Deadly tornados hit the South!

When disaster strikes we all want to help!

Month Long Food Drive
May 1st – 31st

Six of the Alabama Food Bank Association's eight member food banks are now actively involved in direct support to communities across the state according to David Reaney, the Association president. Fortunately, none of the food bank facilities suffered damage from the storms although the North Alabama Food Bank in Huntsville is currently operating without power. In a planning call with Feeding America disaster services staff on Friday, short term food and water needs were coordinated for the food banks in Tuscaloosa, Montgomery, Birmingham and Huntsville. The first truckloads of water and MRE's from Feeding America's disaster supplies at the Baton Rouge food bank are already enroute to Alabama. The Alabama food banks support over 1,000 church pantries, shelters and community soup kitchens day to day and distributed over 36 million pounds of food in 2010 with a fleet of 15 refrigerated trucks. In the coming weeks the food banks will be working with Feeding America to ensure additional trucks, staff and food is provided to assist communities across Alabama.

A list of food banks in Alabama can be found at alfoodbanks.org or at the Feeding America link found to the left.

Food donors play a key role in the success of the Food Bank. Each donation, no matter how large or small, plays a significant part in helping us do so much for those who are in need.

The Food Bank is the central collection facility in East Central Alabama. This means that when you donate to the Food Bank, you will be helping MANY food assistance organizations. You can feel good knowing that your food donations will be handled safely and fairly. We have the storage capability to store:

400 dry pallets
15 refrigerated pallets
124 frozen pallets
a sorting room to check product for dates, quality and damage
we have the staff to handle donated product including a forklift and driver to unload 4 receiving docks
we have access to vehicles to safely transport food donations
All of the organizations that receive food from us are carefully monitored to ensure that they are properly handling, storing and distributing the food to eligible recipients.

FOOD DRIVES

You can make a huge impact anytime by conducting a food drive. It is simple and easy. Food drives can be held in your neighborhood, office, school, or organization. For information on how to collect or donate food from your drive, contact Donna at 334–821–9006 or by e–mail at ddemous@foodbankofeastalabama.com The Food Bank will provide barrels for your food drive and pick them up at your request.

Ideas to enhance your food drive:

Establish a goal for your drive
Assign and oversee support functions (distribution of materials, publicity, handling the food)
Provide each donor with a bag to fill and return with food items
Publicize the suggested food list (or attach it to the collection bag)
Update people on the progress of the drive.
Visually display the food that has been collected
Put posters up in visible locations by a coffee machine or next to the time clock

Decorate collections boxes/barrels
Designate a special day on which to bring food
Use slogans that relate to your company/school
Give prizes for innovation or amount of food collected
Get the company to match the donated food in some way, such as donating a turkey for every 100 pounds of food collected by the employees
Hold an event, meeting or party where admission is cans of food
Let the media know that you are conducting a food drive
Invite a staff member from the Food Bank to address your group

Most needed food drive items:

Peanut butter
Canned meats (tuna, salmon, chicken, etc.)
Canned stews and soups
Canned fruits and vegetables
Baked beans
100% fruit juices
Baking mix, muffin mix
Cereals
Rice/pasta/spaghetti
Oatmeal, grits

Wiregrass Organizations Gear Up to Help Those in Need after Gustav

Donations are needed to help meet local disaster needs
Posted: 5:23 PM Aug 28, 2008
Last Updated: 5:23 PM Aug 28, 2008

As Tropical Storm Gustav continues to make its way toward the Gulf Coast, local organizations are gearing up for the possible aftermath.

These groups are depending on you to help them make a difference.

Hurricane season is here and that means it's time to make sure you and your family are prepared for when a storm hits.

Susan Holmes with the American Red Cross said, "Prepare yourself ahead of time in case you get trapped in your house by a tree or the power is out. Be sure you have what you and your family need to sustain you for a day or two."

Families in need often times look to non–profit organizations for food and supplies after a storm hits. Those organizations count of the public to donate those items so they can distribute them after a disaster.

David Hanks with the Wiregrass Area Food Bank said, "Mainly we handle food products, but during a disaster we need anything; tarps, bedding, blankets and sheets because people who have been affected don't have anything."

Even if the affects of Gustav aren't felt here at home, resources from the Wiregrass will go to help those in need.

"We'd be a resource if there's a storm that hits in that area," Hanks said. "We were a resource during Katrina to Biloxi and Louisiana."

Blood is always an immediate need during a disaster. Both Lifesouth and the Red Cross are hoping to increase their supplies before Gustav makes landfall.

Here is the information you need to know to help those in need. If you'd like to donate non–perishable food items or disaster supplies you can visit the food bank on Twitchell Road in Dothan.

For information on how you can better prepare for disasters, visit redcross.org.

And, if you'd like to volunteer or need help after a disaster, you can call 211 to get in contact with numerous agencies.

The Wiregrass Area United Way Food Bank is a non–profit hunger relief charity that solicits and collects surplus food. The Food Bank stores and distributes this food to agencies primarily feeding the needy in a five–county service area that includes Houston, Henry, Dale, Geneva and Coffee counties, as well as parts of northwest Florida and southwest Georgia.

We are an independent non–profit, with paid staff, volunteers, and a board of directors. Operating from an 18,000 square food warehouse with refrigerated storage, and networked through America?s Second Harvest (the nations food bank network), the Food Bank can access food and other assorted grocery products, and operate at a minimal cost. As a result, member non–profit agencies that utilize the Food Bank are able to conduct their food programs in a cost effective manner. No donated food is ever sold by the Food Bank or by any member agency. Food recipients incur no cost for food assistance.

A shared maintenance fee (SMF) assessed to affiliate agencies helps to support the Wiregrass Area United Way Food Bank. Additional financial support is generously donated from churches, civic clubs, businesses and concerned citizens.

Who we serve:

Food is distributed free by affiliate agencies to the hungry, the elderly and children either through on–site meals or by emergency food boxes.

The ultimate beneficiaries of the Food Bank are the people who receive the food we distribute, though much could be said of the benefits received by volunteers, donors and supporters.

Some programs which benefit are:

Churches
Food Pantries
Soup Kitchens
Group Homes
Assisted–living Homes
Half–way Houses
Day Care Centers
Senior Citizen Programs
Developmental Centers
Emergency Shelters
Neighborhood Centers
Nutrition Centers
Health Care Centers and Programs
Homeless Shelters

Montgomery Area Food Bank and its' Partner Distribution Organizations respond

The Montgomery Area Food Bank's Disaster Relief efforts extend to our new service area in Tuscaloosa. Loads of food and health/comfort items out of our Food Bank's Disaster Relief reserves have been sent to our Partner Distribution Organization, West Alabama Food Bank and are being used locally in Elmore and Tallapoosa counties. Truckloads of goods are also being sent from our corporate offices of Feeding America.

The need in our service area is widespread with the greatest needs occuring in Tuscaloosa, Elmore, and Tallapoosa counties.

How You Can Help

Anyone or group that wishes to help can do so in a number of ways, like donating food or funds to our Food Bank. The items that these folks need are mostly ready–to–eat foods (pop–top canned foods are great!), juices, and other food not requiring refrigeration. Diapers would be great to have also.

One important lesson we learned in the aftermath of Katrina is NOT to send any items to any disaster area unless you know the agency you are heading for and they have volunteers to manage the distribution.

Do YOU Need Disaster Relief Food Assistance?

MAFB Disaster Response Emergency Food Assistance continues to be available today, Saturday, in Eclectic, located in the warehouse on Main Street, across from the old police station. Gretchen Kindrick is the MAFB contact at the location.

