Bank to help with the disaster relief effort is to host a food drive and deliver the collected items to the Food Bank location nearest you.
. If you have a truck or SUV and are willing to make local pickups and deliveries in your area, you can sign up to be an on–call volunteer driver. On–call drivers are required to go through an application process and driving record check. To sign up to be a volunteer driver, contact the volunteer coordinator in the Food Bank location nearest you.
. Tractor trailers are in great demand in disaster relief efforts. If you have a tractor trailer that can be scheduled to be used to help in the Food Bank's relief efforts, please contact Anna Davenport, Food Resources Manager for the Food Bank: adavenport@foodbankcenc.org
. Greenville Branch – Volunteers are needed to sort food drive items destined for the victims in the affected areas. The Food Bank is open Monday through Friday 8am – 4pm, Wednesday 6pm – 8pm, and Saturday 9am – 1pm, and other times as needed. Please contact the Greenville Volunteer Coordinator via email or call at 252.752.4996.
. Raleigh Branch – Volunteers are needed to sort food drive items destined for the victims in the Operates 5 sites, all of which are fully equipped with refrigeration and freezing. In post–disater mode will accept toiletries as well as food items (no clothing, furniture, please).

All donations should be coordinated through Peter Reubwervicki at Raleigh HQ.

Member of America's Second Harvest, which coordinates donations to its members in disaster.

Sunday, March 29, 2009:

ACS/DR teams in North Dakota are setting up a donations management warehouse in Bismark. Les Morrison of ACS/DR Minnesota, Minnetonka ACS Director, picked up approximately 25 cages and other supplies from Richfield on 3/27 and delivered to emergency pet shelters in Moorhead, MN on 3/28. Bob Hilde of ACS/DR Minnesota visited with the Detroit Lakes congregation 3/28 and rallied up many local volunteers in the event we are activated. We do have a great lead for volunteers through First Link and volunteers from the University. Elder Dr. Scott Turner of Moorhead church has helped locally to scout out possible locations for a donations management warehouse in Moorhead.

At this time, Adventist Disaster Response North American Division leadership team has put us in "wait" mode. Our response will depend largely on the number of evacuees in the Fargo/Moorhead area. The MN VOAD & Homeland Security has notified Bob Hilde that a warehouse response is likely to be requested in the near future.

Volunteers:
In the event we are activated, we will need many local volunteers to serve in various roles. What can you do? Answer phones, sort donations, shipping/receiving, data entry, meal preparation and/or delivery, certified fork lift driving, etc. Volunteers do not have to be certified and do not have to be Adventist, but should be over 18. If you are available to volunteer, please call AIM at 1–800–381–7171 so that we may contact you after we are activated.

Donations:

Please do not donate any used clothing or water.
No "goods" are requested at this time.

If you feel the calling to donate "goods", please contact United Way at 2–1–1 to coordinate the donation.

Monetary donations are always best in disaster situations. Please donate funds through your tithe envelope. Mark the donation for "MN ACS/DR Fund". To ensure that leftover funds may be used for future disasters, please do not allocate funds specifically for flooding.

Great Plains Food Bank accepting donations for Minot flood victims
The Great Plains Food Bank serve as the central collection point for donations of nonperishable food, personal care items and cleaning supplies to help residents in Minot and the surrounding area affected by flooding.

FARGO — The Great Plains Food Bank announced Thursday it will serve as the central collection point for donations of nonperishable food, personal care items and cleaning supplies to help residents in Minot and the surrounding area affected by flooding.

The products will be used for those seeking help at shelters and mobile feeding units, during clean–up efforts and at food pantries and other charitable feeding programs expected to see increased demand because of the flood.

“Whether it’s a few items or a few pallets, we know how passionately the Cass–Clay community responds to crisis,” Steve Sellent, program director for the food bank, stated in a news release. “With the severity of this disaster, we know that a tremendous amount of resources will be needed in the Minot region in the days and weeks ahead.”

Items may be dropped off at the Great Plains Food Bank at 1720 3rd Ave. N. in Fargo. Hours are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, noon to 5 p.m. Sunday and during regular business hours starting Monday.

The items will be sorted, and the first truckload of food is scheduled to arrive this morning in Minot.

An estimated 15 or more semi–loads will be distributed to the Minot region through donations from various food banks, food industry donors and items collected from the community, the release stated.

To volunteer for the effort, call the Great Plains Food Bank at (701) 232–6219.

Food donations also will be collected through July at Fargo–Moorhead's six Hornbacher's stores, four Sunmart stores, two Cash Wise Foods stores and three Walmart stores. Collection barrels will be clearly marked at the stores' front entrances.

Feeding Hope
The Great Plains Food Bank touches the lives of more than 52,000 children, seniors and working families each year who struggle with, or are at risk of hunger. Each year over 5 million pounds of surplus food is donated by local, regional and national food industry partners. This food is then distributed to people in need through our statewide network of 230 member food shelves, emergency shelters, soup kitchens and other charitable feeding program in 80 communities.

What is Orphan Grain Train?

Orphan Grain Train is a Christian volunteer network that shares personal and material resources with needy people in America and around the world. Grain Train volunteers gather donations of clothing, medical supplies, food, Christian literature, and other aid to meet real needs. The Orphan Grain Train movement is a loving response to Jesus Christ's example as a servant and His love for us.

Operations

Orphan Grain Train is a hands–on, Christian, humanitarian aid and disaster relief organization built on a nationwide network of volunteers. Grain Train?s 18 regional divisions collect, pack and ship more than 150 semi–loads of donated clothing, relief supplies and humanitarian aid each year.

In addition to international efforts, disaster relief within the United States is a key part of Orphan Grain Train's mission. Most recently, over 100 semi loads of supplies have been shipped to the Gulf Coast to aid in the recovery from Hurricanes Katrina and Rita. To see this effort first–hand, Grain Train's Katrina Response video can be viewed online here.

Orphan Grain Train also has a number of special projects which include unique, specialized opportunities to make a direct impact on the lives of those in need.

As a 501(c)(3) organization, Orphan Grain Train is exempt from federal income taxes and your donations are tax deductible. Donations sent by mail may also receive a 50% match by Thrivent Financial for Lutherans! To learn more, please visit our financial information page.

Much has been accomplished through Orphan Grain Train in the fourteen years since 1992, but much remains to be done. Please consider joining us. Help us respond to the material and spiritual needs of people around the world. Get on board now!

Volunteer

Get on board! You can be a part of Orphan Grain Train's worldwide relief ministry, joining the thousands of Christians already bringing Christ's name and character to needy people both far and near.

Since 1992, Orphan Grain Train volunteers have collected and shipped over 1,000 semi loads of relief supplies throughout the United States and around the world.
In 2005, OGT shipped 162 semi loads of relief.

In order to further enable God's people to share material and personal resources with those in need, Orphan Grain Train is seeking volunteers in the following areas:

* Trucking (semi drivers)
* Clothes sorting and packing
* Speaking engagements and presentations
* Fish Feeds and other special events

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact your nearest Orphan Grain Train Regional Division. http://www.ogt.org/regional_divisions.cfm

If there is no regional division in your state, please call the OGT International Office at (402) 371-7393 or email us at email@ogt.org.

Take Action to Aid Hurricane Irene Victims

On August 31st President Obama issued a Presidential Disaster Declaration for the State of New Jersey due to damage caused by Hurricane Irene. The people of New Jersey need your help. We hope that you can come to the aid of those in need as soon as possible.

