Resource Guide

Generated November 26, 2026 · 1 open facilities · closed facilities are not listed · call before you go: details change quickly

Haiti

Kay Mari Manman Tout Timoun (Translation: The House of Mary) – (ORPHANAGE) – 2010 Haiti Earthquake

Shelter

Orphanage

For child security purposes address witheld – For additional information contact the administrator at: leslie @citizenactionteam.org; HAITI, Butte Boyer, Impasse Balev

Service Temporary

SOURCE: http://haiti.ushahidi.com/reports/view/894

1/18/10: children are safe but all houses around are destroyed, a lot of died people in the streets, children and people of Croix des Missions quarter need food water, médicaments , survivors haven't nothing , children of the orphanage will die without food and water SEND URGENT RESCUE PLEASE

(NOT VERIFIED)

SOURCE: http://haitiearthquakesurvivors.blogspot.com/

Kay Tout Timoun – all children are safe (sleeping outside need tents), director and people too, the house is safe too, but all around in the streets in croix des missions is collapsed

SOURCE: http://www.mwts.org/missionhaiti/Home/Home.html

Movin' With The Spirit, Inc.: Founded by youth minister, recording artist and Connecticut native Sean Forrest, MWTS supports a Mission Haiti ministry that serves the poor in the villages of Duverger and Dandann, Haiti. The group opened an orphanage, "Kay Mari Manman Tout Timoun" in December, and had planned to build a school, health clinic and special needs home.

With the orphanage expected to be full due to the extent of the disaster, the organization needs $150,000 to run the facility for a year and vehicles to transport its residents. Tax deductible donations may be mailed to MWTS, P.O. Box 238, Columbia, CT 06237, or click here to make a donation online.

Services offered: Facility: Orphanage
Campaigns: 2010 Haiti Earthquake; 2010 Haiti Earthquake, Orphanages/Childrens Homes; Sow A Seed
Updated Apr 3, 2010 · https://reliefdb.org/shelters/5324