The Operations Section is ADEM's disaster mitigation and emergency response arm. Its three work groups are: 1) the Continuity of Operations Planning (COOP) & Public/Private Partnership Group; 2) the Emergency Response Group and 3) the Mitigation Group.

Special programs group
The Continuity of Operations Planning (COOP) Unit leads a multi–agency task force to protect 130 state entities' critical business functions while the Public/Private Partnership Unit strengthens the state's emergency response capacity through cooperative training, exercises, and resource sharing with private sector entities.

THE EMERGENCY RESPONSE GROUP
Conducts all–hazards analysis and intelligence sharing to identify threats and consequences at the earliest possible opportunity. In large–scale emergencies, multi–agency coordination (MAC) functions are conducted in the State Emergency Operations Center (SEOC). The Search & Rescue (SAR) Unit supports Arizona's fifteen county sheriffs and coordinates SAR missions with federal entities such as the Air Force Rescue Coordination Center, military rescue units, and the United States National Park Service. In a cooperative effort with the Arizona State Forestry Division, an all–hazard Incident Management Team responds to manage on–scene incidents that exceed a local jurisdiction's capacity.

THE MITIGATION GROUP
Reduces and/or eliminates the impact of future disasters by administering five pre– and post–disaster mitigation grant programs which provide funding for projects with a good benefit–cost ratio. The Mitigation Group coordinates and assists state, local, and tribal governments, along with communities across the border (with hazards which affect Arizona), in developing multi–hazard mitigation plans. These plans identify the hazards, vulnerabilities and risks in a community and assist in developing strategies to mitigate those risks. The plans are a requirement in order to remain eligible to receive specific disaster assistance under the Stafford Act. The Mitigation Group also provides education and outreach to local officials, emergency managers, and others.

Officer Dibene reports they have plenty of room at this time and are accepting Station Wildfire evacuated animals, both large and small (despite online/news sources stating "small pets only"). They do not need any bedding because it's just too warm right now. They are fine on food and other supplies, but he took my number in the event that anything comes up and they need help. He said what is critical right now is "Juniper Hills". They are watching that area of the fire carefully.

Founded in 1951, the Los Angeles County Disaster Communications Service
(DCS) is a volunteer organization administered by the Sheriff's Department Emergency Operations Bureau for the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. Our main function, authorized under County Ordinance, is to provide disaster relief communication for the citizens of Los Angeles County.

Over 800 Members donate over 100,000 man–hours a year at no cost to the Taxpayer!

Each City in the County has chosen amateur radio as their government communications back–up system. During major incidents our members serve as a critical link that allows information and ultimately resources to get to their destination. Our members coordinate, transmit and receive command and liaison traffic while staffing locations and shadowing key personnel. This allows County Government and City Governments; Law Enforcement and Fire Agencies and other disaster relief agencies to coordinate and communicate their efforts in real time.

The Disaster Communications Service is headquartered at the County Emergency Operations Center. DCS operates at each Sheriff Station in addition to Emergency Operations Centers in 56 Cities, Fire Stations and with other agencies throughout Los Angeles County.

The Amateur Radio equipment installed at each Sheriff Station is owned by the County, as is a mountain–top repeater station and mobile command units. All other equipment is owned by individual members or by a volunteer organization formed by the members.

In our ongoing effort to provide excellent service, DCS members must participate in ongoing drills and training programs.

Our Rapid Deployment Team is staffed by members assigned to each Station and is capable of activating and providing services anywhere in the County in two hours or less. This Team has additional qualifications and training requirements.

DCS members have fully integrated into the emergency response plan, local stations; hospital’s and regularly work alongside Law Enforcement and other agencies including County and City Fire, Red Cross, the FBI and FEMA.

When all else fails; Amateur Radio works.

The Disaster Communications Service proudly serves the County of Los Angeles.

If you would prefer to speak with us voice to voice please call our office at (323) 980 – 2246.

Local Red Cross to Begin Distribution of Tea Fire Response Funds
By Marjorie Wass | Posted on 01/13/2009

More than $400,000 has been donated to help residents affected by the November blaze.

The Santa Barbara Tea Fire Response Fund, a collaborative community partnership formed in the days after the Tea Fire that began Nov. 13, 2008, is ready to begin reviewing and disbursing donated funds, which total about $405,000.

Residents affected by the fire who seek assistance must apply at the American Red Cross–Santa Barbara County Chapter, 2707 State St. in Santa Barbara, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Applicants should bring proof that their house was burned down or damaged, or that they have been adversely affected by the fire. Examples include a driver's license with the destroyed home's address, or utility correspondence sent to the address. All applications are confidential.

The Red Cross has offered to provide the case management service. Residents who already have applied to Red Cross do not need to apply again. A case manager will meet with residents to discuss unmet needs. To set an appointment, call Pamela Voge at 805.687.1331.

Tea Fire Response Funds will be distributed based on a two–tiered system where a public–private partnership of agencies and officials will provide screening at the social worker/case manager level and an oversight committee of local leaders will provide direction and assurance that all monies are used appropriately. United Way of Santa Barbara County is acting as the fiscal agent, handling the monies for the fund. United Way is not charging for this service, and 100 percent of the donations will go for services to Tea Fire survivors.

The Tea Fire Response Fund is committed to the long–term recovery of the community.

Disbursements will be made throughout the year as needs of survivors continue to be identified.

Disbursements will be made on a quarterly basis until all funds are disbursed, no later than Dec. 31.

The first checks will be distributed in March and every three months thereafter. It's a tentative schedule and may be adjusted based on what the screening subcommittee and oversight committee determines are the most pressing short–term, midterm and long–range needs of the community.

“Tea Fire Victims Need Specific Items”, says the Long–Term Recovery Committee
Santa Barbara ‘Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster’

(VOAD) Seeks Support for Tea Fire Victims from the Business Community
Thursday, Februay 5th, 2009

The families and individuals impacted by the Tea Fire are currently experiencing different needs than immediately after the disaster. A change of clothes, a toothbrush and some shampoo was all some could think about as they tried to process what had happened to their lives.

Now the need is becoming more specific: a computer to help communicate with piano students; replacement tools so a general contractor with no insurance can get back to work; a catering company that lost everything; etc., etc.
The Long Term Recovery Committee of the VOAD has a limited amount of funds to meet the many needs. The desire is to help make the money stretch so everyone can be helped.

If you operate a business that could donate or discount useful items of any kind to qualified victims of the Tea Fire, please contact Pam Voge at the Red Cross ….687–1331 ext. 107.

9/4/09: Confirmed they are only taking horses, donkeys & mules.

Pierce College can take up to 200 horses. Some reports say they only take horses, but I saw a news broadcast on 8/30/09 and they had a few llamas, sheep, goats, etc. I think they prefer to take horses though.

Citizen Action Team has been instrumental in supporting County Animal Services in coordinating horse trailer transport as their resources have been stretched thin due to the wide scope of this Wildfire.

The SPCA has also kicked in with equipment and is assisting with horse transport at this time.

Hansen Dam is the 'layover' stop for horses/livestock being transported ultimately to Pierce College.

National VOAD (NVOAD) coordinates planning efforts by many voluntary organizations responding to disaster. NVOAD member organizations provide more effective service and less duplication during times of disaster by getting together before disasters strike. When a disaster occurs, NVOAD or an affiliated state VOAD encourages members and other voluntary agencies to convene on site. This cooperative effort has proven to be the most effective way for a wide variety of volunteers and organizations to work together during a crisis.

According to the National VOAD website, NVOAD serves its member organizations through:

Communication – disseminating information through electronic mechanisms, its newsletter, the directory, research and demonstration, case studies, and critique.
Cooperation – creating a climate for cooperation at all levels (including grass roots) and providing information.
Coordination – coordinating policy among member organizations and serving as a liaison, advocate, and national voice.
Education – providing training and increasing awareness and preparedness in each organization.
Leadership Development – giving volunteer leaders training and support so as to build effective state VOAD organizations.
Mitigation – supporting the efforts of federal, state, and local agencies and governments and supporting appropriate legislation.
Convening Mechanisms – putting on seminars, meetings, board meetings, regional conferences, training programs, and local conferences.
Outreach – encouraging the formation of and giving guidance to state and regional voluntary organizations active in disaster relief.

State VOADs carry out the national work on a local level by convening regular meetings of their members and working together on pre- and post-disaster coordination. In California NorCal VOAD and SCVOAD are affiliated with NVOAD.

BRACE – the Be Ready Alliance Coordinating For Emergencies – is a local network for linking organizations active during disasters and interested persons. BRACE brings the community together to address emergency management issues and thus helps reduce loss of life, injury, property damage, environmental impact and economic loss due to disasters. Through fostering communication, cooperation, collaboration and coordination among a partnership of private, public and non–profit organizations, BRACE will help our community become more prepared, resilient and self–sufficient.

Who We Are

BRACE launched on March 31, 2006 with more than 200 present at Pensacola Junior College when Craig Fugate, director of the Florida Division of Emergency Management, addressed a "Culture of Preparedness" and subject matter experts presented information about preparedness, response, recovery and mitigation. Recognizing that recovery from Hurricane Ivan was delayed because of the absence of an organization focused on disaster preparedness and response, the leadership of the Long Term Recovery Committee served as a catalyst for the establishment of BRACE.

Former Gov. Jeb Bush set a budgetary priority to establish a "Culture of Preparedness" to ensure Floridians and their local governments take the necessary safety measures in preparation for hurricanes.

WHO WE ARE

"BRACE's first priority is promoting personal responsibility and self–sufficiency in times of emergency," said Greg Strader, interim executive director. "This is especially critical due to the National Hurricane Center's prediction of a decade or more of frequent and intense hurricanes."

Disaster planning and preparedness enhances the effectiveness of response and speeds recovery. Engaging all sectors of the community will provide additional resources for disaster preparedness, response, recovery and mitigation.

The Mission of BRACE is to have every individual, church, business, nonprofit and civic organization involved in ensuring that our community is able to respond to and quickly recover from any type of disaster. The Escambia County Office of Emergency Management is responsible for managing emergencies, but they cannot do it alone. There are many critical services needed to address the impacts of disaster that require the involvement of community based organizations. In partnership with Escambia County Office of Emergency Management, BRACE coordinates that involvement.

The current BRACE Program of Work includes services such as promoting personal responsibility and self–sufficiency during disasters, providing childcare to first responders (emergency management personnel) and continuing life–saving services to the homebound (persons with disabilites and frail elderly) during and after a disaster.

Become a Partner with BRACE today and find out how you can make a difference. Email us at BRACE@BeReadyAlliance.org or call 850–444–7135 for more information.

Governor Crist Calls on Floridians to Contribute to Help Survivors of Disasters
~ Donations improve capability of disaster relief efforts ~

TALLAHASSEE – Governor Charlie Crist today announced he was activating "Neighbors to the Rescue" through the Florida Disaster Recovery Fund and asked Floridians to donate responsibly to survivors of disasters, including those in Haiti.

"Our thoughts and prayers are with Florida families impacted by the destructive Haiti earthquake," said Governor Crist. "I urge Floridians and neighbors across the country capable of contributing to contact a relief organization they trust. The people of Haiti desperately need our assistance during their dark hour."

The "Neighbors to the Rescue" through the Florida Disaster Recovery Fund is a Florida based fund that works with non–profit organizations to assist with long term recovery and unmet needs for Florida's regional neighbors victimized by disaster. "Neighbors to the Rescue" was created in 2005 following Hurricane Wilma.

"Floridians have time and again shown that they are good neighbors to those in need. Through the Florida Disaster Recovery Fund's 'Neighbors to the Rescue' Program, Floridians can make monetary donations and demonstrate their solidarity with the people of Haiti," said Marshall Criser III, president of AT&T Florida and chair of the Florida Disaster Recovery Fund's Advisory Council.

Floridians and neighbors across the country can contribute to "Neighbors to the Rescue" by going to www.FLADisasterRecoveryFund.org – or by calling 1–800–825–3786.

Together we can restore Florida.