The fastest, most efficient way to help relief efforts is online. Contribute at:http://www.njfoodbank.org/helpnow

We have prepared more than 20,000 meals to date and distributed new clothing and cleanup supplies each day. View photos of our food preparation on September 2 as we readied to feed 5,000 people per day over Labor Day weekend.

We are also looking for these food items:

Cereal; Peanut Butter; Jelly (no glass); “Meal in a Can” (soups, stews); Canned Meats (tuna, chicken, ham); Canned Vegetables; Canned Fruits; Pasta; Pasta Sauce (no glass); Rice & Canned Beans

The public can drop off these food items at the following locations (please refresh your page as new sites continuously added):

The FoodBank Brings Healing And Hope To The Jersey Shore
The FoodBank of Monmouth and Ocean Counties distributes approximately 7 million pounds annually through a network of 260 feeding programs, such as soup kitchens, food pantries, and shelters. One out of every ten people living in Monmouth and Ocean Counties receives food from The FoodBank.

Since Superstorm Sandy struck the Jersey Shore on October 29, 2012, The FoodBank has been actively involved in the work to bring relief and comfort to the communities we serve.

Working shoulder to shoulder with relief agencies, government programs and others involved in the recovery effort, we distributed food for approximately 1 million meals.

Here are some of the ways The FoodBank has helped in the recovery process:

We provided food for hot meals prepared by emergency feeding programs for displaced residents in communities across Monmouth and Ocean Counties.

Our Culinary Kitchen prepared hot meals daily for churches and civic organizations serving storm–stricken communities.

Disaster kits and other critically–needed items were delivered to some of the region’s most hard–hit areas.

We are working to rebuild agencies that were damaged by the storm. Several food pantries incurred heavy losses of food and equipment. Many others are coping with the influx of hundreds of additional families in need of emergency food.

Our work is far from over. Helping our neighbors as they rebuild their homes and their lives will take months, if not years. Our most critical need at this time is financial support – a $1 donation can provide 3 meals. In partnership with all of our supporters, we will continue to deliver food and hope to all those in need in Monmouth and Ocean Counties.

If you need assistance, click on the “Need Help” tab on the website. To find out how you can help, click on “How to Help” above or call us at (732) 918–2600.

Sandy update by Terra: Normally, ACDR operates warehouses. They have expressed a need for some warehousing equipment, but it's not clear yet, if they have set up local disaster recovery ops. There were several Adventist churches destroyed. So in this disaster, it looks like they've got compounded challenges.

For Immediate Release:

October 30, 2012

Springfield, Mo. – Convoy of Hope's Global Disaster Response team has sent an additional 80,000 pounds of emergency supplies, a debris removal trailer and two rapid response teams to the Northeast U.S. today. Teams are focusing their response in New Jersey at this time.

"Our trucks and personnel that left Sunday were pre–staged in College Park, Pennsylvania and are moving into New Jersey now," reports Jeff Nene, national spokesperson for Convoy of Hope. "The teams leaving today will be headed for the east coast and will be assigned a location when they are closer to the affected area."

Damaged and closed roads, along with closed bridges have made travel slow but the teams continue to coordinate with FEMA, along with local and state emergency agencies. News agencies are reporting millions without power and in need of assistance.

Convoy of Hope will continue to coordinate their efforts with federal, state and local emergency management agencies. "The disaster area is extremely large," said Nene. "We are starting in New Jersey because of the number of people without power is so significant and we can have an immediate impact."

Those wishing to make a contribution to the Hurricane Sandy relief efforts can make a secure online contribution at http://www.convoyofhope or, to place a $10 donation on your cellular bill, text the word CONVOY to 50555. Standard text and data rates apply.

Roadrunner Food Bank of New Mexico has been serving New Mexico's hungry since 1980 and is the leader in creating solutions to end hunger in New Mexico. Since its inception twenty seven years ago, Roadrunner Food Bank has distributed more than 150 million pounds of food. That's equal to 5000 transfer truckloads of food.

Roadrunner Food Bank solicits, collects, and transports approximately 14 million pounds of food yearly. Roadrunner Food Bank distributes the food through a statewide network of over 700 emergency food pantries, group homes, low–income day care centers, shelters, soup kitchens, and six smaller, regional food banks. In turn, these organizations provide emergency food boxes, group meals, and direct distribution to approximately 240,000 low–income people each year.

Roadrunner Food Bank provides food, water and other supplies in local and national disaster relief efforts. This spring, in response to the devastating tornadoes in Clovis, Roadrunner Food Bank sent 100,000 pounds of food to the Eastern New Mexico Food Bank. In August 2006, Roadrunner Food Bank provided emergency food to 450 families affected by flooding in Hatch, Alamo, Socorro, and Laguna, New Mexico.

Adventist Community Services Disaster Response (ACS DR) teams are responding to the effects of Hurrincane Irene. North Carolina is still doing assessments and exploring the possibility of setting up a distribution center.Virginia is doing assessments. Maryland is in pretty good shape. Pennsylvania has a mobile feeding unit in Goshen and are considering storing goods at a central location for assisting survivors. New Jersey ACS DR team are getting personal care kits and flood buckets out to survivors. In New York, there was more water & wind damge upstate than in New York City. The state of New York is talking about opening a multi–agency warehouse.

Please continue to pray for those affected by these continuing disasters as well as those who so generously give of their time to help others in need.

From the NYVOAD Member Directory:

Organizational Structure

The state disaster program is coordinated through the Community Service Director with assistance of state and area disaster coordinators. Adventist Community Service Disaster Response of New York plays an important role in the NYS Donations Management Plan.

Disaster Program

The following services are provided to disaster victims, their families and communities in cooperation with the other government and voluntary disaster response agencies. Services are provided without regard to any person's race, color, language, age, religion, or gender.

1. Emergency Distribution Centers –– Drinking water, groceries, blankets, personal comfort kits, disposable diapers, cleaning supplies, hand tools, plastic sheeting, felt paper, and clothing are provided to meet the immediate needs of families. Donations of groceries, blankets, clothing and other supplies are accepted from the general public and processed for distribution by ACS volunteers and through cooperating agencies. Relief Centers are often based in community facilities such as a high school gym or church hall. At times distribution is done from mobile units.

2. Warehouse Operations –– Inter–agency "Reception Centers" for truckloads of donated goods are operated by ACS under contracts with state and local governments on behalf of and in collaboration with the other voluntary disaster relief agencies and local service organizations. Volunteers sort donations, log them into a computerized inventory for emergency managers, and re–package them for effective use by local distribution sites.

3. Donations Coordination Center –– Groups, corporations and individuals who want to provide donated goods or volunteers are encouraged to "call ahead" to ascertain the real needs and coordinate safe arrival of needed items and helpful volunteers. ACS works closely with the state emergency management agencies and FEMA when Donations Coordination Teams (DCT) Organizational are convened. It also maintains a backup, national clearinghouse at (800) 381–7171 which operates immediately, 24–hours–a–day in any emergency.

4. Community Collection Centers – ACS works with radio stations, churches, and civic groups to gather donated goods when emergency needs exist. Its national, grass–roots network enables ACS to quickly generate supplies and help when needed. Any interested person, business or group is invited to get involved.

