Red Cross Gather Emergency Supplies For Mena
POSTED: 11:55 am CDT April 10, 2009
UPDATED: 1:06 pm CDT April 10, 2009

FORT SMITH, Ark. –– Emergency aid is already being gathered and sent to Mena. The Red Cross in Fort Smith gathered up some needed supplies Friday morning.

They were busy stocking up on primary supplies including water, tarps and toilettes.

Right now the Western Arkansas division is serving in a support role for its sister unit in southern Arkansas.

The Red Cross is sending down its disaster relief emergency response vehicles.

Friday morning, workers were stocking up on water. The Lowe's home improvement store in Fort Smith even stepped in, donating a pallet of water and tarps to help protect homes damaged by the tornado from further water damage, as rain is expected this weekend.

The Red Cross is also sending down cots, blankets and comfort kits filled with toiletries.

Susan Kafft is the director of the Red Cross Western Arkansas Service Center. She said communication in Mena was difficult, which was causing concern for those who have relatives in the area.

She said the Red Cross on the ground in Mena were working on setting up a communication network to get relatives in touch with each other.

"Right now, we've got people who've lost everything they own, and you get to a point where you don't know where to start, and so for us we'll start with the basics food and shelter: a safe warm place to stay, some things to eat and some basics," Krafft said.

The Red Cross office has been flooded with calls from people wanting to volunteer their time in Mena, but emergency crews are still trying to stabilize the situation, Krafft said.

They're asking people who want to help to donate water, tarps, blankets and toiletries. Those are the items desperately needed right now.

Those wanting to donate can drop those items off at the Fort Smith Red Cross, which is located at 1709 Greenwood Avenue.

Hundreds of Mena residents were displaced by the storm. About 600 homes are reportedly damaged, with many uninhabitable, Polk County Judge Roy Stanley said Friday.

A number found refuge at the Family Life Center of Dallas Avenue Baptist Church.

Pastor Donnie Edwards said he was checking on church property and members in the aftermath of the tornado when he was called to the church in response to reports people were lined up at the doors. He said the church has offered to serve as a temporary shelter in emergencies.

“We’re a mission–minded church,” Edwards said, noting several church members earned experience on a 10–day mission to the New Orleans area following Hurricane Katrina.

Friday, the church was providing food and shelter to those whose homes are destroyed or too damaged to live in. They also provided temporary space for numerous people who were forced from the central part of town following the storm, or who had left and were unable to return until emergency officials had addressed downed lines, gas leaks and other storm hazards.

Volunteers — many who spent the night responding to calls for help — were also given meals and rest at the church.

Edwards said he has been stunned by the offers of help from numerous sources. Donations of food have come in from both corporations like Tyson Foods and Walmart and from “mom and pop” businesses, individuals and groups.

Easter Sunday on Hold for Many in Mena
Churches say Services Still Scheduled
Russell Jones Reporter
April 11, 2009

MENA, Ark. – After Thursday's tornado, many family's Easter plans are on hold while they sift through their damaged homes.

Wayne and Jennifer Madison said when the tornado sirens went off, they didn't want to risk staying in their apartment near City Hall, so they moved to a place they knew was secure; an old bank vault down the street.

"His dad's studio used to be an old bank and when they tore it down they left the bank vault in there, door and all," said Jennifer on Saturday.

"I was standing right inside the front door when it went by, and it sounded like... two or three trains going by," said Wayne.

The Madisons said they'd been in the apartment, their first, for about four months; now, it's been deemed unlivable after the tornado took off half the building's roof.

"We'd planned on spending our first Easter there, and now... not so much," said Jennifer.

Meanwhile, the city's churches escaped much of the damage that affected the rest of the city, and say they have plenty of room for anyone that needs a place to go on Easter Sunday.

"We usually have an Easter Egg hunt, but we had it last week... There were almost 500 people that came out, so thank God that we did that last week, not this week," said Pastor Donnie Edwards with the Dallas Avenue Baptist Church.