Insurance, government and relief organizations are not equipped to cover all of the needs of Floridians impacted by natural disasters. The Florida Disaster Recovery Fund was formed to meet the long–term recovery needs of Floridians.

The Fund is managed by nonprofit Volunteer Florida Foundation, which manages the Governor's initiatives in community service and volunteerism. The Foundation is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) charitable organization (Florida registration number is CH8536) and your donations are tax–deductible.

Goals of the Recovery Fund
MAKE RECOVERY DOLLARS STRETCH – by providing needed financial assistance where insurance and government help leaves off
HELP REBUILD FLORIDA COMMUNITIES AND LIVES. Funds may be used to help rebuild communities by providing needs identified by local organizations working in recovery, and by helping nonprofits and faith–based organizations rebuild their own structures so they may continue to assist in rebuilding communities.
Guiding Principles

Money goes where it is most needed, with local decision–making. Determinations of need are made by long–term recovery organizations within the impacted communities. These organizations are composed of individuals from immediate recovery organizations, businesses, nonprofits and other representatives living and working in recovery within those communities, who best know the constantly changing needs of their communities. Direct grants may also be given to nonprofits and faith–based groups who need to rebuild their own infrastructure to serve their communities.

All donations are tax–deductible. A special account has been opened by the nonprofit Volunteer Florida Foundation to take donations. All donations designated for this purpose will be deposited in this special account and will be used for recovery efforts. (Registration number is CH8536). An audit and report of the use of funds is posted on this website.

Please give. Your donation is tax deductible.

Lake County Emergency Management Division coordinates with county, municipal, state and federal agencies to provide protection to lives and property from natural, technological and man–made disasters.

The division is responsible for developing and maintaining the Lake County Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan, and provides training and information to local agencies and residents on preparedness, mitigation, response and recovery issues.

During emergency situations, such as the threat of a hurricane, the aftermath of a tornado with widespread damage or terrorist event, the Emergency Operations Center (EOC) would be activated. The EOC brings together key agencies in one room to facilitate sheltering of evacuees, search and rescue, law enforcement, debris removal and much more. Emergency Management also activates the citizen information lines to pass on critical information to concerned residents and visitors.

Emergency Management plays a key role in evacuating citizens who are in danger and registering those who need special medical attention or would require transportation to a shelter. For more information on the Special Needs Program, call (352) 343–9420.

SUMMARY 9/24/09: From Janice Riccio, Quietzsch@aol.com ––
Due to the massive flooding in the Atlanta area, and specifically Cobb County, many people displaced by floodwaters left their pets with Cobb County Animal Control. The shelter was slammed before the floods, so they had no room to house newcomers. They were desperate to find rescue for dogs already housed there or face euthanasia...

I've taken in 9 dogs and have no place to house them, other then boarding at two vet offices. This is very temporary, and although the vets have generously boarded the dogs at a discount, this will add up quickly –– not to mention the other costs for rabies vaccines, altering, etc.

All of dogs below are current on routine shots, including rabies. All are microchipped, dewormed, and tested negative for heartworm.

BEAR is a super sweet 3 year old chow/shepherd mix girl. Shelter staff say she is good with kids and pets and is leash trained. Her bottom is all in a wiggle when you pet her.

MAC is a 3 year old, unaltered male collie mix. He is so much cuter in person! He arrived with a flea allergy, since treated. He's bathed and his fur is growing back nicely.

BIG RED is a fantastic dog! He is a young retriever mix who follows commands, is leash trained, and loves to play ball.

Poor ELLIE... Such a beautiful and sweet 4 year old girl whose family could no longer keep her. She is spayed, leash trained and housetrained.

BALENTINO is an adorable 3 year old boy. His family was unable to keep him, though he did everything right. He is housetrained, leash trained, good with kids and pets, and very well behaved.

IF YOU CAN FOSTER – ADOPT – RESCUE, CONTACT:
Janice Riccio, Quietzsch@aol.com

BARNEY is such a cute little Chihuahua mix who is 4 years old, and 15 lbs. He came to the shelter with his buddy Fred.

FRED is Barney's sidekick. He is 4 years old and 13 lbs. You couldn't go wrong with these 2 lovebugs.

KRISTY is a 5 month old golden mix puppy. She won't be too big when she grows up...she is only 18 lbs. now and so sweet! We likely have rescue placement or a potential adopter for her.

LEAH is a super sweet 3 year old girl, maybe basset/lab? She is spayed, house and leash trained. The shelter says she is good with kids and pets. She was adopted a couple of months ago, but the family decided their lifestyle was too active for a pet so they dumped her back in doggy jail.

Forwarded from: EdgyinJax@aol.com, jennparr@juno.com –– Cobb AC is in a crisis due to the flooding... They have taken in 50 dogs since yesterday, scores of cats, more coming in and they can't hold. Please go to the shelter, they don't have a lot of time for taking phone calls. Please don't let this natural disaster turn into a worse disaster for the animals!

Some are in temporary boarding covered by a Good Samaritan with limited funds... They are only TEMPORARILY safe and still need a rescue or adopter immediately! Please donate to help cover boarding, which adds up quickly.

Apply For Disaster Assistance
It's Your First Step to Recovery

Release Date: September 29, 2009
Release Number: 1858–014

ATLANTA, Ga. –– Recent floods were very disruptive, creating challenges for flood survivors that will continue long after the initial cleanup. The first step to recovery is only a phone call or click away.

Register For Assistance

If you have insurance, you should contact your insurance agent first. Knowing the amount of coverage your policy provides will help FEMA assist with unmet and underinsured needs. Next, call the FEMA toll–free registration number 24 hours a day, seven days a week at 800–621–FEMA (3362), TTY at 800–462–7585 for the speech and hearing impaired or register online at www.disasterassistance.gov. Registration normally takes less than half an hour.

FEMA disaster assistance will not restore individuals and households to their pre–disaster condition. It helps get safe and sanitary housing and meet other critical needs so flood survivors begin their long–term recovery. If a loss is covered by another source, such as insurance, or is taken care of by a volunteer group, donation or gift, FEMA cannot pay for that cost again. Duplicate payments are prohibited by law.

FEMA DISASTER PROGRAMS

Temporary Housing – Rental assistance for two months for those whose homes are unlivable.

Repair – Homeowners may receive a grant for minimal home repairs and replacement of essential household items that are not covered by insurance to make damaged dwellings safe, sanitary and functional.

Other Needs Assistance (ONA) – applicants receive grants for necessary expenses and serious needs caused by the disaster. This includes medical, dental, funeral, personal property, transportation, vehicle repair or replacement, moving and storage, and other expenses that FEMA approves. The homeowner may need to apply for an SBA loan before receiving this grant.

U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) Loan – After registering, many applicants, including homeowners, renters and businesses, will receive an SBA loan application in the mail. If you receive one, you are strongly urged to complete and return the application to keep the door open for other types of assistance. If a home loan is not appropriate, you may be referred to the state/FEMA Other Needs Assistance (ONA) grant program–but SBA must decline your loan application first. You are not obligated to take an SBA loan if approved, but if the loan is offered and refused, there is no referral to ONA.

FEMA assistance, also referred to as a grant, does not have to be repaid. SBA federal disaster loans used to repair or replace damaged or destroyed property are offered at low–interest rates to those who qualify.

Other Forms of Assistance

Disaster Unemployment Assistance –Workers in 17 counties may be eligible for Federal Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA) to compensate for loss of income directly related to the September storms and flooding. Unlike state unemployment insurance, DUA provides benefits to self–employed business people, farmers, commission–paid employees, and others not typically covered by the state unemployment insurance program. People who think they may be eligible for benefits should call the Georgia Department of Labor toll–free customer service line at 877–709–8185 or visit www.dol.state.ga.us to be directed to the nearest career center.

Disaster Legal Services – People in those same counties may also qualify for free legal help for disaster–related issues such as landlord–tenant disputes, insurance claims, unemployment benefits, consumer law and housing law. The service is provided by the State Bar of Georgia Young Lawyers Division, the American Bar Association Young Lawyers Division, the Georgia Legal Services Program and FEMA.

Apply for legal services by calling, toll–free, 866–584–8027.

Crisis Counseling – Free crisis counseling is available to anyone suffering from anxiety, depression or stress from the flooding and storms. Individuals can call the Georgia Crisis Access Line at 800–715–4225 or the Georgia Suicide and Crisis Hotline at 800–784–2433. Both lines are open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The counties under the disaster declaration for Individual Assistance are Bartow, Carroll, Catoosa, Chattooga, Cherokee, Cobb, Coweta, DeKalb, Douglas, Fulton, Gwinnett, Heard, Newton, Paulding, Rockdale, Stephens and Walker.

FEMA's mission is to support our citizens and first responders to ensure that as a nation we work together to build, sustain, and improve our capability to prepare for, protect against, respond to, recover from, and mitigate all hazards.

Cherokee County emergency management officials today will begin assessing the "extensive" damage caused by historic flooding.

A three–day rainfall total of 15 inches, including as many as eight inches on Monday, has led Gov. Sonny Perdue and county Board of Commissioners Chairman Buzz Ahrens to declare a state of emergency for Cherokee.

A letter from Georgia's U.S. senators and representatives has been sent to President Barack Obama urging his immediate approval of the governor's request for an expedited major disaster declaration for the state. Cherokee is one of 17 counties where a disaster has been declared.

"It was the worst flooding in the Woodstock area I have ever seen," said Robby Westbrook, director of the Cherokee Sheriff's Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Management.

The previous record height of Noonday Creek in Woodstock was 16 feet, which was reached in 2005. Westbrook said the creek reached 20 feet on Monday.

Lake Allatoona was at 850 feet on Tuesday morning, significantly above the normal elevation for this time of year of 835 feet, said Ron Papaleoni, general manager of the Lake Allatoona Preservation Authority.

"We are still getting water from the upper end of the watershed. That could go on for another day or two," he said.

The Etowah River was at 18.5 feet on Tuesday morning after peaking at more than 20 feet late Monday night, said Clint Blackwell, manager of the water treatment plant for the Cherokee County Water and Sewerage Authority.

The flooding caused a significant amount of structural damage in the county, Westbrook said, which he will evaluate when the damage assessment begins in earnest today.

"There are a lot of places you can't get to because the water is still too high," he said, adding "numerous" homes, apartments and buildings were affected. "In the Woodstock area and some areas in Canton, there is extensive damage."

Any Cherokee County resident whose home or business received damage is asked to call the county's Emergency Operations Center at (678) 493–4050 or (678) 493–4051 to make a storm report. The phone lines will be open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. today through Friday.

Cherokee County is not yet clear of bad weather.

According to the National Weather Service, there is a 40–percent chance of showers and thunderstorms today and a 30–percent chance on Thursday. Scattered showers and thunderstorms are expected on Friday and into the weekend.

Numerous roads including many major highways were closed due to flooding on Monday. Local public safety agencies performed about two dozen rescues of motorists who drove into water and stalled their cars, according to Westbrook.

Buildings along Parkway 575 in Woodstock were evacuated on Monday, including three hotels. Waldan Chase Apartments on Dupree Road in Woodstock and Avonlea at Towne Lake Apartments also were evacuated.

All public safety staff on duty was assigned to storm response, and volunteers also were called in to serve. The county received aid from Pickens and Gilmer Counties agencies, Westbrook said.

Westbrook said there were power outages scattered throughout the county, and some customers still were out of power Tuesday afternoon.

Georgia Power Area Manager Rod Drake said the company had some outages, but power had been restored. Local crews were sent to Douglasville and Austell to assist in those harder-hit communities.

A shelter was opened on Monday at the Cherokee Recreation and Parks Agency's recreation center at the South Annex in Woodstock. It is staffed by the Cherokee County Public Health Department, Cherokee County Department of Family and Children Services, the Red Cross and members of the county's Citizen Emergency Response Team.

By Tuesday afternoon, most major roads through the county, including Interstate 575, Highway 92, Highway 5, Bells Ferry Road and Towne Lake Parkway, were reopened.

