Relief and long–term recovery after disasters

In times of disaster, the Catholic parish community is here to help throughout Arkansas. Relief and recovery services are provided at the local level by volunteer parish disaster response teams who are trained in disaster case management and long–term recovery.

* If you are a victim of a recent natural disaster, go to Disaster Resources: http://www.dolr.org/offices/catholiccharities/disasterresponse_disasterresources.php

The Catholic Charities of Arkansas Disaster Response Office coordinates the Diocese of Little Rock's response to disasters in Arkansas and parish response teams receive funding to assist disaster victims with their recovery needs.

* If you wish to help disaster victims, go to Donate Now: http://www.dolr.org/offices/catholiccharities/disasterresponse_donatenow.php

The Disaster Response Office directs the diocese's disaster recovery efforts. Volunteer parish response teams are being continually trained to do case management and assist disaster victims on a long–term basis. Training is being handled through the Parish Social Ministry Office.

From the 2005 hurricanes in the Gulf that brought evacuees to Arkansas, to winter ice storms, spring tornadoes and the potential for future earthquakes, Catholic Charities of Arkansas and parish disaster teams throughout the Diocese of Little Rock are trained and prepared to respond to disasters with compassion and commitment. This office and the parish disaster teams provide assistance regardless of race, religion, creed or socio–economic status.

Katrina Aid Today's Guiding Values for Humanitarian Relief
UMCOR's Guiding Values for Humanitarian Relief Work
UMCOR is the humanitarian relief and development agency of the United Methodist Church, a worldwide denomination. For 65 years UMCOR has responded internationally to natural or human made disasters—those interruptions of such magnitude that they overwhelm a community's ability to recover on its own.

UMCOR's mission is to alleviate human suffering. We provide practical, proactive support to the most vulnerable survivors of chronic or temporary emergencies due to natural or civil causes.
UMCOR honors cultural differences. We deliver aid to people without regard to race, religion, politics, or gender. We seek input from local communities in identifying needs.
All people have dignity and worth. The most essential partner in UMCOR's work is the beneficiary, the ultimate end-user of our service. There are no "victims" in our vocabulary. There are only survivors whose courage, along with a humanitarian helping hand, can transform communities.
UMCOR always works with partners—usually in local settings. Civic organizations, faith communities, school leaders and other local resources are great assets to sustainable recovery and development, particularly after massive traumatic events. They exist close to the beneficiary and will continue to serve as positive influences in the community after UMCOR's work is complete.
UMCOR is a good steward of our gifts and grants. Private donors can designate their gifts to our programs with the assurance that100 percent is spent on the programs. The 8.5 million members of the United Methodist Church assure our ability to guarantee this through undesignated giving that underwrites our general administrative expenses. UMCOR manages its public grants with equal care, spending less than 10 percent on administrative costs.
UMCOR avoids tying the promise of its relief and development activity to any religious or political viewpoint.
UMCOR welcomes the good efforts of countless individuals and churches who support us through gifts and prayers and service. We incorporate volunteer action everywhere we can and ask our supporters to accept that sometimes it is not appropriate. We appeal to all volunteers to keep learning as their first objective so that the consequences of their service may become a true benefit.

UPDATE FROM THE FACEBOOK PAGE:

February 24,10

The Eagles Wings Foundation We have been able to do a large scale food distribution yesterday and gave out 27,200 meals. We also moved a 130 child orphanage to a more suitable building (a donated home) including all furniture and supplies. Additional targeted distributions to Orphanages and other needed locations continue. Additionally we are ass...isting in the construction of latrine facilities at some of the tent cities.

WEST PALM BEACH, FL, JANUARY 22, 2010: As part of continuing efforts to assist the people of Haiti, The Eagle's Wings Foundation's (EWF) "Pathfinders Task Force" has been asked by the United Nations World Food Programme (WPF) and the Haitian Government to assist in the distribution of food to the people of Haiti. On the first two days of this mission Eagle's Wings was able to provide over 20,000 meals to earthquake victims by distributing close to 100 metric tons of food in Port-au-Prince. Eagle's Wings accomplished this mission with an 8 person ground task force and by employing Haitian citizens to man the distribution point. By paying Haitian citizens, Eagle's Wings accomplished this goal and further helped this crumbling nation's economy.

The Eagle's Wings "Pathfinders" consists of small teams of volunteers with disaster management, fire-rescue, and military command level experience who help coordinate activities of unaffiliated volunteers and charities in a disaster area.

HAITI UPDATE FROM SCOTT LEWIS – 8:00 am Monday, January 18, 2010

We are working on establishing 10 Points of Distribution (PODs) to distribute food for The World Food Bank. As part of this mission, we have secured twenty 2-ton trucks with drivers, 60 local workers, 80 armed Haitian security guards and a POD manager.

The U.S. Embassy JMAT team has been very helpful to us.

Kings Wings is flying more volunteers and supplies to us on Wednesday. The contents of our plane will determine whether we can land in Port au Prince versus Santo Domingo.

A high priority for us today is to secure a warehouse facility.

A satellite communications team with two trucks, a satellite dish, portable HAM radio antenna, 3 cadaver dogs and 2 dog handlers are waiting to deploy.

