This group is on the ground and is reportedly collecting donations for people whose homes have been destroyed: Emmaus group Oselya www.emmaus.ax

The group has a history of helping homeless people in Ukraine and is now helping refugees too.

"Anger, powerlessness and sadness. But at least we can alleviate the needs a little by helping the Ukrainian Emmaus groups to help those affected by the war. Let me know if you would like to arrange a fundraiser at your workplace or any event. Contact business manager Robert Jansson (robert@emmaus. ax, 0407529191)."

From the site:

"Russia has invaded Ukraine, civilians are killed and over 200,000 people are fleeing. The Emmaus Movement condemns the invasion and supports those affected.

Emmaus groups Oselya and Nasha Khata in western Ukraine are helping the affected with food, shelter and supplies. We can afford to help."

Russia–Ukraine War: Info and ways to help
Information on the conflict

In the culmination of the ongoing 8–years–long war between Russia and Ukraine, Russia has declared that it recognizes the "people's republics" in Donbas as "independent". This move is meant as the setup to jeopardize years of diplomatic negotiations around the conflict and disrupt peace in the region.

Prior to the recognition, pro–Kremlin channels have spread false justifications for the ongoing war. In a speech announcing the recognition, Putin blamed Ukrainians themselves for the escalation, calling it “a colony with puppets at its helm.”

Russia has declared a full–scale invasion early in the morning of February 24th.

UNICEF

UNICEF supports health, nutrition, HIV prevention, education, safe drinking water, sanitation and protection for children and families caught in the conflict in Ukraine.

"Heavy weapons fire along the line of contact has already damaged critical water infrastructure and education facilities in recent days," said UNICEF Executive Director Catherine M. Russell in a statement.

As needs in #Ukraine escalate in line with the conflict, UNICEF is rapidly stepping up emergency response efforts throughout the country, providing critical supplies, access to safe water, child protection and more.

Médecins Sans Frontieres/Doctors Without Borders

MSF runs a range of activities in Ukraine working with local volunteers, organizations, health care professionals and authorities to help people travel to health care facilities and access prescribed medications.
Voices of Children

The Ukrainian organization's Charitable Foundation helps provide psychological and psychosocial support to children affected by the armed conflict, according to its website.

Voices of Children's efforts of support for kids include art therapy, video storytelling, providing mobile psychologists and even individual help for families.

Sunflower of Peace

The nonprofit organization is raising money to prepare first aid medical tactical backpacks for paramedics and doctors on the front lines.

Each backpack is designed for groups of 5 to ten people and includes an array of first aid supplies — such as bandages, anti-hemorrhagic medicine and medical instruments, according to the organization's Facebook page.
International Committee of the Red Cross

This Switzerland-based organization is aiming to help people affected by the conflict and support the work of the Ukrainian Red Cross.
Save the Children

Save the Children, based in London, helps to deliver lifesaving aid to vulnerable children in Ukraine and around the world. According to its website, the organization says it is on the ground in the U.S. and other parts of the world "delivering essential humanitarian aid."

Children in #Ukraine are terrified. They hear explosions and are being asked to flee with just the clothes on their backs.

We're calling for an immediate end to the fighting. Children's lives and futures are at stake. pic.twitter.com/9LW2JQUpVx
— Save the Children US (@SavetheChildren) February 24, 2022

"We are gravely concerned for children in Ukraine, Afghanistan and around the world who might be caught in the middle of armed conflict, forced to flee their homes and exposed to injury, hunger and sub–zero temperatures," the organization writes in a statement online.
UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR)

The international organization aims to provide emergency assistance to families in Ukraine — providing aid such as cash assistance and opportunities for resettlement in the U.S.

"UNHCR is working with the authorities, UN and other partners in Ukraine and is ready to provide humanitarian assistance wherever necessary and possible. To that effect, security and access for humanitarian efforts must be guaranteed," the organization said in a statement.
CARE

CARE is raising money for its Ukraine Crisis Fund, which will provide immediate aid including food, water, hygiene kits, support services and direct cash assistance.

The humanitarian organization aims to raise $20 million and help at least 4 million Ukrainians. It says it will prioritize women and girls, families and the elderly.

International Medical Corps

The global nonprofit has been delivering primary health care and mental health services in eastern Ukraine since 2014, and is raising funds to expand those services for people affected by the latest conflict.

It says cold weather and economic insecurity in the leadup to Thursday's attack have left nearly 3 million Ukrainians relying on humanitarian assistance to meet their basic needs, a number that is certain to rise nationwide.