Westbrook said Kellogg Creek Road will be closed for an extended period due to "major structural damage." Also to be closed for an indefinite period due to damage are the northernmost portion of Parkway 575 in Woodstock and Haynes Road in Canton.

There is no timeline for reopening Mohawk Trail or Yorkshire Drive, Iron Mountain Road is open only for limited access and McClure Drive, which still was closed on Tuesday, could be opened today.

The Victoria and Galts Ferry Day Use Areas on Lake Allatoona and the Payne Campground boat ramp and some sites at Victoria Campground are closed due to flooding, as is Fields Landing Park.

In Woodstock, the tennis courts at Dupree Park are closed, as was Old Rope Mill Park and in Canton, both Boling and Heritage Parks are closed.

The South Cherokee Recreation Association fields on Highway 5 in Woodstock were completely underwater on Monday, damaging all facilities and equipment.

Municipal operations also were affected by the weather. Meetings of the city councils of Holly Springs, Waleska and Woodstock on Monday were cancelled. All Woodstock city government offices closed early on Monday.

The Cherokee County Health Department cancelled its drive-through flu-shot event on Tuesday, and both the clinics in Woodstock and Canton were closed.

Cherokee County School District schools were not in session on Monday, as students and staff have the week off for fall break. Minor leaks were reported at Bascomb, Clayton and Oak Grove elementary schools and Creekland Middle. There were leaks in Mill Creek Middle gym and in the rotunda at Woodstock High. Water was reported on the floors at Sequoyah High, as were mud problems at the construction site for River Ridge High.

At least 60 people displaced, hundreds of houses swamped
by Kristal Dixon
kdixon@cherokeetribune.com

September 22, 2009 11:00 PM

Kristina Sorg of Woodstock never thought Mother Nature would force her and her 20-month-old baby to flee their Waldan Chase apartment on Dupree Road.

But as the heavy rains from Monday flooded the first floor of the complex, Ms. Sorg said she and her toddler were hip-high in water within minutes.

"We were soaked," she said. "Everything is under water."

Ms. Sorg, along with 19 other Waldan Chase apartment residents, were evacuated from the complex by emergency workers as Cherokee County braced for some of the worst flooding it's ever seen.

The flooding across the county forced emergency management officials to open a shelter at the Cherokee Recreation and Parks Agency's recreation center at the South Annex on Main Street in Woodstock.

Along with Waldan Chase apartments residents, 27 people were evacuated from the Avonlea at Towne Lake Apartments near Stonebridge Parkway in Towne Lake and 101 people were evacuated from hotels and medical offices on Parkway 575 in Woodstock, according to Woodstock Fire Chief Dave Soumas.

Late Tuesday afternoon, the fire department still was assessing whether Waldan Chase residents would be able to return to their apartments.

Residents in Avonlea have been allowed to return, but those staying in hotels on Parkway 575 only were allowed to return and collect belongings.

Several businesses and offices within the vicinity of Parkway 575 at Highway 92 also were closed Tuesday due to flooding.

On Monday, more than 60 people were registered at the shelter set up in the recreation center gym, according to Hal Simmons, shelter manager for the American Red Cross, which set up operations there.

On Tuesday, 36 people still were registered at the shelter.

Simmons said many people left the shelter on Tuesday as they found family and friends with whom they could temporarily hang their hats.

Medical personnel are on hand at the shelter for residents with pre–existing health conditions, and evacuees are being given food and water.

Simmons said there are no plans to close the shelter anytime soon. However, he said the Red Cross will begin re–evaluating the shelter's existence if the need continues to decline.

"We'll stay open as long as we need to," he said.

While the Red Cross isn't accepting direct donations, Simmons urged those who want to help to give to local churches and nonprofit organizations.

Local businesses that specialize in cleanup from disasters said they've been bombarded with calls since Monday regarding water damage to homes.

Benny Carter, who's in charge of business development for Southeast Restoration Group in Holly Springs, said his office received more than 80 calls on Monday asking for help with water damage.

Carter said the majority of the calls are from people who have flooding in their homes and basements.

The damage being reported is extensive, he said, ranging from minor flooding in the basement to as much as four feet of water in homes.

"This is the most severe we've seen in several years," Carter said of the flooding.

Carter, who said he's finding out many homeowners do not have flood insurance, said it will take days for people to discover the damage. The company also will have to wait until the water recedes to begin its work.

"It's been a difficult time for everyone," he said.

Katharine Miller, office and marketing manager with Remco Solutions in Holly Springs, said she easily had more than 100 calls since Monday reporting water damage related to the flooding.

Many of the homeowners, she said, have had foundation leaks, ceiling and wall leaks. They live in areas where creeks and rivers crested and spilled into their homes.

"This is historic," Ms. Miller said of the flooding, adding the damage reported ranges from a few inches to a few feet.

She said one home, located near a lake, had its basement flooded with water – and fish – from the body of water.

Like Carter, Ms. Miller said many homeowners don't have flood insurance and probably won't receive reimbursement for the damage unless it's from a leak.

"A lot of people will lose a lot," she said.

The time needed to clean up the damage will vary, she said, depending on how extensive the damage is and how deep the water is.

One Woodstock resident was able to see how fast the waters rose on Highway 92 near Parkway 575.

As Victorine Donahue was volunteering at the Revive Consignment Store, she witnessed the shopping center's parking lot become flooded by waters from Noonday Creek.

She said she watched as a small black car was engulfed by the rising water.

"You could barely see the roof of the car," she said.

At the shelter, Ms. Sorg said she's anxiously waiting to hear if she will be able to go back to her Waldan Chase apartment anytime soon.

Worst–case scenario, she said she will have to call friends to find a place where she, her fiance, Chris Botts, and her daughter can stay.

The situation isn't so bright for Alma Campos and her family.

Mrs. Campos, who also had an apartment on the first floor at Waldan Chase, said she doesn't have any other family to stay with until she figures out a more permanent solution.

The family moved to Woodstock from California 11 months ago.

Her 15–year–old daughter, Alicia Zetin, was at home when the flooding occurred.

Alicia said she only was able to grab clothes for her younger brother and sister before being evacuated from the apartment.

"It was a really scary experience," she said.

Mrs. Campos said she never expected anything like this to happen in Woodstock. She also said she was unaware of Waldan Chase's history of flooding.

"They could have warned me," she said.

Now, Mrs. Campos said she and her family will remain at the shelter until they figure out something.

Moving back to California, she said, isn't a reasonable option.

"I don't have enough resources to go back," she said.

Website Can Help Displaced Georgians Find Rental Housing
Release Date: May 5, 2011
Release Number: 1973–012

ATLANTA, Ga. –– To help people displaced by the recent tornadoes find rental housing, the Georgia Emergency Management Agency (GEMA) and the Georgia Department of Community Affairs (DCA) are encouraging displaced survivors to use www.GeorgiaHousingSearch.org.

This easy–to–use website allows users to search available rentals by location, price range and description, such as number of bedrooms and bathrooms.

“In the aftermath of the recent tornadoes, Georgians can use this valuable tool to rebuild their lives and find temporary housing,” said GEMA Director Charley English.

Property owners in Georgia who have an apartment or house for rent also can list their available properties on the site at no cost. Information needed includes the city, county or ZIP code, price range for rent, and the number of bedrooms and bathrooms.

Storm survivors in Bartow, Catoosa, Cherokee, Coweta, Dade, Greene, Habersham, Harris, Heard, Floyd, Gordon, Lamar, Lumpkin, Meriwether, Monroe, Morgan, Newton, Pickens, Polk, Rabun, Spalding, Troup, Upson, Walker and White counties may be eligible for federal disaster assistance. Assistance from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) may include financial help to rent a place to live while they repair their home or find more permanent housing.

“We ask that people register with FEMA as soon as possible,” said Federal Coordinating Officer Gracia B. Szczech. “The process takes 15 to 30 minutes and is an important step on the road to recovery. Don’t wait to register.”

FEMA offers several registration options:

Register online at www.DisasterAssistance.gov; or,
Call 800–621–FEMA (3362). Those with hearing or speech impairment can use TTY 800–462–7585. Operators speak many languages, and the lines are open 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.; or,
Connect through a Web–enabled mobile devices or smartphone at m.fema.gov.
To be eligible for FEMA assistance as a result of the April 27–28 storms and tornadoes, applicants must have disaster–related damages not covered by insurance. Residents affected by the disaster should contact their insurance providers before registering with FEMA.

FEMA’s mission is to support our citizens and first responders to ensure that as a nation we work together to build, sustain, and improve our capability to prepare for, protect against, respond to, recover from, and mitigate all hazards.

5/2011: Georgia Legal Services Program

We are monitoring opening of the DRCs and providing representatives on site where requested. We provide lawyers who can give on–site information and advice about problems obtaining benefits such as disaster unemployment, food stamps, and other FEMA benefits, as well as landlord–tenant problems and replacement of lost documents. On a longer term basis, we will continue to assist clients with benefits issues, housing issues, and consumer/home repair scams. We work with the State Bar of Georgia Younger Lawyers Division Hotline to coordinate referrals for problems concerning insurance claims and similar issues.

In addition to on–site legal assistance at the DRCs, we have five offices that cover one or more of the counties under the federal disaster declaration.

These offices are located in Dalton, Gainesville, Macon, Columbus, and downtown Atlanta (for certain counties just outside the core metro area). More information about our offices is available at www.glsp.org .

We are preparing flyers about our services to be offered at the DRCs as well as key community locations. We will have available more detailed information about specific issues such as unemployment benefits, food stamps, etc.

Haiti

Directory of Civil Society Organizations (UN–Sponsored DIRECTORY and NEEDS REPORTS)

Info/Hotline · Open

DIRECTORY
Web csohaiti.org
Service Temporary

GO TO THE WEBSITE LINK ABOVE to find the "official" UN directory for civil society orgs (social service and disaster recovery orgs). This is a VERY in–depth site that has needs listings, contact listings, etc etc. It also has a function to REPORT NEEDS. (TF: not clear how this connects to One Response, or Clusters)

From the website:

The United Nations Office of the Special Envoy for Haiti (OSE) and the Inter–American Development Bank's Multilateral Investment Fund (FOMIN) launch the Haiti Civil Society Organization Portal

The Haiti Civil Society Organization Portal Initiative

The United Nations Office of the Special Envoy for Haiti (OSE) and the Inter–American Development Bank's Multilateral Investment Fund (FOMIN) have developed the Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) Portal that will enable CSOs operating in Haiti to inform each other about their activities and report on their current status and needs.

Before the January 12 earthquake, the Office of the Special Envoy had worked closely with the Government of Haiti's Ministry of Planning and the United Nations Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) to compile a directory of over 800 civil society organizations working in Haiti, both local and international entities, in areas ranging from agriculture, women's programmes, economic development, water and sanitation, children and youth. After the earthquake, this initiative has become even more pressing as it is critically important that CSOs can effectively support the relief and recovery process. The directory is meant to help facilitate international cooperation and knowledge sharing. It is designed to help anyone seeking information about not–for profit organizations working in different sectors of Haiti.

The United Nations Office of the Special Envoy for Haiti

In May 2009 the United Nations Secretary–General announced the appointment of President William J. Clinton as the Secretary–General's Special Envoy for Haiti. In August 2009, Dr. Paul Farmer was appointed as Deputy Special Envoy for Haiti. Following the January 12 earthquake, Secretary–General Bank Ki–Moon asked President Clinton to take on an expanded role as UN Special Envoy. In his expanded role as Special Envoy, President Clinton will continue to work with the Government and people of Haiti as they lead recovery and reconstruction efforts. President Clinton will liaise closely with senior UN officials and will continue to advocate for the international community to realize and sustain their commitments to Haiti for long–term recovery, and help channel assistance effectively to communities in need.

The Inter–American Development Bank

As Haiti's largest multilateral donor with a portfolio of over $770 million, the IDB has not only approved a $200,000 grant for emergency assistance for Haiti and $128 million in new grants this year, but it is also seeking to work with other donors to exchange information and coordinate response activity. Both the Haiti CSO Portal and the joint effort with the UN Office of the Special Envoy are steps towards forging new alliances that will enable a better recovery process in Haiti.

