9/5/08:

Just spoke to Aaron Funk. They are deploying to Baton Rouge and should arrive by 9/6/08. They will set up at least one kitchen in that location, and assess the need on arrival for any additional kitchens. They are also assessing The Houma Indian Nation in Terrebonne for hot meals needs.

They will have to double back to FL in 1 1/2 weeks to serve post Ike and are on standby for both Hanna and Ike.

ARRR is a grassroots emergency response network organized to provide first wave relief kitchens, safe drinking water, medical assistance, and a child safe playarea to communities immediately after a disaster.

We are dedicated to mobilizing our assets and resources toward these goals. Utilizing the collective experience of mass feeding in some of the most remote areas of the American wilderness. Coupled with the over whelming success of the New Waveland Cafe during the ultimate test of Katrina. We are prepared to respond.

Currently we are working to create a broad platform for other grassroots reliefs efforts to work in concert. During a disaster it can be very difficult to coordinate even the most basic logistics needed to actually deliver direct aid. We would like to invite other grassroots relief groups and community based organizations to join our network. We are much more powerful together than alone. And an efficient , coordinated, and comprehensive approach is the only way to guarantee success.

Walk–in Resource

WI

Per Terra, August 31, 2007: Steve Iskovitz was interested in going to help, but couldn't get a response via the website. He did some research through his other Rainbox contacts and someone told him that they are all set in Wisconsin now and don't need anymore help.

Press Release recieved by Terra from NVOAD.

PLEASE FORWARD TO YOUR CONTACTS

www.americanrainbowrapidresponse.org

We are mobilizing a team to Wisconsin in the morning. We have the full support and backing of Organic Valley.

I have coordinated with the State Emergency Manager , County Emergency manger,FEMA regional VAL, and the State VOAD chair who is the lead on Mass Care relief efforts.

Green lights the whole way.

It appears we will be setting up in a community center or High School. Serving the first responders, volunteers, and residents. And filling Salvation Army RV's to serve in the field.

The main need as it looks at this point is going to be for volunteers and monetary donations.

We will possibly need a sizable number of warm bodies if it turns out how it is looking now.

This may change when we see what kind of resources are present on the ground.

We are having a face to face meeting on Friday with public officials.

Here is the team at the moment.

Ryan, Caterpillar, Jenna, Yours truly.

On the ground support

Clovis
George Siemon
Mike from OV

We are going in support of farmers who supported us and Volunteers from the New Waveland Cafe who have lost their homes and farms due to the heavy flooding.