Edward's church has also opened as a shelter for people whose homes have been damaged, or are in the area volunteering to help clean up debris. Tyson Foods Inc. also donated two trucks full of chicken and volunteers to grill it, so the church could hand out meals to people around the area.

"We're feeding tornado victims, we're feeding volunteers, we're feeding officials, just anyone that needs it... and we're not just waiting on them, we're taking it out into the hardest-hit areas," said Edwards.

More than 150 volunteers from out-of-state churches are also expected to stay at Dallas Avenue First Baptist when they arrive Monday to help with the cleanup.

Nourish America is committed to provide the daily essential nutrition that impoverished American children, families, pregnant moms, and seniors and others in need require to live productive, successful lives.

We do this by providing them nutrient rich foods and products such as vitamin supplements and nourishing foods (including naturals and organics). Our distribution network includes thousands of volunteers and staff who work at hundreds of Nourish America partner organizations and agencies serving those in need across all 50 states.

Nourish America partners include public schools, churches, Head Start, Healthy Start and WIC programs, homeless and battered women shelters, public health departments, medical clinics, the American Red Cross, Volunteers of America, Salvation Army, Boys and Girls' Clubs, Feed the Children, Native American programs, YMCA and YWCA, City Park and Recreation Departments, hospital outreach programs, National Guard units, area Councils on Aging, public health departments, medical and nursing school community outreach programs, and many other community and faith–based organizations.

Disaster Response
When a major disaster falls upon U.S. citizens, Nourish America is quick to respond by providing nutrient support to those who are traumatized by fear and loss. After Hurricane Katrina, Nourish America provided nutritional support to tens of thousands of children and their parents through the American Red Cross, Salvation Army, New Orleans Health Department and through its own distribution network throughout the Gulf States.

Last year Nourish America supplied nutritional support to hundreds of thousands of evacuees, disaster victims as well as emergency workers at disasters such as Hurricane Ike, California Wildfire Crisis, Midwest Flooding Crisis. Thanks to our donors we were able to provide over four million dollars of nourishing foods and supplements such as protein bars, energy drinks, multi–vitamins. As climate changes continues to create natural disasters from coast to coast, Nourish America will continue to respond quickly to help those in need.

"When the life of an entire region is turned upside–down with a storm the size of the state of Texas, people emerge who really come to the rescue," said State Representative Debbie Riddle. "My constituents and I cannot adequately put into words the depth of gratitude that we feel for the people from Nourish America and its donors who have hearts bigger than the hurricane and who have been so generous providing water and nutrition when we needed them most. They were absolutely precious to so many."

Minnesota Responds to Red River Valley Flooding

By Stacy Hilde, 4/15/09

In response to the major flooding in the Red River Valley of Minnesota and North Dakota, the MN Community Services Federation and Moorhead Seventh–day Adventist Church have been operating a Distribution Depot in Moorhead, MN. The facility has been generously donated by D&M Industries. The team of volunteers has been working hard to provide clean–up equipment, protective gear, and cleaning solutions to survivors. Bob Hilde, the MN ACS/DR Coordinator, and Les Morrison, Assistant Coordinator, take turns running the depot with faithful volunteers Joyce Meyer and Vicki Turner. Les Morrison was able to deliver 13 pallets of supplies to a particularly devastated area in Oakport Township on Sabbath, April 11. Les thanks God for the opportunity to serve 157 people that day, and knows he couldn't do it without the local volunteers. During the period of April 3 through April 13, 339 families representing 687 people were served in the name of Christ!

Help groups are distributing hundreds of lunches and setting up relief canteens in and near Magee in Simpson County, the scene of massive tornado devastation early today.

With fresh flash–flood warnings looming, the Salvation Army served about 350 meals to area needy.

The agency reported its Jackson emergency canteen is stationed at the Magee central Fire Station at Main and 2nd streets and its Laurel canteen and two additional mobile units are set up and serving residents in areas of Mississippi 28 West — hardest hit by the EF–3 twister officials suspect ransacked Magee around 1 a.m.

“We have food on its way from Jackson to feed tonight and tomorrow if necessary," SA Major John Showers says. “We are waiting on the status of power returning to the area to make further decisions.”