This food assistance is specifically for all VICTIMS of the recent disaster. If you or someone you know, needs food assistance but are not a disaster victim, please call 334–263–3784 for a referral in your area.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

For every $25 donation to the Montgomery Area Food Bank, we can distribute up to 160 pounds of food. This would feed a family of three for two weeks or an elderly couple for a month. You can MAKE A DONATION by credit card online by using the link: https://interland3.donorperfect.net/weblink/weblink.aspx?name=mafb&id=1

Even though fully half of the households that visit food pantries and soup kitchens have at least one member who is working, their wages are too low to meet all expenses. Quite often what gets left out is food.

Your donations of food make a difference in enabling our Food Bank to get more food to the needy more frequently. Your school, business, church or family could sponsor a Food Drive. You can volunteer at the Food Bank by contacting Vicky Manley at VickyManley@earthlink.net to find out about volunteer opportunities.

Your monetary contributions can be designated to support a specific Food Bank program. Our Senior Supplement Program, targets the needs of the elderly by providing food supplement boxes monthly, and our Mobile Pantry Program involves the delivery of a Food Bank truckload of products to a specified site where food is distributed directly to qualified clients.

SPONSOR A FOOD DRIVE!

Our Warehouse
Our Food Bank operates from a 46,200 square foot warehouse with an additional 7,500 square foot of auxilliary storage. We are capable of storing dry, frozen and refrigerated products.

Our Vehicles
Our Transportation Division includes a 24' Freightliner FL–80 with a 54,000 lb load capacity, a 26' Freightliner FL–70 with a 26,000 lb load capacity, an additional 24' refrigerated truck with a 25,000 lb load capacity, a 15' Dodge Van with a 4,174 lb load capacity, and a 10' refrigerated truck used for local refrigerated pick–ups and deliveries.

The Mobile Pantry Program is a direct distribution program. The concept is simple. Agencies of the Food Bank choose a site and a date for the event. They advertise it to their clients, and on the appointed day, the Food Bank truck arrives with a large assortment (at least 10,000–12,000 pounds – 10 pallets) of nutritious foods, including fresh produce. The clients receive foods they need at no cost to them. For more information on how your organization can conduct a Mobile Pantry, contact Jolene Kearns at 263–3784 or email her at jolenekearns@earthlink.net. .

The Senior Supplement Program is an enrollment program for persons aged 60 and above, who are not able to obtain sufficient food for a healthy diet with their own resources. The clients receive the boxes of non–perishable food, weighing 25–35 pounds, during the third week of the month. Additional foods, including a ham or turkey, are provided in November and December.

The Bay Area Food Bank has prepared its warehouse by stocking enough food for relief and preparing for the possible not–so–calm after the storm. But due to reports from the National Hurricane Center that make the Food Bank community in the middle of Gustav's path, the Bay Area Food Bank is working with America's Second Harvest and Food Bank's across the Gulf Coast to prepare for the worst–case scenario.

The Food Bank is a member of America's Second Harvest, the Nation's Food Bank Network. And, because the Food Bank serves 24 counties across over 300 miles of the Mississippi, Alabama, and Florida coast, this hurricane has the potential to have an impact on its service area.

The 205 Food Banks in the America's Second Harvest network have already worked together following the Midwest flooding and Hurricane Dolly and stand ready to assist on the Gulf Coast if needed.

Our mission is to distribute as much food to our distributor/clients as we can, with the amount of labor and warehouse space that our income can support. Every single day, we are trying to increase our income, to pay for the extra labor, ever increasing fuel costs and equipment maintenance. We are in the pipeline to supply as much food to the children, elderly and homeless that can be accomplished under our financial structure. FIND is a non–profit, community–based organization. It is committed to providing food to people who struggle to feed themselves and their families. It is also committed to maximizing public awareness of hunger while working towards long–term solutions to hunger and poverty.

Supporting Beliefs:

We believe every single person in every Coachella Valley neighborhood offers strengths, capacities, abilities and gifts. Hunger and poverty diminish a person’s capacity to be effective in their family, neighborhood and society. Governments also have the legal and moral responsibility to ensure all Coachella Valley residents have adequate food necessities;

We must help the needy, before it becomes a real need.

Collecting and using surplus food is in itself a worthwhile activity.

People from every walk of life are necessary to fulfill our mission.

This should include nutritionally adequate and culturally appropriate food.

Solutions to poverty will only be found once people are invited to the table.

We should work with the community to seek solutions to the causes of hunger.

We have a responsibility to be leaders in combating hunger and poverty.

The Food Bank was founded in 1975 by people who saw the need for a central clearinghouse for food donations. The Food Bank was incorporated as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization (Federal Tax ID# 94–2418054) at that time. Back then, the Food Bank had two employees, one truck, and a trailer for storing food. The driver would pick up day old bread from Safeway and return it to the trailer, where people from area churches would pick it up and distribute it from their food pantries at church.

We were certified by the America?s Second Harvest Food Bank Network in 1981. In 1995, the Solano Food Bank merged with the Contra Costa Food Bank, so we became the Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano.

Since then, we have grown as the problem of hunger in our counties has grown. We presently serve over 82,000 people every month, and distribute about 8 million pounds a year, enough food for 6.4 million meals! The Food Bank employs 36 staff members in Contra Costa and Solano counties. But the work could not get done without the help of the hundreds of volunteers that donate their time to coordinate food drives, sort and pack the food, and help distribute it to their hungry neighbors.

To learn more about the Food Bank and the work we do or to find out how you can help, please explore this website, email info@foodbankccs.org, or give us a call at (925) 676–7543.

The Food Bank of El Dorado County is a local, non–profit food assistance agency working to eliminate hunger through food distribution, education and advocacy in cooperation with the community.

Vision Statement:
All individuals of El Dorado County who face hunger will have the opportunity to secure nutritionally adequate food at all times.

History:

The Food Bank of El Dorado County was established in 2000 by founder Mike Sproull and a handful of compassionate community activists. El Dorado County was one of a few counties in California that did not contain a full service food bank. From a grassroots humble beginning, teamed with the community, the Food Bank is now the largest collaborative charity in El Dorado County. The Food Bank provides food assistance on a daily basis in partnership with over 50 local emergency food response agency sites including abused and abandoned children's homes, battered women's shelters, senior centers, local food pantries, soup kitchens, maternity homes and more.

In 2006 alone our volunteers, financial supporters, product donors, and charity network made it possible for us to distribute over $2.5 million of food for the hungry of El Dorado County.

The Alameda County Community Food Bank is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that has been serving the community since 1985. As the county's clearinghouse for donated food, the Food Bank provides food assistance for 40,000 low–income Alameda County residents each week, which includes 14,000 children and 7,000 seniors. Most adults served are among the working poor.

What we do:
* Provide food to 300 community agencies that serve on–site meals and/or food bags for their clients
* Distribute bags of food to school children in need

* Distribute fresh fruits and vegetables several times a week to member agencies
* Operate a toll–free hunger helpline that makes over 1,000 referrals each month
* Conduct food stamp outreach clinics
* Educate the community and public officials about the causes of hunger and poverty

Food Helpline: (1–800–870–3663 (FOOD) in Alameda County) connects Alameda County residents with emergency food referrals.
Hours: Monday – Friday, 9 am to 12 pm and 1 pm to 4 pm

In addition to referrals to food pantries and soup kitchens, callers receive information about other programs, such as Women, Infants and Children (WIC) and Food Stamps. They also receive information about non–food programs, such as Earned Income Credit and Healthy Families.

Besides the Food Helpline, the Food Bank operates a Free Summer Lunch Hotline during the summer months for referrals to sites that serve a free summer lunch to children and teens ages 18 and under, and a Holiday Hotline in November and December for referrals to holiday food programs.