FOMIN

FOMIN, a member of the IDB Group, is an autonomous fund administered by the IDB and the largest technical assistance provider in Latin America and the Caribbean with over $120 million per year, has been a major supporter of CSOs and microfinance institutions in Haiti, seeking to increase access to economic activity for everyone. FOMIN believes that the communication channel used to reach CSOs also becomes key since its work with CSOs and microfinance institutions throughout the region has shown that online communities and social networks are a very powerful tool to share information and promote communication and coordination.

Johnson County EMA is presently recruiting volunteer emergency management staff. For details contact Dave Wilson at (319) 356-6028.

Johnson County's Emergency Management is responsible for the coordination of the Emergency Response activities of various law enforcement and fire departments, the Hazardous Material Response Team, hospital, medical and ambulance services, as well as Red Cross, Salvation Army, Health and Human Services agencies.

The County Emergency Management Agency (EMA) is the operating arm of the Johnson County Emergency Management Commission. The Commission is made up of the 11 mayors or their representative, the Sheriff or his or her representative, and a member of the Board of Supervisors.

The EMA staff consists of two full-time employees. In order to fulfill its mission, the EMA staff is supported by the various departments and agencies listed above. These agencies supply a career and volunteer staff, which fluctuates between 450 and 500 professional emergency responders.

A major function of the Emergency Management Agency is to support the responder agencies in safeguarding Johnson County during periods of disaster. The assistance given by EMA falls to four main categories, namely: Mitigation, Preparation, Response, and Recovery.

In the long run, mitigation is the most important of these support functions. Hopefully, by mitigation, that is the eliminating or lessening of the impact of future disasters, we can reduce the suffering and financial loss for County residents.

Through preparedness, Johnson County Emergency Management employees are constantly involved in Federal (FEMA) and State sponsored Emergency Management training courses. Additionally, the Johnson Emergency Management Agency assists and helps coordinate the activities, training and emergency exercises of local organizations.

Donated weather radios will be passed out to Madison Co. residents

Posted: 6:00 PM May 20, 2009
Last Updated: 4:33 PM May 20, 2009
Reporter: Meteorologist Lauren Raymer
Email Address: lauren.raymer@wkyt.com

The First Alert Weather Team and Midland Radio have donated 40 NOAA weather radios to Madison County as a result of the devastating tornado earlier this month.

The local Emergency Management Agency will be passing them out to residents who live outside of the Immediate Response Zone (IRZ).

Kent Clark, Madison County Judge Executive, says, "The radios are a first line of defense...Sometimes residents are inside with the television and can't hear the sirens."

NOAA weather radios can be programmed for your specific area. They have proven to be a life-saving tool during severe weather.

Weather radios can also be purchased for a discounted price at many local Kroger locations.

CAMP HOPE IN ST. BERNARD PARISH GETS FACE LIFT, COURTESY OF BP
SUNDAY, JUNE 13, 2010 UPDATE AT 6 P.M

Camp Hope is being upgraded by BP to temporarily house oil response workers, and parish will have an upgraded facility when workers leave; volunteers will be housed at Marina Hotel during this period

Camp Hope, the volunteer base camp in St. Bernard Parish, which has been home to hundreds of volunteers since its opening in May of 2009 is getting a face lift. The former St. Louise School and Rectory was leased to St. Bernard Parish Government from the Archdiocese of New Orleans for use as a volunteer base camp.

Camp Hope 3 is the third iteration of a volunteer camp in St. Bernard Parish, with the first version being at Willie Smith School and the second being at Beauregard School. Both of these versions of Camp Hope were relocated due to the schools being rebuilt. The predecessor of Camp Hope was a FEMA funded tent facility at the St. Bernard Port which housed both residents and volunteer groups immediately after Hurricane Katrina.

The face lift comes at the hands of British Petroleum as the camp will be temporarily used to house oil spill response workers. In a few months when the volunteers return, they will have a much improved building which will include central air and heat, new shower and restroom facilities, new flooring, wall lockers, ceiling tiles, lighting, new kitchen operations, and several other upgrades.

"We can never thank the volunteers and Americorps enough for their work to put Camp Hope into operations, and this face lift will give the volunteers a top notch facility to return to," said Parish President Craig P Taffaro, Jr. "It is never easy having to balance two operations and the partnership with the local Marina Hotel, which will accommodate the volunteers in the interim, has been great."

During periods where there have been large numbers of volunteers here at one time, the hotel has already played host to the volunteer groups.

Camp Hope will likely house the oil spill response workers for the next few months and then the volunteer base camp will be turned back over to the volunteer efforts. Camp Hope has made some improvements on a shoe-string budget, but the spirit of the dedication of the volunteers is easily witnessed within the halls and ceilings as groups have left their mark with paintings along the way.

Former camp manager Crystal Wells and current interim manager Mark Madary believe the murals and messages from the volunteer groups says something about the personality of the camp.

Madary, a former councilman for the district that houses the camp still is choked up when he thinks about what volunteers have done for St. Bernard Parish.

"Volunteers have left an incredible legacy on St. Bernard's recovery and the idea of them having a first class camp is well deserved," Madary said.

Camp Hope was reestablished at the St. Louise School under a newly created Office of Volunteerism within St. Bernard Parish Government. While the camp is designed to be financially self-sufficient, it had its financial struggles over the past year but was beginning to turn the corner to actually generate revenue for the camp upkeep and improvements.

Taffaro believes with the building improvements, Camp Hope will have no problem operating in the black when the volunteers return. BP will pay for the improvements to the building and will also pay a stipend for room and board for the workers who are housed at the camp. BP has set up other temporary housing facilities in other parishes to support similar operations, but Taffaro suggested that there not be another tent or trailer movement for workers set up in St. Bernard that would undo the progress made to eliminate unnecessary trailers in the wake of Hurricane Katrina recovery.

So, you want to come to Louisiana to volunteer?

Since Hurricane Katrina in 2005, it is estimated that over two million volunteers have come to the Gulf Coast to help out. Many churches and facilities opened up, providing housing for this outpouring of compassion. Today, Camp Hope has grown into an icon of support for volunteers providing public service in St. Bernard Parish and surrounding areas. Groups, individuals, families, and friends are invited to stay with us and enjoy the comforts, cuisine, and companionship of our unique volunteer culture.

The new Camp Hope 3 location has moved up to the north–western end of St. Bernard Parish and is under five miles from the historic French Quarter, a few miles from I–10, and walking distance to the beautiful Mississippi River. We offer over 35,000 sq. ft. of dormitory–style rooms including a large entertainment and dining hall, kitchen, laundry area, hot showers, and picnic and barbeque areas. Camp Hope has parking with plenty of room for buses to pick up and drop off volunteers. With over 300 beds in dormitory–style rooms, your group will be comfortable while working around St. Bernard Parish. Camp Hope has become one of the most sought–after alternative spring break locations. If necessary, we do have off–site overflow housing at a participating hotel just a short drive away, which still includes meals.

Our kitchen prepares healthy and delicious meals for your group, low in fat and sodium and abundant in Southern flavor. We are collaborating with local, well–known chefs from New Orleans to create a menu that will make you think they're in our kitchen, which may actually happen. If you appreciate good food, you'll know Camp Hope cuisine has set a new standard.

Your well–being is a concern for us and St. Bernard Parish has a reputation for exceptional public safety. The camp is located one block from the Louisiana National Guard's historic Jackson Barracks. You can feel safe walking to nearby restaurants, stores, or the bus stop that takes you to the French Quarter, museums, tours, and public places of interest throughout our parish and in the city of New Orleans.

Accommodation rates at Camp Hope are reasonable at only $25 per person, per night. Rate includes three meals a day and access to all Camp Hope activities and programs. (The same rate applies to the overflow housing.) The campus provides ADA access and groups with minors are welcome, with some exceptions. See note below.

Need a volunteer project? We are happy to help you. Our Serve Green program offers a variety of outdoor projects from wetland restoration to building community support spaces. Please leave a message at 504–872–0619 and an AmeriCorps Serve Green team member will get back to you. We can also refer you to other organizations listed on our website.

Thank you for your interest and we hope to welcome you very soon.

Parish Emergency Management Websites:
http://ohsep.louisiana.gov/linkpages/parishpa.htm

Each of the State's 64 parishes have an emergency management program. Louisiana is divided into nine emergency management and homeland security planning districts which GOHSEP uses in conjunction with its Regional Support program. The map below (see website for map) will assist you in determining who the Regional Director (Parish) is for a particular area and how to contact them. In addition, each district has a state Regional Coordinator (a GOSHEP employee) whom acts as a liaison between the parish emergency operations center (EOC) for their region and the state EOC.

Regional Directors:

Each Region is represented by a Regional Director selected from a Parish Emergency Manager or Director, by the Parishes within the particular Region. The Regional Director provides a leadership role for the Parishes within the Region. They serve as a voice for the Region to raise issues at the State level, providing recommendations to the GOHSEP staff on issues that are pertinent to the Parishes. The Directors work closely with the Regional Coordinators to determine overall strategy for the Region.

Regional Coordinators:

Each Region is supported by a Regional Coordinator who is a GOHSEP employee. The Coordinators assist their regional Parishes with training and resourcing, provide technical expertise on Homeland Security grants, assist in coordinating State and Local activities within their Region and provide direct support during disaster activations.

Child Witness To Violence Project - Violence Intervention Project

The Violence Intervention Project is a program for children aged 3–17 who have witnessed violence at home, school, or in their community. Services include:

* Assessments, Evaluations
* Individual Therapy
* Group Treatment

Our staff, which consists of licensed social workers and master's level child therapists, is committed to providing the best and most appropriate care for each child referred for services. Individualized plans are developed and implemented in conjunction with the child's family, school, physician and other social service agencies that may be involved.

As part of a larger private, non–profit agency, we are committed to providing services to all children regardless of their ability to pay. We recognize that these children, often the "silent victims" of abuse, are themselves VIP's in need of individualized attention and care.

The Clinic Director and her staff of Masters Levels Clinicians come with a great deal of experience working with both adult and child victims, collaterals, police departments and the community at large.

We welcome referrals from parents, police, department of social services, schools, physicians/health centers and courts.

Please feel free to call 508–583–6498 for more information or to make a referral.

Certified by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health, FCR's Adult Male Program provides group services for offenders of family violence in the greater Brockton area as well as Cape Cod and the islands. Responsible Fatherhood Program Helps Dads and Step–Dads develop nurturing parent–child relationships whether they reside with the child(ren), have visitation or are involved in a relationship with the child's mother.

Fees for adults are based on income and a sliding fee scale is available.

For more information or to make a referral, please call 508–584–2185.

Civilian Police Advocacy Project

Working closely with the individual departments of Brockton, East Bridgewater, Bridgewater, West Bridgewater, Rockland, Whitman, Avon, Stoughton, and Abington, trained, experienced advocates reach out to victims who have been assisted by the criminal justice system and provide ongoing community based advocacy and supportive counseling.

Campground Types

Camping fees at Massachusetts Campgrounds are based on campground type. Each type is described below.

Established Campgrounds (Coastal or Inland fee categories)

These campgrounds offer flush toilets, showers, access to water, staffing, and interpretive programs. Some may offer electric or water hookups, dumping stations, or yurts and cabins. Individual campsites will be designated and include a parking area and table, grill and/or fire ring. Camp store or other developed amenities may be available.

Limited Service Campgrounds (Limited Service fee category)

These campgrounds offer toilets and access to drinking water. Some use self–registration and park staff may be off–site. Individual campsites are designated and generally include individual tables, grills or fire rings. Departmental programs may be available.

Primitive Service Campgrounds (Primitive Service fee category)

These campgrounds offer composting or pit toilets. Access to drinking water is not available, and customers are encouraged to bring one gallon per person per day for their camping stay. Showers are not available. The campgrounds are in remote locations, may require a strenuous hike and park staff may be off–site. Individual campsites are designated and may not include individual tables, grills or fire rings. Access to a public telephone is NOT available, and mobile telephone coverage is limited. Interpretive programs may be available.