5. Listening Posts and Door–to–Door Visitation –– The emotional and spiritual needs of disaster victims, their relatives and neighbors are addressed by providing opportunities for them to ask questions, chat informally or request prayer and pastoral care. Door–to–door visits are designed to provide useful information about the full range of disaster services and agencies. Listening Posts are established with interfaith groups of pastors and trained lay pastoral workers.

6. Disaster Child Care –– ACS provides trained volunteers who participate in the Disaster Child Care program, an interagency collaborative project that provides temporary day care centers for victims of disasters as they deal with reorganizing their personal affairs. To maintain the security of the children in the program, all volunteers are supervised from one central registration office.

Conference Structures: There are two overlapping Adventist Conferences that cover New York State, The New York Conference (which is divided into the Greater New York Territory and the New York Conference), and the Northeastern Conference.

Greater New York Conference Territory: New York City and the Counties of Columbia, Dutchess, Greene, Nassau, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Suffolk, Sullivan, Ulster and Westchester.

New York Conference: All remaining New York State Counties.

Northeastern Conference: All New York State

2010 Haiti Earthquake

Haiti Assessment Team ReturnsThoughts from Michael VanHook, Team Leader

Our Assessment Team to Haiti has safely returned home. It's very difficult to describe in words what we saw and experienced, but together we can affirm that God was present and sovereign over every detail.

Succinctly stated, the situation in Haiti is dire; lives are in the balance with every hour that passes. All of Haiti is traumatized with a deep fear. I can't emphasize enough that your financial and in–kind donations are making a difference and saving lives. We were able to deliver aid directly to orphanages and ministries that will sustain hundreds of human lives for weeks.

Currently Matthew 25: Ministries is accepting the following items for disaster relief:

1. Cash donations
2. Nonperishable food
3. Personal care products (Especially Diapers)
4. Cleaning products (No Bleach)
5. First Aid Supplies
6. Paper Products
7. Summer Clothing (Second Response Need)

We desperately need the items listed above. We will be accepting donations of these products indefinitely at our processing center. If you are interested in organizing a drive through your church, work, or school, that would be great! All product donations will be very much appreciated. At this time, however, we cannot provide collection bins, and we cannot make pick–ups for donations less than a truckload. Please contact us with any questions.

A number of places are collecting items on behalf of Matthew 25: Ministries. We've compiled a list of drop–off locations for your convenience. All products donated at these sites will be delivered to Matthew 25.

We will continue to update this information as more details become available. For more information, contact Matthew 25: Ministries at 513–793–6256. Thank you for joining us in helping this nation in despair.

Matthew 25: Ministries rescues and reuses items from corporations, hospitals and individuals throughout the United States. Matthew 25 hand touches and evaluates all incoming products to ensure that these goods are appropriate for their intended destination. With the help of volunteers, M25M then categorizes, sorts, processes and packages these products for shipment. The items are shipped within the US and around the world and distributed to those in need. Often this process is accomplished in collaboration with other smaller relief organizations. Read more about how we:

 Provide Humanitarian Aid and Disaster Relief

 Collect Aid

 Process Aid

 Deliver Aid

 Collaborate with Other Organizations ***
Matthew 25: Ministries realizes that one way to effectively help the poor of the world is to collaborate with other organizations that have similar goals. We work extensively with civic groups, humanitarian organizations and religious groups locally, nationally and internationally. These groups often collaborate with M25M because they do not have the experience in acquiring and distributing humanitarian supplies on the same scale. Because of Matthew 25: Ministries' access to donated goods and our efficient warehousing and shipping operations, we are able to help organizations turn every $1 they spend into $97 of humanitarian aid delivered to the poor.

M25M works with organizations of all sizes. We often work with organizations that are making onetime shipments of aid as well as with those that ship 100 plus containers through us annually. These organizations have found that working with M25M is the most cost effective way to supply significant quantities of humanitarian supplies to those in need.

WATERVILLE, OH -- Haiti which is still trying to recover after a devastating earthquake in January is now about to be hit with some torrential rains from a tropical storm.

With the island nation's second disaster this year nearing, a local relief group is coming to Haiti's aid again.

ISOH/IMPACT is collecting donations to send to Haiti where hundreds of thousands of people are living in tent cities. The group sent tons of supplies to Haiti after that deadly earthquake 11 months ago.

ISOH/IMPACT is encouraging the community to reach out and get involved. In addition to accepting monetary donations, ISOH/IMPACT is encouraging everyone to join The Bucket Brigade.

Here's what is needed:

First Aid Kits & Other Medical Supplies Personal Hygiene Items Canned & Non-Perishable Food Items with manual can openers Diapers, Wipes, Canned Baby Formula Baby Care Items Rubber Gloves & Masks Paper Towels & Toilet Paper Flashlights & Batteries Large Trash Bags Laundry Detergent, Bleach, Brooms, Dustpans Tents, Tarps, Ropes & Duct Tape Cash donations to help offset packaging and shipping costs. No water, glass items or clothing.

Donations can be dropped off at any area Tireman Auto Service Center during normal business hours and at ISOH/IMPACT's Waterville warehouse located at 905 Farnsworth Rd. in Waterville, OH. There is a P.O.D.S. container onsite at the Waterville Warehouse for 24/7 drop-offs. Cash and credit card donations can be made online.

FROM THE SITE:

Reaching Out to Haiti
Thursday, 04 November 2010 20:29
ISOH/IMPACT has conducted a live load of a 53' container of relief supplies bound for Haiti this afternoon, Thursday, November

4 at 1:00 p.m. from our warehouse located at 905 Farnsworth Rd. in Waterville, OH. This load will include orthopedic and medical supplies, personal care items, tarps and cleaning supplies.

With Hurricane Tomas bearing down and an epidemic of cholera that has spread throughout the country, ISOH/IMPACT is encouraging the community to reach out and get involved. In addition to accepting monetary donations, ISOH/IMPACT is encouraging everyone to join The Bucket Brigade.

By filling a clean 5–gallon bucket (be sure to include a lid) with either cleaning supplies, personal care items, baby care items, medical supplies, emergency food relief, or even pet care supplies, you can help provide hope to children, families and entire communities, many of whom lost everything in the January earthquake and have no place to go. If you would like to participate in the Bucket Brigade but can't fill a bucket on your own, a donation of $35 will allow ISOH/IMPACT to fill, ship and distribute the bucket of your choice.

Specific item needed at this time are:

* 5 Gallon Buckets with Lids – Clean (New preferred)
* Bagged Rice & Dry Beans
* Over the counter medications including antibiotic ointments, ibuprofen, acetaminophen and aspirin
* First Aid Kits & Other Medical Supplies
* Personal Hygiene Items
* Canned & Non–Perishable Food Items with manual can openers
* Diapers, Wipes, Canned Baby Formula Baby Care Items
* Rubber Gloves & Masks
* Paper Towels & Toilet Paper
* Flashlights & Batteries
* Large Trash Bags
* Laundry Detergent, Bleach, Brooms, Dustpans
* Tents, Tarps, Ropes & Duct Tape
* Cash donations to help offset packaging and shipping costs

Please, no water, glass items or clothing

How do we help?
We distributed more than 4–million pounds of food during the past year to more than 106 nonprofit agencies in Washington County, including:

* emergency food box programs
* soup kitchens
* senior centers
* group homes
* adult day–care programs

* gleaning
* Community Basket
* migrant outreach program
* food basket program

This fiscal year, 35 emergency food box agencies served an average of 12,259 households each month with a five–to–seven–day supply of emergency food.

