Conops (Concept of Operations):
The California DART Network (CalDART) consists of a volunteer Board of Directors leading a statewide group of volunteer DART Operators and DART Supporters at various airports. The DART Operator is a DART which conducts practice mobilization exercises once per year and which has been accepted by The California DART Network. The DART Operator consists of pilots and administrative staff who together organize and provide free air transportation during an emergency under Part 91 flight rules.

The DART Operator encourages Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster (VOADs) and local city and county emergency managers to participate with them in their practice exercises. DART Operators can request Mutual Aid from other DART Operators and from DART Supporters in the California DART Network Contact List. The DART Supporter is one or more pilots at an airport who don't operate a DART, but who have agreed to call upon their local pilots to assist other DART Operators who request it, and who are able to call upon DART Operators in the California DART Network Contact List for their community's assistance. Additionally, DART Supporters are encouraged to reach out to the VOADs and emergency managers in communities around the airport to let them know they can request airlift resources to help cope with a local disaster.

In a DART, volunteer pilots do what they already know how to do – fly from one airport to another and give people or things a ride. A variety of other DART volunteers guided by a DART Incident Commander, a Flight Operations Manager, a Materiel Manager, a Ramp Manager, and a Recruitment Manager assemble the team, take in flight requests, weigh the cargo, assign materiel and passengers to be transported on specific aircraft, maintain safety, help pilots load, and so on.

Air transportation services can include:
Air commute services between homes and places of work for disaster workers
Movement of emergency workers, medical staff, and medicines into the area
Large scale food airlift into the area Transfer of displaced individuals and families to distant locations where they have family or friends who can care for them Movement of ambulatory medical patients to out–of–area facilities
Relocation of nursing home residents to out–of–area facilities who can care for them Reservoir and levee reconnaissance, search and rescue, aerial photography (backup to Civil Air Patrol)

Volunteer general aviation has consistently contributed to disaster response efforts in California over the years. For a wonderful 6–minute summary of how general aviation fit into the total disaster response after the Loma Prieta earthquake of 1989, watch this 6 minute video documentary.

The California DART Network has no paid employees, is registered with the California Secretary of State as a public benefit corporation organized under Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable purposes with IRS EIN 831 407 209. Donations, gifts, bequests, devises, and transfers qualify as tax deductible to a public charity under IRC 501(c)(3) and sections 170, 2055, 2106, and 2522 under the determination letter from the IRS to The California DART Network dated October 25, 2018. Please donate here. For current status on how many DART Operators there are, and how many airports have CalDART members, read the CalDART Network Overview rev 19338.

Help Wanted
CalDART needs a few good men and women to help advance the state of its network. If you are an action–oriented person who likes to get things done and have 10 or more hours per month that you can devote to CalDART, and the skills and desire to tackle one of these jobs, please contact Paul Marshall, CalDART President, paul.marshall@caldart.org.

From the InterAction site – 2010 Pakistan Floods

The American Red Cross is helping people affected by flooding in Pakistan through a $100,000 contribution to the International Federation of Red Cross and Crescent Societies. To meet the immediate humanitarian needs from the flooding, the global Red Cross network is providing food, relief items, shelter, water and sanitation services and emergency healthcare. The American Red Cross continues to work with our Red Cross and Red Crescent partners to evaluate additional response options.

From the site – 2010 Pakistan Floods:

Mules Bring Relief to Pakistan's Stranded Flood Survivors

By Patrick Fuller, International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies

Friday, August 06, 2010 — Pakistan continues to reel from the historic floods, which the UN now estimates have affected 4.5 million people. As the monsoon rains continue, the flooding is penetrating further south in the country.

The government ordered the evacuation of more than 350,000 people in Sindh province where new areas are expected be engulfed as swollen rivers fail to contain the vast body of water heading south toward the Arabian Sea.

In the northwest part of the country, the Pakistan Red Crescent Society continues to dispatch truckloads of food relief to desperate communities who have been forced from their homes by the floodwaters. For Atta Muhammad with the German Red Cross, reaching some of the worst hit areas is no easy task.

Atta works in the remote districts of Kohistan and Shangla in Pakistan's northern province of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. These districts remain virtually cut off from the rest of the country since the floods swept down from the mountains six days ago. All the bridges in the area have been destroyed and no other aid groups are delivering relief in the area. Atta's team of volunteers is on their own and they face a tough task, but because they are based in the area they know the communities here well.

"The only way to reach the affected areas is by foot. But trying to get food to 25,000 people scattered in small settlements throughout these valleys isn't simple," said Atta.

The solution is a tried and tested means of traditional transport in Pakistan's mountain ranges: mules.

"Today we sent a week's rations by mule train to Olander village for 120 families. It's a ten-hour return trip and in the coming days we'll be doing the same for other villages."

Finding food for the ration packs hasn't been easy. Stocks of basic commodities such as wheat flour, rice lentils and oil have dried up in Kohistan and reaching the nearest wholesale market has been a major challenge.

"It took our volunteers eight hours to reach the town of Besham yesterday. They went by foot and used tractor trolleys and a manual chair lift to cross rivers where bridges had been washed out," explained Atta.

Tales from survivors recount a wall of water that swept through the valley taking with it many of the small settlements that once stood along the banks of the Khan Khwer River. Mohammed Abdullah and his four brothers could only watch as their homes and the green fields surrounding them were engulfed in the flash floods.

"All that remains is a pile of rocks," recounted Abdullah. "We are a family of 40 and now we are living in the house of a relative in a single room. The women and children are weeping and sobbing; they can't sleep at night and cry at the sound of any loud noise. I don't know what will happen to us. We have lost everything."

Over the next nine months, the collective global Red Cross and Red Crescent network plans to support the Pakistan Red Crescent Society in its plans to aid 35,000 families with relief items, emergency healthcare, access to safe drinking water, sanitation services and psychosocial support. As part of these efforts, 5,000 families are expected to receive basic shelter support in the form of tools and building materials. The American Red Cross is providing an initial $100,000 to support their ongoing relief efforts targeted at the most vulnerable populations, including women and children.