New volunteers can assist with food distribution and mapping & tracking, using our 50 geocoded cell phones. We need to determine which roads are passable for food distribution throughout the country.

The humanitarian situation here is desperate.

Our base camp is great. We have a safe place to sleep, hot food, good water, wi fi communications.

All donations will help us with the mission described above. When we have to hire people we are trying to hire locals. They are in desperate need of jobs, food and water. Donations can be made via our website or checks can be mailed to "The Eagles Wings Foundation" and mailed to 375 Possum Pass, West Palm Beach, FL 33413.

Local group heads to Haiti to coordinate relief

January 14, 2010 6:59 PM
Chuck Weber

Call it a relief effort to coordinate the relief effort. Thursday Scott Lewis, owner of a West Palm Beach landscaping business, showed up at North County Airport, west of Jupiter. There Lewis and a group of four others, boarded a plane bound for Haiti.

Lewis founded The Eagles Wings Foundation, an organization that helps governments and charities coordinate disaster relief. The aim of Eagles Wings: making sure donations really reach those in need.

Lewis has been responding to disasters since Hurricane Floyd hit the Bahamas in 1999. The White House even recognized Lewis for his efforts after Hurricane Katrina. Still Lewis acknowledges the situation in Haiti presents an incredible challenge.

"I think it's the worst disaster in the Western Hemisphere, in modern history," remarked Lewis. "There's a lot of tremendous suffering that nobody can imagine. I can't imagine. I've never been in something this bad."

Joining Lewis on the trip is one of his employees, Felix Jean–Baptiste. Just before dawn Thursday, Jean–Baptiste said he finally heard from his children in Haiti. All of them are okay, but two nieces and a nephew lost their lives. And Jean–Baptiste's house in Haiti collapsed.

"They lose everything," said Jean–Baptiste. "Everybody outside. You don't get shower, you don't get food. No water."

And no medical care. Just a glimpse of what lies ahead for Lewis and his group.

The Eagles Wings Foundation is looking for donations, so it can send more volunteers to Haiti to help coordinate relief efforts. If you'd like to help the group, you can call 689–6283, or 313–0226, or contact by email at carol @theeagleswingsfoundation.org.

From the website:

Our Mission is to coordinate recovery services designed to alleviate suffering and stress for the people of Forrest, Lamar, and Perry Counties who have unmet needs due to the occurrence of a disaster. . . currently serving Hurricane Katrina victims.

R3SM identifies unmet needs and resources of individuals through a case assessment survey as a part of the casework management process and meet those needs through collaborative efforts. We support efforts to repair and rebuild homes and lives beginning with the most vulnerable first. In addition we attend to the spiritual and emotional needs of adults and children and provide referrals. We advocate, through referral, for accessible housing, schools, medical resources and employment for all individuals, including those with special needs/disabilities. We serve as coordination point/clearinghouse for recovery funds, resources, and volunteer labor in damage assessment, casework management and rebuilding.

Speciality: Construction related to repair homes damaged by Hurricane Katrina

CAN (Coordinated Assistance Network)

CAN is an unprecedented, multi-organizational partnership among some of the nation's leading nonprofit disaster relief organizations.

Working in tandem with state and local relief agencies CAN is forging a new model of disaster recovery and preparedness for the United States.

That is why seven leading organizations came together to form the Coordinated Assistance Network, or CAN. CAN partners participate in community-led preparedness and response coalitions that focus on ways to best apply resources to most effectively serve those in need.

CAN works within these coalitions to develop innovative solutions that make tangible improvements in the way that relief and recovery services are provided to individuals and communities as a whole.

See Katrina Aid Today, CAN is part of the UMCOR Relief Network for more info...and a website.

Terra's comment: CAN has become the central resource for coordinating survivor case management information. It helps reduce duplicated case management effort, and helps prevent abuse of the recovery system. By having information about which grants a survivor has already recieved from FEMA and large grant orgs like UMCOR, Catholic Charities, Red Cross etc, the case manager can better prioritize cases based on need. It is, however, a private system, that requires special access, to be granted by authorities. Many county and state level disaster managers have chosen to use the systes. Some have not.

About Katrina Aid Today

Katrina Aid Today is a consortium of 10 social service and voluntary organizations, led by UMCOR dedicated to helping survivors navigate the system to recover from this tragic disruption of their lives.

Our specially trained managers will help about 100,000 families identify sources of support, develop personal recovery plans, acquire access to services and take appropriate actions to rebuild their lives.

The consortium organizations have nationwide reach, or access to special groups such as persons with languages other than English, and in–depth experience in the type of assistance being offered by Katrina Aid Today.

Katrina Aid Today is sponsored by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) of the United States Department of Homeland Security using donations from the international community.

Katrina Aid Today is administered by the United Methodist Committee on Relief (UMCOR), the humanitarian development agency of the United Methodist Church, which has provided practical support to disaster survivors throughout the world for the past 65 years. We assist people of all religions.

This program is good through 3/08 in the following states after 10/07:

Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Louisiana, Minnesota, Missouri, Mississippi, New York, Oklahoma, Texas and Washington.

You can still contact a local org/agency even if they are no longer a participating state and they will provide resources and referrals for you.