Our member agencies served emergency meals to low–income residents at

* senior centers
* adult group homes
* youth group homes and
* soup kitchens

More people working minimum wage jobs are having difficulty making ends meet.

Furniture makes a house a home.
No matter how, when, or where you give, you're giving families in need the gift of a home.

We couldn't fulfill our mission without the help of our generous donors, or our fabulous volunteers. And we're always in need of both! Learn how you can give the gift of home – today.

Plan to bring the following items to our Warehouses (however Pick ups are still unavailable at this time):

Kitchen Tables and chairs
Dishware (plates, bowls, cups, and silverware – no china or metal–rimmed dishware)
Cookware (pots, pans, cooking utensils)
Small appliances (microwaves, toasters, toaster ovens, coffee makers)
Armchairs
Coffee tables
Sofas (no sleeper sofas, sectionals, or recliners)
Hollywood (metal) bed frames

Nightstands
Mattresses and box springs (no King size)
(CHECK WEBSITE FOR CURRENT LISTS & information)

As we resume donation drop–off, our staff is excited to share with you several new details about the process of collecting your donations then getting them to neighbors in need. You have come to the right place because we will frequently update our website with our clients' most–needed items!

To ensure that your donations are accepted, please refer to the list below. Then, drop off your donations to our Warehouses (located in Portland and Tualatin) on weekdays from 10 am– 4 pm. Our staff will verify the quality and condition of these donations before collection. At this time, furnishings that are too large or heavy may be declined.

Clients and their families receiving your donations will see these items for the first time upon delivery to their doorstep. Community Warehouse staff ensures that the quality and condition of donations will immediately give clients the feeling of delight, excitement, and dignity.

Considering this, acceptance of donations will be at the discretion of our staff.

Thank you for helping us put used goods to good use!

Volunteer
The generosity of our volunteers allows us to fulfill our mission – putting used goods to good use – every day. You'll get a fun, hands–on experience by volunteering in our furniture bank, our Estate Store, or at one of our events. Whether you're a first time volunteer or a group looking to make a difference, we'll welcome you with open arms – and a smile. Help families by joining our volunteer family today.

Help fill the Oregon Food Bank Network's empty warehouse shelves – 09/21/07
PORTLAND, Ore. (Sept. 21, 2007) – The Oregon Food Bank Network needs your help.

"Oregon Food Bank's warehouse shelves are as empty as I've ever seen them," said Rachel Bristol, OFB's CEO.

On average, OFB normally has 300,000 pounds of new donations to offer the OFB Network weekly and delivers about 700,000 pounds of food each week from its warehouse to its network of regional food banks and local helping agencies throughout Oregon and Clark County, Wash. But in the last few weeks, weekly offerings have dropped by 25–75% and statewide deliveries are down 200,000 pounds per week.

"The entire statewide Oregon Food Bank Network of regional food banks and the 900 local agencies we serve throughout Oregon and southwest Washington are feeling the impact," Bristol said.

The situation

• OFB is shipping available food to regional food banks and local agencies as quickly as it comes in.

• Salvaged product (dented cans from retailers) is disappearing. OFB has depleted its salvaged inventory.

• OFB's has depleted its frozen–food inventory, product that in recent history has served as OFB's safety net.

• U.S.D.A. commodities: OFB continues to see a severe decline in U.S. Department of Agriculture commodities. During the last two months, U.S.D.A. commodities dropped an additional 300,000 pounds. Overall, during the last four years USDA commodities have dropped 52 percent or more than six–million pounds.

• Food industry: Food–industry donations are down 1.1–million pounds in comparison to the same period last year. The combination of a strong consumer market, high commodity prices, increased biofuel demand, increased efficiency in food manufacturing and international markets mean both national and local sources of food are way down.

• Food recall: Last month, due to a major, nationwide recall of products from a food–processing plant, OFB returned two–and–a–half truckloads of product to the manufacturer and has additional two–and–a–half truckloads of product on hold that OFB can't distribute.

"All of this means we have a big gap to fill – even before the holiday giving season – and need your support more than ever to help people in need," Bristol said.

This situation isn't unique to Oregon," Bristol notes. "Food banks across the country – Oklahoma, California, New York – report similar shortages." (See New York Times, Sept. 20, 2007)

How to help

• Donate funds.

Donate on line at www.oregonfoodbank.org. OFB will use funds to help acquire, store and move food.

• Food industry (farmers, processors, distributors, retailers and wholesalers)

OFB welcomes donations from all sectors of the food industry. Please call Mike Moran, OFB's food resource manager, (503) 282–0555, Ext. 209.

• Cans Film Festival Food Drive

Participate in Cans Film Festival Food Drive, Thursday, Sept. 27. Bring three cans – more if possible – of nonperishable food to any Regal Cinemas theater and see a free movie and get free popcorn. Don't have time to see a movie? You can still drop off food at Regal Cinemas, Sept. 27.

• Organize a food drive

Organize your own food drive. OFB can help. Please call Maryann Brunner, (503) 282–0555, Ext. 226. Drop off donations at OFB facilities or call us for the location of an OFB Network agency near you.

• Donate part of your harvest

Harvesting your garden? Donate part of your harvest to your local food pantry or soup kitchen. Call OFB, (503) 282–0555, to find out the local hunger–relief agency in your neighborhood.

• Write U.S. Senators

Write your U.S. Senators. Ask them to support increased funding for TEFAP (USDA emergency food) in the farm bill.

Thank you for collecting food for people who are hungry. Please bring your food donations to one of Oregon Food Bank's two warehouses:

The ReBuilding Center is a project of Our United Villages, a non-profit community enhancement organization. Developed by dedicated volunteers, The ReBuilding Center is modeled after successful building material reuse centers throughout North America (over 500 in the United States and Canada).

The ReBuilding Center opened to the public in 1998 and moved to a 24,000 square foot warehouse in 1999. By 2001, five tons of materials were being kept out of the landfill each day! In 2005 The ReBuilding Center completed its expansion project, adding 40,000 square feet of developed property and the potential to divert nearly ten tons of construction and demolition waste per day by 2008.

The ReBuilding Center is a popular destination for homeowners, do-it-yourselfers, contractors, artists, and enthusiasts interested in building with affordable, environmentally low impact materials. With an inventory that changes by the hour, The ReBuilding Center is the largest non-profit used building materials resource in North America.

The Five Major Goals of The ReBuilding Center:

Contribute to the sustainability and health of our environment by diverting for reuse waste that would otherwise have been discarded into landfills; Provide environmentally sound, affordable, quality used building and remodeling materials to people of all income levels; Create livable-wage, local jobs for people of all backgrounds in an economically depressed area of our region;
Educate Oregonians about the environmental and community benefits of diverting waste for reuse and recycling; and

The ReBuilding Center plays an important role in the region's effort to maintain livable neighborhoods, preserve natural resources, and reduce reusable materials from entering the wastestream. With widespread community support, The ReBuilding Center diverts 4.5 million pounds of reusable building materials from entering our landfills each year.

Thank you for making The ReBuilding Center a vibrant resource that strengthens the environmental, economic, and social fabric of local communities.