Global relief organization World Central Kitchen will distribute free meals for the public beginning at Noon on Sept. 30 at Bear's Smokehouse, 135 Coxe Ave. downtown, in the South Slope district, according to a local food outreach organization, Food Connection.

Hearts with Hands will continue relief efforts by distributing food boxes and water from 10 a.m.–6 p.m. Sept. 30 at the outreach ministry's outreach's warehouse, 850 Warren Wilson Road in Swannanoa. The organization intends to add hot meal food distribution later.

World Central Kitchen was founded by celebrity chef José Andrés in 2010 to provide fresh food on the frontlines of humanitarian disasters in the United States and around the world. The organization lost seven workers in a drone attack in Gaza earlier this year, causing it to temporarily pause its operations in the war–torn enclave.

The organization has teams in four states assessing needs and serving meals in the wake of Hurricane Helene, including Florida, Tennessee and Georgia.

Team headed for Japan
Source: Convoy of Hope (COH)
Date: 23 Mar 2011

A Convoy of Hope disaster response team is headed to Tokyo. They will continue the work of an initial team of responders, which was temporarily based in the Philippines and shipped to Japan enough food, water and relief supplies to fill a 40–foot–long container.

While in Japan, the team's primary goals will be to work through port logistics, ensure current channels are in working order and Convoy of Hope's footprint in Japan is expanded.

Help Convoy of Hope help Japan.

"Since the earthquake and tsunami we have been able to provide food and supplies, through our in–country partners, to meet people's needs," says Kary Kingsland, senior vice president of Global Initiatives for Convoy of Hope. "We will continue meeting needs and are dedicated to finding the most efficient ways to help many more survivors now and in the coming weeks and months."

Convoy of Hope's medical advisor, whose knowledge base will be a valuable asset to the team and the treatment of Japanese nationals, will accompany the team headed for Japan.

FROM THE SITE 3/12/11:

If the tsunami causes major devastation on the West Coast, Convoy of Hope will deploy teams and supplies to devastated areas.

Ron Showers, director of Global Outreach, is in Honolulu making preparations for an upcoming community outreach. Last night he left his hotel and moved to higher ground after tsunami sirens started to sound.

“Thousands of people fled the low–lying areas,” he says. “Gas stations were packed with people trying to get fuel, many locals and tourists fled to high ground and sought shelter in hospitals and high school gyms.”

Showers will monitor the situation in Hawaii after the tsunami hits.

According to Kingsland, the Disaster Response team will closely monitor further developments and move forward with plans to help the victims of the disasters.

Convoy of Hope is not seeking volunteers at this time.

A friend posted this for her county, and I realized all of us in downtown Blue River need to do this too! Edited for our county:

□ URGENT: Anybody with a total loss should immediately go to – or contact – the Lane County Assessor to complete forms documenting the loss.
If you do it immediately, your tax statement coming up this fall will reflect the loss.
Otherwise, you have to go through a process of appeal that would be very cumbersome.
This is time critical because the tax roll process is happening NOW.

Blue River is an unincorporated community in Lane County, Oregon, United States. It is located on Oregon Route 126 along the McKenzie River, between the communities of Finn Rock and Rainbow. It is in the Willamette National Forest, where the Blue River empties into the McKenzie. The community was named after the Blue River, which was named for the striking blue color that apparently comes from its rocky bed.[1] Five miles northeast of the community, a dam on the Blue River forms the Blue River Reservoir.[2]

Help fill the Oregon Food Bank Network's empty warehouse shelves – 09/21/07
PORTLAND, Ore. (Sept. 21, 2007) – The Oregon Food Bank Network needs your help.

"Oregon Food Bank's warehouse shelves are as empty as I've ever seen them," said Rachel Bristol, OFB's CEO.

On average, OFB normally has 300,000 pounds of new donations to offer the OFB Network weekly and delivers about 700,000 pounds of food each week from its warehouse to its network of regional food banks and local helping agencies throughout Oregon and Clark County, Wash. But in the last few weeks, weekly offerings have dropped by 25–75% and statewide deliveries are down 200,000 pounds per week.

"The entire statewide Oregon Food Bank Network of regional food banks and the 900 local agencies we serve throughout Oregon and southwest Washington are feeling the impact," Bristol said.

The situation

• OFB is shipping available food to regional food banks and local agencies as quickly as it comes in.

• Salvaged product (dented cans from retailers) is disappearing. OFB has depleted its salvaged inventory.

• OFB's has depleted its frozen–food inventory, product that in recent history has served as OFB's safety net.

• U.S.D.A. commodities: OFB continues to see a severe decline in U.S. Department of Agriculture commodities. During the last two months, U.S.D.A. commodities dropped an additional 300,000 pounds. Overall, during the last four years USDA commodities have dropped 52 percent or more than six–million pounds.

• Food industry: Food–industry donations are down 1.1–million pounds in comparison to the same period last year. The combination of a strong consumer market, high commodity prices, increased biofuel demand, increased efficiency in food manufacturing and international markets mean both national and local sources of food are way down.

• Food recall: Last month, due to a major, nationwide recall of products from a food–processing plant, OFB returned two–and–a–half truckloads of product to the manufacturer and has additional two–and–a–half truckloads of product on hold that OFB can't distribute.

"All of this means we have a big gap to fill – even before the holiday giving season – and need your support more than ever to help people in need," Bristol said.

This situation isn't unique to Oregon," Bristol notes. "Food banks across the country – Oklahoma, California, New York – report similar shortages." (See New York Times, Sept. 20, 2007)

How to help

• Donate funds.

Donate on line at www.oregonfoodbank.org. OFB will use funds to help acquire, store and move food.

• Food industry (farmers, processors, distributors, retailers and wholesalers)

OFB welcomes donations from all sectors of the food industry. Please call Mike Moran, OFB's food resource manager, (503) 282–0555, Ext. 209.

• Cans Film Festival Food Drive

Participate in Cans Film Festival Food Drive, Thursday, Sept. 27. Bring three cans – more if possible – of nonperishable food to any Regal Cinemas theater and see a free movie and get free popcorn. Don't have time to see a movie? You can still drop off food at Regal Cinemas, Sept. 27.