MISSION
We are working to eliminate hunger in Orange County.

STRATEGY STATEMENT
We solicit and coordinate donations, grants, fundraising, food drives, food rescue, gleaning and volunteers to supply food, education and advocacy for the hungry through non–profit partners and direct feeding programs. We constantly seek innovative and cost–effective ways to reach more people.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL
Under the guidance of the Council of Orange, Society of St. Vincent de Paul, the Food Bank began providing food for the hungry in October 1983. Since 1983, the Food Bank has provided more than 217 million pounds of donated and surplus food to local charities.

MEMBER AGENCIES
The Food Bank currently serves 390 member charities that reach the hungry, including church pantries, shelters, senior centers, rehabilitation centers, homes for abused women and children and many other emergency assistance organizations.

CLIENTS
In partnership with 390 member charities, the Food Bank helps feed an average of 200,000 individuals each month. Those served include the working poor, children, seniors on fixed incomes, single parents, the disabled, the homeless and individuals experiencing medical emergencies or recent job layoffs.

FOOD SOURCES
The primary work of the Food Bank is acquiring and distributing donated and surplus food. Food sources include local grocery stores and supermarket chains, food manufacturers and distributors, the government, restaurants, trade shows, gleaning efforts, food drives and private individuals. Need food? Email us at agency@FeedOC.org or call toll free 888–449–FOOD(3663). We will need your address in order to direct you to a nearby agency.

EFFICIENCY
Each dollar donated provides about $12 worth of food to the hungry in our community.*

Food Bank Coalition
South County
Oceano, CA 93445

Since being founded in 1988, the Food Bank has become the only source of large–quantity donated or low–cost food to thousands of very low–income residents of San Luis Obispo County.

Throughout the years, Food Bank services have grown to the current state of providing 3 million pounds of food each year to 24,000 very low–income residents through three programs.

Distribution to Pantry Program ? provides nearly three million pounds of donated food to nearly 20,000 individuals through 100 member agencies throughout the region. These include soup kitchens, emergency food box programs, homeless and women?s shelters, foster care, and supplemental feeding programs. Most of these organizations provide other services as well, and rely on the Food Bank for significant portions of their food.

USDA–EFAP ? (United States Department of Agriculture?s Emergency Food Assistance Program) provides 459,000 pounds of quality nutritious food to thousands of qualified very low–income individuals through 16 household distribution sites and to sites where prepared meals are served.

Brown Bag Program ? provides weekly grocery bags of food directly to 750 low and very low–income seniors through 14 neighborhood distribution sites. By providing a reliable source of food items, the Food Bank is able to help our most fragile seniors maintain independence and good health with improved nutrition, and help mitigate the rising costs of medical care and other living costs.

Food Stamp Outreach:
Our Food Stamp Outreach Program assists eligible people to receive Food Stamps, accomplishing our mission to alleviate hunger in our county while bringing dollars into our economy. The Food Stamp Program (now known as Food Assistance Benefit Program), administered by the Dept. of Social Services, helps low income persons provide nutritious food for their families. At a time when wages have remained static and rents have soared, the number of Food Stamp recipients has declined in recent years. Paradoxically, while the need is acute, the participation rate for Food Stamps in our county is among the worst in California. The FBC works with the public and Dept. of Social Services to raise awareness and increase participation in this vital food program.

Call our Food Stamp Coordinator at 227–6624 for help with applications

BackPack Program
A new program of the Food Bank Coalition is the BackPack Program. When children eat well, they learn better, are healthier, and are more likely to grow into happy, productive adults. The public schools are becoming partners with the Food Bank to send nutritious food home with low–income children so that they will have healthy meals while not in school. The food is attractively packaged for children, requires no assistance from adults to eat, and is balanced in all of the food groups. The pilot program is at Georgia Brown School and Bauer/Speck School in Paso Robles, but is planned to be expanded to schools throughout the county as soon as funding is secure. It takes $500 dollars per school year to fund one child, and 1/2 the cost comes from foundation grants which must be matched by local donors. If you'd like sponsor a child or have your company sponsor more than one child, please call the Food Bank for information.

The Food Bank for Monterey County, a certified America's Second Harvest food bank, is the largest supplier of emergency food in Monterey County. We distribute 5 million pounds of food annually.

We are a non–profit private organization whose mission is "to lead community efforts in the awareness and elimination of hunger in Monterey County." To accomplish this mission, we solicit, collect, store, and then distribute food throughout the County by several means: (1) Agency Clearinghouse, a network of approximately 65 non–profit food assistance agencies; (2) direct giving programs such as Emergency Food Assistance and the Family Market.

The Food Bank for Monterey County is situated on California's central coast in the city of Salinas in an area known as the "Salad Bowl of the World." Agriculture and the hospitality industry dominate the economy of the Central Coast and the national image of our area is one of wealth and beauty. However, hunger, poverty, high unemployment, and food insecurity exist.

There is hunger in Monterey County. The challenge is great and we strive to meet it on a daily basis.

Providing food for people in need in our community.

Brief History

The Food Bank, Inc. of Santa Clara County was formed in 1974 by Economic and Social Opportunities, and incorporated as a non–profit agency in 1979. In 1988, the San Mateo County Food Bank merged with The Food Bank, Inc. of Santa Clara County to become Second Harvest Food Bank of Santa Clara and San Mateo Counties.

Second Harvest Food Bank is a certified member of America's Second Harvest, a network of food banks and food distribution programs in the United States. This membership allows Second Harvest Food Bank to cooperate with other member food banks, to receive food from national corporate food donors, and to benefit from national publicity and mutual support.

In 1992, Second Harvest Food Bank moved into a new 65,000 square foot warehouse in San Jose which serves as its main food distribution center. In June of 1995, the Peninsula Distribution Center began serving San Mateo County in a newly renovated 22,000 square foot warehouse in San Carlos.

ABOUT US
The mission of the Foodbank is to feed hungry people by obtaining surplus food and distributing it to member agencies who serve a wide spectrum of individuals and families. During 2006, the Foodbank of Santa Barbara County distributed over 5.5 million pounds of food from two warehouse locations in Santa Barbara and Santa Maria.

Partners: In 2006, over 100,000 people in Santa Barbara County were served by Foodbank member agencies. The Foodbank distributes food to over 220 social service programs and agencies, churches and community groups from Carpinteria to Santa Maria.

Food Donors: The Foodbank depends upon community–minded individuals, businesses and corporations for support. The surplus and donated food comes from many sources; over 400 donors contributed food and other commodities during 2006, in addition to the thousands of pounds of food collected through local food drives.

Locally, food items such as bread, produce, dairy and deli items are donated daily by retail stores. Local growers and packers donate fresh fruit and vegetables. Individuals, businesses, and community groups, contribute through food drives.

Throughout the State, food banks share donations and trade for items they cannot obtain in their area. Surplus food and other items collected by store chains are transported to the Foodbank warehouses, sorted by volunteers, and distributed to member agencies.

Number of people served on a monthly basis: 50,000
No one is out of hunger's reach – seniors, children, and working families are all coming to food distributions seeking supplemental groceries to help them make it through the month.

Amount of food distributed in fiscal year 2006 – 2007: 8.9 million pounds
This is the equivalent of 6.88 million meals annually, or 18,850 meals every day.

Volunteers: Over 5,000 individuals volunteered 70,000 hours in 2005–2006 by packing and sorting food, doing clerical tasks, driving trucks to pick up and deliver food, participating in special projects such as food drives and special events, and sharing their technological expertise. These volunteers filled the equivalent of more than 33 full–time staff positions.