Its Ukraine team is preparing to deploy mobile medical teams to provide emergency and primary health services, mental health and psychosocial services and COVID–19 awareness and prevention services for people who have been displaced.

On February 24, 2022, Russia launched a large–scale military operation on neighboring Ukraine, invading the country on several fronts. Since then, millions of Ukrainians have fled their homes, finding refuge within the country or leaving for other countries altogether. As families travel for days, and live under ongoing threats and occupation, many are going days without food. The prolonged war has also disrupted activity at Ukraine’s ports and borders straining the local food supply.

Working at a 24–hour pedestrian border crossing in southern Poland, WCK began serving hot, nourishing meals within hours of the initial invasion, and we quickly grew our response mobilizing teams of cooks in Ukraine, Romania, Moldova, Hungary, Slovakia, Spain, and Germany. With more people returning to Ukraine, WCK is focusing our efforts to provide hundreds of thousands of fresh meals and tens of thousands of food kits each day. We’re reaching hundreds of cities including areas under fire, recently liberated towns, and communities hosting refugees.

As the situation keeps evolving, WCK will continue to help in the best way we know how, with a freshly prepared plate of food.

Russia’s war against Ukraine.
What can you do to support Ukraine & Ukrainians?

Donations

Support Ukraine NOW – Worldwide network with resources for donating, protesting, and volunteering. The website includes country specific tips for over 20 countries.

With Ukraine, is a special fund to provide humanitarian assistance to Ukraine's civilian population established by the Embassy of Ukraine in the UK

The UNHCR Refugee Agency emergency appeal to help ensure that Ukrainians forced to flee their homes are sheltered and safe.

The Red Cross have established a Ukraine Crisis Appeal to provide food, water, first aid, medicine, warm clothes, and shelter.

Defend Ukraine have collated a list of fundraisers, charities, and donation links in support of Ukraine, covering financial and humanitarian aid, medical supplies, and military support.

The Ukraine Crisis Media Center has published a list of recommendations of charities in Ukraine to support.

Ukraine Charity, London: humanitarian appeal – Ukraine Charity are a UK registered charity.

British–Ukrainian Aid – supports people suffering from the war and humanitarian crisis in Ukraine by aligning UK and Ukrainian efforts.

The Kyiv Independent needs support to continue reporting on the ground from Ukraine.

In the US, Razom for Ukraine and Nova Ukraine are raising money for Emergency Response.

Trusted colleagues of ours are also advising donating to the National Bank of Ukraine, to transfer direct funding to the Ukrainian armed forces. The account accepts a number of currencies including GBP, EUR, USD, and CHF.

For physical donation points in the London area, please keep on scrolling.

Demonstrations of support

Send an email to your MP urging them to support Ukraine by pushing for sanctions and safe passage for refugees. You can find your MPs contact details here and we have drafted a template email here (available in English, French, Spanish and German). This will take you less than 10 minutes to do, and will make your voice heard by your MP! (NB MPs care more about numbers of emails they receive rather than how fine–tuned your language is so don't delay sending!)

Join your local demonstrations (follow Ukraine Solidarity Campaign, Euromaidan London for London). Consider printing leaflets and posters. If your town isn't holding a demonstration, consider organising one. Chances are, there will be many others who will want to join you.

Help Refugees in the UK – Donation details for humanitarian and medical aid. Includes a Google Form allowing you to register the help you can offer for Ukrainian refugees arriving in the UK.

Consider signing one of these petitions. Get in touch if you learn of other relevant petitions.

UkraineNow is a global effort to coordinate help: evacuations, medical & food supplies, information, and cash on the ground. Through UkraineNow you can sign up to host Ukrainians who have left the country.

Information

We recommend English–language outlets The Kyiv Independent and The New Voice of Ukraine.

Follow Ukraine–based journalists: Olga Tokariuk, Christopher Miller, Nika Melkozerova, Illia Ponomarenko (and many others!).

Sunflower of Peace Foundation is a Boston, USA–based 501(c)(3) registered non–profit organization (EIN: 47–2620675). Our current mission is to support the people of Ukraine affected by the Russian military invasion. We collaborate with a global network of established organizations and institutions that are committed to helping Ukraine in this situation.

Due to the current crisis in Ukraine, Sunflower of Peace started a new fundraiser to provide medical and humanitarian aid that will be used by the paramedics and doctors in the areas that are affected by the violence in Ukraine. We are acquiring and distributing first–aid backpacks, medicine, medical instruments, and other means of survival that are saving hundreds of lives. These supplies meant the world to people affected by violence when we started our first fundraiser in 2015, and they mean the world to all Ukrainians now.