• Organize a food drive

Organize your own food drive. OFB can help. Please call Maryann Brunner, (503) 282–0555, Ext. 226. Drop off donations at OFB facilities or call us for the location of an OFB Network agency near you.

• Donate part of your harvest

Harvesting your garden? Donate part of your harvest to your local food pantry or soup kitchen. Call OFB, (503) 282–0555, to find out the local hunger–relief agency in your neighborhood.

• Write U.S. Senators

Write your U.S. Senators. Ask them to support increased funding for TEFAP (USDA emergency food) in the farm bill.

Thank you for collecting food for people who are hungry. Please bring your food donations to one of Oregon Food Bank's two warehouses:

Solidarity

We would like to take a moment to acknowledge that while the COVID–19 pandemic is consuming a lot of our attention, it has not stopped the violence and injustice that exists in the world, and this is very much true for the deep injustices that the black community is facing in the United States.

We stand in solidarity with our colleagues who are feeling the pain of violence and injustice in our state and in our country. We welcome any input as to how we can ensure that ORVOAD acknowledges, listens and acts to make meaningful change around systemic racism.

Transitions

The time between June and July will mark a transition of leadership for ORVOAD. Michelle and Susan are so happy to welcome Rashad Bauman as the new President of ORVOAD.

ORVOAD – Working Cooperatively in a Crisis

Following a disaster, ORVOAD convenes its members and other agencies to discuss how they will work together cooperatively in the crisis. ORVOAD does not itself deliver services. Instead, its members independently meet relief and recovery needs within the cooperative framework the organization makes possible.

ORVOAD coordinates planning by the many voluntary agencies responding to a disaster so they provide more effective service with less duplication when a disaster strikes.

MEMBERS:
Oregon Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster is not intended to be a competing agency but an umbrella organization of existing agencies. Each member organization maintains its own identity and independence yet works closely with other agencies to improve services and eliminate unnecessary duplication.

ORVOAD consists of voluntary and state government organizations with disaster relief roles. VOAD functions include animal control, building repair, child care, clean up, clothing, communication, counseling, damage assessment, disaster welfare inquiry, financial assistance, food, human relations, mass care, sheltering, transportation, volunteer staffing, and warehousing and bulk distribution.

OREGON WILDFIRE RESPONSE UPDATE: SEPTEMBER 13, 2020

Salem, OR - September 13, 2020 - State, federal, county and tribal partners are fully engaged in response and recovery efforts for the more than 30 fires burning statewide in Oregon.

With thick smoke limiting aviation resources, firefighters are struggling to contain the fires, the largest of which is more than 55 miles wide.

More than 1 million acres have burned, leaving thousands of Oregonians displaced from their homes. A total of 3,023 people are currently being supported in shelters run by local counties, the state and the American Red Cross. Shelters are following COVID-19 guidance for group and non-congregate settings to limit spread of the virus. Many evacuated Oregonians are sheltering with friends and family, while others are staying in RVs or vehicles. The American Red Cross has temporary shelters available throughout western Oregon, and those shelters have space available for more evacuees. For a list of temporary shelters, see the Red Cross Oregon website.

Help donations go where they are needed most Though well intended, please do not take donations to evacuation centers. Counties have received an influx of donations of materials they are unable to distribute. Unsolicited goods burden local organizations' ability to meet survivors' confirmed needs, drawing away valuable volunteer labor, transportation and warehouse space.
At this time, the best way for the public to help people who are affected by wildfires is to make a financial contribution to the American Red Cross or one of the certified organizations that are members of Oregon Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster. These on-the-ground organizations know what items and quantities are needed, often buy in bulk with discounts and, if possible, purchase through businesses local to the disaster, which supports economic recovery.

To donate food, water and other items, reach out to your local food pantry or Community Action Partnership to see if they are able to receive donations. Find food pantries at https://foodfinder.oregonfoodbank.org/. Community Action Partnership of Oregon: https://caporegon.org/ Phone: 503-316-3951

Help find and reunite loved ones:
OEM urges the public to update information on their status with the Red Cross. Let loved ones know you are safe at the American Red Cross Safe and Well Website. State emergency managers encourage people affected by the fires, whether or not they have evacuated, to register on the site. It is a helpful tool that can bring relief to people looking for loved ones during these fires, and help inform search efforts.

These two women are inspiring! They've both lost homes due to wildfire but in all of the chaos, they've helped create the Santiam Canyon Wildfire Relief Fund and are working with Santiam Hospital, Stayton, Oregon to do it.

The idea: People living in Santiam Canyon helping others living in the same community. The goal is to connect families in need, to people who can give, with a team at Santiam Hospital serving as a go–between. The beauty of it? The hospital already has a team dedicated to helping fill needs in the community. Now that team will help people in the canyon rebuild.

Starting 9/12 donations can be made online at www.santiamhospital.org.

Monetary donations can be mailed to:

FROM RELIEF WEB – 2010 Pakistan Flood Response:

Medical Teams International Responds To Crisis In Pakistan
Source: Medical Teams International
Date: 04 Aug 2010

Medical Teams International is responding to the recent disastrous flooding in Pakistan. They have shipped three containers of medical supplies to partners on the ground in the flood-affected area of the country. The medicines and supplies are enough to help hundreds of thousands of people and are valued at nearly $2 million.

The essential medicines and supplies have arrived in the Northwest region of Pakistan where heavy rain has caused rivers to overflow their banks. More than 1,500 people are known to have died in the floods. The supplies have been received by in-country partners, Hope International and Poverty Eradication Initiative, and are being used to respond to the urgent health needs of those affected by the flooding.

Medical Teams International will air-lift more supplies to their partner in Pakistan early next week. This unit is approximately one metric ton and will serve 10,000 people for 3 months. Valued at $421,000, it will provide urgently needed medicines and supplies to the partner's hospitals and clinics in Pakistan.

In addition, Medical Teams International will determine if teams of emergency medical professionals can be deployed to address emergency health care needs at a partner hospital. Medical Teams International is accepting donations for their response to the Pakistan floods. Please visit www.medicalteams.org for more information.