Sources of Donated Food: 15% from local food companies, farmers, retailers, food drives, and 85% through regional collaborations and America 's Second Harvest national network of food banks

Funding: A primary source of our funding comes from individuals (38%), as well as foundations (19%), business and community groups (7%), and community events and drives (8%). Government grants account for less than 16% of our budget. In addition, our member agencies contribute toward the cost of transporting and handling the food through shared maintenance fees for some of the food they select, which contribute nearly 11% of our budget.

Efficiency: We are able to distribute nearly $5.00 (wholesale value) worth of food for every $1 we spend, making the REFB a cost effective investment in the community.

Services offered: Demographic Served: Low Income Folks; Food Distribution, Food Bank (This Site Supplies Food Pantries/ Agencies); Food, Virtual Food Drive ; Hotline, Food Bank/Pantry Hotline (Find Emergency Food Help); Kids Cafe Program, Volunteer; Meals, Brown Bag Program (for Seniors/Elders/Disabled); Volunteer Opportunities, In General * (ANY/ALL Types); Volunteers, Groups of Volunteers (This facility accomodates Groups of Volunteers); Volunteers, Individual Volunteers (This facility accomodates Individuals Volunteers)

Emergency Food Assistance Program (EFAP) – Food distributions of government United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) food for low–income residents of the Ukiah Valley. Food is supplemented from local donations and food from the network America's Second Harvest.

Commodity Supplemental Food Program (CSFP) – An exciting opportunity to target food specifically for Mendocino County senior citizens and children six and under, implemented in cooperation with the local Women Infant and Children (WIC) program. UCC Food Bank delivers these specialized food boxes to outlying areas to prevent the most vulnerable in rural areas from going hungry.

America's Second Harvest (A2H) – Ukiah Community Center Food Bank is proud to be a contractor for the Redwood Empire Food Bank in Santa Rosa whose mission is to "Create a Hunger–Free America." Food and grocery products are shared and distributed.

Food Closet – Food is provided on non–food distribution days for people who need food immediately and have been unable to come to the regularly scheduled food distribution.

Holiday Sharing Project – Christmas and Thanksgiving Food Baskets are given out each year to those who sign up in advance, in collaboration with other local efforts. The food baskets include all of the typical ingredients found in holiday meals in the United States.

We would like to thank everyone who donates to the UDJ Food Bank Fund Drive and to the Community Center throughout the year. The drive is fast approaching again. All of your support will enable us to keep providing for the families in need this year. Your support is very appreciated.

This summer, we celebrated 36 Years of service to our ever–changing community. The UCC has become the community's agent for helping thousands of people in this area to meet urgent needs and develop self–sufficiency. We work in partnership with many local agencies to address the causes and effects of poverty and other forms of distress. We provide assistance to members of the Ukiah and Mendocino Coast communities. As a result of our affiliation with the Coast we are now collectively known as the "Community Resource Centers of Mendocino County" but continue to do business as the Ukiah Community Center.

While the UCC began with a mission enriching personal and community life, its programs have increasingly been driven by the pressures of poverty. Our mission translates into saved lives and changed lives. Our mission is "Providing Community Assistance to meet urgent needs and promote self–sufficiency. We are striving to end hunger and homelessness in Mendocino County."

The number of people seeking food, shelter, and related support has exploded. The Food Bank now serves 3,000 people onsite and another 2,500 through 12 remote locations and 3 pantries around Mendocino County.

We are a non–profit organization that offers a combination of temporary assistance, information and referrals, and supportive programs. We help people develop solutions to the challenges of crisis and poverty. Our services include a Day Shelter, food aid, emergency housing, crisis intervention, case management, and referral to community services. Part of Mendocino County's Continuum of Care the Fort Bragg and Ukiah Community Centers are proud to be offering critical services to the less fortunate citizens of Mendocino County.

Mission Statement

FoodLink is committed to ending hunger by providing healthy food and nutrition education to those in need through community involvement.

Who We Are

FoodLink for Tulare County, a nonprofit organization, has been working to end hunger in Tulare County since 1978. FoodLink warehouses and distributes millions of pounds of food annually to a network of more than 80 local nonprofit agencies, which directly feed needy families. In 2005, food distributed through FoodLink's efficient network of food collection, preservation, and distribution reached more than 80,000 people, with more than half of those served being children.

But food distribution alone is not enough to end hunger in our area. FoodLink also works to combat hunger through hunger–relief advocacy, and to eliminate its long–term effects through proper nutrition and health education.

In addition to providing our partner agencies with food and other grocery products, we operate a Manna Truck program and sponsor child hunger programs.

Manna Truck is a mobile pantry that we use to deliver food and drinks to low income areas throughout our service area. This program allows agencies or other sponsors the opportunity to distribute 5,000 lbs. of food and drinks to those in need of food assistance at a specified location all at one time.

Feeding America, through Ozarks Food Harvest and six network members serving Missouri, is responding to the emergency food assistance needs of people impacted by tornadoes that devastated Joplin, MO on May 22

The majority of residents have no power, and most areas, including the local hospital, has no running water. Many people are moving in with family and friends, but food is starting to spoil. We anticipate a dramatic increase in need for food for the weeks and months ahead as people try to pick up the pieces of their lives. Our food bank network has assembled supplies estimated at $650,000 in just the past two days. As shelters disband, many people will be looking for food assistance for the very first time.

Feeding America has been working to support relief efforts in the regions impacted by record flooding and tornado outbreaks since April. As the men, women, and children effected by these storms attempt to put their lives back together our network will continue to be in emergency mode to address the additional demand for food and grocery items for many months to come.

UPDATE/VOAD MEETING NOTES – 5/22/07
http://www.ksvoad.org/pdf/5_22_2007%20VOAD%20NOTES.pdf:

Bryan Walker:
Still diverting donations to the KS Food Bank in Wichita to avoid overwhelm. KS Food Bank will be available for long term needs and supply food for as long as it takes. In addition to, rakes and wheelbarrows are being sent from KS City.

From the KS FOOD BANK website:

In addition to donations of money, a limited amount of supplies is being sought for the victims of last weekend's tornadoes.

Bath towels, for example, are needed by people even if they're staying with relatives, said Monique Garcia, a volunteer working with the Salvation Army in Haviland.

Denture cleaner is another item that has been requested by the older population of Greensburg than, say, the diapers that have already been donated, she said.

But kind–hearted people should keep in mind that the population of Greensburg is small, and if one person donates a case of denture cleaner, that will probably do it, said Brian Walker of the Kansas Food Bank, which is serving as a drop–off site for the items. People can call ahead before donating items to be sure they are still needed, Walker said. The phone number is:

316–265–4421.

The Food Bank, 1919 E. Douglas in Wichita, is storing the goods and sending them out as they're needed, controlling the amount that is delivered to Haviland, where storage space is limited, Walker said.

"That eliminates a disaster within a disaster," he said.

No clothing is being accepted for donation. Deliveries can be made to the Food Bank from 6:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Saturday. If you want to take something out Sunday, call first.

Here is the list of needed items. They should be new, not used.

? Bath towels

? Bedding

? Pillows

? Laundry detergent

? Dog and cat food

? Denture cleaner

? Canes

NVOAD – Situation Report 6/16/10

Feeding America has been active in Louisiana, Alabama, and the Panhandle of Florida, opening their food banks and working with the State VOADs. They have formed a working group at their National Office, which will meet for the first time this Friday, to get a better handle on the situation along the Gulf Coast. This working group is assessing the situation and considering the future need for full involvement of their organization, and will provide support current with the coastal food banks.

FROM THE WEBSITE 9/5/08:

The Food Bank of Central Louisiana is responding to the effects of Hurricane Gustav. In addition to working with shelters and government agencies, the Food Bank continues the partnership with our network of agencies who will be among the first to respond with emergency hunger relief.