The Salvation Army is taking donations of bottled water, hygiene products and money. Donations can be brought to The Salvation Army at 110 Presto Lane

We are an animal rescue program located in the Murfreesboro Area. We are opening spaces to help the animals that were misplaced in the Tornados on Friday. If anyone needs any help please contact us. We can provide food, water, leashes, shelter, etc to help the animals. Our number is 615–406–1793 or 615–406–1803

Who We Are

Rock N Acres Animal Rescue was founded in October 2002 by animal lovers who wanted to help animals of all kinds. Since RNAs inception, hundreds of animals, from Chihuahuas to horses, have made their way to the care of Rock N Acres Animal Rescue and ultimately into wonderful and forever homes.

United and inspired by our compassion for all animals, we focus on saving dogs, cats, and other animals destined to be euthanized in county pounds, ones that are abused and neglected, ones that are running scared, hungry, and tired in the middle of nowhere and we take in several owner surrenders that do not want to take them to the pound.

We train, rehabilitate, and work with all rescued animals on a one–on–one basis. We specialize in "troubled or problem" animals.

We are a private run rescue program. We are a group of all volunteers and foster homes throughout Middle Tennessee that comprise Rock N Acres's membership. All of our animals are fostered out into different private homes.

We are here for the animals that can not help themselves.

We take in any animal that is in need of placement and help when space is available. Birds, Reptiles, Dogs, Cats, Livestock, Horses, Farm animals, fowl, Rodents, Etc.

We are a true No Kill respected animal rescue program located in the heart of Tennessee helping all animals in need no matter what the case may be. We are for the animals who can't help themselves. The animals in our rescue and ones who come into rescue are treated with respect and well cared for until a forever home is found.

NEWS RELEASES –
http://www.midtnredcross.org/Media.html

Persons with disaster–caused needs are encouraged to call the Red Cross at (615) 250–4250 to talk about assistance that might be available.

Please note that the Red Cross is NOT accepting in–kind donations of food and clothing for the disaster. We CANNOT accept walk–in donations at the shelter of physical items such as food, clothing or any other items. Red Cross is required to provide equal assistance to all disaster victims and cash donations allow us to purchase large quantities of food and other items so that we can effectively do this. The Red Cross is NOT a government agency and we provide assistance through generous donations from the public.

Red Cross Urges Victims to Use Safe and Well.Org
Volunteers Distribute Thousands of Meals,
Snacks, Comfort and Clean Up Kits

The American Red Cross continues to provide assistance to more than 1,000 victims of Friday's massive tornado disaster that has become a national disaster for the American Red Cross. With continuing inquiries from friends and family members from outside of the Murfreesboro area worried about those affected, the Red Cross is urging everyone who was affected by these storms to visit www.safeandwell.org and register themselves as being safe and well. Then, family members and friends can visit the same site and see that their family members are okay. If victims cannot access the Internet, they can call 1 (866) GET–INFO and have a Red Cross volunteer register their name on the safe and well website.

Since the tornado relief operation began, your American Red Cross has provided more than 1,000 meals, bottles of water and snacks and provided emotional support for victims by visiting communities affected by these storms and passing out these materials.

The Red Cross has also opened a shelter where those affected can get a hot meal, a place to stay and pick up clean–up kits to help with the recovery efforts. The shelter is located at:

New Vision Baptist Church
1750 North Thompson Lane
Murfreesboro, TN 37129

Only four tornado victims stayed in the shelter overnight, which means most victims are residing with friends or family during this time. However, the shelter WILL continue to be open as long as it is needed. The Red Cross is also providing mental health counseling to those affected by the storms and their families. During this emotional time, the mental health is just as important as providing for the physical needs of those families affected. The Red Cross has trained mental health providers on site to give emotional support.

HOW TO HELP

You can help people affected by this disaster, by donating to the American Red Cross Disaster Relief Fund. On those rare occasions when donations exceed Red Cross expenses for a specific disaster, contributions are used to prepare for and serve victims of other disasters. Your gift enables the Red Cross to provide shelter, food, counseling and other assistance to victims of all disasters. You can visit www.redcross.org or call 1–800–REDCROSS or 1–800–257–7575 (Spanish) or mail your donation, to the American Red Cross, P.O. Box 37243, Washington, DC 20013.