Disaster
We respond to some of the most devastating and difficult disasters around the world. Within 48 hours, we send volunteer medical professionals (MDs, RNs, NPs, PAs and Paramedics) to natural and manmade disasters to care for the sick and injured.

Development
Our volunteer teams and staff work to establish long–term solutions for international communities plagued by chronic poverty, lack of medical care and minimal educational opportunities.

Distribution
We partner with organizations in more than 70 countries to distribute medical supplies to people in need, passing the $1 billion mark in supplies shipped in January 2007. In the USA, we annually distribute more than $1.7 million in hygiene products and over–the–counter medications to social service agencies.

Mobile Dental
Our Mobile Dental program serves more than 15,000 people annually, partnering with more than 200 organizations, including schools, social service agencies and churches. Professional dental volunteers treat the homeless and uninsured in 39 Pacific Northwest counties each year.

States in the Pacific Northwest are the latest to be struck by raging fires. NAD ACS is in communication with the North Pacific Union Conference ACS leadership on how to best assist the affected communities. Upper Columbia Conference ACS DR has received a request from Spokane Regional Health District for volunteers to assist at the Spokane Convention Center which is housing evacuees.

In the state of Oregon, small fires that started September 7th night in the Clackamas County last week continued to spread rapidly. The county had suggested using the Gladstone Campground as an evacuation site for RVs. Laura Pascoe, the executive director of PACS, and Andy Villanueva, ACS DR director of Oregon Conference, got together with the leadership at the conference to make it happen. The campground is currently housing over 125 RVs and trailers.

Every day more and more residents from the community are showing up asking for help. "When someone drives up and asks, ‘Do you still have room for us?’ and we say yes, you can see the relief come over them. Today is a crazy day, but because we’re able to help our neighbors, it’s a great day, too," said Villanueva. Several people from the community are also dedicating their time and services to bring relief to those affected. Volunteers are leading evacuees into RV spots. Donations of food, water, children’s board games, coloring books, and crayons have come in for evacuees. A truckload of food was brought in by the owners of Hue Vegan Cafe. On September 11th and 14th morning, free pancakes were distributed thanks to Chris Cakes Northwest. World Central Kitchen has also delivered food today for all the evacuees and volunteers.

Disaster Response

Whenever and wherever disaster strikes in the Northwest and around the nation, Adventist Community Disaster Response is there to help. The Northwest Disaster Response teams are organized in connection with North Pacific Union Conference coordinator Dennis Olson. Regional training events are held which help prepare interested members to serve their communities through disaster relief work.

Adventist Community Services Disaster Response (ACS DR)
ACS DR has an agreement with Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) to provide donations management in times of a Presidentially–declared disaster. This means any Adventist is welcome to help in all types of disaster if they are licensed responders. FEMA is currently drawing up guidelines which will require all volunteers to be licensed with an affiliated organization in order to be allowed to help in the disaster area.

Volunteers are encouraged to become licensed so they can be used immediately and more extensively in disaster. Training events are provided for Seventh–day Adventist members to be ready for disaster here or to deploy to other areas of the country. Please refer to the training schedule listed for the Disaster Response training near you.

Due to the recent surge in wildfire evacuations and the need to find available shelter for animals, the Oregon Department of Agriculture has been granted a temporary waiver for all animal movement to both Washington and California from Oregon. This waiver will allow animals that do not change ownership and are returned back to their home in Oregon within 30 days from date of initial travel, permission for interstate movement to either Washington or California without a certificate of veterinary inspection and all related import requirements.

When fire season goes into effect, some activities in the great outdoors are prone to start fires. In an effort to prevent these fires from starting, various federal, state, and local government agencies can impose fire restrictions. The Oregon Department of Forestry and the Washington Department of Natural Resources impose restrictions pertaining to public and work related activities in their respective states. Additionally, counties may impose bans on private lands within their county jurisdictions.

Information on closures and restrictions for the Bureau of Land Management Oregon and Washington are listed below. Contact the local district office for site specific restrictions or additional information.

DOUGLAS COUNTY, Ore. –– The American Red Cross and other organizations continue to provide resources and assistance to those forced to flee their homes from the Archie Creek Fire.

RELATED: ARCHIE CREEK FIRE: LATEST NUMBERS, EVACUATIONS AND MORE

The Red Cross has an emergency shelter set up at the Douglas County Fairgrounds, but they aim to set up anyone who comes by with a free stay in an area motel. Plus, evacuees don't need to worry about paying the bill either.

"As long as (evacuees) at a level 2 or 3 evacuation they are allowed to stay and we just work it out with the national Red Cross administration to block out those rooms in contract with the hotels so they are allowed to stay until they can go back to their homes," said Judi Mahoney, a volunteer with the Red Cross.

She says they've found rooms for 100 people.

The Red Cross is still accepting donations but they want it to be known they can only accept commercially packaged products that are brand new and not expired if they are food. You can bring donations to the Douglas County Fairgrounds.

The Red Cross site was initially set up in Glide but once people started being evacuated they moved to the Douglas County Fairgrounds.

Both those in need of help as well as people who want to donate can call the Douglas County Health Services COVID and fire hotline where people are being matched together based on what they can offer and what others need.

There is also a 24/7 Red Cross hotline. That number is 1–888–680–1455.

Holiday Farm Fire Update 9/18
Springfield, Ore. –Infrared flight mapping was unavailable again last night, the Holiday Farm Fire's footprint is currently estimated at 172,510 acres and containment remains at 10%. The fire's perimeter measures more than 260 miles.

A tree faller was injured by a fallen limb while working to clear roads within the fire area. He was transported to the hospital by ambulance for evaluation and treatment. His injuries do not appear to be life threatening.

Friday's weather–An upper low will move across the fire area today and bring showers. The weather forecast continues to predict possible afternoon thunder storms with gusty erratic winds and small hail. Showers continue tonight and into Saturday but will gradually diminish.