UNITED METHODISTS RESPOND TO FLOODING IN PENNSYLVANIA
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE UNITED METHODISTS RESPOND TO FLOODING IN PENNSYLVANIA Mission Central in Mechanicsburg, PA is prepared with thousands of cleaning buckets with more on the way from United Methodist Committee on Relief. Mission Central is working with the Susquehanna Conference Disaster Coordinator and his team as they assess damages. Persons are invited to help in two ways: (1... NEEDS LIST CURRENT AS OF August 23, 2011
The items listed below are needed for Relief Kits: (SEE FOR DETAILS)
http://www.missioncentral.org/node/179

The Challenge!

In November, 2006, Mission Central began to search for a way to enable persons from the more distant regions of our Conference to participate in the kind of volunteer and service activities experienced in Mechanicsburg without having to travel so far! With the recent increases in fuel costs, a means to accomplish this goal has become even more significant as we seek the means to enable God's people to be His hands and feet in service!

The Solution!

HUBs – places where people could go and experience a smaller version of Mission Central that was directed and managed by people feeling called to expand our outreach – were devised in February, 2007. What we envisioned as a one or two location start has grown beyond our imagined level of interest – putting us way ahead of our intended schedule!

WHO MAY VOLUNTEER?

All ages are welcome to participate in this ministry. We work with any individual, organization, or religious denomination. The size of volunteer groups varies depending on available tasks and participants. Usually group sizes range from 5 to 20. We recommend no more than 30 people here at one time unless special arrangements have been made.

WHAT WORK WILL BE DONE?

Assemble, verify and pack UMCOR Relief Kits
Sort donated materials
Warehouse labor: stack, move, wrap, etc.
Maintain the facility
Sweep, Vacuum, Mop, Wipe
Lawn & Yard maintenance
Truck loading/unloading

Area Food Bank Pleads for Post–Holiday Food Donations

by KYW's Karin Phillips

The local food bank "Philabundance" wants area residents to know that they still need food donations now that the holidays are over.

Philabundance says the need for food is increasing in this area –– and around the country –– primarily because the numbers of working poor is also increasing every day.

Martha Buccino of Philabundance:

"People are working but the salaries are low. They cannot afford all their needs that the family has, such as heating. So the choices are, do I get heat or do I get food? Do we heat or eat?"

Buccino says Philabundance received over a half–million pounds of food November and December after a call went out to answer the growing need. But she says that now that the holidays are over, the warehouse capacity of Philabundance is well below its preferred 90 percent.

She says she hopes local organizations will start to rev up local and regional food drives to meet the mounting need.

Philabundance is the region’s largest food rescue organization. In fiscal 2006, we distributed 26 million pounds of food. We serve low income residents at risk of hunger and malnutrition, of which 23% are children and 16% are senior citizens.

The food does not come directly from Philabundance. Our two warehouses hold the food that is collected and donated, then repacked for distribution to our network of more than 600 member agencies throughout the Delaware Valley. These agencies include food cupboards, neighborhood distributions, shelters, emergency kitchens and various social service agencies with special programs such as daycares and senior centers.

The agencies serve people in need in Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties in PA, and in Burlington, Camden, Gloucester, Mercer and Salem counties in NJ.

Currently, Philabundance distributes food to member agencies through the following distribution systems:

∗Orders for items on the weekly Philabundance Food Bank menu that can be delivered or picked up at the Berks location.

∗Items picked up from the Walk Through shopping area at the Berks location.
∗Produce delivered weekly.

When we find ourselves with products that cannot be used by our network of agencies, then we have the ability to share it with other food banks throughout America's Second Harvest network. Often it is produce that is so highly valued by food banks and is available to Philabundance due to our geographic location.

Member agencies pay shared maintenance as well as delivery fees for the food they receive from the Food Bank. Agencies may also apply for the Produce Program to either receive a weekly delivery or come to a produce hub distribution; the Produce Program is free and agencies that apply are added to a waitlist for the next available space.

In 2005, Philabundance integrated with the Philadelphia Food Bank to become the region's largest nonprofit hunger relief organization. Today, Philabundance offers a full plate of services to Delaware Valley residents at risk of chronic hunger and malnutrition.

Philabundance provides food if and when a disaster strikes. During the Hurricane Katrina aftermath Philabundance was the fourth largest provider of food to the Gulf.

BROTHER'S BROTHER FOUNDATION IN COOPERATION WITH THE JAPAN–AMERICAN SOCIETY OF PENNSYLVANIA RESPONDS TO EARTHQUAKE/TSUNAMI IN JAPAN

Following today's 8.9 magnitude earthquake off the east coast of Japan that generated tsunami destruction on the island of Japan, Brother's Brother Foundation (BBF), in cooperation with the Japan–American Society of Pennsylvania (JASP) will respond to requested needs of the residents of Japan.
The JASP has been proud to serve the Pittsburgh region for twenty five years. Throughout its history, the JASP has been dedicated to improving international understanding and strengthening the ties between Japan and Western Pennsylvania. "We have always recognized the critical business relationships between Japanese and American companies who employ a large number of people in Western Pennsylvania and who are creating world class products and services. In addition, we are proud to sponsor important cultural and educational outreach activities which help bring diversity and international understanding to our greater Pennsylvania schools and community", said Stephen Ceurvorst who serves as Chairman of the JASP. "Our thoughts and prayers go out to all of those living in Japan or who have loved ones in the area. The JASP and Brother's Brother teamed up after the 1995 earthquake disaster in Kobe by supporting an orphanage in order to provide assistance to victims who were least able to help themselves", said Mr. Ceurvorst.
BBF, a 53–year old Pittsburgh–based international charity, has provided over $4 billion of medical supplies, textbooks, food, seeds, and other humanitarian supplies to people around the world in over 140 countries. With the help of gifts from the general public, corporations and the US government, in 2010 BBF sent product contributions to those in need in 52 countries including Cameroon, Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Ghana, Guatemala, Guyana, Haiti, Honduras, Iraq, Jamaica, Liberia, Nicaragua, Philippines, Rwanda, Sierra Leone, Sudan, and Uganda. These shipments were the equivalent of 236 tractor trailer loads. Also in 2010, BBF provided supplies for 241 medical and humanitarian hand–carry mission trips.
Charity Navigator continues to give BBF a 4–star rating for BBF's ability to efficiently manage and grow its finances. Forbes Magazine, in this year's Investment Guide, once again noted BBF's efficiency with a 100% rating for fundraising efficiency and charitable commitment. The Better Business Bureau again gave BBF its "Wise Giving Alliance Standards" seal of approval.
Donations to assist with shipping costs are always greatly appreciated. Credit card donations can be made at www.brothersbrother.org or by calling BBF at 412–321–3160. Checks should be made to the Brother's Brother Foundation and sent to:

Mission Central is the mission warehouse of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the United Methodist Church. Our partners include other United Methodist conferences in the Northeast Jurisdiction as well as a host of denominational and nondenominational mission groups in southcentral Pennsylvania. Since our beginning in June 2002, Mission Central has hosted thousands of volunteers who come to Mission Central to experience being "the hands and feet of God" in service. With our volunteers, we process United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) "Relief Kits" for use around the world, provide all types of needed supplies for local and national ministries, and assist many projects that are sending God's love around the world. Working in concert with other denominational and nondenominational programs, we have sent medical supplies, educational supplies, and daily living supplies and equipment to destinations such as Africa, Argentina, Kenya, Belarus, and other areas where the needs are great. Our work in disaster response has provided aid for people affected by every major weather event since 2003.