The public can help by supporting the Food Bank's disaster relief efforts, both with donations of food and funds. We had just begun to replenish our stock when we learned about Gustav. We will definitely rely on the community's help during this situation.

Another way the public can assist the food bank is by volunteering to help pack emergency food boxes. If anyone is interested in supporting the Food Bank of Central Louisiana, please call 318–445–2773.

When disaster strikes, the Food Bank of Central Louisiana is prepared to respond with food assistance and emergency supplies.

It is the goal of the Food Bank of Central Louisiana to act as a conduit for donated food and other essential grocery items for the purpose of disaster relief. This will be done with the support of America's Second Harvest – the Nation's Food Bank Network, and in coordination with other relief organizations. In times of national disaster, the Food Bank of Central Louisiana may be a collection point for local donations.

The Food Bank of Central Louisiana will be responsible for solicitation, handling, storage and distribution of products to an established network of more than 80 agencies in Central Louisiana. In addition, distribution will extend to state, city, military,

American Red Cross, and other VOAD (Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster) sites, as necessary, during an emergency. The extent of service the Food Bank provides will vary in accordance with the scope of the disaster and availability fo resources.

Whether the emergencies are on an individual level such as the loss of a job, or for larger disasters as seen with Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, the Food Bank of Central Louisiana and their partner agencies provide direct food assistance to the most vulnerable.

A disaster is defined as an occurrence such as a terrorism attack, hurricane, tornado, storm, flood, high water, wind driven water, tidal wave, earthquake, drought, blizzard, pestilence, fire, famine or other natural situation that causes human suffering or creates human needs that the victims cannot alleviate without assistance.

LTel 6:23 pm CST 8/30/08:

Spoke to Donice of WRAP.

They have two shelter facilities.

The WRAP building is at capacity with 140 evacuee population. They have 3 bathrooms and 3 showers and 2 fully operational kitchens.

The second shelter is an unmarked bldg. provided by a community member that is currently at capacity with 60 evacuees. Its location is: Varnado High School located next to our shelter across the street. They have a fully operational kitchen, 2 bathrooms and 1 shower.

2nd Harvest will not be delivering food until Tues. at the earliest (9/2). They are on the FEMA shelter list but FEMA will not provide any support or assistance "until there is a hurricane", so like 2nd Harvest, no assistance until Gustav is done. Red Cross is not helping.

They are currently in great need of Flashlights/Batteries because the smaller building doesn't have a generator. 2 weeks ago they received a good generator for the WRAP building so they are set there. They are also in great need of Toiletry Kits as many folks are showing up with "nothing, not a blanket or a toothbrush".

They are turning away a lot of folks that are just driving in without calling ahead and they "don't know where to go or what to do".

They have received evacuee's mostly from Orleans Parish, Slidell and Baton Rouge.

Donice was at the store purchasing food to feed evacuee's to cover until Tues. when I called and they have plenty of folks to help with cooking and shelter operations. They will be providing hot meals but no snacks.

During Katrina, they lost power for 6 weeks so they are preparing for no utilities for a lengthy period and she'll be able to get calls

From the Site 6/10 – OIL SPILL UPDATE:

Since 2006 the Community Center of St Bernard has been here to help St Bernard families get the assistance they need, whether it's food, clothes, medical care, legal aid, counseling, or other services. Today the residents of St Bernard Parish, who have already survived Hurricane Katrina, are facing another disaster as the Gulf Oil Spill spreads, moving ever closer to their coastline. The oil spill is threatening the fish and seafood that many St Bernard families depend on to earn their living. A commercial and recreational fishing ban is currently in effect, and fishermen are signing up for our food pantry so that they will be able to feed their families until they can find other work. The Community Center is here, ready to help them in any way we can. But we can't do it alone. Please donate now so that we can continue to provide essential services like food and clothes to families in need.

With government estimates showing that more than 800,000 gallons of crude oil are now spilling out every day, the situation is becoming increasingly desperate. The federal fishing bans now cover one–third of the Gulf Coast, and commercial fishermen and other St Bernard residents who depend on the commercial and recreational fishing industries are signing up for the Community Center's food pantry so that they will be able to feed their families until they can find other work. The demand for basic services like food, clothes, and information are all up by more than 20% for the past month, with more families needing help every day.

9/5/08 LTel:

Spoke to Iray, they will be back to full operation Mon. 9/8 and are ramping up to distribute to the St. Bernard Parish community with the expecationt that the many evacuees returning will have a need to replace spoiled food and be financially challenged as a result of evacuation.

Americorps is delivering water, but he's going to assess if other hot spots need it more than they do before accepting it.

He's put in a request through the state for volunteers to assist next week with food distribution.

He asks that once Gustav efforts settle down to conference to update his facility entry in the database.

The Community Center of St. Bernard Parish is a grassroots, nonprofit organization that is committed to creating a vital community space for residents and volunteers who are working together to rebuild the Parish, post–Katrina.

Socialization is key to the rebuilding of St. Bernard Parish. Isolation is one of the most damaging effects of Katrina. Residents need a place to come together daily, to share a meal as well as their unbelievably surreal stories with others who understand. It's natural and human to eat together, especially in New Orleans where food is so much a part of the culture. Residents need free phones and the internet to rebuild their businesses.

They need a respectful place to feel comfortable taking donated supplies that arrive for them from all over the world. And they need to feel that they're contributing to the recovery process, too. No matter how hard they hurt inside.

The Community Center of St. Bernard will offer a non–political, non–denominational, safe and inclusive space to assist residents in their return home, where they can gather to reconnect as they rebuild their lives, businesses and neighborhoods.

NVOAD – Situation Report 6/16/10

Feeding America has been active in Louisiana, Alabama, and the Panhandle of Florida, opening their food banks and working with the State VOADs. They have formed a working group at their National Office, which will meet for the first time this Friday, to get a better handle on the situation along the Gulf Coast. This working group is assessing the situation and considering the future need for full involvement of their organization, and will provide support current with the coastal food banks.

Volunteers

The Worcester County Food Bank offers the following volunteer opportunities to individuals and small groups:

Sorting and inspecting donated food and grocery product

Food drives

Special events as needed

Most of our volunteers help sort donated food and grocery product. Our volunteers have a direct impact on people who are hungry in Worcester County. They sort approximately 2 million pounds of food per year, which is then distributed to emergency–feeding programs located throughout Worcester County.

We encourage volunteers to come in once a week for 2–3 hours.

The Food Bank is open for volunteering Monday through Friday, 8 AM to 4 PM.

Hours include: Special Saturday hours.

Please contact us at 508–842–3663 to learn about our Saturday hours.

Minimum age for volunteering is 13. Volunteers under 16 years of age must be supervised by an adult.

All volunteers are required to complete an application, participate in orientation, and schedule hours in advance.

Please contact the Food Bank at info@foodbank.org or 508–842–3663 for more information about volunteering.

If we are unable to accommodate your volunteer needs at the present time, you may want to refer to the Community Harvest Project's website: www.fftn.org

All of the produce grown by the Community Harvest Project is donated to the Worcester County Food Bank for distribution throughout Worcester County.

We Depend On Volunteers . . . We Depend On You!

The Worcester County Food Bank works in partnership with non–profit programs located in 60 communities (a network of 216 partner agencies) throughout Worcester County to provide emergency food assistance to individuals and families. To locate a program in your area, please call the Food Bank at 508–842–3663 or go to their website and click on the link "immediate help", upper right. Then choose "program listing". Or just go back and choose "advanced search" above and search this database for listings in your area.