Wildland fire crews will continue working to improve and increase fire containment using hand crews, fire engines and heavy machinery. Crews will be taking advantage of the wet weather to clear roads in the Quartz Creek area and will continue to focus along Hwy 126. Yesterday crews found and addressed a ten-acre spot fire.

Structural firefighters continue to work along Hwy 126 from Leaburg to Rainbow patrolling and clearing defensible space around houses. As conditions improve in and around buildings the need for structural resources is decreasing. This will allow these resources to return to protecting their home communities.

The Urban Search and Rescue Team will be entirely working west of Nimrod. They have completed 1,273 structural evaluations in the fire area. Structures include commercial buildings, residences and outbuildings. The US&R team is hoping to finish their work today and will be released when their mission is complete.

The Lane and Linn County Sheriff's Offices continue to work with fire operations personnel to modify evacuation zones where appropriate. For the latest information on evacuation areas, please visit: Lane County: www.lanecounty.org/mckenziefire Linn County: www.linnsheriff.org/fire_live_updates_sept_2020/ Please continue to monitor cell phones, landlines, local media and official information sources for evacuation updates. Fire managers request that the public please avoid the area. Roads are closed in the fire area and much of the Willamette National Forest (WNF) and Northwest Oregon District BLM. Road hazards include falling trees and rocks and debris.

For more information on closures on the WNF visit: https://www.fs.usda.gov/alerts/willamette/alerts-notices/?aid=61574

For more information on closures on the Northwest Oregon BLM visit: https://www.blm.gov/press-release/extreme-fire-activity-prompts-closure-bureau-land-management-lands-northwestern-oregon Fire personnel are warmed by the community's support but are unable to accept donations or use volunteers. Debris removal

Downed trees not taken care of by their owners will be gathered from county roads to be used for firewood at area parks, according to Lincoln County Public Works Director Jim Buisman. Also, north county residents are encouraged to bring their debris to the North Lincoln Sanitary Service's Schooner Creek Transfer Station through Dec. 15 to be recycled at no cost. Proof of address is necessary. Other solid waste will be charged at $14 per cubic yard, according to a press release. The hours of operation are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Lincoln County Emergency Services Management Director Jim Hawley said cities are to come up with preliminary damage estimates and submit them to him Monday. He said these would be submitted to Oregon Emergency Management in Salem to give to the governor. He added that he and Commissioner Terry Thompson participated in a conference call with President George W. Bush Wednesday, informing him of the damage in the area.

In other storm news:

Without power and most likely not concerned with downed trees, the homeless did not have a shelter they could turn to, barring the Community Center in Lincoln City. Commissioner Bill Hall said that the plan he helped to create is to come up with a solution in the future.

A wastewater pump went down in Lincoln City and was spilling into Devils Lake. Paul Robertson, Devils Lake Water Improvement District manager, said no person or dog should drink or play in the water for seven days following the time when power is restored. He said the spillage creates a bacteria issue in the water that could cause stomach distress.

A patch of East Devils Lake Road that was raised by the county's road department has stopped water from traveling across the road. Although there was still some water close to the edge lines, Buisman said the temporary improvement did well under this week's extreme conditions.

Fire Evacuation and Status Live Updates
The Linn County Sheriff's Office is currently coordinating evacuation and advisory efforts with area law enforcement and fire agency partners, along with the State of Oregon, related to fires in the North Santiam Canyon areas of Idanha, Detroit, Gates, Mill City, Lyons and Mehama (Beachie Creek & Lions Head Fires). In addition, coordination efforts are actively underway for the areas of Crawfordsville, Holley, Upper Calapooia Road, and the HWY20 Corridor from Foster, and east to the Mountain House (Holiday Farm Fires).

All notices listed below are in effect, until such time that they are downgraded. Residents will be notified via our cell phone alerting tool, Linn-Benton Alert System, our website here, and social media when it is safe to re-enter their areas. Please, do not call 9-1-1 unless you have an active emergency. We have set up a non-emergency line for wildfire related questions for those unable to access the internet at 541-812-2260.

Holiday Farm Fire Update 9/18

Springfield, Ore. –Infrared flight mapping was unavailable again last night, the Holiday Farm Fire's footprint is currently estimated at 172,510 acres and containment remains at 10%. The fire's perimeter measures more than 260 miles.

A tree faller was injured by a fallen limb while working to clear roads within the fire area. He was transported to the hospital by ambulance for evaluation and treatment. His injuries do not appear to be life threatening.

Friday's weather–An upper low will move across the fire area today and bring showers. The weather forecast continues to predict possible afternoon thunder storms with gusty erratic winds and small hail. Showers continue tonight and into Saturday but will gradually diminish.

Wildland fire crews will continue working to improve and increase fire containment using hand crews, fire engines and heavy machinery. Crews will be taking advantage of the wet weather to clear roads in the Quartz Creek area and will continue to focus along Hwy 126. Yesterday crews found and addressed a ten–acre spot fire.

Structural firefighters continue to work along Hwy 126 from Leaburg to Rainbow patrolling and clearing defensible space around houses. As conditions improve in and around buildings the need for structural resources is decreasing. This will allow these resources to return to protecting their home communities.

The Urban Search and Rescue Team will be entirely working west of Nimrod. They have completed 1,273 structural evaluations in the fire area. Structures include commercial buildings, residences and outbuildings. The US&R team is hoping to finish their work today and will be released when their mission is complete.

The Lane and Linn County Sheriff's Offices continue to work with fire operations personnel to modify evacuation zones where appropriate. For the latest information on evacuation areas, please visit: Lane County: www.lanecounty.org/mckenziefire Linn County: www.linnsheriff.org/fire_live_updates_sept_2020/

Please continue to monitor cell phones, landlines, local media and official information sources for evacuation updates. Fire managers request that the public please avoid the area. Roads are closed in the fire area and much of the Willamette National Forest (WNF) and Northwest Oregon District BLM. Road hazards include falling trees and rocks and debris.

