3/16/12 Update from their facebook page:

TO ALL VOLUNTEERS: As we have transitioned from an open volunteerism center to a relief center, we have set a person in place to begin the long–term connection between individual families and groups interested in still coming down to help. As we gather "work orders" from families, we will be connecting these needs with those who express interest in continuing to volunteer. If you have a group (and possibly a date) that you have in mind, please give the church a call beginning Monday and we will get these offers together and begin the matching process. Thank you again for your work. Call 859–356–3222 or email relief@pinerbaptist.org with your group's information.
