Somebody Cares Tampa Bay is a network of independent, community based non–profit agencies providing outreach support to Tampa Bay Ministries who assist poverty–stricken families and the working poor. SCTB works in concert with local ministries to provide the basic necessities of life and to educate and develop healthy, self–sustaining communities, families and individuals.

Hunger Strike Force is a program designed to bring thousands of pounds of food into the Tampa Bay area to help feed the hungry. Our role at Somebody Cares Tampa Bay is to raise money from private and public sources to pay for the transportation costs of this donated food. We receive the truckloads of food, unload it at our distribution site, and then provide it to ministries – at no cost – who use the food to feed the hungry.

With each Hunger Strike Force delivery, approximately 30,000 pounds of food is distributed through our expansive network of partnering organizations. Somebody Cares Tampa Bay pledges $2000 towards the solvency of the Hunger Strike Force's nationwide transportation program each time they arrive in the Tampa Bay area. One truckload of food can provide 1900 families, or nearly7500 individuals, with meals. This equates to feeding a minimum of 25,000 people per month, or 270,000 annually.

With the new addition of the SCTB Marketplace, we will be able to feed even more families and save them even more money. If you would like to help us keep the food trucks rolling, call 727–536–2273

If you run food pantry and would like to learn how you can receive a portion of the food, call (727) 536–2273 for an application. You must be a 501(c)3 to participate

REVIEW the website for the many other ways we contribute to the community!!!

The images of destruction and suffering from Hurricane Katrina are forever burned into our hearts and memories. Those painful memories must be the foundation for change.

Traditionally the U.S. and State Government only come to our help after a disaster struck our homes but many of us don?t have the means to prepare or evacuate ahead of time.

Regardless of the magnitude of a disaster it will always interrupt our lives or even change it as we know it. We can have our evacuation routes handy but how can we make it more ?livable? and ?doable??

Knowing that Americans always come together during a disaster when fellow residents are in need we are taking disaster preparedness to a whole new level with EvacuationHelp.com

It is our goal to mobilize fellow Americans to build Pre–Disaster RelationshipsSM (PDR) across the country in the hopes to get everybody out of harms way ahead of time, in turn saving lives and helping each other to maintain a quality of life and preserve our integrity and pride.

It is our goal to achieve this with EvacuationHelp.com and we are planning to e more than ?just? a web site in the near future.

No One Should Ever be Left Behind Again !!

EvacuationHelp.com is an Internet Portal to build Pre–Disaster RelationshipsSM before a disaster occurs!

Please, remember that it will take some time to establish a "relationship" with an EvacPartnerSM as with any other personal interactions in life. Also; you might want to keep the following things in mind:

Plan ahead like you would plan ahead a vacation, wedding, or building a house. Do NOT expect to find an EvacPartnerSM over night or a few days before a disaster strikes!

It is crucial to have more than one or two EvacPartnersSM established in different locations as you never know under what circumstances, when, and where a disaster will strike. You also will not know ahead of time if your EvacPartnerSM is available at the time of need!

Remember that this is the Internet after all and use common sense! Do not use your real name as an EvacuationHelp.com user name and never give out personal information until you know who you are talking to.

Never give out your Social Security Number and be assured that the operators and administrators of EvacuationHelp.com will NEVER ask you for it or other personal information that could be used for fraud!

Make sure to verify and check out the person(s) you?re dealing with once you found an EvacPartnerSM. Feel free to use Intelius (one of our advertisers) for Instant Background Checks.

Everyone is encouraged to contact people via regular email and/or phone calls after connecting on EvacuationHelp.com – after all – you may be living with someone for days or even weeks! REMEMBER that EvacuationHelp.com will NOT furnish anyone with direct contact information, doing that is entirely your own decision and responsibility!

We are sorry but we currently do not offer phone support as we are a startup company that is strictly relying on advertisers and donations from users like you and currently don't have the resources to offer phone support (volunteers are alway welcome).

But let us assure you that all inquiries are being taken seriously and we will do our best to get back to you in 24–72 hours depending on the load of inquires we have (we are only human).
