Disaster Relief
The flood in recent days has had a tremendous impact on Hickman County. Many are without food and water, even shelter. The Centerville Church of Christ is working with many organizations to try and help in any way possible. If you wish to help out in any capacity, through your time or through donations, please contact the church office. If you are in need of relief assistance, please contact the church office and we will try and help in whatever ways that we can. Please continue to pray for all of those victims who have suffered a loss.