Recreational Vehicle (RV) Camping

Most RVs require larger campsites and campers prefer access to electric and water hookups, and dumping stations. Areas recommended for RVs include Salisbury Beach, Scusset Beach, Wompatuck and Lake Dennison (no hookups). Be sure to reserve a site large enough to accommodate your RV or trailer.

Reservation Transaction Charge

Effective April 1, 2012, the transaction charge for making a camping reservation is $8.65 per transaction. The charge is non–refundable.

Department of Transitional Assistance (DTA) Area Offices – Massachusetts

The Massachusetts Department of Transitional Assistance (DTA), formerly known as the Department of Public Welfare, is the State agency responsible for administering public assistance programs for needy citizens of the Commonwealth.

Because DTA emphasizes temporary assistance, recipients are encouraged to participate in education, training and job search activities that promote responsibility and self–sufficiency. The Department provides services to more than 400,000 families and individuals across the state.

NOTE: DTA is available on–line at http://www.mass.gov/portal/index.jsp?pageID=eohhs2subtopic&L=4&L0=Home&L1=Government&L2=Departments+and+Divisions&L3=Department+of+Transitional+Assistance&sid=Eeohhs2.

Locations of DTA Offices
DTA has a web page that allows you to select your town and find the DTA office that serves it. Complete contact information for each office, hours of operation, and a map of the area is then provided. Call 1–800–249–2007 for additional information. The online office locator is at:
http://www.mass.gov/portal/index.jsp?pageID=eohhs2terminal&L=4&L0=Home&L1=Government&L2=Departments+and+Divisions&L3=Department+of+Transitional+Assistance&sid=Eeohhs2&b=terminalcontent&f=dta_dta_locations&csid=Eeohhs2

Residential Assistance for Families in Transition (RAFT) Program www.masshousinginfo.org/agencies 1–800–224–5124 to find the local housing agency

RAFT is a state–funded homelessness prevention program. RAFT helps families who are behind on rent, mortgage payments, or utility bills. RAFT also helps families who have to move but do not have enough money to pay a security deposit, utility startup costs, or first/last month's rent. Families can get up to $3000. Funding is limited. Not all eligible families get help. The Massachusetts Department of Housing and Community Development oversees the RAFT program. On the local level, RAFT is run by regional nonprofit housing agencies.

This organization is also a clearinghouse for info about the different housing agencies in each region. If someone needs a housing referral, this is a great place to start. Ask them which housing agency is appropriate for the person you are trying to serve.

Tornado Relief organization update and Minutes
Posted on June 15, 2011 by admin

Dear Friends,
A lot of work has been done recently to better organize the utilization of volunteers and donations in disaster relief. We understand that some of you offered to volunteer and donate and weren't gotten back to quickly. Your help will still be needed in long term recovery from the tornadoes.

After the tornadoes, roads were closed with National Guard troops to keep order while power and infrastructure were put back in place. Affected cities and towns were overly stressed and having difficulty utilizing local volunteers, never mind those from outer areas. Several Massachusetts VOAD organizations were already set up to help with their own members and volunteers and did so.

Usually, we wouldn't post the Minutes of our monthly meetings, but the June 8th meeting Minutes are below as they outline the organization that has recently been put in place while giving you behind the scenes data you likely didn't get from your news services.

To volunteer or donate, you would still call 211 and to donate toward the long term disaster relief efforts, you could donate to the new and official state Disaster Recovery website (hosted by United Way) at www.unitedwaytri–county.org/disaster, call 888–811–3291 or donate to any Massachusetts VOAD member organization you wish.

Please read the information below as it relates to the future safety of the Massachusetts during times of disaster as well as the current relief efforts.
Best,
Kevin Hall (Secretary), Chris Farrand (Chair), Luis Matnog (Vice–Chair)

MAVOAD Minutes
Wednesday, June 8, 2011
1:30–3:30 PM
MEMA Bunker, 400 Worcester Road (Rte 9), Framingham

Minutes

I. Welcome and Introductions
With 26 in the room and four more on the conference phone, this took longer than usual which is a good thing.

II. Working Group Updates and Results of Recruitment Drive
A. Community Preparedness and Outreach
1.Working Group Leaders: Luis Matnog
a. Kevin Hall (Church of Scientology), Luis Matnog (Red Cross) and Arlene Magoon (FEMA) discussed a plan of having Chris Farrand (Salvation Army) put together a one–page sheet on how and why to create COADs (Community Organizations Active in Disaster) and sending it to all the local Massachusetts Emergency Management Directors in order to have them organizing their local businesses and churches, etc. to help if disaster hits. It was also discussed how we could further promote COADs through the www.massvoad.org website and other means and could keep the groups organized by suggesting other activities like entertainment, neighborhood watches, etc. that would keep them active while no disasters were occurring. Kevin also invited those attending to become MA VOAD members if they were not already. After the meeting, the International Fund for Animal Welfare (IFAW) applied for MA VOAD membership. A vote to approved them will occur next meeting.

2.Working Group Leaders: Kevin Hall, Arlene Magoon
Dana Hardtman (AmeriCorps/VISTA) and John McCaul (Able Restoration both offered to help create a VOAD video with its music and special effects, etc. in August. Kevin, Chris and Luis are going to meet to put the script together first. This will be a video, just under ½ hour for cable tv. It will discuss VOAD, the need for creation of VOADs and preparation for disaster.

III. Able Restoration, Inc. (John McCaul) was voted in as the first Associate Member of Massachusetts VOAD. After the meeting, a press release they can use for the media and a certificate were emailed to them by Kevin.

IV. Long Term Recovery Groups Updates on Finalizing Home Repairs.
Larry Rosenberg of the Northern Long Term Recovery group and Paula Farrales of the Southern LTRG gave updates. Larry hopes to finish all flood damage from last year by the end of the month. He had 180 cases and all but 6 are closed. Paula had 276 cases with 9 more to handle, including three new ones. She wanted to thank Self Help, Inc., Able Restoration, the Brockton Stop & Shop and Walgreens and the Providence Canteen for their great help.

V. Luis said that it is important for all MA VOAD members to take the FEMA IS250 (Independent Study 250) disaster relief training course in order to have a much greater understanding of disaster relief activities and what we, as a group, should be doing. It's a free course on the FEMA site that takes about 2 hours to do.

VI. Arlene got with the United Way of Tri–County and set up a Massachusetts VOAD account within the United Way. This is a long term recovery account and done with the consent of Governor Deval Patrick to make this the official long term recovery account. Arlene also got approval on how the funds will be appropriated and how MA VOAD members will be part of the process. Doug Sparks (United Methodist) brought up how there's already a standard format to decide who would be in need of the money in the account and Arlene agreed that it was true.

VII. A Massachusetts organizational chart with job descriptions for specific roles was voted in and is on the "About" section of www.massvoad.org. This lays out the role of Massachusetts VOAD so members can more easily work to expand the organization without going through various committees and approval processes. The chart is in alignment with the committees of National VOAD and it can also be changed by vote at meetings if and whenever necessary in the future. Kevin asked that people review the organizational chart and job descriptions and offer to take on areas they feel interested and qualified in expanding.

VIII. Ben Hiltunen (MEMA) spoke on an upcoming MAVOAD tabletop exercise/timeline drill and also gave a tour of the MEMA Emergency Support Function (ESF) area that was activiated at the time, to anyone interested after the meeting at 3:30pm. Several went to see how MEMA coordinates its disaster response function.

IX. FEMA Updates. Katie Halladay (FEMA) said that the MA VOAD Resource Book is done and will be printed soon. There is also an electronic version to will go up on line and be linked to the MA VOAD website. This can be changed to add new future resources while the book won't be updated for quite a while.

X. Other Business:
This was the longest section of the meeting, the final ½ hour wherein organizations briefed on their disaster relief actions since the tornadoes hit Western, MA. Coordination activities within different groups were also worked out as follows:

Bill Driscoll (All Hands) has agreed to organize an utilize the volunteers who offered to help through Mass 211, www.massvoad.org and the MEMA ESF 15 desk.

Red Cross Springfield (Joy Grahn) – Two shelters 363 in Mass. Mutual Civic Center and 90 at the Big E. Red Cross (as of June 8th) could use volunteers.

Bill Ames (Lutheran Social Services) said they were helping 67 in shelters including family members of one of the deceased from the storms. He said he has needs for housing, vehicles and windows (all damage by tornadoes) and clothes.

Wil Leslie (Salvation Army) said that they can handle means and clothing for victims and that they sit in daily meetings with the Springfield Mayor regarding what's needed.

www.aidmatrixnetwork.org/FEMA was set up as an organized place where people can offer unsolicited donations and MA VOAD members can (and should) go onto to collect needed donations. The organizations can also post what they need from other MA VOAD organizations to make it easier to coordinate with each other. Gary Levit of MA 211 asked about clicking off when donations or requests for help are finished and Arlene said that it was part of the process.

Katie said that there's now a one–stop Massachusetts tornado information site at www.mass.gov/stormrecovery .

Bill Driscoll said he was coordinating on helping people with their homes while they were in the shelters.

Victor Ying (Tzu Chi) said that his organization (www.us.tzuchi.org/usa) wants help in identifying families in need regarding tornado relief. They often give out $1,000 checks to the victims to help them out.

Arlene Magoon said that 235 houses were destroyed although the count should go up as more assessment of damage is done. Information is being put together by Massachusetts with a proposal from MEMA. Massachusetts has to be declared a national disaster due to the tornadoes in order to receive the funding. It's based mainly on the amount of damage calculated although there are some other factors. She also said there's a need now for temporary housing while homes are being repaired.

Bill of LSS said that some people are living in cars while others are displaced and living with families or friends. This is beyond the numbers in the shelters.

Joe Raviele (Greater Boston Food Bank) coordinated with Joy Grahn to get food to them and the CT food bank.

Shannon Walajtys (IFAW) and Rebecca Evanoff (Cert/Dart) reported that the animal shelters and veterinarians in Western, MA did a good job on sheltering pets until they could be reunited with their families.

Andre Gorenyi (Salvation Army) reported that the Salvation Army helped about 20,000 peole with food, water, clothes and spiritual counseling. This included going door to door to see what help was needed. The Red Cross reported that the Salvation Army was bringing racks of clothes to the shelters of displaced families.

Gary Lever (MA 211) said more data needs to get out on these good works that are being done.

Bill Driscoll wants to get with agencies in organizing efforts and volunteer help.

Bruce James (Southern Baptists) said they set up in Brimfield with 5 chain saw (that were cutting up fallen trees to help citizens at their homes with clean up), three damage assessment teams and 5 spiritual counseling teams. They have about 40 volunteers and feel that volunteer help through All Hands would help a lot in clearing debris.

Kevin said the ESF 15 (volunteer desk) was mainly handled by Paula Farrales (Red Cross), himself, two other Church of Scientology volunteers and a volunteer from Boston Cares. The ESF 18 desk was manned a little by Kevin and Paula but mostly by NEDTRIX members who raised a lot of money (including a $10,000 Boston Celtics donation and a pledge to match funds by fans). Tarps to cover roofs, water, and plywood were among the first donations to be gathered in through the ESF 15 and 18 desks. Among volunteers offering help were a couple of good sized construction companies with heavy equipment and an architect who wants to help design new housing.

Lora Grady of Corporation for National and Community Service said they are going to set up at Western Community College and will work on debris removal among other things.

Boston Cares said that they can do shelter care and Self Help, Inc. can help with housing people and getting them needed household appliances.

Commonwealth React said they would like to work with All Hands to keep communications in between groups.

Arlene inquired and found out that the individual organizations aren't currently being overwhelmed with unsolicited donations that they don't know how to warehouse.

The next MA VOAD meeting will be Wednesday, July 13th at the MEMA Bunker in Framingham. Please RSVP by July 11th to mavoad @ gmail . com. to let us know if you'll be attending.