As a ministry of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the United Methodist Church, Mission Central is governed by a 27 member Board of Managers elected annually by the Central PA Annual Conference. We are a separate entity, connected to the Central PA Annual Conference through the Conference Council on Ministries with membership on the Conference Board of Global Ministries. Mission Central conducts its activities within the social principals of the denomination.

DISASTER RELIEF

Nationally
As a member of Feeding America, Harvest Hope is actively involved in responding to disasters that affect member food banks. Harvest Hope works in partnership with the national office to ensure that our response is tailored to the specific needs of affected communities. From fundraising locally to shipping needed supplies from our warehouse, we are committed to relief efforts as long as the need persists.

In September of 2005, Harvest Hope provided over 40,000 pounds of food to food banks damaged by Hurricane Katrina and 16,000 pounds of food to Katrina evacuees who relocated to South Carolina.

For more information on Disaster Relief at Harvest Hope, please contact Bill Shinn (803) 254–4432, Ext. 1105.

Statewide
Harvest Hope Food Bank plays a vital role in responding to emergencies that impact South Carolina and our nation. As one of four food banks in the South Carolina Food Bank Association, Harvest Hope provides millions of pounds of food to hundreds of food assistance programs throughout 20 counties in the state. This creates the potential for Harvest Hope to provide significant aid to people affected by disasters. By coupling the Food Bank's expertise and efficiency in food distribution with the capabilities of the South Carolina Emergency Management Division, SC Department of Social Services, the Seventh Day Adventist, and the Red Cross's in responding to disasters, these organizations are prepared to deliver nourishing food, water and supplies quickly to South Carolinians affected by crises including terrorist acts.

The Food Bank of Abilene, Inc. dba Food Bank of West Central Texas is a non–profit 501 (C) 3 community service organization that collects donated food to distribute to other non–profit agencies serving the needy of the Big Country.Their warehouse has approximately 23,000 sq. ft. of storage space. There are now over 150 agencies in thirteen counties receiving food. Our service area includes Brown, Callahan, Coleman, Comanche, Eastland, Fisher, Jones, Mitchell, Nolan, Runnels, Shackelford, Stephens, and Taylor counties, covering over 12,000 square miles.

The Food Bank of West Central Texas distributes up to 3 million pounds of grocery products each year. These items serve 175 non–profit agencies in Abilene and the surrounding 13 counties. By partnering with the Food Bank, these agencies save more than $ 4.9 million dollars in food purchase costs annually. Some agencies rely on the Food Bank for 100% of their food. The money saved by member agencies can be spent on their programs instead of purchasing food at retail or wholesale prices.

West Texas Food Bank was established by a small group of concerned citizens in 1985 to address the critical issue of hunger in West Texas. In the first year, the Food Bank provided 203,000 pounds of food and groceries to 40 agencies on a budget of only $50,000. In 1996, addition of the El Paso area brought the service area to a total of 22 counties. Since 2005, the Food Bank has annually distributed more than 5 million pounds of food to nonprofit partner agencies.

West Texas Food Bank has an mission to increase public awareness on issues of hunger. This focus is multi-faceted. Increased donations of food and dollars so as to continue the service to agencies and their clients is one benefit of public awareness, but providing nutrition education and assisting our agencies in distribution of nutritious food is also part of that awareness, as is the need to inform those needing assistance that help is available in West Texas.

A member in good standing of America's Second Harvest The Nation's Food Bank Network and the Texas Food Bank Network, West Texas Food Bank receives guidance in the form of operating standards, training, inspection, and food supply information. Additionally, The Food Bank is appointed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Federal Emergency Management Administration to provide emergency and disaster food assistance throughout West Texas and to assist other regions as needed in these types of emergencies.

THE HIGH PLAINS FOOD BANK is a non–profit organization that collects and distributes donated, surplus food to agencies in the Texas Panhandle. In 2006, they distributed 4.9 million pounds of food (over 3.8 million meals!). Their mission is to Alleviate Hunger in the Panhandle.

Approximately 205,000 meals are served each month through their onsite agencies. An average of 7,600 families are provided with 10 days of meals each month through their pantry agencies.

To Become an Agency of the High Plains Food Bank you must be:

–A non–profit organization as defined by section 501(c)(3) of the IRS tax code for tax–exempt organizations
–Sponsored by a 501(c)(3) organization
–The organization must meet the IRS requirements for classification of a church –Church sponsored –The agency must use the food exclusively to serve the ill, needy, or infants

West Texas Food Bank was established by a small group of concerned citizens in 1985 to address the critical issue of hunger in West Texas. In the first year, the Food Bank provided 203,000 pounds of food and groceries to 40 agencies on a budget of only $50,000. In 1996, addition of the El Paso area brought the service area to a total of 22 counties. Since 2005, the Food Bank has annually distributed more than 5 million pounds of food to nonprofit partner agencies.

West Texas Food Bank has an mission to increase public awareness on issues of hunger. This focus is multi–faceted. Increased donations of food and dollars so as to continue the service to agencies and their clients is one benefit of public awareness, but providing nutrition education and assisting our agencies in distribution of nutritious food is also part of that awareness, as is the need to inform those needing assistance that help is available in West Texas.

A member in good standing of America's Second Harvest The Nation's Food Bank Network and the Texas Food Bank Network, West Texas Food Bank receives guidance in the form of operating standards, training, inspection, and food supply information. Additionally, The Food Bank is appointed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Federal Emergency Management Administration to provide emergency and disaster food assistance throughout West Texas and to assist other regions as needed in these types of emergencies.

Tarrant Area Food Bank(TAFB) works to eliminate hunger in Fort Worth, Texas and 13 surrounding counties by providing food, education and other resources to a network of hunger–relief charities and their communities.

TAFB is a regional, nonprofit distributor of surplus, donated food and non–food products. As a partner of America's Second Harvest, they serve 300 nonprofit hunger–relief and social service agencies and programs in the Fort Worth/Dallas area of north Texas. Their network of agencies feeds children, the elderly, the severely disabled, victims of AIDS and other chronic diseases, victims of abuse, the working poor and the unemployed.

Each month, on average, the network distributes food to 35,000 households and serves more than 500,000 meals and snacks.

Individuals and families seeking food and other assistance can find help in their ZIP code areas by calling the United Way Community Information & Referral Service any day of the week, any hour of the day. The three–digit phone number is 2–1–1. Cell phone users should dial 817–258–8100.

Food donations may be dropped off at Tarrant Area Food Bank's warehouse, 2600 Cullen Street, Fort Worth, TX 76107 between 8:30 and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and between 8:30 and 2:30 p.m. on Friday. Sometimes, especially during the fall, businesses and other organizations volunteer as drop–off sites for donations. For information about other donation sites, please call Tarrant Area Food Bank at 817–332–9177.

HOUSTON – The Houston Food Bank is asking for help as they try and feed the many empty stomachs affected by Hurricane Ike.

The food bank says they do not have not enough food to supply the need across the area.

John Norris, from St. Anne Catholic Church, says he has seen a increase in need in his Tomball neighborhood.

“There is a great deal of emotional trauma, especially from those who have come to us looking for help who have had their trees into their homes,” Norris said when asked about conditions in the north and west side of Houston.

The Houston Food Bank helps provide about 80 percent of the food served in meals Norris distributes trough his pantry program.

He is urging people to support the Red Barrel program by donating a bag of groceries when shopping in participating store.

To volunteer with the Houston Food Bank you can call 713–223–3700.

