FOOD DRIVE DURING COVID–19
Bandon Feeds the Hungry is accepting donations for Bandon's food assistance organizations.

Drop off canned or dry food items in front of Farm & Sea in the Old Town Marketplace parking lot at 250 First Street SW in Bandon, Oregon. You can also drop off a check in the Farm & Sea shop.

Farm & Sea will be accepting donations 7 days a week during their hours of operation (Mon thru Sat 10am–6pm, Sun 10–3). They started with drop–offs every Tuesday and Wednesday mornings, but the first two days of food collections were so successful that they've expanded it.

You can also mail your check, made out to Bandon Feeds the Hungry, to P.O. Box 566, Bandon, OR 97411.

Amy Moss–Strong, the President of Bandon Feeds the Hungry, will be distributing all food and monetary donations to the participating food assistance organizations in Bandon, including: Coastal Harvest, E.A.T., Good Neighbors Food Bank, Senior Nutrition, and Restoration Worship Center Food Pantry. 100 percent of all monetary donations are distributed evenly to each of the five 501(c)3 nonprofits and a receipt will be mailed to all donors for tax purposes. All donations are tax–deductible.

Thank you, Bandon, for working together and helping our community.

Feeding Bandon" organizations also participate in BandonCares, a project dedicated to fostering communication, cooperation and collaboration among the more than 50 Bandon nonprofit organizations serving the community.