Sincerely,

Chris Farrand (Chair), Luis Matnog (Vice–Chair) & Kevin Hall (Secretary

City of Joplin provides update on emergency services after tornado disaster
May 23, 2011
As evening hours approach, police and fire officials are strongly encouraging anyone who does not have a home in the affected area to please stay clear of the damage site. Search and rescue operations will continue` throughout the evening and emergency personnel needs full, unobstructed access to do their job.

We understand there has been significant damage to the area and people are curious and perhaps anxious to help, but please be sympathetic to your neighbors who can't get into their homes to recover items.

State officials are set up at the Mississippi State Fairgrounds in Jackson to take donations of bottled water and nonperishable food for victims of Saturday's tornado.

Gov. Haley Barbour says the state Department of Agriculture opened the fairgrounds Sunday to collect the water and food for later transport to storm ravaged areas.

The Mississippi Emergency Management Agency said earlier Sunday that water, ready–to–eat meals, tarps and light towers were being delivered to counties where storm damage occurred.

New York State Disaster Case Management Program

Disaster Case Management program can help ANYONE that has been affected by Hurricane Sandy and has unmet needs. This includes:

Those that are not eligible for FEMA,
Those that got FEMA assistance but still have unmet needs,
Those that are confused about where they stand in the FEMA process. We can help them find out where their case stands.

It is important to note that immigrants are eligible for Disaster Case Management even if they are not eligible for FEMA.

The program connects individuals and families to services that might be able to help. Whether you have applied for FEMA or SBA assistance or not, even if you were not eligible for those federal programs, there may be local resources available to help you. A disaster case manager can work one–on–one with you to find resources, provide referrals and help you obtain the assistance you need. Case management information to be updates as information is available.

Dutchess, Putnam, Westchester, Rockland: 845–452–1400 ext 4213

Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan: 571–388–7347 or 571–388–7323.

Services offered: Case Management, Hurricane Survivors; Long Term Recovery Support
Campaigns: 2012 Hurricane Sandy; Government, State/County

H. Procedures for Requesting Resources

1. Notification

The Executive Director will notify the contiguous chapter(s) of additional resources needed starting with the Greater Buffalo Chapter. Contact information is in the Resource Section. If additional resources are needed, these will be reported to NESA. Once Mutual Aid support is obtained, the NESA Chapter Solutions Manager and the Service Area should be notified. The Disaster Services Emergency reporting number for NESA is 1–800–595–3901. NESA's main phone number is 508– 595–3900 and its fax number is 508–852–1500. When a multi–chapter disaster occurs, all requests will be channeled through a central disaster relief operations center established by NESA or a Lead Chapter. Contact information is in the Resource Section for NESA.

If a contiguous chapter requests assistance, the Executive Director should receive the call or be immediately notified. The Executive Director will alert the Disaster Chair that a request has been made and decide how best to meet the request using chapter resources.

2. Activation

The responding chapter(s) will activate requested resources using their standard operating procedures to meet the needs of Allegany County Chapter.

Activation of disaster resources in the Allegany County Chapter will be the mutual responsibility of the Executive Director and the Disaster Chair. Activation of disaster personnel will be coordinated with the Coordinator of Volunteers. Activation of material will be coordinated with the Logistics Lead.

3. Transportation
All affected chapters will collaborate with the requesting chapter or operations center to provide efficient transportation of requested resources. Focus will be on conserving the donated dollar and meeting the needs of people and chapters to deliver services effectively.

Holiday Farm Fire Update 9/18
Springfield, Ore. -Infrared flight mapping was unavailable again last night, the Holiday Farm Fire's footprint is currently estimated at 172,510 acres and containment remains at 10%. The fire's perimeter measures more than 260 miles.

A tree faller was injured by a fallen limb while working to clear roads within the fire area. He was transported to the hospital by ambulance for evaluation and treatment. His injuries do not appear to be life threatening.

Friday's weather-An upper low will move across the fire area today and bring showers. The weather forecast continues to predict possible afternoon thunder storms with gusty erratic winds and small hail. Showers continue tonight and into Saturday but will gradually diminish.

Wildland fire crews will continue working to improve and increase fire containment using hand crews, fire engines and heavy machinery. Crews will be taking advantage of the wet weather to clear roads in the Quartz Creek area and will continue to focus along Hwy 126. Yesterday crews found and addressed a ten-acre spot fire.

Structural firefighters continue to work along Hwy 126 from Leaburg to Rainbow patrolling and clearing defensible space around houses. As conditions improve in and around buildings the need for structural resources is decreasing. This will allow these resources to return to protecting their home communities.

The Urban Search and Rescue Team will be entirely working west of Nimrod. They have completed 1,273 structural evaluations in the fire area. Structures include commercial buildings, residences and outbuildings. The US&R team is hoping to finish their work today and will be released when their mission is complete.

Debris removal

Downed trees not taken care of by their owners will be gathered from county roads to be used for firewood at area parks, according to Lincoln County Public Works Director Jim Buisman. Also, north county residents are encouraged to bring their debris to the North Lincoln Sanitary Service's Schooner Creek Transfer Station through Dec. 15 to be recycled at no cost. Proof of address is necessary. Other solid waste will be charged at $14 per cubic yard, according to a press release. The hours of operation are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Lincoln County Emergency Services Management Director Jim Hawley said cities are to come up with preliminary damage estimates and submit them to him Monday. He said these would be submitted to Oregon Emergency Management in Salem to give to the governor. He added that he and Commissioner Terry Thompson participated in a conference call with President George W. Bush Wednesday, informing him of the damage in the area.

In other storm news:

Without power and most likely not concerned with downed trees, the homeless did not have a shelter they could turn to, barring the Community Center in Lincoln City. Commissioner Bill Hall said that the plan he helped to create is to come up with a solution in the future.

A wastewater pump went down in Lincoln City and was spilling into Devils Lake. Paul Robertson, Devils Lake Water Improvement District manager, said no person or dog should drink or play in the water for seven days following the time when power is restored. He said the spillage creates a bacteria issue in the water that could cause stomach distress.

A patch of East Devils Lake Road that was raised by the county's road department has stopped water from traveling across the road. Although there was still some water close to the edge lines, Buisman said the temporary improvement did well under this week's extreme conditions.

DEBRIS –

Benton, Lincoln, Linn, Marion, Polk, and Yamhill Counties constitute Oregon Emergency Management (OEM) Region 1,

Potential Disaster Potential - Potential Volcanic Debris Locations

Linn County could experience debris-generating events from Mount Jefferson and the Three Sisters Region. Mount Jefferson is located at the northeastern corner of the County near the border with Marion and Jefferson Counties. This area of the County could experience pyroclastic flows and lava flows. The North Santiam River, which forms the County line between Marion and Linn Counties in this area, could experience lahar flows of various volumes that extend to Detroit Lake.

Lahars entering the lake have the potential to generate waves that could damage shore property and, in the case of large lahars, waves could overtop the dam. If lahars overtop the dam the lahar inundation zone could extend to Stayton, which is located on the Marion County side of the North Santiam River. An eruption at Mount Jefferson has the potential to affect the communities of Idanha, Detroit Gates, Mill City, Lyons, and Stayton.

The Three Sisters Region is located just south of the south eastern corner of Linn County. Portions of southeastern Linn County could be affected by thick tephra fall, ballistics, and pyroclastic flows. This area is primarily uninhabited.

2007 Winter Storm

While Yamhill County was not among the hardest hit, the city of Sheridan saw flooding in much of downtown, according to Capt. Ken Summers of the Yamhill County Sheriff's Office.

"They were hit hard, with a foot to 18 inches of water," he said. "(More than) 100 homes were damaged."

"We're still finding damaged homes," Eckhardt said, adding that his department requested that 40 Sheridan residents evacuate their homes, while about half that number left voluntarily, after the Yamhill River topped its banks and flooded the north side of the city.

The storm also washed out rural roads in the Carlton and the Lafayette area. At present, Poverty Bend, Jernsteadt, Burns and Kutch Roads remain closed, and a bridge on North Valley Road near Laughlin Road is closed, after high waters weakened its supports.

Statewide, 58,000 households lost power and more than 1,000 people were forced to evacuate. Three people lost their lives during the storm.

The Standard Operating Procedures for obtaining this NOC is attached below. In addition, please find attached two letters (one from the Federal Board of Revenue and from NDMA) confirming the Cabinet Division's decision of 3 August 2010 to exempt relief goods for flood affectees

2010 PAKISTAN FLOOD RESPONSE - FROM THE SITE:

The recent floods in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa have affected more than 2.25 million population. As per official figures, this is worst flood in history of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa since 1929. The death toll is 1,100 as of August 2nd, 2010 and is still rising. Massive devastation and destruction have been reported. At least 37,000 houses have been swept away by the floods, while bridges, roads, water and sanitation supply schemes, irrigation channels, health and education facilities are also badly hit by these heavy floods. The food grain has also been lost and all major crops/vegetables/fruits have been washed away besides irreparable damages to livestock.

SRSP based on its experiences of Earthquake and IDPs operations has launched a relief and rehabilitation operation for flood affected population in eight districts of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa including Peshawar, Nowshera, Charsadda, Shangla, Kohistan, Swat, Chitral and Upper Dir. SRSP in these eight districts has significant coverage and adequate infrastructure to support relief and rehabilitation activities. Initial meetings were called upon by Chief Executive Officer to review the current situation in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. An initial assessment of staff, equipment and resources was also conducted to be able to launch an initial response. The district teams in eight affected districts of KPK were also asked to send their field teams and gather all necessary information. The Head Office team led by the Chief Executive Officer also visited three districts (Charsadda, Nowshera and Chitral) to assess the damages incurred as a result of these floods. As per initial reports, a total of 133 union councils have been hit by these recent floods.

The Ashland City Times • May 6, 2010
Cheatham County officials updated the flooding situation Thursday

http://www.tennessean.com/article/20100506/ASHLANDCITY01/100506024/2021/ASHLANDCITY/Officials–update–county–s–flooding–situation

• The River Road Utility District has issued a boil alert for its customers and for the Christian Care Center of Cheatham County. There is a water breakage in the water line, officials said.

• Officials are still waiting to hear how they will handle debris removal. County Mayor Bill Orange said bids are being received to hire a company to assist with roadside debris removal. Residents with debris should leave it in the right–of–way, not their yards.

• Residents will not be charged for flood–related debris that is taken to the landfill on Sams Creek Road, Orange said. He added that permit fees will likely not be charged during the recovery period.

• The county is still waiting on FEMA representatives to set up in the county. Disaster assistance sites have not yet been determined. Since the county has been declared a federal disaster area, residents and business owners who sustained losses can begin applying for assistance immediately by registering online at www.fema.gov or by calling 1–800–621–FEMA (3362).

• Businesses affected by the flood are asked to contact the Cheatham County Chamber of Commerce at 792–6722 to begin the process for federal assistance.

• Two drop–off/assistance centers remain open in the county: the old Fred's (next to Tractor Supply) on Highway 49 in Ashland City. Hours are 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and Harpeth Middle School on Kingston Springs Road. Hours are 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Clothes can be taken to the Bethesda Center on Main Street in Ashland City. Residents needing food or other supplies can stop by these locations.

• Some of the supplies that are needed include masks, gloves and bug spray.

• School officials are currently cleaning up Pegram Elementary School. A meeting is scheduled for Thursday afternoon to determine how the school district will operate due to damaged roads, Hogan said. Schools will be closed Friday.

• If you are going to be exposed to the floodwaters, health officials are recommending that you get a tetanus shot (if you haven't had one in the last five years). About 200 shots are available at the Cheatham County Health Department off Frey Street in Ashland City and more are on order. The department's number is 792–4318.

• Groups that want to volunteer to help with the clean up are asked to visit the Cheatham County Chamber of Commerce's Web site at www.cheathamchamber.org to register.

• Congressman Jim Cooper's office has issued a report on FEMA assistance for flood victims. Here are some steps to take to rebuild your home:

Step one: Residents should immediately contact their insurance company.

Step two: If you have flood insurance, it may cover the costs of repairing your home and replacing destroyed belongings. However, it may not cover the cost of staying elsewhere during the flooding or while repairs are made.