For more information on closures on the WNF visit: https://www.fs.usda.gov/alerts/willamette/alerts–notices/?aid=61574 For more information on closures on the Northwest Oregon BLM visit: https://www.blm.gov/press–release/extreme–fire–activity–prompts–closure–bureau–land–management–lands–northwestern–oregon Fire personnel are warmed by the community's support but are unable to accept donations or use volunteers. The fire must use individuals with the appropriate qualifications. ###

DEBRIS –

Benton, Lincoln, Linn, Marion, Polk, and Yamhill Counties constitute Oregon Emergency Management (OEM) Region 1,

Potential Disaster Potential - Potential Volcanic Debris Locations

Linn County could experience debris–generating events from Mount Jefferson and the Three Sisters Region. Mount Jefferson is located at the northeastern corner of the County near the border with Marion and Jefferson Counties. This area of the County could experience pyroclastic flows and lava flows. The North Santiam River, which forms the County line between Marion and Linn Counties in this area, could experience lahar flows of various volumes that extend to Detroit Lake.

Lahars entering the lake have the potential to generate waves that could damage shore property and, in the case of large lahars, waves could overtop the dam. If lahars overtop the dam the lahar inundation zone could extend to Stayton, which is located on the Marion County side of the North Santiam River. An eruption at Mount Jefferson has the potential to affect the communities of Idanha, Detroit Gates, Mill City, Lyons, and Stayton.

The Three Sisters Region is located just south of the south eastern corner of Linn County. Portions of southeastern Linn County could be affected by thick tephra fall, ballistics, and pyroclastic flows. This area is primarily uninhabited.

VULNERABILITY –

VOLCANIC –
In Marion and Linn Counties, additional debris could result from lahars caused by an eruption of Mount Jefferson. Lahars are a mixture of water and rock fragments that flow down the slope of a volcano, usually along a stream channel. Lahars can be generated by volcanic activity, prolonged rain, or any other weather conditions that result in rapid snow melt (Goettel 2006). Refer to the County–Specific Annexes for Marion and Linn Counties for potential volcanic debris issues.

PLEASE realize this project was initially started when Hurricane Katrina hit our eastern gulf ..... only a few, very few volunteers joined on this project but we cared and needed to help in anyway we could.
Many of the entries were extremely difficult to update, as in emergencies things change by the minute, hour or day.

Many of the links are no longer working but with a bit of diligence it is easy to correct. ESPECIALLY if you are the one creating a record!!!

However, there is only one of me, keeping an eagles eye over a large landscape filled with compassion! PRAYERS!!

HISTORY –

DECEMBER 2007 – OREGON & WASHINGTON were effected
Severe Storms, Flooding, Landslides, and Mudslides
<winds up to 129mph at peak is estimated.... sustained with heavy rains
Many river & streams at flood warnings>
Washington also had one levee break!!

Currently, project involvement have included the following:

– keeping the database updated (More assistance would be beneficial)
– assigning/managing volunteers (Contact Terra)
– reporting on status of the update (needs assigned)
– keeping the database organized (Ongoing development)
– cleaning out the new/unassigned items (Terra)
– neatening up the categories (Terra)
– updating/coordinating dbase policies (keeping us all on the same page!)
– developing training materials (Terra & Leslie)

Also, like all of the other core volunteers:
– help train new volunteers
– help train users
– update new facilities
– help find/recruit new volunteers
– help direct users how to find things

And all kindsa other useful stuff!

Since Oct. 05
As a CitizenActionTeam.org volunteer, I search for facilities that are unknown and register them adding their current needs/ availability in the CAT Database. Then I click on the option for "match" and give the possibilities available.

Another example: I watch for posts and respond using the proper links. For example: Volunteers that have posted the fact that they are free to go to the gulf, in a specific area and during a specific time frame. Their post asks if anyone knows where or who to contact. I look at the database, sort for that area, which displays all the possible contacts that have been identified, then copy the address link and post it in the reply. Viola... they have many options for contacts that NEED them!!

Another example: Volunteers that have items to donate but have no idea where to send them. I go to the CAT database, click on items or categories at the top, go down the list, click on "show" and viola!! I now have a list of contacts and they can choose. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT NOT to send things without finding out FIRST that those items are needed. Everything changes rapidly and without coordination there is more often MORE problems! PLEASE CALL FIRST!!

I am also available to help others with the database (CAT DBase). I can help with an entry or demonstrate with a tour. BEST IS: CONTACT Terra !!

OR –– Just check "Database Help Desk" into your needs and contact Terra. You could add to the notes: Best Time & Number as well!!

The NEEDS at the Gulf are for SKILLED labor volunteers.. it helps if they have leadership skills but you won't get turned away. The other needs are mostly BUILDING materials for repairs/rebuilds! It will take YEARS to recuperate!

THIS DATABASE NOW serves the nation and has become international as well!
PREPAREDNESS is critical to any disaster!!

□WASHINGTON AND OREGON□

There is possibility of the wildlife moving towards town, and into your neighborhood. Their territories are burning, and their flight instincts will kick in. That means deer, elk, coyote, bear, mountain lion, birds, small mammals, and anything else running around the forests will move toward safety. Bring in your pets and put out buckets of water for them. They will be scared and tired. Give them time to rest. Their world is burning and they have no where to go.

Oregon Health Authority: Wildfire Smoke and Your Health – Frequently Asked Questions.

Smoke is made up of primarily small particles, gases and water vapor, with trace amounts of hazardous air pollutants. The most harmful are the small particles, or particulate matter smaller than 2.5 micrometers in diameter (100 micrometers is the diameter of a human hair). These particles can be inhaled deeply into the lungs, damaging lung tissue and causing respiratory and cardiovascular problems.

Wildfire can be a significant source of air pollution in Oregon and can pose a major health risk. Symptoms from short–term smoke exposure can range from scratchy throat, cough, irritated sinuses, headaches, runny nose and stinging eyes. Persons with asthma, emphysema, congestive heart disease and other existing medical conditions can have more serious reactions. The elderly and children are also high–risk groups.

Oregon Health Authority provides emotional support resources for Oregonians struggling with the threat of COVID–19 and wildfire
On September 12, Oregon Health Authority (OHA) reported six COVID–19 deaths, bringing the statewide total to 505.

