Resource Guide

Generated November 20, 2026 · 1 open facilities · closed facilities are not listed · call before you go: details change quickly

Haiti

Pilette Clinic (MSPP), "Cholera Treatment Unit – CTU" (Supported by Haiti Marycare)

Medical Facility · Open

Pilate

Service Temporary

4/13/12 From HEAS Post
This clinic has a lab tech now too.

4/19/11 CHHN update from Hannah
Cholera: no cholera in last two months
Water: the one water well serves the clinic and the community. Not purified

10/27/10: CHHN update
Reporting 3–6 pts per day.
Okay for treatment supplies. Rec'd some from CHHN on 12/23/10. Need prevention supplies to make kits for 200 families.
Staff: 1 doc

10/25/10: Althought this clinic was not slated to be open until March 2011, CHHN has reported the following on 12/23/10:
3–5 adms per day. No overnight pts.– referred to Trou du Nord.
Approx. 5 deaths reported.
Has recieved min. help from MSPP.
1 aux staff. MSPP has promised more staff, but when is not known.
Can get supplies from Cap Haitien

This clinic is slated to open in March.

See main CAT Facility record for Haiti Marycare at:

https://reliefdb.org/shelters/7633

Services offered: Medical, Facility, Cholera, Rehydration Center (CTU or UTC); Medical, Services, Cholera Treatment; Medical, Services, Laboratory / Lab Services
Campaigns: 2010 /2011 Haiti Cholera Epidemic; Cap Haitien Health Network (CHHN); MSPP (Haiti – Department of Public Health & Population

Updated Apr 13, 2012 · https://reliefdb.org/shelters/6919