The search for a new home for Twelve Baskets Food Bank, our affiliate in Gulfport, Mississippi, has come to an end. During Hurricane Katrina, the building housing Twelve Baskets sustained damage that hindered the response to recovery efforts on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

It is with great pleasure and pride that Jennifer Keegan, executive director, and the staff at Twelve Baskets Food Bank announce their new facility located at 16364 Highway 67, Biloxi, MS 39532. They have a new freezer and a new cooler measuring 24' x 24' and a significantly larger warehouse that will allow them to expand product line and service to the many organizations in the eight south Mississippi counties they serve. We, along with Twelve Baskets, invite you to give them a call at (228) 863–1759 to set up an appointment and see the facility for yourself.

Twelve Baskets is a subsidiary of the Bay Area Food Bank. The Twelve Baskets warehouse is located in Gulfport, Mississippi.

At the Bay Area Food Bank, we like to say we're not just a warehouse. We offer many hunger relief programs to help our communities. From child nutrition to community food assistance, we offer programs for every population, for every food and nutrition need. Please explore our different programs and learn why the Bay Area Food Bank is not just a warehouse.

There are many ways that people can become a part of the food bank family. You can donate money online or using one of our direct mail pieces if one is mailed to you. You or your company can donate food, or organize a food drive. You can raise money by organizing a fundraiser or helping us with one of ours. You can volunteer, either as a long term permanent volunteer who comes in a few days a week, or you can organize a group of people to come volunteer during the day, sorting food and doing other important work at the food bank. Please check the sections on volunteering, raising money, donating money, donating food, and organizing a food drive for more information.

One very important and easy way you can help the food bank is by using your voice. You can write to legislators about hunger–related issues, you can make phone calls or write emails. You can become a hunger advocate for your community by checking our Use Your Voice section and finding out what needs to be said, and who needs to hear it.

The tornadoes on Saturday, April 16 have put the Food Bank of Central and Eastern North Carolina in the dual role of continuing its day to day hunger relief operations to 34 counties and assisting agencies affected by the natural disaster. The Food Bank is sending additional resources to the agencies affected by the powerful tornadoes; have extended hours for these organizations to access their warehouses for additional items and is making special deliveries directly to agencies affected. The list of disaster relief support continued this weekend as the Food Bank dispatched a truck from its Raleigh warehouse directly to one of their partner agencies, Good News Outreach, 3208 Oaks Road in New Bern. Good News Outreach reported a significant increase in service since the disaster, particularly in the Catfish Lake area. The Food Bank truck is loaded with four pallets of water, four pallets of snacks and two pallets of disaster relief boxes, totaling 13,000 pounds of food and relief items to the agency. In the past few days, great community support and donations from other areas of the country have allowed the Food Bank to provide the following for hard–hit agencies in Craven, Wake, Johnston, Lee, Harnett, Greene and Onslow counties: · 32 pallets of snacks, water, produce and frozen meat to Wake County agencies and American Red Cross facility in Johnston County– totaling more than 26,500 pounds · 20 pallets of produce, orange juice, water and canned goods to Lee County agencies – totaling 16,519 pounds · 10 pallets of produce, orange juice, water, dairy and bread from Greenville Branch to Greene County agencies – totaling 9,962 pounds · 10 pallets of produce, water and snacks to an agency in Harnett County – totaling 11,000 pounds · 10 pallets of water, snacks and relief boxes to an agency in New Bern County – totaling 13,000 lbs · Two deliveries from Greenville Branch to agencies in Onslow County – totaling 9,240 pounds · The American Red Cross in Greenville is storing 22 pallets of product in the Food Bank's Greenville warehouse.

FOOD BANK ASSESSES NEED, RESPONDS TO TORNADO

Tornado Relief 2011Every day, The Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina responds to a crisis in its service area – hunger. The Food Bank serves as a conduit for accepting, sorting, packaging, storing, and distributing food and non–food essentials to more than 500,000 people at risk of hunger daily in its 34–county service area. As a first responder during times of a natural disaster, the Food Bank also reacts immediately to serve victims of tornadoes, hurricanes and floods throughout the southeast without disrupting regular food distribution in North Carolina.

Following the tornadoes hitting North Carolina on April 16, the Food Bank assessed its partner agencies (food pantries, rescue missions, soup kitchens, senior and child nutrition programs) in counties affected by the storm to determine how their distribution capabilities fared. The Food Bank has been in communication with the American Red Cross and North Carolina Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (NCVOAD). The organization has reached out to assist sister food banks in Elizabeth City, which serves Bertie County and in Fayetteville, which serves a portion of the Sandhills along with the Food Bank branch there. As a result of the initial assessment, Food Bank agencies in Wake, Lee, and Greene counties were hardest hit. The organization is sending additional resources to the agencies affected by the powerful tornadoes on Saturday, April 16; have extended hours for these organizations to shop for additional items and is making special deliveries directly to agencies affected.

Wake County saw unprecedented devastation due to Saturday's storm and many Wake County agencies served out of the Food Bank's main warehouse on Tarheel Drive in Raleigh have a high anticipation of increased need and are already supporting large numbers of individuals and families who are without power. Some of the agencies themselves are without power but still operating and still distributing to those who need assistance, even taking to the streets, supporting a trailer park community by distributing flyers to families with information of additional hours of distribution today.

Lee County, one of the hardest hit areas in North Carolina by Saturday's powerful storm, is served out of the Food Bank's Sandhills Branch. With one of the agencies serving as a designated day shelter for kids as a result of the storm, additional food donations will help meet the increased demands on their services.

In the Food Bank's Greenville Branch service area, one Greene County agency hit by the tornado also has an increased need for emergency food and non–food items.

During the week following the disaster, the Food Bank distributed more than 86,000 pounds of food to the relief effort. Great community support and donations from other areas of the country have allowed the Food Bank to provide the following for hard–hit agencies in Wake, Johnston, Lee, Harnett, Greene and Onslow counties:

* 39 pallets of snacks, water, produce and frozen meat to Wake County agencies and American Red Cross facility in Johnston County totaling more than 26,500 pounds
* 20 pallets of produce, orange juice, water and canned goods to Lee County agencies totaling 16,519 pounds
* 10 pallets of produce, orange juice, water, dairy and bread from Greenville Branch to Greene County agencies totaling 9,962 pounds
* 10 pallets of produce, water and snacks to an agency in Harnett County totaling 11,000 pounds
* 10 pallets of water, snacks and relief boxes to an agency in New Bern County totaling 13,000 lbs
* Two deliveries from Greenville Branch to agencies in Onslow County totaling 9,240 pounds
* The American Red Cross in Greenville is storing 22 pallets of product in the Food Bank's Greenville warehouse.

HOW YOU CAN HELP: FOOD DRIVES

Hosting a food drive at your business, school, neighborhood or faith–based organization will help us in our efforts to provide disaster relief to those most in need. Click on the links below to find out what you need to know about managing a food drive.

For more information, contact our Food Drive Coordinator.

FOOD DONATIONS:

Individual donations of food and non–food essentials are extremely helpful and critical to the overall relief effort. All donated items should be delivered to the Food Bank location nearest you.

The Food Bank cannot accept prepared meals for evacuees relocated to shelters in North Carolina. If you are interested in providing hot meals for these individuals contact Wake County Human Services at 919.212.9595.

