Pet Friendly Hotels

Each individual hotel has its own rules and requirements for pets. There may be specifications as to under what circumstances the hotel accepts pets, how many, what species, and how pets must be caged/housed. The national reservations desk may not be aware of local rules. Please be sure to call the local hotel where you will be staying for details regarding pet acceptance and housing. This list may not be all inclusive, so be sure to call other hotels to find sheltering for yourself and your pet(s) if a place is not available at one of these hotels.