“Today’s 500th death marks another sad milestone in the COVID–19 pandemic in Oregon,” said Oregon Health Authority Director Patrick Allen.
“These are our family members, our friends, neighbors and colleagues. We extend our deepest condolences to every Oregonian who has suffered a loss to COVID–19.”

This is an incredibly challenging time for many reasons. As many of us continue to deal with the devastating effects of wildfires, as well as the COVID–19 public health crisis, we wanted to remind you of some resources. If you need support, please know that help is available for you.

The Oregon Behavioral Health Support Line is a free and confidential resource for all Oregonians who are looking for emotional support.
Call 1–800–923–HELP (4357).

This can include community–based services such as housing, food assistance or clinical services. Certified interpreters are also available for those who speak a language other than English.
Through this number, you can also connect with Lines for Life (linesforlife.org), a suicide prevention organization with specific resources for youth, military personnel and their families, and those affected by substance abuse problems.

SAMHSA’s Disaster Distress Helpline provides 24/7, 365–day–a–year crisis counseling and support to people experiencing emotional distress related to natural or human–caused disasters.

Last night our Mobile Community Clinic team did what they do best and "mobilized" to go to Redmond today to serve evacuees at the Super 8 Motel. There was an outpouring of interest from Mosaic employees and we have several teams that will be supporting the effort in the coming days. We are also working with community partners to send teams to additional shelter sites as they are established. More information will be posted as it is available.

2020 Wildfires

From the Oregon Employment Dept.:
The Oregon Employment Department has officially launched wildfire–related Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA).

We are now accepting applications from people whose employment was directly affected by the recent wildfires and straight–line winds in these counties:

Clackamas, Douglas, Jackson, Klamath, Lane, Lincoln, Linn, Marion

You can find DUA applications, instructions, answers to frequently asked questions, and more at the Oregon Employment Department's website:
https://www.oregon.gov/employ/Unemployment/Pages/Disaster–Assistance.aspx

DUA applications must be received by October 23, 2020. It's important to note that anyone receiving any kind of unemployment benefits (UI, PUA, etc.) will not be eligible for DUA.

Application process

You have 30 days from the date the disaster was announced to submit your application (with provisions for good cause if the application is late). Proof of earnings (tax forms) for the prior calendar year is required and must be submitted with the application. When a disaster occurs and Disaster Unemployment Assistance is available, we will issue press releases and post information on this website. (CHECK TO FAQ first)

Helpful information for those who have been impacted by the wildfires can be found at https://unemployment.oregon.gov, and in our Wildfires FAQ.

https://unemployment.oregon.gov/oregon-wildfires-frequently-asked-questions

Please note Disaster Unemployment Assistance (DUA) is not the same as Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA). The personnel in the DUA Unit will only process applications and respond to inquiries regarding DUA. If you call to inquire about something other than DUA, we will NOT be able to assist you.

Transparency is important, but we're really just a loose group of volunteers– drivers, animal lovers, and farmers who want to help move animals out of the path of fires.

We are constantly evolving and iterating quickly. We appreciate help, and want to collaborate and work with as many groups as possible, to be as efficient as possible.

There is only one way to get ahold of us for help: our help form. We respond rapidly once you submit. https://forms.gle/hY3UimhL462TwWcZ9

DEPLOYMENTS
West Coast Wildfires 2020
What: Immediate Emergency Supply Distribution
When: September 2020
Why: West Coast Wildfires

West Coast Wildfires 2020
ROWW is responding to the unprecedented wildfires that are scorching the west coast and is currently in Phase 1: Immediate Emergency Supply Distribution. We have partnered with Direct Relief and Lowe's Home Improvement to distribute hygiene kits, first aid and emergency preparedness kits, wildfire kits, tarps, EZ ups, pet cages, generators, medical supplies, PPE, and more to the thousands of displaced people all across the State of Oregon.

As active fires die down and recovery needs shift, ROWW will transition to Phase 2: Response Kits (generators, fuel, tarps, portable heaters, shovels, chainsaw oil, clean up supplies, etc). We hope to send in teams and potentially heavy equipment to help with physical debris removal and clean up.

Our Phase 3: Long Term Recovery may include rehabilitation projects, appliance packages, shed construction, and more to be determined as we assess individual needs.

If you or someone you know are displaced due to the fire and have immediate needs, please contact us for information on how to access these resources from our current Phase 1 response.

RESOURCES FOR POTENTIAL VOLUNTEERS
To apply to volunteer, email responders@roww.org and ask for our volunteer application.
https://roww.org/volunteer/

FACEBOOK:
https://www.facebook.com/reachoutworldwide

Reach Out WorldWide is constantly looking for great new volunteers to add to Team ROWW. We recruit all sorts of volunteers, from day volunteers for local events to specialized personnel to lead our teams responding to natural disasters.

We are primarily recruiting chainsaw operators, doctors, nurses, EMTs, paramedics, firefighters, contractors/construction workers, and heavy equipment operators.

Some experience with disaster relief, EMS, military and/or construction is preferred depending on the type of deployment.

Alabama Tornado
If you do not have any relevant experience, that's ok, too! When we travel, we are always looking to recruit local volunteers. You never know when a disaster may strike near you.

We've arrived! The @directrelief supplies are being flown in and our team of volunteers is transporting them to various distribution centers from Eugene to Southern Oregon for victims of the ongoing wildfires. Our teams have also loaded up tons of supplies from @loweshomeimprovement to get people back on their feet. As more and more planes arrive we'll be continue caravanning the loads to those who need it the most. Stay strong everyone!

5/23/2013: From DRI Blog
Relief's Emergency Management Team landed in Oklahoma last night to assess the needs of healthcare partners responding to the deadly tornadoes. The team is reporting that severe thunderstorms soaking the town of Moore are inhibiting the response to the needs of people affected by the tornadoes.

Direct Relief has sent seven emergency medical deliveries valued at over $211,000 (wholesale) to three health center sites serving people affected. Direct Relief is in contact with more than 300 clinic and health centers in storm-affected areas and more priority shipments are planned over the next several days.