9/18/08:

Individuals and businesses can donate food, water and essential items by dropping them off at their facility. The most needed items are: Canned tuna or chicken, packed in water, canned stews and pasta with meat (easy on salt and fat) Peanut butter Canned fruits in light syrup, natural applesauce 100% juice in cans or boxes (no glass, please) Canned vegetables, tomatoes, tomato sauce Soups with meat and/or beans, meal–in–a–can (easy on salt and fat) Cereals and cereal bars (easy on sugar and fat) Pasta, spaghetti, macaroni, noodles Packages of dry beans

 Please choose plastic containers or canned items rather than glass

The Houston Food Bank needs volunteers to put together food packages and pass them out. They say the need for volunteers will continue for weeks. Some volunteer positions can be done by children as young as 8 years old, though they need to be accompanied by an adult at all times.

Some basic rules to know before you go:

– Wear closed–toe shoes.
– No dangly jewelry or loose clothing.
– Personal items are not allowed in the warehouse, so leave purses and bags at home.

EMERGENCY HURRICANE RESPONSE

The Houston Food Bank is open with normal business hours. The Houston Food Bank is working hard to provide relief to families and individuals. We are supplying food and other necessities to our partner agencies and to temporary shelters.

We Need Your Help
To keep up with the growing need for food, we must obtain funds to purchase truckloads of urgently needed, high–demand items. We are also in need of volunteers to process and distribute these items.

We also must replenish our supplies quickly to prepare for future disasters and to make sure we have enough food for struggling families here in our community and throughout the year.

Thank you for your compassion in this time of great need.

The Houston Food Bank is a private Non–profit organization founded in 1982. Today, the food bank feeds the hungry by distributing 38 million pounds of food each year to nearly 400 hunger relief agencies in 18 counties in southeast Texas.
They played a major role during the 2005 hurricane season.

The emergency food assistance program is the main program of the Food Bank RGV. Through our member agencies, we are able to help families in need of food throughout the Valley. The service area of the Food Bank RGV consists of four counties. There are over 194 member agencies throughout these four counties. The Food Bank RGV delivery trucks are constantly on the road delivering agency orders, picking up donated product, and food drives.

These agencies consist of food pantries, on site feeding centers, soup kitchens and shelters.

Emergency Food Assistance

In 2004, the Food Bank RGV distributed over 20 million pounds of non–perishable, fresh produce, and frozen product through over 194 member agencies.

Through these member agencies families and individuals were fed 38,258 times in Acute Emergencies, 256,927 times in Chronic Emergencies, 31,495 times in Supplemental Nutrition programs and 1,511,083 meals were served to hungry persons.

The Emergency Food Assistance Program utilizes USDA commodities through the TEXCAP program. In addition, the Food Bank RGV receives product from national food retailers such as KRAFT, Nabisco, and Del Monte through America's Second Harvest. Also off–the–shelf product from food retailers like H–E–B are shipped to FBRGV monthly. In addition, FBRGV distributes fresh produce, bread, and frozen products.

West Texas Food Bank was established by a small group of concerned citizens in 1985 to address the critical issue of hunger in West Texas. In the first year, the Food Bank provided 203,000 pounds of food and groceries to 40 agencies on a budget of only $50,000. In 1996, addition of the El Paso area brought the service area to a total of 22 counties. Since 2005, the Food Bank has annually distributed more than 5 million pounds of food to nonprofit partner agencies.

West Texas Food Bank has an mission to increase public awareness on issues of hunger. This focus is multi–faceted. Increased donations of food and dollars so as to continue the service to agencies and their clients is one benefit of public awareness, but providing nutrition education and assisting our agencies in distribution of nutritious food is also part of that awareness, as is the need to inform those needing assistance that help is available in West Texas.

A member in good standing of America’s Second Harvest—The Nation’s Food Bank Network and the Texas Food Bank Network, West Texas Food Bank receives guidance in the form of operating standards, training, inspection, and food supply information. Additionally, The Food Bank is appointed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Federal Emergency Management Administration to provide emergency and disaster food assistance throughout West Texas and to assist other regions as needed in these types of emergencies.

West Texas Food Bank’s major purpose and strategy is to serve our partner agencies by collecting corporate and private donations of food and groceries, distributing USDA commodities, and helping those agencies to provide food assistance to needy citizens in their local communities.

The Food Bank maintains three branch warehouses (Alpine, El Paso, and Odessa) where donated food is collected, sorted, inspected, repackaged for household use, and distributed through a network of agencies to needy West Texans. West Texas Food Bank Food Bank seeks local, regional, and national donations of food and groceries, sorts, inspects, repackages, and distributes these wholesome, but unmarketable products through its network of agencies, large and small. Included in that network of charitable organizations are daycare centers, youth programs, senior centers, soup kitchens, homeless shelters, residential shelters, rehabilitation centers, and food pantries. These small organizations rely upon the “bulk buying power” and “increased public awareness” available when they join the West Texas Food Bank hunger–relief network.

Help flows to towns hit by tornado
Communities on both sides of Rio Grande begin cleaning up after powerful twister.

Help began arriving Wednesday in the Texas border town of Eagle Pass as the community began digging out and cleaning up from a powerful tornado that struck the area killing seven people and injuring more than 80.

The scene was much the same across the border in Piedras Negras, Mexico, where three people died and at least 40 were reported injured.

The tornado Tuesday night left a wide swath of destruction, damaging or destroying at least 100 homes and businesses, two elementary schools, a church and a sewage treatment plant.

Officials said the death toll could have been higher if the twister had struck a few hours earlier when children were still in school.

Search and rescue teams and equipment were sent to Eagle Pass, along with medical crews and other state resources as the community began cleanup efforts.

Hundreds of people spent a second night in emergency shelters set up by the American Red Cross.

The Salvation Army sent five mobile feeding kitchens to Eagle Pass and was also serving survivors and relief crews in Piedras Negras. Southern Baptist Disaster Relief deployed one cleaning unit, one feeding unit and one chaplain to Eagle Pass.

Some 1,700 clean clothing packets, along with 400 sheets and blankets and 700 personal hygiene kits were sent to the area by Adventist Community Services.

The Family Service Association said it had counselors in Eagle Pass, a town of about 24,000 and the county seat of Maverick County.

Businesses such as the HEB grocery store chain shipped in food and water to the affected area.

The Humane Society also sent crews and wire crates to help people find and rescue family pets.

A San Antonio–based group, Amigos De Coahuila, established a disaster relief fund called San Antonio Helping Mexico, for survivors in Piedras Negras, a town of about 142,000.

On the U.S. side of the border, officials said that five members of one family were killed when their mobile home was slammed into a nearby building. Another death in Shreveport, La., was linked to the storm, bring the death toll to at least 11.

Of the dozens injured in the Eagle Pass area, located southwest of San Antonio, four people were reported in critical condition. As many as 32 people were treated and released.

Texas Gov. Rick Perry issued a state disaster proclamation for Maverick County after touring the devastated area. Disaster proclamations for two north Texas counties, Moore and Swisher, were also issued. Those areas were hit by tornadoes earlier in the week.

Perry requested that the federal government issue disaster declarations for all three counties.

"Though recovery will not be immediate, we know that homes and business can be rebuilt," Perry said. "Tragically though, the lives lost cannot. But the state will stand with these communities throughout this tragedy, from rescue to full recovery, in order to bring about a sense of normalcy as quickly as possible."