Please keep the following suggestions in mind as you collect needed items to donate:

. Only use boxes that hold up to 50 lbs. in which to collect your items to be donated so that they may be easily lifted.
. Barrels do not make good collection containers, as they can weigh up to 800 pounds. . Relief organizations have found that it is often most practical to focus on one or two items that an organization says is needed rather than collect a variety of items and have boxes filled with mixed goods – please consider donating items in bulk.
. If possible, please consider donating cases of a particular food or non–food item. Cases are usually easier to sort, pack, and distribute than individual units. (For example: a case of peanut butter is easier to handle than individual jars of peanut butter). Pooling resources and focusing on single item donations are good ways to manage the higher costs of purchasing items by the case.
. Encourage food drives and food collections that focus on a specific type of item: Peanut Butter Drive, Cleaning Supplies Drive, Nutritional Snack Food Drive, etc.
. If holding a Baby Items Drive: please collect diapers, infant cereal, and formula. Please donate these items by the case, as loose glass or plastic jars of baby food will have to be discarded due to health regulations.
. Pre–sort foods into categories prior to delivery to Food Bank.
. Please DO NOT put cleaning supplies in the same box as food items.
. The Food Bank cannot accept clothing. Used clothing is rarely a useful item to collect for disaster relief as it is hard to clean, sort, pack, transport, store and distribute, and mounds of clothing take up valuable warehouse space. Donated used clothing frequently ends up being discarded.

CURRENT VOLUNTEER NEEDS:

The best way to volunteer for the Food Bank to help with the disaster relief effort is to host a food drive and deliver the collected items to the Food Bank location nearest you.
. If you have a truck or SUV and are willing to make local pickups and deliveries in your area, you can sign up to be an on–call volunteer driver. On–call drivers are required to go through an application process and driving record check. To sign up to be a volunteer driver, contact the volunteer coordinator in the Food Bank location nearest you.
. Tractor trailers are in great demand in disaster relief efforts. If you have a tractor trailer that can be scheduled to be used to help in the Food Bank's relief efforts, please contact Anna Davenport, Food Resources Manager for the Food Bank: adavenport@foodbankcenc.org
. Greenville Branch – Volunteers are needed to sort food drive items destined for the victims in the affected areas. The Food Bank is open Monday through Friday 8am – 4pm, Wednesday 6pm – 8pm, and Saturday 9am – 1pm, and other times as needed. Please contact the Greenville Volunteer Coordinator via email or call at 252.752.4996.
. Raleigh Branch – Volunteers are needed to sort food drive items destined for the victims in the Operates 5 sites, all of which are fully equipped with refrigeration and freezing. In post–disater mode will accept toiletries as well as food items (no clothing, furniture, please).

All donations should be coordinated through Peter Reubwervicki at Raleigh HQ.

Andrew Hafner in Raliegh also coordinates pet supply donations.

Roadrunner Food Bank of New Mexico has been serving New Mexico's hungry since 1980 and is the leader in creating solutions to end hunger in New Mexico. Since its inception twenty seven years ago, Roadrunner Food Bank has distributed more than 150 million pounds of food. That's equal to 5000 transfer truckloads of food.

Roadrunner Food Bank solicits, collects, and transports approximately 14 million pounds of food yearly. Roadrunner Food Bank distributes the food through a statewide network of over 700 emergency food pantries, group homes, low–income day care centers, shelters, soup kitchens, and six smaller, regional food banks. In turn, these organizations provide emergency food boxes, group meals, and direct distribution to approximately 240,000 low–income people each year.

Roadrunner Food Bank provides food, water and other supplies in local and national disaster relief efforts. This spring, in response to the devastating tornadoes in Clovis, Roadrunner Food Bank sent 100,000 pounds of food to the Eastern New Mexico Food Bank. In August 2006, Roadrunner Food Bank provided emergency food to 450 families affected by flooding in Hatch, Alamo, Socorro, and Laguna, New Mexico.

Help fill the Oregon Food Bank Network's empty warehouse shelves – 09/21/07
PORTLAND, Ore. (Sept. 21, 2007) – The Oregon Food Bank Network needs your help.

"Oregon Food Bank's warehouse shelves are as empty as I've ever seen them," said Rachel Bristol, OFB's CEO.

On average, OFB normally has 300,000 pounds of new donations to offer the OFB Network weekly and delivers about 700,000 pounds of food each week from its warehouse to its network of regional food banks and local helping agencies throughout Oregon and Clark County, Wash. But in the last few weeks, weekly offerings have dropped by 25–75% and statewide deliveries are down 200,000 pounds per week.

"The entire statewide Oregon Food Bank Network of regional food banks and the 900 local agencies we serve throughout Oregon and southwest Washington are feeling the impact," Bristol said.

The situation

• OFB is shipping available food to regional food banks and local agencies as quickly as it comes in.

• Salvaged product (dented cans from retailers) is disappearing. OFB has depleted its salvaged inventory.

• OFB's has depleted its frozen–food inventory, product that in recent history has served as OFB's safety net.

• U.S.D.A. commodities: OFB continues to see a severe decline in U.S. Department of Agriculture commodities. During the last two months, U.S.D.A. commodities dropped an additional 300,000 pounds. Overall, during the last four years USDA commodities have dropped 52 percent or more than six–million pounds.

• Food industry: Food–industry donations are down 1.1–million pounds in comparison to the same period last year. The combination of a strong consumer market, high commodity prices, increased biofuel demand, increased efficiency in food manufacturing and international markets mean both national and local sources of food are way down.

• Food recall: Last month, due to a major, nationwide recall of products from a food–processing plant, OFB returned two–and–a–half truckloads of product to the manufacturer and has additional two–and–a–half truckloads of product on hold that OFB can't distribute.

"All of this means we have a big gap to fill – even before the holiday giving season – and need your support more than ever to help people in need," Bristol said.

This situation isn't unique to Oregon," Bristol notes. "Food banks across the country – Oklahoma, California, New York – report similar shortages." (See New York Times, Sept. 20, 2007)

How to help

• Donate funds.

Donate on line at www.oregonfoodbank.org. OFB will use funds to help acquire, store and move food.

• Food industry (farmers, processors, distributors, retailers and wholesalers)

OFB welcomes donations from all sectors of the food industry. Please call Mike Moran, OFB's food resource manager, (503) 282–0555, Ext. 209.

• Cans Film Festival Food Drive

Participate in Cans Film Festival Food Drive, Thursday, Sept. 27. Bring three cans – more if possible – of nonperishable food to any Regal Cinemas theater and see a free movie and get free popcorn. Don't have time to see a movie? You can still drop off food at Regal Cinemas, Sept. 27.

• Organize a food drive

Organize your own food drive. OFB can help. Please call Maryann Brunner, (503) 282–0555, Ext. 226. Drop off donations at OFB facilities or call us for the location of an OFB Network agency near you.

• Donate part of your harvest

Harvesting your garden? Donate part of your harvest to your local food pantry or soup kitchen. Call OFB, (503) 282–0555, to find out the local hunger–relief agency in your neighborhood.

• Write U.S. Senators

Write your U.S. Senators. Ask them to support increased funding for TEFAP (USDA emergency food) in the farm bill.

Thank you for collecting food for people who are hungry. Please bring your food donations to one of Oregon Food Bank's two warehouses:

West Texas Food Bank was established by a small group of concerned citizens in 1985 to address the critical issue of hunger in West Texas. In the first year, the Food Bank provided 203,000 pounds of food and groceries to 40 agencies on a budget of only $50,000. In 1996, addition of the El Paso area brought the service area to a total of 22 counties. Since 2005, the Food Bank has annually distributed more than 5 million pounds of food to nonprofit partner agencies.

West Texas Food Bank has an mission to increase public awareness on issues of hunger. This focus is multi-faceted. Increased donations of food and dollars so as to continue the service to agencies and their clients is one benefit of public awareness, but providing nutrition education and assisting our agencies in distribution of nutritious food is also part of that awareness, as is the need to inform those needing assistance that help is available in West Texas.

