E–News 8/30/11:
Adventist Community Services Disaster Response (ACS DR) teams are responding to the effects of Hurrincane Irene. North Carolina is still doing assessments and exploring the possibility of setting up a distribution center.Virginia is doing assessments.

Maryland is in pretty good shape. Pennsylvania has a mobile feeding unit in Goshen and are considering storing goods at a central location for assisting survivors. New Jersey ACS DR team are getting personal care kits and flood buckets out to survivors. In New York, there was more water & wind damge upstate than in New York City. The state of New York is talking about opening a multi–agency warehouse.

Please continue to pray for those affected by these continuing disasters as well as those who so generously give of their time to help others in need.
