Care provider offers help to residents hit by fire

MYRTLE BEACH — If you care for a disabled young adult or the elderly, Active Day Medical Adult Day Center located at 3901 N. Kings Highway in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina is offering emergency placement for day services including transportation and medical supervision. In addition, Active Day will serve as a drop off location for clothing, toiletries and non–perishable food items for the displaced families in the area.

“A number of our clients have been displaced by the fires and several caregivers are awaiting evacuation from their homes,” said Lesley Bess, Center Director for Active Day of the Grand Strand. “We want to offer our services to them and to help the community in this time of need.”

Active Day will also provide community resource information regarding nursing services, medical transport and adult day care placement for residents of Horry County. Please contact Lesley Bess or Felicia Stevenson at Active Day by calling 843–626–8501.

The Red Cross shelter located at Christ the Servant Lutheran Church, 2105 E Highway 501, Conway, has been closed.

The Red Cross shelter at the House of Blues remains open for anyone who has been evacuated from their home due to the wildfire.

The American Red Cross continues to assist area residents displaced by the Horry County wildfires with shelter, food and mental health counseling.

In addition, Red Cross volunteers are keeping firefighters and other rescue workers hydrated and fed.

The State of South Carolina and the American Red Cross have collaborated to provide a public view of current shelters listed in the Red Cross National Shelter System. This information is updated as regularly as possible and may be immediately out of date. Due to the complexity of a disaster response, anyone who uses this information should be prepared to make adjustments to their immediate plans.