Step three: If you are forced to evacuate your home, staying in a hotel or even with a relative, FEMA housing assistance is available to cover some of these costs. You will have to register for assistance with FEMA at DisasterAssistance.gov or 800–621–FEMA (3362).

Step four: When you register with FEMA, they will send you a Small Business Administration packet. You may be eligible, through the SBA, for a federally subsidized SBA loan. These low–interest rate loans may be up to $200,000 to repair or rebuild your home and $40,000 to replace lost possessions even if you don't own a small business. The SBA will then arrange to come to your home and inspect the damages.

Step five: If you can't obtain an SBA loan, you may apply for other FEMA assistance at DisasterAssistance.org or 800–621–FEMA (3362). This assistance will only cover costs to bring your home up to a minimally habitable standard. FEMA will (separate from SBA) come to your home to inspect the damage. FEMA assistance is capped at $29,900, including any FEMA housing assistance you may have received in step three.

Check back for more information.

Port San Antonio and Its Role in the Upcoming Weather Events:

Port San Antonio has been designated as the Regional Evacuee Reception Center by the State of Texas and we are the site for the Alamo Regional Command Center. The Command Center will be headquartered in Building 1537. The primary emergency response agencies for the state, county, city and FEMA will all be located here.

Port San Antonio's role is different than in the past; we will not be sheltering evacuees here. Instead, we will receive evacuees by buses and privately owned vehicles here. The vehicles will then be disbursed to the appropriate shelters around the city.

What does this means for the personnel of tenants of Port San Antonio?

First, there will immediately be more vehicular activity.

120 hours before the hurricane–type weather arrives on the Texas coast, representatives of the emergency agencies will establish offices in Building 1537

48 hours before the forecasted landfall, the coastal cities will begin their evacuation and we will have vehicles arriving here within several hours.

All employees working at the Port are encouraged to use only the 36th Street entrance to come to work. When exiting the Port 36th Street and General Hudnell may be used. Please advise visitors and vendors of this information.

All employees who work here are asked to place a sign, at least 51/2" x 81/2", stating where they work to ensure quick access to their workplace. Police will be stationed at the entrances.

The San Antonio Police Department will control the entrances and exits to and from the Port. All employees and vendors will be able to come and go as safety permits.

The Incident Command Center will be in regular communication with the media to alert the area to important updates. As information affecting the Port becomes available we will post new information on the website. Naturally, the best sources of current emergency communication will come from local broadcasts.

Organizational Assessment Project

Are you looking for ways to strategically plan for your organization's future? Do you need a tool to help you assess your strengths and areas for improvement? Participate in the Organizational Assessment Program utilizing the Core Capacity Assessment Tool (CCAT)!

The CCAT is an online survey tool developed by the TCC Group. Hundreds of nonprofit organizations across the country have utilized the CCAT to strengthen their organizations. This tool is the most comprehensive of its kind, allowing for a confidential self–assessment of your organization's core capacities based on the input of board leaders, key staff and senior volunteers. It also offers specific activities and strategies to empower organizational growth based on your results.

This program:

* Engages key stakeholders in reviewing organizational priorities.
* Creates a quick and accurate snapshot of your organization's capacity.
* Depicts where your organization is in terms of mission impact.
* Offers strategic response ideas and activities for organizational growth.

One key benefit of the CCAT includes receiving a report that offers a prioritized list of recommendations to build your organization's capacity. These recommendations will include:

* Actions your organization can take on its own.
* Actions it can take with outside help.
* Additional reading and resources to support your organization’s learning and development.

How to Take the CCAT

OneStar Foundation is currently offering qualified organizations the opportunity to take the CCAT at no cost. If your organization is interested in taking the CCAT, and meets the eligibilty requirements, complete our Eligibility Survey.

History

1976 – Texas Center for Volunteer Action Created

Governor Dolph Briscoe (D) established the Texas Center for Volunteer Action during the mid–1970s through Executive Order DB–22. It is unclear whether or not it, or a similar office, existed prior to Governor Briscoe's tenure.
1977 – Governor's Volunteer Leadership Conference Inaugural Year

The Governor's Volunteer Leadership Conference was created by Governor Dolph Briscoe to provide training for volunteer leaders across the state of Texas.
1979 – Governor's Office for Volunteer Services Created

The Governor's Office for Volunteer Services was created by Governor William Clements (R). Governor Briscoe's Executive Order DB–22 was repealed and replaced by Governor Clements' Executive Order WPC–8 in August of 1979. Clements charged the center with such responsibilities as to support, encourage, and assist volunteer efforts in the state; to develop public awareness of its ability to solve problems through volunteer action; to develop and expand the use of volunteers within state agencies and institutions to lessen the burdens of government; to facilitate the sharing of resources, ideas, and information on volunteerism within and between public and private agencies; to work with local communities to determine priorities and mobilize local resources accordingly; and to promote public policy to enhance voluntary action.

The office also ran the Texas Volunteer Council and was divided into several subsections, namely the Runaway Hotline, Pierre the Texas Pelican, the Beautify Texas Council, Texas Volunteers for Immunization Action, Texas Women's Employment and Education, and the Office of Refugee Resettlement (for Indochinese refugees).
1983 – Governor's Volunteer Awards Created

The Governor's Volunteer Awards were created by Governor Mark White (D) to recognize outstanding volunteer service across the state of Texas.
1983–1986 Office of Community Leadership Created

Governor Mark White created the Office of Community Leadership (OCL) as an umbrella organization for a variety of programs already existing within the Office of the Governor. Programs that came under the auspices of the OCL included Volunteer Services, Governor's Commission for Women, Citizens Assistance Program, Texas Crime Victim Clearinghouse, Runaway Hotline, Governor's Juvenile Justice Education Project, Youth Opportunities Unlimited (YOU), and Communities in Schools.

By 1986, the office had become known as the Governor's Office on Community Leadership/Volunteer Services.
1987 – Continued Work of Governor's Office on Community Leadership/Volunteer Services

William P. Clements (R), during his second term as Governor of Texas, expanded the responsibilities of the Governor's Office on Community Leadership/Volunteer Services to include the following functions: to support, encourage, and assist volunteer efforts within the state; to promote volunteer efforts at the national level; to give greater public recognition and visibility to volunteer efforts and to develop public knowledge of the benefits of volunteerism; to develop and expand the use of volunteers within state agencies and institutions to lessen the burden of government; to facilitate the sharing of resources, knowledge, policy, and best practices related to volunteerism; to encourage collaborative efforts involving volunteers across sectors; to assist with assessing community needs and mobilization of volunteer resources within and between the public and private sector; to work with local communities to determine their needs and to mobilize local resources; to serve as a liaison between the Governor's Office and other sectors surrounding volunteerism; to monitor state and federal legislation affecting volunteers and women; to assist with the coordination of the Texas Volunteer Action Centers; to support and recognize volunteers and volunteer efforts on a statewide level (e.g. co–sponsoring the Texas Volunteer Conference, presenting the Governor's Awards for Outstanding Volunteer Service and awarding Certificates of Appreciation to outstanding volunteers across Texas.)
1993 – AmeriCorps and Corporation for National and Community Service Created

President Bill Clinton (D) signed the National Community Service Trust Act of 1993 (Act). This legislation merged existing entities addressing national service, ACTION, and the Office of National Service in the White House, into a new agency called the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS). The Act also, for the first time in our country's history, attached an Education Award to national service through a new program, AmeriCorps. At its inception, the CNCS was directed to manage the following programs: AmeriCorps, which incorporated the longstanding VISTA program; the newly created Senior Corps, which incorporated the existing Foster Grandparents, Retired and Senior Volunteer, and Senior Companion Programs; the new National Civilian Community Corps program which had been established as a demonstration program in 1990; and Learn and Serve America, formerly known as Serve!America. Prior to passage of the Act, national service funding was applied for collaboratively in 1992 by the Texas Education Agency, the Texas Department of Commerce, and the Texas Department of Health under the Serve! America program.

1994 – Governor RichardsTexas State Commission for National and Community Service Formed

In response to the National and Community Service Trust Act of 1993, Governor Ann Richards (D), by Executive Order AWR 94–15, established the Texas State Commission for National and Community Service to enable the state to apply for federal funds for AmeriCorps*State programs. The Texas State Commission for National and Community Service was designated to serve as the state's administrative vehicle under the Act, and to oversee Texas' participation in programs authorized and appropriated by the Corporation for National and Community Service. Later, the name of the Commission was changed to the Texas Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service (TxCVCS).
1995 – House Bill 1863

The Texas Legislature, through House Bill 1863, required that federal volunteer programs be administered by the Texas Workforce Commission.
1996 Texas Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service moved into the Texas Workforce Commission

In response to House Bill 1863, Governor George W. Bush (R), through Executive Order GWB 96–9, moved the TxCVCS into the Texas Workforce Commission, and placed it under the authority of the Division of Workforce Development.
1996 – Governor's Advisory Task Force on Faith–Based and Community Service Groups Created

Governor Bush created an Advisory Task Force on Faith–Based and Community Service Groups in May 1996 to (1) survey Texas' legal and regulatory landscape to identify obstacles to faith–based groups, and (2) recommend ways Texas can create an environment in which these groups can thrive, free of regulations that dilute the "faith factor." The task force was comprised of 16 clergy and volunteer leaders from across Texas. This diverse body diverse theologically, denominationally, ethnically and geographically presented a written report, Faith in Action and recommendations to Governor Bush.

In December 1996, the Governor issued Executive Order GWB 96–10 directing state agencies to begin aggressive implementation of President Bill Clinton's (D) landmark "charitable choice" provision of the federal welfare law, which invites private and religious charities to deliver welfare services while at the same time guarding the religious integrity of participating groups and religious freedom of beneficiaries.
1998 – Governor's Mentoring Initiative Established

In 1998, Governor George W. Bush signed an Executive Order establishing the Governor's Mentoring Initiative (GMI) and placed it under the direction of the Texas Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service. Mentoring was one of the Governor's five targeted initiatives for youth. GMI's primary purpose was to promote, develop and support high–quality mentoring programs in Texas.
1999 – Expansion of Texas Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service

In 1999, Governor George W. Bush, through Executive Order GWB 99–1, continued and expanded the work of the Texas Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service within the Texas Workforce Commission's Division of Workforce Development. The Commission was charged with:

Serving as the state's liaison to the Corporation for National and Community Service, applying for funding under the Act, and overseeing Texas' participation in the relevant programs;

Providing technical assistance, education, information, and other support to Texas' extensive volunteer community and to build the capacity of Texas' volunteerism and community service infrastructure;

Promoting innovative programs and best practice initiatives that address Texas' educational, public safety, human, and environmental needs;

Collaborating with faith–based and private charities, community–based groups, voluntary associations, educational entities, and other organizations to promote volunteerism and community service, and;

Assuming the functions of the Governor's Office of Volunteerism; preparation and presentation of the annual Governor's Volunteer Leadership Conference and Governor's Volunteer Awards; coordination of the statewide activities of the Texas Pledge – Keeping America's Promise; coordination of the statewide Texas Mentoring Initiative; promotion of activities related to the Lone Star Leaders initiative; promotion and support of youth service and youth service leadership through youth service councils; and the support of volunteerism–related efforts throughout Texas.
2003 – OneStar Foundation Established

In 2003, the 78th Texas Legislature passed Senate Bill 1183, which removed the requirement that federal volunteer programs be administered by the Texas Workforce Commission. In response to this, on December 22, 2003, Governor Rick Perry (R) established, by way of Executive Order RP–30, "that the Texas Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service be dissolved and the OneStar National Service Commission (OSNSC) be designated as the state's commission under the Act." The newly formed OSNSC was placed under the administration of the OneStar Foundation, a Texas nonprofit corporation with the purpose of "furthering volunteerism and community service in the State of Texas."