A member in good standing of America's Second Harvest-The Nation's Food Bank Network and the Texas Food Bank Network, West Texas Food Bank receives guidance in the form of operating standards, training, inspection, and food supply information. Additionally, The Food Bank is appointed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Federal Emergency Management Administration to provide emergency and disaster food assistance throughout West Texas and to assist other regions as needed in these types of emergencies.

HOUSTON – The Houston Food Bank is asking for help as they try and feed the many empty stomachs affected by Hurricane Ike.

The food bank says they do not have not enough food to supply the need across the area.

John Norris, from St. Anne Catholic Church, says he has seen a increase in need in his Tomball neighborhood.

“There is a great deal of emotional trauma, especially from those who have come to us looking for help who have had their trees into their homes,” Norris said when asked about conditions in the north and west side of Houston.

The Houston Food Bank helps provide about 80 percent of the food served in meals Norris distributes trough his pantry program.

He is urging people to support the Red Barrel program by donating a bag of groceries when shopping in participating store.

To volunteer with the Houston Food Bank you can call 713–223–3700.

EMERGENCY HURRICANE RESPONSE

The Houston Food Bank is open with normal business hours. The Houston Food Bank is working hard to provide relief to families and individuals. We are supplying food and other necessities to our partner agencies and to temporary shelters.

We Need Your Help
To keep up with the growing need for food, we must obtain funds to purchase truckloads of urgently needed, high–demand items. We are also in need of volunteers to process and distribute these items.

We also must replenish our supplies quickly to prepare for future disasters and to make sure we have enough food for struggling families here in our community and throughout the year.

Thank you for your compassion in this time of great need.

The Houston Food Bank is a private Non–profit organization founded in 1982. Today, the food bank feeds the hungry by distributing 38 million pounds of food each year to nearly 400 hunger relief agencies in 18 counties in southeast Texas.
They played a major role during the 2005 hurricane season.

West Texas Food Bank was established by a small group of concerned citizens in 1985 to address the critical issue of hunger in West Texas. In the first year, the Food Bank provided 203,000 pounds of food and groceries to 40 agencies on a budget of only $50,000. In 1996, addition of the El Paso area brought the service area to a total of 22 counties. Since 2005, the Food Bank has annually distributed more than 5 million pounds of food to nonprofit partner agencies.

West Texas Food Bank has an mission to increase public awareness on issues of hunger. This focus is multi–faceted. Increased donations of food and dollars so as to continue the service to agencies and their clients is one benefit of public awareness, but providing nutrition education and assisting our agencies in distribution of nutritious food is also part of that awareness, as is the need to inform those needing assistance that help is available in West Texas.

A member in good standing of America’s Second Harvest—The Nation’s Food Bank Network and the Texas Food Bank Network, West Texas Food Bank receives guidance in the form of operating standards, training, inspection, and food supply information. Additionally, The Food Bank is appointed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and the Federal Emergency Management Administration to provide emergency and disaster food assistance throughout West Texas and to assist other regions as needed in these types of emergencies.

West Texas Food Bank’s major purpose and strategy is to serve our partner agencies by collecting corporate and private donations of food and groceries, distributing USDA commodities, and helping those agencies to provide food assistance to needy citizens in their local communities. The Food Bank maintains three branch warehouses (Alpine, El Paso, and Odessa) where donated food is collected, sorted, inspected, repackaged for household use, and distributed through a network of agencies to needy West Texans. West Texas Food Bank Food Bank seeks local, regional, and national donations of food and groceries, sorts, inspects, repackages, and distributes these wholesome, but unmarketable products through its network of agencies, large and small. Included in that network of charitable organizations are daycare centers, youth programs, senior centers, soup kitchens, homeless shelters, residential shelters, rehabilitation centers, and food pantries. These small organizations rely upon the “bulk buying power” and “increased public awareness” available when they join the West Texas Food Bank hunger–relief network.

The Food Bank of The Golden Crescent began operating May 16, 1986. Executive Director, Amelia Salinas, while working with a child abuse prevention program, noted that hunger was an underlying problem in most abuse cases. After a ten month feasibility study of gathering information from other Food Banks in Houston, Austin, Corpus Christi, & San Antonio, gaining the support of H.E.B. Grocery Chain, and obtaining permission from Second Harvest National Food Bank Network, Amelia received a donation of a small building and the Food Bank was born.

Today, the Food Bank of The Golden Crescent is the support system for some 100 agencies in a 9,963 square mile service area which includes the eleven counties of Calhoun, Colorado, DeWitt, Goliad, Gonzales, Jackson, Lavaca, Matagorda, Refugio, Wharton, and Victoria. In 2004, the Food Bank distributed over 4.6 million pounds of food and related products to agencies participating in our food distribution program. These agencies report providing over 250,000 meals in 2004 through soup kitchens, emergency food boxes, church pantries, or senior citizens programs. Aside from these programs, the Food Bank has initiated the nationally sponsored Kid's Café program in Texas, which provides an after school hot meal and tutoring for children at risk of hunger. The Community Food Bank also has provided move–in food and related items to 35 families in the Victoria area qualifying for Habitat for Humanity housing.

The purpose of the Wichita Falls Area Food Bank is to eliminate hunger in its surrounding 13–North Texas county service area by acquiring food and distributing it to partner agencies to give to those in need.

Procuring and providing food to qualified non–profit member agencies for free distribution to their clients is the primary reason for the existence of the WFAFB. The WFAFB receives food from local food drives, donations from area growers, wholesalers, and retailers of edible but unsalable food, donations through America's Second Harvest and other food banks, and USDA TEXCAP commodities. This food is distributed to qualified member agencies for free distribution to their clients. The types of agencies served are emergency pantries, youth programs, senior citizen programs, soup kitchens, rehab centers such as battered shelters, halfway houses, and low–income day care centers.

Lewis County Food Bank Coalition Agency Spotlight

In early December, Western Washington was hit by a torrential storm that left several counties severely flooded and in desperate need of emergency assistance. Lewis County experienced some of the worst flooding and was among the first counties to look to Food Lifeline, the Western Washington America's Second Harvest affiliate, for help.

The Lewis County Food Bank Coalition is a group of eight small food pantries located in a rural county in southwestern Washington. All food pantries are members of Food Lifeline's network of more than 300 food pantries, meal programs and shelters. Coalition member Howard Coleman described the flood, saying, "This was almost a mini–Katrina and we were talking to people who had water to the eaves of their houses." The storm flooded homes, washed out major roads and bridges, and destroyed businesses and farms. Food Bank Coordinators in the economically depressed region have been faced with a sizable challenge, and have been working together to provide food and other resources for victims of the disaster.

The food pantries that comprise the Coalition serve close to 30,000 individuals annually. Fourteen percent of individuals living in Lewis County have income levels below the poverty line, and the median household income is only approximately $35,000, according to the 2000 census. Many of the damaged homes were in areas that had never flooded, and therefore residents were uninsured. Coalition members project that there will be a long term need for additional food for households recovering from the flood.

With the help of the America's Second Harvest network, Food Lifeline has provided four flood impacted counties with over 100,000 pounds of disaster relief food, water, and essential supplies. So far, 19,000 pounds of disaster relief provisions have been delivered directly to the Lewis County Food Bank Coalition. Coalition members work diligently to support each other, and work together to obtain and distribute food. Pe Ell Food Bank co–manager Howard Coleman said, "Being a member of a coalition helped us to get started, and gives us a much better supply of food." The members of the Coalition harness their buying power to purchase food that they would otherwise be unavailable to them as individual food banks. As the Lewis County Food Bank Coalition continues to meet the additional need in flood impacted communities during the rebuilding phase, it will be Food Lifeline's mission to ensure that they have the necessary disaster relief supplies.

This article was written for America's Second Harvest's "Harvest Times," a quarterly newsletter distributed to America's Second Harvest corporate donors.