Lighthouse Medical Ministries, located just five miles outside of Moore, Oklahoma, have opened their clinic to assist with the response. In the absence of typical transportation options, vans are being sent out to collect people with medical needs and bringing them to the clinic. To reduce the risk of tetanus in the aftermath of the disaster, Lighthouse Medical Ministries requested Tdap (Tetanus, Diphtheria, Pertussis) Vaccine. Donated by GlaxoSmithKline, 210 doses of Tdap vaccine were shipped immediately and delivered yesterday.

SEMO Health Network also requested and received Tdap vaccine. Direct Relief is sending today an additional shipment of personal care items, anti-inflammatory drugs, diabetes supplies, wound care, gloves, and eye care products. These items will support the deployment of a mobile medical unit to Oklahoma on Friday. The mobile medical unit was donated by Direct Relief after the tornadoes that devastated Joplin, Missouri in 2011.

Community Health Center, Inc in Spencer, Oklahoma was not damaged in the tornadoes and is providing care to people who are displaced or injured. Direct Relief has delivered Similac, Family Dental Kits, pelican cases, blankets and infant hats, and prescription medications and supplies to Community Health Center to help with their response.

Additional medical aid to five clinics are planned this week, including medications, medical supplies, personal care items, and 170 vials of Lantus insulin shipped directly from Sanofi US.

11/8/2012: From Website
International, announced today that they have joined together and established a special fund to support the patients and nonprofit health centers and clinics in areas affected by Hurricane Sandy.

All contributions to the Sandy Safety–Net Fund will be used exclusively to support nonprofit healthcare safety–net facilities and related activities in affected communities.

DRI is currently working with partners in Brooklyn, Queens, Manhattan, Staten Island, Red Hook, Rockaway and throughout New Jersey.

Jesusita Fire: Direct Relief Delivers Protective Masks to First Responders
May 6, 2009

5:50 p.m. In response to the rapidly expanding Jesusita fire, Direct Relief has furnished N95 particulate respirators at the request of local emergency response for use by responders to the Jesusita Fire in Santa Barbara County. Watch a video about our response.

The request for protective masks was made to Direct Relief Emergency Response Coordinator Brett Williams, who was meeting at the Santa Barbara County Emergency Operations Center as sundowner winds fanned the flames, forcing more evacuations. See a map of the evacuation area.

Direct Relief has a formal agreement with the County of Santa Barbara to assist in public emergencies, and Williams participates in meetings and drills routinely to ensure smooth coordination in the event of an emergency. The current situation is being described as an “extreme fire emergency.”

Direct Relief Provides $12,000 in Grants to Tea Fire Victims
100% of all Tea Fire contributions going directly to residents
January 29, 2009

Direct Relief International has approved cash grants totaling $12,000 to residents affected by the devastating November 2008 Tea Fire, which destroyed 210 homes in the foothills of Santa Barbara and Montecito. The grants are being paid with designated contributions Direct Relief received to support Tea Fire victims.

Aid recipients were identified through the Tea Fire Long Term Recovery Committee, an interagency working group coordinating assistance among local nonprofit organizations including the American Red Cross and the United Way. A caseworker hired by the committee has assisted the residents with their aid requests and confirmed the extent of their loss.

Among the grant recipients are Lance and Carla Hoffman. The couple escaped through the flames but suffered serious burn injuries that have required specialized care in Orange County since the fire. The cash grant will help them cover medical expenses, which surpass $95,000. Other grants have been approved for uninsured residents identified as being in extreme financial hardship directly caused by losses in the fire.

These cash grants were made possible by generous donors who contributed to Direct Relief’s response and recovery efforts, including the leading software company QAD, based in Santa Barbara.

During the incident, Direct Relief tapped internal funds from its general emergency account to purchase and distribute thousands of protective N95 particulate masks to residents and emergency personnel. Tea Fire contributions were not used for those expenses or internal personnel costs related to the response because the organization determined the actions were the type of activities for which it raises general funds.

As a result, Direct Relief is using 100% of all contributions specifically designated for the Tea Fire for direct financial assistance to fire victims. “In all emergencies that generate restricted contributions, we believe it important to articulate very clearly how such contributions are used, including explaining our internal accounting practices,” said President and CEO Thomas Tighe. “We are very fortunate to have supporters who understand that emergencies are difficult to predict and allow us the discretion to use funds as needed.

“Because of that general support to Direct Relief," he continued, "we were able to respond fast and, in this case, use every designated dollar we received to support local residents only and precisely for that purpose.”

Remaining Tea Fire funds will be allocated to affected residents identified and approved through the interagency process. People affected by the Tea Fire may contact Pamela Voge, Long Term Recovery Coordinator, at the Santa Barbara Chapter of the American Red Cross to apply for assistance: (805) 687–1331 ext. 107.

QAD Makes Computer Workstations Available for Tea Fire Residents
In–kind donation supports those who lost home offices

January 5, 2009
For Santa Barbara and Montecito residents who lost their home offices in the Tea Fire, QAD has made a generous in–kind donation through Direct Relief International of temporary computer workstations at QAD’s headquarters in Summerland.

Between 20 and 30 temporary workstations outfitted with Internet–accessible laptop computers will be available to applicants on a first come, first served basis. The work stations are available starting January 5, 2009, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Go to the link above to find RED CROSS sponsored shelters. (there are usually MANY MORE shelters other than "Red Cross sponsored" shelters...run by local gov't, run by private groups)

[Editor's NOTE: we've noticed lately that the link DOES NOT WORK for people who don't allow cookies and other surveillance apps on their devices. The Red Cross is a great org, providing badly needed first response. However, we do not like that the link doesn't work on ANY device, and fear that this is a trend that's related to the "need" for large non–profits to gather a ton of personal info before they will help you. If that's the case, shame on you Red Cross. If it's not the case, please excuse our ignorance]

See the map at the link for open shelters. Below that is a list of openshelters.

You can also search by state/address.

Open Shelters are flagged. Put your mouse over a flag to get more info, click on it, and give it a moment and you'll see the address of the shelter and a capacity (number of people), if the information is available.

Here's the old address, that doesn't work as well, but for reference purposes: http://app.redcross.org/nss–app/