The Concho Valley Regional Food Bank is:

* A 501 (C)(3) non–profit corporation governed by a 24–member Board of Directors.
* Affiliated with Texas Association of Second Harvest Food Banks.
* Licensed by the Texas Department of Health.

Services Offered
Perishable and non–perishable grocery products may be obtained for distribution to needy clients. Clients may not be charged for the product. Agencies pay a small shared maintenance fee to offset the costs for soliciation, pick–up, inspection, warehousing and distribution of the food product.

Advantages
The Food Bank is a good source of safe, inexpensive food, eliminating the need for food collection. Food received is inspected by a licensed facility. Consequently, agencies are able to focus on their primary missions while saving up to 80 percent on available food.

Special Features
The Food Bank can also provide nutrition information, state and national hunger statistics, and speakers to interested agencies.

Fees
A shared maintenance fee is assessed to agencies. No fee is assessed for bread or produce.

The Food Bank of The Golden Crescent began operating May 16, 1986. Executive Director, Amelia Salinas, while working with a child abuse prevention program, noted that hunger was an underlying problem in most abuse cases. After a ten month feasibility study of gathering information from other Food Banks in Houston, Austin, Corpus Christi, & San Antonio, gaining the support of H.E.B. Grocery Chain, and obtaining permission from Second Harvest National Food Bank Network, Amelia received a donation of a small building and the Food Bank was born.

Today, the Food Bank of The Golden Crescent is the support system for some 100 agencies in a 9,963 square mile service area which includes the eleven counties of Calhoun, Colorado, DeWitt, Goliad, Gonzales, Jackson, Lavaca, Matagorda, Refugio, Wharton, and Victoria. In 2004, the Food Bank distributed over 4.6 million pounds of food and related products to agencies participating in our food distribution program. These agencies report providing over 250,000 meals in 2004 through soup kitchens, emergency food boxes, church pantries, or senior citizens programs. Aside from these programs, the Food Bank has initiated the nationally sponsored Kid's Café program in Texas, which provides an after school hot meal and tutoring for children at risk of hunger. The Community Food Bank also has provided move–in food and related items to 35 families in the Victoria area qualifying for Habitat for Humanity housing.

The purpose of the Wichita Falls Area Food Bank is to eliminate hunger in its surrounding 13–North Texas county service area by acquiring food and distributing it to partner agencies to give to those in need.

Procuring and providing food to qualified non–profit member agencies for free distribution to their clients is the primary reason for the existence of the WFAFB. The WFAFB receives food from local food drives, donations from area growers, wholesalers, and retailers of edible but unsalable food, donations through America's Second Harvest and other food banks, and USDA TEXCAP commodities. This food is distributed to qualified member agencies for free distribution to their clients. The types of agencies served are emergency pantries, youth programs, senior citizen programs, soup kitchens, rehab centers such as battered shelters, halfway houses, and low–income day care centers.

New Points of Hope

December 1, 2008—After months of research, anticipation and community support, the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR) has finalized plans to establish a material supply depot in the western part of the United States.

Sam Dixon, UMCOR's top executive, announced today that a lease has been signed on warehouse space where the depot will be developed in Salt Lake City, Utah. The facility is scheduled to open on January 1.

The proposal to open a UMCOR center in the Western Jurisdiction of the United Methodist Church was approved by the UMCOR board of directors in March. The initial idea was to locate it San Diego or Denver. According to Global Ministries executive, Rachel Lieder Simeon, as they explored different regions, Salt Lake City soon emerged as the most logical place. The city is central within the jurisdiction and there is an international airport as well as a hub for cargo trains.

The depot will operate as a satellite of UMCOR Sager Brown in Baldwin, LA. Sager Brown executive, Kathy Kraiza will oversee the two person Utah staff. Interviews for the program director position are being scheduled for early December. Those interested in the position may view the criteria here.

Increased Opportunity for Mission
The material resources depot will serve as a warehouse to store UMCOR supply kits. When a major disaster affects a community in the US or another country, cases of supplies are sent to those in need. The new depot will help reduce shipping costs and efficiency when the affected areas are in the western part of the US or in Asia.

The facility will provide new opportunities for kit ministry at churches in the Western Jurisdiction. Dixon says some of the contents might change to reflect the needs of the types of disasters that affect the region. For example, instead of flood buckets, the depot may stock resources to help following a blizzard, earthquake or wildfire.

In addition to providing a new avenue for material distribution and serving as a field office and training center for disaster response, the location will establish a new point of communication for UMCOR which could be particularly important should a disaster strike on the east coast. Dixon recalls the 2003 Northeast blackout and its effect on the New York City office, "It took nearly a week to be fully functional again. Having a regional office in the west allows us to have improved communication and because of the time difference, gives us extended coverage for business hours."

According to UMCOR executive Lisa Jackson, The United Methodist community has expressed notable excitement that there will be a visible UMCOR presence in the city. United Methodists, who are a minority denomination in Salt Lake City, are active disciples in their communities and looking forward to this new opportunity to serve. In addition, Crossroads, an ecumenical organization in an adjacent space, is welcoming its new neighbor. The two organizations are looking at ways to collaborate in serving the needs of the poor in Utah. Jackson says they will also work together to share resources.Crossroads and UMCOR Sager Brown are part of the network of national mission institutions.

While Sager Brown has served as the primary storage site for UMCOR supplies, the relief agency also collaborates with material centers related to annual (regional) conferences of the denomination. These facilities both supply resources in times of disaster and receive supplies from UMCOR.

About UMCOR's Relief Supplies Ministry

UMCOR Supply Kits help to care for the most vulnerable people during times of crisis. They also help to sustain everyday life by providing basic necessities to people who lack ready access to essential supplies. These kits provide vital support for the work UMCOR does throughout the world. By donating kit supplies or financial gifts to purchase the supplies, you make a direct, tangible difference in sustaining people's lives. Detailed information about assembling kits can be found here.

Who we serve
World Vision helps transform the lives of the world?s poorest children and families in nearly 100 countries, including the United States. Our non–profit work extends assistance to all people, regardless of their religious beliefs, gender, race, or ethnic background.

Why we serve
World Vision is a Christian relief and development organization dedicated to helping children and their communities worldwide reach their full potential by tackling the causes of poverty.

Serving the Poor in Nearly 100 Countries

Where We Work Around the World

World Vision is present where human needs are greatest ? and where hearts can be moved to help the poor. Each year we build on our effective work from the past, with the vision of helping every child experience life in all its fullness.

In nearly 100 countries around the globe, World Vision joins with local people to find lasting ways to improve the lives of children and families in poverty.

Africa, Europe & The Middle East, Asia & The Pacific, The Americas & Caribbean

The number of natural disasters occurring world–wide has increased rapidly in recent decades. In 1984 there were 35 recorded natural disasters – that number more than tripled by 2002, with just over 100 being recorded by the United Nations.

World Vision has enhanced its disaster mitigation and response efforts accordingly, working alongside many other agencies and NGO's committed to addressing human needs resulting from suffering caused by war and internal conflict, food insecurity, displacement, volcanic eruptions, sever drought, fires, earthquakes and floods.

In 2006, World Vision implemented major emergency responses in 63 countries. Dozens of smaller responses were also carried out.

In the past few years, World Vision has launched large–scale relief operations in the southern Africa region, Ethiopia, Liberia, Sudan, Iran and for the Asia Tsunami.