You can also donate to help the victims of the Murfreesboro tornadoes at any Middle Tennessee Kroger store at the register as you check out. Just tell the cashier you would like to make a donation to the Red Cross for the Central Tennessee tornadoes.

The Red Cross is NOT accepting any donations of clothing, furniture or any other material items.

If you would like to volunteer, the CITY OF MURFREESBORO is asking you to call (615)890–1934.

Heart of Tennessee Chapter Opens Shelter,
Provides Comfort for Tornado Victims

Red Cross Provides Tips to Stay Safe After a Tornado

The Heart of Tennessee Chapter is on the scene in Murfreesboro and surrounding communities to help those affected by the tornado. An emergency shelter will open at 5:30 p.m. at New Vision Baptist Church located at 1750 N. Thompson Lane in Murfreesboro to help residents impacted by the storm by offering a safe place to stay, a hot meal, minor first aid, and a shoulder to lean on. Pets are not permitted at Red Cross shelters. The Red Cross is only accepting monetary donations to help disaster victims.

"In the days and weeks to come, the Heart of Tennessee Chapter will be coordinating with emergency officials and local community partners to help residents impacted by the tornado get back on their feet," said spokesperson Beth Ferguson. "The Red Cross will keep shelters open as long as needed, in addition to providing mobile feeding and mental health support to those affected by the storm," said Ferguson.

The Nashville Area Chapter of the American Red Cross has also deployed two Emergency Response Vehicles to Murfreesboro as well as 750 Heater Meals, snacks, bottled water and volunteers to assist with the operation.

The Red Cross offers the following tips for those in the affected area to stay safer:

• Continue listening to local radio or television stations or a NOAA Weather Radio for updated information and instructions. If you are away from home, return only when authorities say it is safe to do so.

• Avoid damaged areas as your presence might hamper rescue and other emergency operations and put you at further risk from the residual effects of tornadoes.

• Stay out of damaged buildings.

• When it is safe to return home, wear long pants, a long–sleeved shirt, and sturdy shoes when examining your walls, doors, staircases and windows for damage.

• Watch out for fallen power lines or broken gas lines and report them to the utility company immediately.

• Use battery–powered lanterns or flashlights when examining buildings. Avoid using candles.

• If you smell gas or hear a blowing or hissing noise, open a window and get everyone out of the building quickly. Turn off the gas using the outside main valve if you can, and call the gas company from a neighbor's home. If you turn off the gas for any reason, it must be turned back on by a professional.

• Clean up spilled medications, bleaches, gasoline, or other flammable liquids that could become a fire hazard.

• Take pictures of the damage, both of the building and its contents, for insurance claims.

• Use the telephone only for emergency calls. Telephone lines are frequently overwhelmed in disaster situations. They need to be kept clear for emergency calls to get through.

• Watch your animals closely. Keep all your animals under your direct control. Your pets may be able to escape from your home or through a broken fence. Pets may become disoriented, particularly because tornadoes and the heavy rains that accompany them will usually affect scent markers that normally allow animals to find their homes.

The Red Cross depends on the generosity of the American people to fulfill our mission. To help victims of the tornado outbreak and local disaster victims please contact the Heart of Tennessee Chapter of the American Red Cross at 615–893–4272 or visit www.midtnredcross.org to make an online contribution.

The Heart of Tennessee American Red Cross Chapter provides vital emergency assistance to help victims of local disasters in Rutherford, Bedford, Cannon, Franklin, Coffee & Moore counties. Over the past year the Chapter trained nearly 8, 237 people in CPR and First Aid and transmitted 191 emergency messages for military families. Over 16,000 pints of life–saving blood were collected from the community last year. All of these services are made possible by over 130 dedicated local Red Cross volunteers as well as through generous gifts from the local community. To get more information or to make a financial contribution to the local chapter please call (615) 893–4272 or log on to www.midtnredcross.org to donate online.
