One week remains to apply for federal assistance

MOORHEAD – Only one week remains for Minnesotans to apply for federal disaster assistance for flood damage incurred between March 16 and May 22.

Tuesday, June 9 is the last day for residents of designated counties to apply by telephone or online with the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). The counties designated for Individual Assistance are: Beltrami, Clay, Marshall, Norman, Polk, Traverse and Wilkin.

“For many people, applying for assistance is a critical step toward getting back to normal,” said FEMA’s Federal Coordinating Officer Michael H. Smith. “With just one week left, we want to encourage everyone impacted by the disaster in the designated counties to apply.”

To date, 1,244 Minnesota residents have applied for disaster assistance. More than $5.5 million in federal disaster assistance has been approved for the state. That includes more than $3 million in low–interest disaster loans from the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA).

Federal and state disaster recovery officials urge residents affected by flooding from March 16 to May 22 to apply as soon as possible. Applicants can call the toll–free registration number at 1–800–621–FEMA (3362), TTY 1–800–462–7585, between 7 a.m. and 11 p.m. CDT, seven days a week. Individuals also may register online at www.disasterassistance.gov.

FEMA grants help pay for items like home repairs, temporary housing and other serious, necessary disaster–related expenses. These other expenses could include damaged personal property, medical and dental expenses.

Loan applications for homeowners, renters and businesses of any size also must be submitted by June 9 to the SBA. Loans could cover disaster–related losses including damage or loss of real and personal property. The deadline for loans to cover economic impacts to businesses is Jan. 11, 2010.

Individuals with SBA questions may call the SBA Customer Service Center at 1–800–659–2955, TTY 1–800–877–8339, or online at www.sba.gov/services/disasterassistance.gov.

Applicants who receive a letter from SBA after applying for federal assistance with FEMA need to open it and complete the forms inside. Returning the loan application is an essential part of the disaster recovery process, even for individuals who do not want a loan. Simply filling out and returning the SBA application may make other FEMA assistance available to some applicants.

Residents should apply with FEMA even if they have insurance. FEMA does not duplicate insurance payments or pay deductibles. Applicants may be eligible, however, for assistance with serious, necessary expenses not covered by insurance.

Fargo disaster recover center transitions into SBA loan center

Federal and State disaster officials announced today that the Disaster Recovery Center in Fargo has transitioned to a U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) Disaster Loan Outreach Center (DLOC) beginning on Monday, June 1. The North Dakota Department of Emergency Services (NDDES), the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and SBA officials opened up the DRC to provide one–stop, face–to–face assistance and disaster information to individuals and businesses who suffered damage as a result of the recent flooding.

“At this stage of the recovery process, the emphasis for assistance is to meet the long–term needs of victims,” said NDDES Deputy Director Greg Wilz. “We believe the transition of the Disaster Recovery Center to an SBA Disaster Loan Outreach Center will better meet the current needs of Fargo area residents.”
“Just because the Fargo Disaster Recovery Center has closed does not mean FEMA is leaving,” said FEMA’s Federal Coordinating Officer Justo “Tito” Hernandez. “We will be here as long as it takes.

If you have not registered yet, or have questions about your application or our programs, call us at 1–800–621–FEMA or TTY 1–800–462–7585, or go online at www.disasterassistance.gov.”. Operators are available from 7:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. Central time daily (6:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. Mountain time).