The Governor's Mentoring Initiative, Governor's Volunteer Leadership Conference and Governor's Volunteer Awards were placed under the authority and administration of the OneStar Foundation. The Governor's Faith–Based and Community Initiative was newly added to the state's focus on volunteerism and community service.
2004 – OneStar Assumes Authority

On January 1, 2004, OneStar Foundation assumed authority and administration of the State of Texas' programs and initiatives supporting volunteerism and community service.
2006 – The Legacy Lives

In 2006, Texas celebrated a thirty–year legacy of our state government's support of volunteerism and community service. Social sector organizations, the majority of which rely on volunteers to fulfill their mission, provide vital services within local communities to meet the health and human resource needs of many of our neighbors. OneStar's mission expanded to include the strengthening the social sector by identifying, connecting and equipping people, organizations and government with resources to more effectively respond in times of emergencies and disasters.
2008 – OneStar's Evolution and Beyond

In 2008, OneStar reorganizes into four focus areas and evolves into OneStar Foundation: Texas Center for Social Impact to more efficiently continue its legacy and commitment to serve nonprofits. Service and Volunteerism manages Texas' national volunteer programs and engages them to create community–wide approaches to address social issues. Nonprofit Organizational Excellence develops and teaches strategies on improving operations, performance and end results. Studies created and provided by Research, Evaluation and Learning report valuable information about nonprofit sector best practices and policies. Social Innovation and Entrepreneurship will be launched later this year to encourage nonprofits to establish long term strategies and creative approaches to accomplishing their missions.

Vermonters May Now Visit Woodstock Disaster Recovery Center

Release Date: September 12, 2011
Release Number: 4022–013

» More Information on Vermont Tropical Storm Irene

BURLINGTON, Vt. –– The town of Woodstock has been added to the list of disaster recovery center locations open to help Vermonters affected by Tropical Storm Irene.

The recovery centers are staffed with disaster recovery specialists from various federal, state and local agencies and organizations who can answer questions about disaster assistance programs.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency's individual assistance program covers expenses for temporary housing, home repairs, replacement of damaged personal property and other disaster–related needs, such as medical, dental or transportation costs not covered by insurance or other programs.

Homeowners and renters may also be eligible for low–interest disaster loans from the U.S. Small Business Administration. Some applicants may receive an SBA loan application after registering with FEMA. No one is obligated to take out a loan. But if they don't complete the application, they will not be considered for other federal grants.

Anyone who has a question about disaster loans may visit a disaster recovery center to speak with an SBA representative. Staff specialists are also available at the centers to answer other disaster assistance questions. Specialists at the recovery centers can refer applicants to voluntary agencies and provide information to reduce damage in possible future disasters.

Disaster officials encourage those affected by the storms to register with FEMA before visiting a disaster recovery center by calling 800–621–FEMA (3362), online at www.DisasterAssistance.gov or via a web–enabled mobile device at m.fema.gov. Multilingual registration assistance is available. Those with a speech disability or hearing loss who use a TTY can call 800–462–7585 directly; or 800–621–3362 if using 711 or Video Relay Service.

Applicants who would like to speak to disaster specialists face–to–face can visit a center near them between 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. seven days a week until further notice:

At Phase I, County personnel are put on alert and preparations are made to open the Flood Warning Center. When a Phase II threshold is reached, the Center is opened. Staff at the Center monitor river gages and flood conditions around the clock, and gage information is updated hourly on a recorded message (call 206-296-8200 or 800-945-9263). When a Phase III threshold is reached, investigation crews are sent out to monitor flood control facilities (such as levees). Home- and business owners should report storm damage now

CAMP MURRAY, WASH. — Home- and small business owners around the state who have damages from the recent winter weather should file a report with their local emergency management office immediately.

What to report: Home- and business owners
In addition to notifying their insurance company (if they have one), home- and business owners also should report damages to the emergency management agency in the community where their home or business is located. Information to have on hand:

• Name and address of the affected property.
• A description of damage, even if it insured.
• A personal estimate of losses that will be uninsured.
• An estimate of the fair market value of the damaged home or business.

Also to consider for families and individuals:

• If you need housing, food and other basics, notify the American Red Cross chapter in your community.
• In addition to reporting damages, call your insurance agent to check on your coverage.
• Keep records of all clean-up and repair costs and, if possible, document with photographs.

What to report: Business owners only
Small business owners have two kinds of damage to think about—physical (covered above) and economic. The good news is that if five businesses can document economic losses as a result of the adverse weather, the state could qualify for an Economic Injury Disaster Loan (EIDL) Program from the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA).

Business owners who have seen a negative affect on their revenues and ability to pay expenses should consider completing an EIDL worksheet to document the losses. Completed worksheets are submitted to the county emergency management agency where the business is located. Completing the worksheet does not obligate a business owner to apply for an SBA loan. It merely quantifies the economic impact and allows the state to request a SBA Economic Injury Disaster Loan Program for those businesses that need and want it.

The state must certify that at least five small businesses in a disaster area have suffered substantial economic injury and need financial assistance not otherwise available on reasonable terms. The state must specify the counties or other political subdivisions in which the disaster occurred. For this to happen, county emergency managers must submit an assessment of damages in their jurisdiction to the state by Feb. 13.The one–page EIDL worksheet is located at: http://emd.wa.gov/disaster/documents/EconomicInjuryWorksheetnew9–2007.pdf.

Mingo County Flood Update WILLIAMSON, W.Va. - Monday, May 18, 2009

Church groups and other volunteer organizations will soon be arriving to assist victims of the May 9 flooding in southern Mingo County.

The Mingo County Commission (MCC) and Office of Emergency Services (OES) Director Jarrod Fletcher report that anyone interested in receiving assistance with cleaning their property should sign up at the disaster relief center servicing their area. The telephone numbers for the centers are as follows:

Matewan Town Hall - (304) 426–4092
Varney Community Center - (304) 426–5070
Larry Joe Harless Center - (304) 664–2500

Officials stress that especially those who are elderly, disabled or widowed should apply for volunteer cleanup assistance. First priority will be given to these residents.

Tetanus vaccination clinics are scheduled today for people who have not yet been vaccinated. The vaccinations will be available while supplies last. The schedule is as follows:

Baisden Volunteer Fire Department – 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.
Wharncliffe Volunteer Fire Department – 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.
Beech Creek Volunteer Fire Department – 2 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Fletcher also wants to remind residents that the most effective manner in which to remove debris from their property is to place it by the side of the road. He stresses that piles of debris cannot block roadways, mailboxes or utility poles.

Another reminder for residents whose homes were impacted by flooding is to register their damage with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) as soon as possible. The numbers to call are 1 (800) 621–3362 and TTY 1 (800) 462–7585.

A FEMA news release states that assistance will include "grants for temporary housing and home repairs, low–cost loans to cover uninsured property loses, and other programs to help individuals and business owners recover from the effects of the disaster."

There will also be federal funding available to the government and some nonprofit groups who do emergency work and repair of facilities. Just this week, Kanawha County pledged help to Mingo County with paramedics, firefighters, deputies, etc.

FEMA will also offer assistance for hazard mitigation measures for all counties in the state.

Those affected by flooding in Mingo and Wyoming counties can start applying for help Saturday by registering online at http://www.DisasterAssistance.gov or by calling 1–800–621–FEMA(3362) or 1–800–462–7585 (TTY) for the hearing and speech impaired.

The toll–free telephone numbers will be open from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Four secured dump sites have been designated for debris collection. These sites are located on the former Lowe's property in Matewan; the walking track in Gilbert; Trellis Cisco's property located in front of the Varney Community Center in Varney and the foot of Horsepen Mountain near the water tank. Officials stress these sites are secured sites and are not open for public dumping.

The Mingo County Health Department has ordered 500 additional tetanus vaccinations and more will be obtained as needed. Vaccination clinics will be scheduled once the shipment is received, according to Cathy Hedon, health department director.

Areas served by the Mingo County PSD where water has been returned will be under a boil water advisory until at least Thursday.

The Mingo County PSD is providing an open water line at Joe Evans Auto Body in Delbarton. Individuals who bring their own containers will be allowed access to this line.

If you have a public water source problem to report, please call (304) 235–2244.

Roadways

A major effort has been underway by the National Guard and the Department of Highways to make all roads passable. U.S. 52, Route 49, State Route 65, many secondary routes and county roads have suffered major damage or total destruction. Major construction work is underway. The work will be extensive and there will be numerous time delays. In the interest of public safety, please exercise common sense and access these areas ONLY for emergency travel. Citations may be issued for non–compliant drivers.

Numerous private corporations and individuals are donating time and equipment to this consolidated effort, including CONSOL, Massey Energy, Alpha Natural Resources, International Industries and numerous others.

Private Water Wells

If your private water well has been impacted by flood waters, DO NOT drink the water until it has been inspected by the Mingo County Health Department. There are hundreds of homes impacted and the testing will take time to complete. You can register for water testing at your local shelter, however, wells must be disinfected before testing. Please call the Mingo County Health Department for instructions on disinfection at (304) 235–3570.

Tetanus Warnings/Clinics

Any person who has had contact with flood water should obtain a tetanus shot. You may obtain that from your private physician if available. The Mingo County Health Department will be conducting tetanus vaccination clinics today. Vaccinations will be available at the Larry Joe Harless Center from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and both the Varney Community Center and Matewan Town Hall from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Future clinics will be held as more vaccinations are made available.

On Thursday, Dr. Britt from West Virginia University will be conducting a tetanus vaccination clinic at the Larry Joe Harless Center beginning at 9 a.m. Approximately 300 vaccinations will be available.

Public Transportation

Tri–River Transit will provide two buses for public transportation to assist citizens in accessing physician appointments, filling prescriptions and other business such as grocery shopping. This service will be free of charge. Please call the Tri–River office in Delbarton to make arrangements, (304) 475–2460 or (877) 212–0815.

Flooded Personal Property/Debris

If you have the means, please photograph and /or videotape damage to your property. You may also want to compile an itemized list of all personal property that has been damaged. This will assist you with any private insurance you may have and FEMA if a national declaration is issued, which we fully expect.

Cleaning kits continue to be distributed.

Once damage is documented, please remove the items from your residence and place them where they will be easily accessible to National Guard trucks which will take them to designated debris sites. Please DO NOT place any debris around a utility pole, fire hydrant nor mailbox nor should the debris impede a roadway. Flooded material is a definite health hazard and will create potentially harmful mold. Please utilize your best efforts to avoid mold damage to your home.

Neighbors Helping Neighbors

The assistance of volunteers continues to be needed and appreciated.

Future Bulletins

These bulletins will be published daily and will be available at emergency shelter sites.

Coal Impoundments

Public Utilities

OES officials have made contact with Appalachian Electric Power and contract crews are currently working throughout the area. Contract crews are also working for Verizon and gas providers as well.

Mental Health/Department of Health and Human Resources (DHHR)

Counselors will be in all impacted areas. If you or someone you know needs these services, please contact the shelter in your area or a liaison officer. DHHR should be contacted if anyone is aware of health/safety issues impacting adults or children who cannot care for themselves. Contact Carolyn Sansom (304) 235–4680.

Judge’s Work Program/Inmates

Individuals will be in various areas assisting with the removal of large debris for public health purposes. These individuals are providing community service and will be supervised at all times.

The work program crews have been loading National Guard trucks with water and supplies. Today they will initiate a massive effort in the Gilbert area.

Go to the link above to find RED CROSS sponsored shelters. (there are usually MANY MORE shelters other than "Red Cross sponsored" shelters...run by local gov't, run by private groups)

[Editor's NOTE: we've noticed lately that the link DOES NOT WORK for people who don't allow cookies and other surveillance apps on their devices. The Red Cross is a great org, providing badly needed first response. However, we do not like that the link doesn't work on ANY device, and fear that this is a trend that's related to the "need" for large non–profits to gather a ton of personal info before they will help you. If that's the case, shame on you Red Cross. If it's not the case, please excuse our ignorance]

See the map at the link for open shelters. Below that is a list of openshelters.

You can also search by state/address.

Open Shelters are flagged. Put your mouse over a flag to get more info, click on it, and give it a moment and you'll see the address of the shelter and a capacity (number of people), if the information is available.
